to the hills, to the watercourses and to the valleys, Thus saith the Lord Jehovah: Behold, I have spoken in my ^ajealousy and in my wrath, because ye have ^bborne the shame of the nations: 7 therefore thus saith the Lord Jehovah: I have ^csworn, saying, Surely the nations that are round about you, they shall ^dbear their shame.

8 But ^eye, O mountains of Israel, ye shall ^fshoot forth your branches, and yield your fruit to my people Israel; for they are at hand to come. 9 For, behold, I am for you, and I will ^gturn unto you, and ye shall be ^htilled and sown; 10 and I will multiply men upon you, ⁱall the house of Israel, even all of it; and the ^jcities shall be inhabited, and the waste places shall be builded; 11 and I will multiply upon you ^kman and beast; and they shall increase and be fruitful; and I will cause you to be inhabited after your ^lformer estate, and will do ^mbetter unto you than at your beginnings: and ye shall know that I am Jehovah. 12 Yea, I will cause ⁿmen to walk upon you, even my people Israel; and they shall ^opossess thee, and thou shalt be their ^pinheritance, and thou shalt no more henceforth ^qbereave them of children. 13 Thus saith the Lord Jehovah: Because they say unto you, Thou ^rland art a ^sdevourer of men, and hast been a bereaver of thy ^tnation; 14 therefore thou shalt devour men no more, neither ^ubereave thy ^vnation any more, saith the Lord Jehovah; 15 neither will I ^wlet thee hear any more the ^xshame of the nations, neither shalt thou bear the ^yreproach of the peoples any more, neither shalt thou cause thy ^znation to ^{aa}stumble any more, saith the Lord Jehovah.

her impurity. 18 Wherefore I poured out my wrath upon them for the blood which they had poured out upon the land, and because they had defiled it with their idols; 19 and I scattered them among the nations, and they were dispersed through the countries: according to their way and according to their doings I judged them. 20 And when they came unto the nations, whither they went, they profaned my holy name; in that men said of them, These are the people of Jehovah, and are gone forth out of his land. 21 But I had regard for my holy name, which the house of Israel had profaned among the nations, whither they went.

22 Therefore say unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord Jehovah: I do not this for your sake, O house of Israel, but for my holy name, which ye have profaned among the nations, whither ye went. 23 And I will sanctify my great name, which hath been profaned among the nations, which ye have profaned in the midst of them; and the nations shall know that I am Jehovah, saith the Lord Jehovah, when I shall be sanctified in you before their eyes. 24 For I will take you from among the nations, and gather you out of all the countries, and will bring you into your own land. 25 And I will sprinkle clean water upon you, and ye shall be clean: from all your filthiness, and from all your idols, will I cleanse you. 26 A new heart also will I give you, and a new spirit will I put within you; and I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh, and I will give you a heart of flesh. 27 And I will put my Spirit within you, and cause you to walk in my statutes, and ye shall keep mine ordinances, and do them. 28 And ye shall dwell in the land that I gave to your fathers; and ye shall be my people, and I will be your God. 29 And I will save you from all your uncleanness: and I will call for the grain, and will multiply it, and lay no famine upon you. 30 And I will multiply the fruit of the tree, and the increase of the field, that ye may receive no more the reproach of famine among the nations. 31 Then shall ye remember your evil ways, and your doings that were not good; and ye shall loathe yourselves in your own sight for your iniquities and for your abominations.

32 Not for your sake do I this, saith the Lord Jehovah, be it known unto you: be ashamed and confounded for your ways, O house of Israel. 33 Thus saith the Lord Jehovah: In the day that I cleanse you from all your iniquities, I will cause the cities to be inhabited, and the waste places shall be builded. 34 And the land that was desolate shall be tilled, whereas it was a desolation in the sight of all that passed by. 35 And they shall say, This land that was desolate is become like the garden of Eden; and the waste and desolate and ruined cities are fortified and inhabited. 36 Then the nations that are fit round about you shall know that I, Jehovah, have builded the ruined places, and planted that which was desolate: I, Jehovah, have spoken it, and I will do it.

37 Thus saith the Lord Jehovah: For this, moreover, will I be inquired of by the house of Israel, to do it for them: I will increase them with men like a flock. 38 As the flock for sacrifice, as the flock of Jerusalem in her appointed feasts, so shall the waste cities be filled with flocks of men; and they shall know that I am Jehovah.

37 The hand of Jehovah was upon me, and he brought me out in the Spirit of Jehovah, and set me down in the midst of the valley; and it was full of bones. 2 And he caused me to pass by them round about: and, behold, there were very many in the open valley; and, lo, they were very dry. 3 And he said unto me, Son of man, can these bones live? And I answered, O Lord Jehovah, thou knowest.

4 Again he said unto me, "Prophesy over these bones, and say unto them, O ye dry bones, ^bhear the word of Jehovah. 5 Thus saith the Lord Jehovah unto these bones: Behold, I will cause ^{1c}breath to enter into you, and ye shall live. 6 And I will ^alay sinews upon you, and will bring up flesh upon you, and cover you with skin, and put ¹breath in you, and ye shall live; and ye shall ^aknow that I am Jehovah.

7 So I prophesied ^aas I was commanded: and as I prophesied, there was a ²noise, and, behold, an ^aearthquake; and the bones came together, bone to its bone. 8 And I beheld, and, lo, there were sinews upon them, and flesh came up, and skin covered them above; but there was no breath in them. 9 Then said he unto me, Prophesy unto the ^{3a}wind, prophesy, son of man, and say to the ³wind, Thus saith the Lord Jehovah: Come from the four winds, O ¹breath, and breathe upon these slain, that they may ^alive. 10 So I prophesied as he commanded me, and the ^abreath came into them, and they lived, and stood up upon their feet, an ^aexceeding great army.

11 Then he said unto me, Son of man, these bones are the ^mwhole house of Israel: behold, they say, Our ⁿbones are dried up, and our hope is lost; we are clean ^ocut off. 12 Therefore prophesy, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord Jehovah: Behold, I will open your graves, and ^pcause you to come up out of your graves, O my people; and I will bring you into the ^rland of Israel. 13 And ye shall ^rknow that I am Jehovah, when I have ^ropened your graves, and caused you to come up out of your graves, O my people. 14 And I will ^rput my ³Spirit in you, and ye shall live, and I will place you in your own land: and ye shall know that "I, Jehovah, have spoken it and performed it, saith Jehovah.

I have spoken. 9 And they that dwell in the cities of Israel shall ^{ba}go forth, and shall make ^{bb}fires of the weapons and burn them, both the shields and the bucklers, the bows and the arrows, and the handstaves, and the spears, and they shall make fires of them seven years; 10 so that they shall take no wood out of the field, neither cut down any out of the forests; for they shall make fires of the weapons; and they shall ^{bc}plunder those that plundered them, and rob those that robbed them, saith the Lord Jehovah.

11 And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will give unto ^{bd}Gog a place for burial in Israel, the valley of them that pass through ^{be}on the ^{bf}east of the sea; and it shall stop them that pass through: and there shall they bury Gog and all his multitude; and they shall call it The valley of ^{bg}Hamon-gog. 12 And seven months shall the house of Israel be burying them, that they may ^{bh}cleanse the land. 13 Yea, all the people of the land shall bury them; and it shall be to them a ^{bi}renown in the day that I shall be ^{bj}glorified, saith the Lord Jehovah. 14 And they shall set apart men of continual employment, that shall pass through the land, and, with them that pass through, those that ^{bk}bury them that remain upon the face of the land, to ^{bl}cleanse it: after the end of seven months shall they search. 15 And they that pass through the land shall pass through; and when any seeth a man's bone, then shall he ^{bm}set up a sign by it, till the buriers have buried it in the valley of ^{bn}Hamon-gog. 16 And ^{bo}Hamonah shall also be the name of a city. Thus shall they ^{bp}cleanse the land.

17 And thou, son of man, thus saith the Lord Jehovah: Speak unto the ^{bq}birds of every sort, and to every ^{br}beast of the field, Assemble yourselves, and come; gather yourselves on every side to my ^{bs}sacrifice that I do sacrifice for you, even a great sacrifice upon the mountains of Israel, that ye may eat flesh and drink blood. 18 Ye shall eat the ^{bt}flesh of the mighty, and drink the blood of the princes of the earth, of ^arams, of lambs, and of goats, of ^bbullocks, all of them fatlings of ^cBashan. 19 And ye shall eat fat till ye be full, and drink blood till ye be drunken, of my ^asacrifice which I have sacrificed for you. 20 And ye shall be filled at my table with ^chorses and chariots, with mighty men, and with all men of war, saith the Lord Jehovah.

21 And I will set my ^gglory among the nations; and all the nations shall see my judgment that I have executed, and my hand that I have laid upon them. 22 So the house of Israel shall ^gknow that I am Jehovah their God, from that day and forward. 23 And the nations shall know that the house of Israel went into captivity for their ^hiniquity; because they ⁱtrespassed against me, and I ^hhid my face from them: so I gave them into the hand of their adversaries, and they fell all of them by the sword. 24 According to their ⁱuncleanness and according to their transgressions did I unto them; and I ^mhid my face from them.

25 Therefore thus saith the Lord Jehovah: Now will I ⁿbring back the captivity of Jacob, and have mercy upon the whole ^ohouse of Israel; and I will be ^pjealous for my holy name. 26 And they shall ^qbear their shame, and all their trespasses whereby they have trespassed against me, when they shall ^rdwell securely in their land, and ^onone shall make them afraid; 27 when I have ⁱbrought them back from the peoples, and gathered them out of their enemies' lands, and am ^usanctified in them in the sight of many nations. 28 And they shall know that I am Jehovah their God, in that I caused them to go into captivity among the nations, and have ^ggathered them unto their own land; and I will leave none of them any more there; 29 neither will I ^zhide my face any more from them; for I have ^zpoured out my Spirit upon the house of Israel, saith the Lord Jehovah.

was smitten, in the selfsame day, the ^chand of Jehovah was upon me, and he brought me thither. 2 In the ^avisions of God brought he me into the land of Israel, and set me down upon a very ^ahigh mountain, whereon was as it were the ⁱframe of a city ^oon the south. 3 And he brought me thither; and, behold, there was a man, whose appearance was like the appearance of ^hbrass, with a ⁱline of flax in his hand, and a measuring ^kreed; and he stood in the gate. 4 And the man said unto me, ⁱSon of man, ^mbehold with thine eyes, and hear with thine ears, and set thy heart upon all that I shall show thee; for, to the intent that I may show them unto thee, art thou brought hither: ⁿdeclare all that thou seest to the house of Israel.

5 And, behold, a ^owall on the outside of the house round about, and in the man's hand a measuring ^preed six cubits long, of a cubit and a handbreadth each: so he measured the thickness of the building, one reed; and the height, one reed. 6 Then came he unto the gate which looketh toward the ^qeast, and went up the ^rsteps thereof: and he measured the ^sthreshold of the gate, one reed broad; ^tand the other threshold, one reed broad. 7 And every ^ulodge was one reed long, and one reed broad; and the ^vspace between the lodges was five cubits; and the threshold of the gate by the porch of the gate toward the house was one reed. 8 ^wHe measured also the porch of the gate toward the house, one reed. 9 Then measured he the porch of the gate, eight cubits; and the ^xposts thereof, two cubits; and the porch of the gate was toward the house. 10 And the ^ylodges of the gate eastward were three on this side, and three on that side; they three were of one measure: and the posts had one measure on this side and on that side. 11 And he measured the breadth of the opening of the gate, ten cubits; and the length of

17 Then brought he me into the ^gouter court; and, lo, there were ^hchambers and a pavement, made for the court round about: ⁱthirty chambers were upon the pavement. 18 And the pavement was by the ^jside of the gates, answerable unto the length of the gates, even the lower pavement. 19 Then he measured the breadth from the forefront of the ^klower gate unto the forefront of the inner court without, a ^lhundred cubits, both on the east and on the north.

20 And the ^mgate of the outer court whose prospect is toward the north, he measured the length thereof and the breadth thereof. 21 And the ⁿlodges thereof were three on this side and three on that side; and the posts thereof and the ^oarches thereof were after the measure of the first gate: the length thereof was ^pfifty cubits, and the breadth ^qfive and twenty cubits. 22 And the ^rwindows thereof, and the arches thereof, and the ^spalm-trees thereof, were after the measure of the ^tgate whose prospect is toward the east; and they went up unto it by seven ^usteps; and the arches thereof were before them. 23 And there was a gate to the inner court over against the other gate, both on the north and on the east; and he measured from gate to gate a ^vhundred cubits.

24 And he led me toward the south; and, behold, a gate toward the ^asouth: and he measured the ^bposts thereof and the arches thereof according to these measures. 25 And there were ^cwindows in it and in the arches thereof round about, like those windows: the length was ^dfifty cubits, and the breadth five and twenty cubits. 26 And there were seven ^esteps to go up to it, and the arches thereof were before them; and it had ^fpalm-trees, one on this side, and another on that side, upon the posts thereof. 27 And there was a gate to the inner court toward the ^gsouth: and he measured from gate to gate toward the south a ^hhundred cubits.

28 Then he brought me to the inner court by the south gate: and he measured the south gate ⁱaccording to these measures: 29 and the ^jlodges thereof, and the posts thereof, and the ^karches thereof, according to these measures: and there were ^lwindows in it and in the arches thereof round about; it was ^mfifty cubits long, and five and twenty cubits broad. 30 And there were ⁿarches round about, five and twenty cubits long, and five cubits broad. 31 And the arches thereof were toward the outer court; and ^opalm-trees were upon the posts thereof: and the ascent to it had eight ^psteps.

32 And he brought me into the ^qinner court toward the east: and he measured the gate ^raccording to these measures; 33 and the ^slodges thereof, and the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, according to these measures: and there were ^twindows therein and in the arches thereof round about; it was ^ufifty cubits long, and five and twenty cubits broad. 34 And the ^varches thereof were toward the outer court; and ^wpalm-trees were upon the posts thereof, on this side, and on that side: and the ascent to it had eight ^xsteps.

court; and ^apalm trees were upon the posts thereof, on this side, and on that side: and the ascent to it had eight ^bsteps.

38 And a ^cchamber with the door thereof was by the posts at the gates; there they ^dwashed the burnt-offering. 39 And ^ein the porch of the gate were two ^ftables on this side, and two tables on that side, to slay thereon the ^gburnt-offering and the sin-offering and the trespass-offering. 40 And on the ^hone side without, ⁱas one goeth up to the entry of the gate toward the north, were two tables; and on the other side, which belonged to the porch of the gate, were two tables. 41 Four ^jtables were on this side, and four tables on that side, by the side of the gate; eight tables, whereupon they slew the ^ksacrifices. 42 And there were ^lfour tables for the burnt-offering, of ^mhewn stone, a cubit and a half long, and a cubit and a half broad, and one cubit high; whereupon they laid the instruments wherewith they slew the ⁿburnt-offering and the sacrifice. 43 And the ^ohooks, a handbreadth long, were fastened ^pwithin round about; and upon the tables was the flesh of the oblation.

44 And without the ^qinner gate were ^rm chambers for the ^ssingers in the inner court, which was at the side of the north gate; and their prospect was toward the south; one at the side of the east gate having the prospect toward the north. 45 And he said unto me, This ^tm chamber, whose prospect is toward the south, is for the priests, the ^ukeepers of the charge of the house; 46 and the ^vm chamber whose prospect is toward the north is for the priests, the ^wkeepers of the charge of the altar: these are the ^xsons of Zadok, who from among the sons of Levi ^ycome near to Jehovah to minister unto him. 47 And he measured the court, a ^zhundred cubits long, and a hundred cubits broad, foursquare; and the altar was before the house.

48 Then he brought me to the ^aporch of the house, and measured each post of the porch, five cubits on this side, and five cubits on that side: and the breadth of the gate was three cubits on this side, and three cubits on that side. 49 The length of the porch was twenty cubits, and the breadth eleven cubits; ^beven by the ^csteps whereby they went up to it: and there were ^dpillars by the posts, one on this side, and another on that side.

41 And he ^ebrought me to the ^ftemple, and measured the ^gposts, six cubits broad on the one side, and six cubits broad on the other side, which was the breadth of the ^htabernacle. 2 And the breadth of the entrance was ten cubits; and the ⁱsides of the entrance were five cubits on the one side, and five cubits on the other side: and he measured the length thereof, ^jforty cubits, and the breadth, ^ktwenty cubits. 3 Then went he ^linward, and measured each ^mpost of the entrance, two cubits; and the entrance, six cubits; and the breadth of the entrance, seven cubits. 4 And he measured the length thereof, ⁿtwenty cubits, and the breadth, ^otwenty cubits, before the ^ptemple: and he said unto me, This is the ^qmost holy place.

5 Then he measured the wall of the house, six cubits; and the breadth of every ^rside-chamber, four cubits, round about the house on every side. 6 And the side-chambers were in three stories, one over another, and thirty in order; and they ^sentered into the wall which belonged to the house for the side-chambers round about, that they might have hold ^ttherein, and not have hold in the wall of the house. 7 And ^uthe side-chambers were broader as they encompassed the house higher and higher; for the ^vencompassing of the house went higher and higher round about the house: therefore the breadth of the house ^wcontinued upward; and so one went up from the lowest ^xchamber to the highest by the middle ^ychamber. 8 I saw also ^zthat the house had ^{aa}a raised ground unto above the door were ²³cherubim and ²⁴palm-trees made; ²⁵this was the wall of the temple.

21 As for the temple, the door-posts were squared; and as for the face of the sanctuary, the appearance thereof was ²⁶as the appearance of the temple. 22 The altar was of wood, three cubits high, and the length thereof two cubits; and ²⁷the corners thereof, and the length thereof, and the walls thereof, were of wood; and he said unto me, This is the ²⁸table that is before Jehovah. 23 And the temple and the sanctuary had two ²⁹doors. 24 And the doors had two leaves ³⁰apiece, two turning leaves: two leaves for the one door, and two leaves for the other. 25 And there were made on them, on the doors of the temple, ³¹cherubim and ³²palm-trees, like as were made upon the walls; and there was a ³³threshold of wood ³⁴upon the face of the porch without. 26 And there were ³⁵closed windows and ³⁶palm-trees on the one side and on the other side, on the sides of the porch: thus were the ³⁷side-chambers of the house, and the thresholds.

42 Then he ³⁸brought me forth into the ³⁹outer court, the way ⁴⁰toward the north: and he brought me into the ⁴¹chamber that was over against the ⁴²separate place, and which was over against the ⁴³building toward the north. 2 Before the length of a ⁴⁴hundred cubits was the north door, and the breadth was fifty cubits. 3 Over against the ⁴⁵twenty cubits which belonged to the inner court, and over against the ⁴⁶pavement which belonged to the outer court, was ⁴⁷gallery against gallery ⁴⁸in the third story. 4 And before the ⁴⁹chambers was a walk of ten cubits' breadth inward, a way of ⁵⁰one cubit; and their doors were toward the north. 5 Now the upper chambers were shorter; for the ⁵¹galleries took away from these, more than from the lower and the middlemost, in the building. 6 For they were in ⁵²three stories, and they had not pillars as the pillars of the courts; therefore the ⁵³uppermost was straitened more than the lowest and the middlemost from the ground. 7 And the ^{1a} wall that was without by the side of the chambers, toward the outer court before the chambers, the length thereof was fifty cubits. 8 For the length of the chambers that were in the outer court was fifty cubits: and, lo, before the temple were a ^bhundred cubits. 9 And from under these chambers was the ^centry on the east side, as one goeth into them from the outer court.

10 In the thickness of the ^{1d} wall of the court toward the east, before the ^eseparate place, and before the building, there were ^fchambers. 11 And the ^gway before them was like the appearance of the way of the chambers which were toward the north; ²according to their length so was their breadth: and all their egresses were both according to their fashions, and according to their doors. 12 And according to the doors of the chambers that were toward the south was a door at the head of the way, even the way directly before the ^{1h} wall toward the east, as one entereth into them.

13 Then said he unto me, The north chambers and the south chambers, which are before the ⁱseparate place, they are the ^kholy chambers, where the priests that are ^lnear unto Jehovah shall eat the ^mmost holy things: there shall they lay the most holy things, and the meal-offering, and the sin-offering, and the trespass-offering; for the place is holy. 14 When the priests enter in, then shall they not go out of the holy place into the outer court, but there they shall ⁿlay their ^ogarments wherein they minister; for they are holy: and they shall put on other garments, and shall approach to that which pertaineth to the people.

15 Now when he had made an end of measuring the inner house, he brought me forth by the way of the ^pgate whose prospect is toward the east, and measured it round about. 16 He measured on the east ³side with the measuring reed five hundred ^qreeds, with the measuring reed round about. 17 He measured on the north ³side five hundred reeds with the meas-

43 Afterward he brought me to the ⁷gate, even the gate that looketh toward the east. 2 And, behold, the ⁷glory of the God of Israel came from the way of the ⁸east: and his ⁹voice was like the sound of many waters; and the earth ²shined with his glory. 3 And it was according to the appearance of the ^avision which I saw, even according to the vision that I saw when I came to ^bdestroy the city; and the visions were like the vision that I saw by the ^criver Chebar; and I ^dfell upon my face. 4 And the glory of Jehovah came into the house by the way of the gate whose prospect is toward the ^eeast. 5 And the ^fSpirit took me up, and brought me into the inner court; and, behold, the ^gglory of Jehovah filled the house.

Behold, this is the law of the house.

13 And these are the measures of the ^galtar by cubits (the ^hcubit is a cubit and a handbreadth): the ⁱbottom shall be a cubit, and the breadth a cubit, and the border thereof by the edge thereof round about a span; and this shall be the ^jbase of the altar. 14 And from the bottom ^kupon the ground to the lower ^lledge shall be two cubits, and the breadth one cubit; and from the lesser ledge to the greater ledge shall be four cubits, and the breadth a cubit. 15 And the ^mupper altar shall be four cubits; and from the ⁿaltar hearth and upward there shall be four ^ohorns. 16 And the altar hearth shall be twelve cubits long by twelve broad, ^psquare in the four sides thereof. 17 And the ledge shall be fourteen cubits long by fourteen broad in the four sides thereof; and the border about it shall be half a cubit; and the bottom thereof shall be a cubit round about; and the ^qsteps thereof shall ^rlook toward the east.

18 And he said unto me, ^sSon of man, thus saith the Lord Jehovah: These are the ordinances of the altar in the day when they shall make it, to offer ^tburnt-offerings thereon, and to ^usprinkle blood thereon. 19 Thou shalt give to the priests the Levites that are of the seed of ^vZadok, who are ^wnear unto me, to minister unto me, saith the Lord Jehovah, a ^xyoung bullock for a ^ysin-offering. 20 And thou side by side with the oblation of the holy portion: it shall be for the whole house of Israel. 7 And whatsoever is for the ^aprince shall be on the one side and on the other side of the holy oblation and of the possession of the city, in front of the holy oblation and in front of the possession of the city, on the west side westward, and on the east side eastward; and in length answerable unto one of the portions, from the west border unto the east border. 8 ^bIn the land it shall be to him for a possession in Israel: and my princes shall no more ^coppress my people; but they shall give the land to the house of Israel ^daccording to their tribes.

9 Thus saith the Lord Jehovah: ^eLet it suffice you, O princes of Israel: remove ^fviolence and spoil, and ^gexecute justice and righteousness; take away your ^hexactions from my people, saith the Lord Jehovah. 10 Ye shall have ⁱjust balances, and a just ^jephah, and a just ^kbath. 11 The ephah and the bath shall be of one measure, that the bath may contain the tenth part of a ^lhomer, and the ephah the tenth part of a homer: the measure thereof shall be after the homer. 12 And the ^mshekel shall be twenty ⁿgerahs; twenty shekels, five and twenty shekels, fifteen shekels, shall be your maneh.

13 This is the oblation that ye shall offer: the sixth part of an ephah from a homer of wheat; and ye shall give the sixth part of an ephah from a homer of barley; 14 and the set portion of oil, of the bath of oil, the tenth part of a bath out of the cor, which is ten baths, even a homer (for ten baths are a homer); 15 and one lamb of the flock, out of two hundred, from the well-watered pastures of Israel; — for a ^omeal-offering, and for a burnt-offering, and for peace-offerings, to ^pmake atonement for them, saith the Lord Jehovah. 16 ^qAll the people of the land ^rshall give unto this oblation for the ^sprince in Israel. 17 And it shall be the ^tprince's part to give the ^uburnt-offerings, and the meal-offerings, and the drink-offerings, in the ^vfeasts, and on the ^wnew moons, and on the sabbaths, in all the appointed feasts of the house of Israel: he shall prepare the sin-offering, and the meal-offering, and the burnt-offering, and the peace-offerings, to make atonement for the house of Israel.

18 Thus saith the Lord Jehovah: In the first month, in the first day of the month, thou shalt take a young bullock without blemish; and thou shalt cleanse the sanctuary. 19 And the priest shall take of the blood of the sin-offering, and put it upon the door-posts of the house, and upon the four corners of the ledge of the altar, and upon the posts of the gate of the inner court. 20 And so thou shalt do on the tenth day of the month for every one that erreth, and for him that is simple: so shall ye make atonement for the house.

21 In the first month, in the fourteenth day of the month, ye shall have the passover, a feast of seven days; unleavened bread shall be eaten. 22 And upon that day shall the prince prepare for himself and for all the people of the land a bullock for a sin-offering. 23 And the seven days of the feast he shall prepare a burnt-offering to Jehovah, seven bullocks and seven rams without blemish daily the seven days; and a he-goat daily for a sin-offering. 24 And he shall prepare a meal-offering, an ephah for a bullock, and an ephah for a ram, and a hin of oil to an ephah. 25 In the seventh month, in the fifteenth day of the month, in the feast, shall he do the like the seven days; according to the sin-offering, according to the burnt-offering, and according to the meal-offering, and according to the oil.

46 Thus saith the Lord Jehovah: The gate of the inner court that looketh toward the east shall be shut the six working-days; but on the sabbath day it shall be opened, and on the day of the new moon it shall be opened. 2 And the prince shall enter by the way of the porch of the gate without, and shall stand by the post of the gate; and the priests shall prepare his burnt-offering and his peace-offerings, and he shall worship at the threshold of the gate: then he shall go forth; but the gate shall not be shut until the evening. 3 And the people of the land shall worship at the door of that gate before Jehovah on the sabbaths and on the new moons. 4 And the burnt-offering that the prince shall offer unto Jehovah shall be on the sabbath day six lambs without blemish and a ram without blemish; 5 and the meal-offering shall be an ephah for the ram, and the meal-offering for the lambs as he is able to give, and a hin of oil to an ephah.

6 And on the day of the new moon it shall be a young bullock without blemish, and six lambs, and a ram; they shall be without blemish: 7 and he shall prepare a meal-offering, an ephah for the bullock, and an ephah for the ram, and for the lambs according as he is able, and a hin of oil to an ephah. 8 And when the prince shall enter, he shall go in by the way of the porch of the gate, and he shall go forth by the way thereof.

9 But when the people of the land shall come before Jehovah in the appointed feasts, he that entereth by the way of the north gate to worship shall go forth by the way of the south gate; and he that entereth by the way of the south gate shall go forth by the way of the north gate: he shall not return by the way of the gate whereby he came in, but shall go forth straight before him. 10 And the prince, when they go in, shall go in in the midst of them; and when they go forth, they shall go forth together. 11 And in the feasts and in the solemnities the meal-offering shall be an ephah for a bullock, and an ephah for a ram, and for the lambs as he is able to give, and a hin of oil to an ephah.

12 And when the prince shall prepare a freewill-offering, a burnt-offering or peace-offerings as a freewill-offering unto Jehovah, one shall open for him the gate that looketh toward the east; and he shall prepare his burnt-offering and his peace-offerings, as he doth on the sabbath day: then he shall go forth; and after his going forth one shall shut the gate.

13 And thou shalt prepare a lamb a year old without blemish for a burnt-offering unto Jehovah

daily: ^a morning by morning shalt thou prepare it. 14 And thou shalt prepare a meal-offering with it morning by morning, the ^b sixth part of an ephah, and the third part of a hin of oil, to ¹ moisten the fine flour; a meal-offering unto Jehovah continually by a perpetual ordinance. 15 Thus shall they prepare the lamb, and the meal-offering, and the oil, morning by morning, for a ^c continual burnt-offering.

16 Thus saith the Lord Jehovah: If the prince give a ^a gift unto any of his sons, it is his inheritance, it shall belong to his sons; it is their possession by inheritance. 17 But if he give of his inheritance a gift to one of his servants, it shall be his to the ^c year of liberty; then it shall return to the prince; but as for his inheritance, it shall be for his sons. 18 Moreover the prince shall ¹ not take of the people's inheritance, to ² thrust them out of their possession; he shall give inheritance to his sons out of his own possession, that my people be not ^b scattered every man from his possession.

19 Then he brought me through the ¹ entry, which was at the side of the gate, into the ^a holy chambers for the priests, which looked toward the north: and, behold, there was a place on the hinder part westward. 20 And he said unto me, This is the place where the priests shall boil the ¹ trespass-offering and the sin-offering, and where they shall ^m bake the meal-offering; that they bring them not forth into the outer court, to ⁿ sanctify the people. 21 Then he brought me forth into the outer court, and caused me to pass by the four corners of the court; and, behold, in every corner of the court there was a court. 22 In the four corners of the court there were courts ³ inclosed, forty cubits long and thirty broad: these four in the corners were of one measure. 23 And there was a ⁴ wall round about in them, round about the four, and boiling-places were made under the ⁵ walls round about. 24 Then said he unto me, These are the boiling-houses, where the ^o ministers of the house shall ^p boil the sacrifice of the people.

3 When the ^w man went forth eastward with the line in his hand, he measured a thousand cubits, and he caused me to pass through the waters, waters that were to the ankles. 4 Again he measured a thousand, and caused me to pass through the waters, waters that were to the knees. Again he measured a thousand, and caused me to pass through the waters, waters that were to the loins. 5 Afterward he measured a thousand; and it was a river that I could not pass through; for the waters were risen, waters to swim in, a ^x river that could not be passed through.

6 And he said unto me, ^y Son of man, hast thou ^z seen this? Then he brought me, and caused me to return to the bank of the river. 7 Now when I had returned, behold, upon the bank of the river were very many ^a trees on the one side and on the other. 8 Then said he unto me, These waters issue forth toward the eastern region, and shall go down into the ^b Arabah; and they shall go toward the sea; into the ^c sea shall the waters go which were made to issue forth; and the waters shall be healed. 9 And it shall come to pass, that every living creature which swarmeth, in every place whither the ^d rivers come, shall live; and there shall be a very great multitude of fish; for these waters are come thither, ^e and the waters of the sea shall be healed, and ^f everything shall live whithersoever the river cometh. 10 And it shall come to pass, that ^g fishers shall stand by it: from ^h En-gedi even unto En-eglaïm shall be a place for the ⁱ spreading of nets; their fish shall be after their kinds, as the fish of the "great sea, ^bexceeding many. 11 But the miry places thereof, and the marshes thereof, shall not be healed; they shall be ¹given up to "salt. 12 And ^aby the river upon the bank thereof, on this side and on that side, shall grow every "tree for food, whose "leaf shall not wither, neither shall the fruit thereof fail: it shall bring forth ²new fruit every month, because the waters thereof issue out of the sanctuary; and the fruit thereof shall be for food, and the "leaf thereof for healing.

13 Thus saith the Lord Jehovah: This shall be the ^aborder, whereby ye shall divide the land for inheritance according to the twelve tribes of Israel: Joseph shall have two "portions. 14 And ye shall inherit it, one as well as another; for I ³sware to give it unto your fathers: and this land shall fall unto you for inheritance.

15 And this shall be the border of the land: On the "north side, from the ^mgreat sea, by the way of "Hethlon, unto the entrance of "Zedad; 16 "Hamath, Berothah, Sibram, which is between the border of "Damascus and the border of Hamath; ⁴Hazer-hatticon, which is by the border of "Hauran. 17 And the border from the sea, shall be "Hazer-enon at the border of "Damascus; and on the north northward is the border of "Hamath. This is the north side. 18 And the "east side, between "Hauran and "Damascus and "Gilead and the land of Israel, shall be the "Jordan; from the north border, unto the east sea shall ye measure. This is the south side southward. 20 And the "west side shall be the "great sea, from the south border as far as over against the ^aentrance of "Hamath. This is the west side.

13 And answerable unto the ^c border of the priests, the Levites shall have five and twenty thousand in length, and ten thousand in breadth: all the length shall be five and twenty thousand, and the breadth ten thousand. 14 And they shall ^d sell none of it, nor exchange it, nor shall the ^e first-fruits of the land be alienated; for it is holy unto Jehovah.

15 And the five thousand that are left in the breadth, in front of the five and twenty thousand, shall be for ^f common use, for the city, for dwelling and for ^g suburbs; and the city shall be in the midst thereof. 16 And these shall be the measures thereof: the north side ^h four thousand and five hundred, and the south side four thousand and five hundred, and on the east side four thousand and five hundred, and the west side four thousand and five hundred. 17 And the city shall have ⁱ suburbs: toward the north two hundred and fifty, and toward the south two hundred and fifty, and toward the east two hundred and fifty, and toward the west two hundred and fifty. 18 And the residue in the length, answerable unto the holy ^j oblation, shall be ten thousand eastward, and ten thousand westward; and it shall be answerable unto the holy oblation; and the increase thereof shall be for food unto them that labor in the city. 19 And they that labor in the city, out of ^k all the tribes of Israel, shall till it. 20 All the oblation shall be five and twenty thousand by five and twenty thousand: ye shall offer the holy oblation ^l four-square, with the possession of the city.

21 And the ^m residue shall be for the prince, on the one side and on the other of the holy oblation and of the possession of the city; in front of the five and twenty thousand of the oblation toward the east border, and westward in front of the five and twenty thousand toward the west border, answerable unto the portions, it shall be for the prince: and the holy ⁿ oblation and the ^o sanctuary of the house shall be in the midst thereof. 22 Moreover from the possession of the Levites, and from the possession of the city, being in the midst of that which is the prince's, between the border of Judah and the border of Benjamin, it shall be for the prince.

23 And as for the ^p rest of the tribes: From the east side unto the west side, ^q Benjamin, one portion. 24 And by the border of Benjamin, from the east side unto the west side, ^r Simeon, one portion. 25 And by the border of Simeon, from the east side unto the west side, ^s Issachar, one portion. 26 And by the border of Issachar, from the east side unto the west side, ^t Zebulun, one portion. 27 And by the border of Zebulun, from the east side unto the west side, ^u Gad, one portion. 28 And by the border of Gad, at the south side southward, the border shall be even from ^v Tamar unto the waters of ^w Meribath-kadesh, to the ^x brook of Egypt, unto the ^y great sea. 29 This is the ^z land which ye shall divide by lot unto the tribes of Israel for inheritance, and these are their several portions, saith the Lord Jehovah.

30 And these are the ^a egresses of the city: On the ^b north side four thousand and five hundred reeds by measure; 31 and the gates of the city shall be after the ^c names of the tribes of Israel, three gates northward: the gate of Reuben, one; the gate of Judah, one; the gate of Levi, one. 32 And at the east side four thousand and five hundred reeds, and three gates: even the gate of Joseph, one; the gate of Benjamin, one; the gate of Dan, one. 33 And at the south side four thousand and five hundred reeds by measure, and three gates: the gate of Simeon, one; the gate of Issachar, one; the gate of Zebulun, one. 34 At the west side four thousand and five hundred reeds, with their three gates: the gate of Gad, one; the gate of Asher, one; the gate of Naphtali, one. 35 It shall be eighteen thousand reeds round about: and the ^d name of the city from that day shall be, ^e Jehovah is there.

THE BOOK OF DANIEL

Daniel and his Three Friends refuse to take the King's Food. They excel in Body and in Spirit

1 In the third year of the reign of ^aJehoiakim king of Judah came ^bNebuchadnezzar king of Babylon unto Jerusalem, and besieged it. 2 And the ^cLord gave Jehoiakim king of Judah into his hand, with part of the ^avessels of the house of God; and he carried them into the land of ^eShinar to the house of his god: and he brought the vessels into the treasure-house of his ^fgod. 3 And the king spake unto Ashpenaz the ^gmaster of his eunuchs, that he should bring in certain of the children of Israel, even of the ^hseed royal and of the nobles; 4 youths in whom was ⁱno blemish, but well-favored, and ^kskilful in all wisdom, and endued with knowledge, and understanding science, and such as had ^lability to stand in the king's palace; and that he should teach them the ^mlearning and the ⁿtongue of the ^oChaldeans. 5 And the king appointed for them a daily portion of the ^pking's dainties, and of the wine which he drank, and that they should be nourished ^qthree years; that at the end thereof they should ^rstand before the king. 6 Now among these were, of the children of Judah, ^sDaniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah. 7 And the ^tprince of the eunuchs gave names unto them: unto Daniel he gave the name of ^uBelteshazzar; and to Hananiah, of ^vShadrach; and to Mishael, of ^wMeshach; and to Azariah, of ^xAbed-nego.

8 But Daniel purposed in his heart that he would not ^ydefile himself with the ^zking's dainties, nor with the ^{aa}wine which he drank: therefore he requested of the prince of the eunuchs that he might not defile himself. 9 Now God made Daniel to find ^{ab}kindness and compassion in the sight of the prince of the eunuchs.

10 And the ^bprince of the eunuchs said unto Daniel, I fear my lord the king, who hath appointed your food and your drink: for why should he see your faces worse looking than the youths that are of your own age? so would ye endanger my head with the king. 11 Then said Daniel to ¹the steward whom the prince of the eunuchs had appointed over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah: 12 Prove thy servants, I beseech thee, ten days; and let them give us ^{2c}pulse to eat, and water to drink. 13 Then let our countenances be looked upon before thee, and the countenance of the youths that eat of the king's dainties; and as thou seest, deal with thy servants.

14 So he hearkened unto them in this matter, and proved them ten days. 15 And at the end of ten days their countenances appeared ^afairer, and they were fatter in flesh, than all the youths that did eat of the king's dainties. 16 So ¹the steward took away their dainties, and the wine that they should drink, and ^egave them pulse.

17 Now as for these four youths, ^fGod gave them knowledge and skill in all learning and wisdom: and Daniel had understanding in all ^gvisions and dreams. 18 And at the end of the ^hdays which the king had ³appointed for bringing them in, the ⁱprince of the eunuchs brought them in before Nebuchadnezzar. 19 And the king communed with them; and among them all was found none like ^kDaniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah: therefore ¹stood they before the king. 20 And in every

matter of wisdom and understanding, concerning which the king inquired of them, he found them ¹⁰ten times better than all the magicians and enchanters that were in all his realm. 21 And Daniel continued even unto the first year of king Cyrus.

2 And in the second year of the reign of Nebuchadnezzar, Nebuchadnezzar dreamed dreams; and his spirit was troubled, and his sleep went from him. 2 Then the king commanded to call the magicians, and the enchanters, and the sorcerers, and the Chaldeans, to tell the king his dreams. So they came in and stood before the king. 3 And the king said unto them, I have dreamed a dream, and my spirit is troubled to know the dream. 4 Then spake the Chaldeans to the king in the Syrian language, ^{2m}O king, live for ever: tell thy servants the dream, and we will show the interpretation. 5 The king answered and said to the Chaldeans, ³The thing is gone from me: if ye make not known unto me the dream and the interpretation thereof, ye shall be cut in pieces, and your houses shall be made a dunghill. 6 But if ye show the dream and the interpretation thereof, ye shall receive of me gifts and rewards and great honor: therefore show me the dream and the interpretation thereof. 7 They answered the second time and said, Let the king tell his servants the dream, and we will show the interpretation. 8 The king answered and said, I know of a certainty that ye would gain time, because ye see the thing is gone from me. 9 But if ye make not known unto me the dream, there is but one law for you; for ye have prepared lying and corrupt words to speak before me, till the time be changed: therefore tell me the dream, and I shall know that ye can show me the interpretation thereof. 10 The Chaldeans answered before the king, and said, There is not a man upon the earth that can show the king's matter, forasmuch as no king, lord, or ruler, hath asked such a thing of any magician, or enchanter, or Chaldean. 11 And it is a rare thing that the king requireth, and there is no other that can show it before the king, except the gods, whose dwelling is not with flesh. 12 For this cause the king was angry and very furious, and commanded to destroy all the wise men of Babylon. 13 So the decree went forth, and the wise men were to be slain; and they sought Daniel and his companions to be slain.

14 Then Daniel returned answer with counsel and prudence to Arioch the captain of the king's guard, who was gone forth to slay the wise men of Babylon; 15 he answered and said to Arioch the king's captain, Wherefore is the decree so urgent from the king? Then Arioch made the thing known to Daniel. 16 And Daniel went in, and desired of the king that he would appoint him a time, and he would show the king the interpretation.

17 Then Daniel went to his house, and made the thing known to Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, his companions: 18 that they would desire mercies of the God of heaven concerning this secret; that Daniel and his companions should not perish with the rest of the wise men of Babylon. 19 Then was the secret revealed unto Daniel in a vision of the night. Then Daniel blessed the God of heaven. 20 Daniel answered and said, Blessed be the name of God for ever and ever; for wisdom and might are his. 21 And he changeth the times and the seasons; he removeth kings, and setteth up kings; he giveth wisdom unto the wise, and knowledge to them that have understanding; 22 he revealeth the deep and secret things; he knoweth what is in the darkness, and the light dwelleth with him. 23 I thank thee, and praise thee, O thou God of my fathers, who hast given me wisdom and might, and hast now made known unto me what we desired of thee; for thou hast made known unto us the king's matter. 24 Therefore

Daniel makes known the King's Dream. He interprets the Dream

Daniel went in unto ^aArioch, whom the king had appointed to destroy the wise men of Babylon; he went and said thus unto him: ^bDestroy not the wise men of Babylon; bring me in before the king, and I will show unto the king the interpretation.

25 Then Arioch ^cbrought in Daniel before the king in haste, and said thus unto him, I have found a man of the ^dchildren of the captivity of Judah, that will make known unto the king the interpretation. 26 The king answered and said to Daniel, whose name was ^eBelteshazzar, Art thou able to make known unto me the ^fdream which I have seen, and the interpretation thereof? 27 Daniel answered before the king, and said, The secret which the king hath demanded can neither ^gwise men, enchanters, magicians, nor soothsayers, show unto the king; 28 but there is a ^hGod in heaven that revealeth secrets, and he hath made known to the king Nebuchadnezzar what shall be in the ⁱlatter days. Thy dream, and the ^jvisions of thy head upon thy bed, are these: 29 as for thee, O king, thy thoughts came into thy mind upon thy bed, what should come to pass hereafter; and he that ^krevealeth secrets hath made known to thee what shall come to pass. 30 But as for me, this secret is not revealed to me for any ^lwisdom that I have more than any living, but to the intent that the interpretation may be ^mmade known to the king, and that thou mayest know the ⁿthoughts of thy heart.

31 Thou, O king, sawest, and, behold, a great image. This image, which was mighty, and whose brightness was excellent, stood before thee; and the aspect thereof was ^oterrible. 32 As for this image, its ^phead was of fine gold, its ^qbreast and its arms of silver, its belly and its thighs of brass, 33 its ^rlegs of iron, its ^sfeet part of iron, and part of clay. 34 Thou sawest till that a ^tstone was cut out ^uwithout hands, which smote the image upon its feet that were of iron and clay, and ^vbrake them in pieces. 35 Then was the iron, the clay, the brass, the silver, and the gold, broken in pieces together, and became ^wlike the chaff of the summer threshing-floors: and the wind carried them away, so that ^cno place was found for them: and the stone that smote the image became a great ^dmountain, and filled the whole earth.

36 This is the dream; and we will tell the ^einterpretation thereof before the king. 37 Thou, O king, art ^fking of kings, unto whom the ^gGod of heaven hath given the kingdom, the ^hpower, and the strength, and the glory; 38 and whosoever the children of men dwell, the ⁱbeasts of the field and the birds of the heavens hath he given into thy hand, and hath made thee to rule over them all: thou art the ^jhead of gold. 39 And after thee shall arise ^kanother kingdom inferior to thee; and another third kingdom of brass, which shall bear rule over all the earth. 40 And the ^lfourth kingdom shall be strong as iron, forasmuch as iron breaketh in pieces and subdueth all things; and as iron that crusheth all these, shall it break in pieces and crush. 41 And whereas thou sawest the ^mfeet and toes, part of potters' clay, and part of iron, it shall be a divided kingdom; but there shall be in it of the strength of the iron, forasmuch as thou sawest the iron mixed with ⁿmiry clay. 42 And as the toes of the feet were part of iron, and part of clay, so the kingdom shall be partly strong, and partly ^obroken. 43 And whereas thou sawest the iron mixed with ^pmiry clay, they shall mingle themselves ^qwith the seed of men; but they shall not cleave one to another, even as iron doth not mingle with clay. 44 And in the days of those kings shall the ^rGod of heaven ^sset up a ^tkingdom which shall never be destroyed, nor shall the sovereignty thereof be left to another people; but it shall ^ubreak in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it shall stand for ever. 45 Forasmuch as thou sawest that a ^vstone was cut out of the mountain ^wwithout hands, and that it brake in pieces the iron, the brass, the clay, the silver, and the gold; the ^xgreat God hath made known to the king what ^yshall come to pass hereafter: and the dream is certain, and the interpretation thereof sure.

Daniel is promoted by the King. Nebuchadnezzar's Golden Image. Daniel's Three Friends refuse to worship it

nezzar ^afell upon his face, and ^bworshipped Daniel, and commanded that they should offer an oblation and ^csweet odors unto him. 47 The king answered unto Daniel, and said, Of a truth ^ayour God is the ^aGod of gods, and the Lord of kings, and a ^arevealer of secrets, seeing thou hast been able to reveal this secret. 48 Then the king ^amade Daniel great, and gave him many great gifts, and made him to rule over the whole ^aprovince of Babylon, and to be ^achief governor over all the ^awise men of Babylon. 49 And Daniel requested of the king, and he ^aappointed ^mShadrach, ^mMeshach, and ^mAbed-nego, over the affairs of the province of Babylon: but Daniel was ¹in the ^agate of the king.

3 Nebuchadnezzar the king made an ^aimage of gold, whose height was threescore cubits, and the breadth thereof six cubits: he set it up in the plain of Dura, in the ^aprovince of Babylon. 2 Then Nebuchadnezzar the king sent to gather together the ^asatraps, the deputies, and the governors, the ^ajudges, the treasurers, the counsellors, the ^asheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, to come to the dedication of the image which Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up. 3 Then the satraps, the deputies, and the governors, the ^ajudges, the treasurers, the counsellors, the ^asheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, were gathered together unto the dedication of the image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up; and they stood before the image that Nebuchadnezzar had set up. 4 Then the herald cried ^aaloud, To you it is commanded, ^aO peoples, nations, and languages, 5 that at what time ye ^ahear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, ^adulcimer, and all kinds of music, ye ^afall down and worship the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king hath set up; 6 and whoso falleth not down and worshippeth shall the same hour be ^acast into the midst of a burning ^afiery furnace. 7 Therefore at that time, when all the peoples ^aheard the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and all kinds of music, all the ^apeoples, the nations, and the languages, fell down and worshipped the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up.

8 Wherefore at that time certain ^aChaldeans came near, and ^bbrought accusation against the Jews. 9 They answered and said to Nebuchadnezzar the king, ^aO king, live for ever. 10 Thou, O king, hast ^amade a decree, that every man that shall hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and dulcimer, and all kinds of music, shall ^afall down and worship the golden image; 11 and whoso falleth not down and worshippeth, shall be cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace. 12 There are certain Jews whom thou hast ^aappointed over the affairs of the province of Babylon: ^aShadrach, ^aMeshach, and ^aAbed-nego; these men, O king, have ^anot regarded thee: they serve not thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou hast set up.

13 Then Nebuchadnezzar in ^ahis rage and fury commanded to bring Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego. Then they brought these men before the king. 14 Nebuchadnezzar answered and said unto them, Is it of purpose, O Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, that ye serve not ^amy god, nor worship the golden image which I have set up? 15 Now if ye be ready that at what time ye ^ahear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and dulcimer, and all kinds of music, ye fall down and worship the image which I have made, ^awell: but if ye worship not, ye shall be cast the same hour into the midst of a burning ^afiery furnace; and ^awho is that god that shall deliver you out of my hands? 16 ^aShadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego answered and said to the king, O Nebuchadnezzar, ^awe have no need to answer thee in this matter. 17 ^aIf it be so, our ^aGod whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace; and he will deliver us out of thy hand, O king. 18 ^aBut if not, be it known unto thee, O king, that we will not serve thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou hast set up.

19 Then was Nebuchadnezzar full of ^ofury, and the form of his ^bvisage was changed against ^cShadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego: ^dtherefore he spake, and commanded that they should heat the furnace ^eseven times more than it was wont to be heated. 20 And he commanded certain mighty men that were in his army to ^fbind ^cShadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, ^gand to ^hcast them into the burning fiery furnace. 21 Then these men were bound in their ⁱhosen, their ^jtunics, and their mantles, and their ^kother garments, and were cast into the midst of the burning fiery furnace. 22 Therefore because the king's commandment was ^lurgent, and the furnace exceeding hot, the flame of the fire slew those men that took up ^cShadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego. 23 And these three men, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, fell down ^mbound unto the midst of the burning fiery furnace.

24 Then Nebuchadnezzar the king was ⁿastounded, and rose up in haste: he spake and said unto his counsellors, Did not we cast three men bound into the midst of the fire? They answered and said unto the king, True, O king. 25 He answered and said, Lo, I see four men loose, ^owalking in the midst of the fire, and they have no hurt; and the aspect of the fourth is like a son of the ^pgods. 26 Then Nebuchadnezzar came near to the ^qmouth of the burning fiery furnace: he spake and said, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, ye servants of the ^rMost High God, come forth, and come hither. Then Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego ^scame forth out of the midst of the fire. 27 And the ^tsatrap, the deputies, and the governors, and the king's counsellors, being gathered together, saw these men, that the ^ufire had no power upon their bodies, nor was the hair of their head singed, neither were their ^vhosen changed, nor had the smell of fire passed on them.

Nebuchadnezzar's Dream of the Tree. Daniel interprets it. It is fulfilled

I have seen, and the interpretation thereof. 10 Thus were the ^avisions of my head upon my bed: I saw, and, behold, a ^btree in the midst of the earth; and the height thereof was great. 11 The tree grew, and was strong, and the height thereof ^creached unto heaven, and the sight thereof to the end of all the earth. 12 The leaves thereof were ^dfair, and the fruit thereof much, and in it was food for all: the ^ebeasts of the field had ^fshadow under it, and the ^gbirds of the heavens dwelt in the branches thereof, and all flesh was fed from it. 13 I saw in the ^hvisions of my head upon my bed, and, behold, a ⁱwatcher and a ^kholy one came down from heaven. 14 He cried ^laloud, and said thus, ^mHew down the tree, and cut off its branches, shake off its leaves, and scatter its fruit: let the ⁿbeasts get away from under it, and the fowls from its branches. 15 Nevertheless ^oleave the stump of its roots in the earth, even with a band of iron and brass, in the tender grass of the field; and let it be wet with the dew of heaven: and let his portion be with the ^pbeasts in the grass of the earth: 16 let his heart be ^qchanged from man's, and let a beast's heart be given unto him; and let ^rseven times ^spass over him. 17 The sentence is by the decree of the ^twatchers, and the ^udemand by the word of the holy ones; to the intent that the living may ^vknow that the ^wMost High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and ^xgiveth it to whomsoever he will, and setteth up over it the ^ylowest of men. 18 This dream I, king Nebuchadnezzar, have seen; and thou, O Belteshazzar, declare the interpretation, forasmuch as all the ^zwise men of my kingdom are not able to make known unto me the interpretation; but thou art able; for the ^{aa}spirit of the holy gods is in thee.

19 Then Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, was stricken dumb for a while, and his ^bthoughts troubled him. The king answered and said, Belteshazzar, ^clet not the dream, or the interpretation, trouble thee. 34 And at the ^gend of the days I, Nebuchadnezzar, lifted up mine eyes unto heaven, and mine ^hunderstanding returned unto me, and I blessed the ⁱMost High, and I praised and honored him that ^kliveth for ever; for his dominion is an ^leverlasting dominion, and his kingdom from generation to generation; 35 and ^mall the inhabitants of the earth are reputed as nothing; and ⁿhe doeth according to his will in the army of heaven, and among the inhabitants of the earth; and ^onone can ^pstay his hand, or say unto him, ^qWhat dost thou? 36 At the same time mine ^runderstanding returned unto me; and for the glory of my kingdom, my ^smajesty and ^tbrightness returned unto me; and my counsellors and my lords sought unto me; and I was ^uestablished in my kingdom, and excellent ^vgreatness was added unto me. 37 Now I, Nebuchadnezzar, ^wpraise and extol and honor the King of ^xheaven; for ^yall his works are truth, and his ways justice; and those that ^zwalk in pride he is able to abase.

and his lords, his wives and his concubines, might ^adrink therefrom. 3 Then they brought the golden vessels that were taken out of the temple of the house of God which was at Jerusalem; and the king and his lords, his wives and his concubines, drank from them. 4 They ^bdrank wine, and praised the gods of ^cgold, and of silver, of brass, of iron, of wood, and of stone.

5 In the ^dsame hour came forth the fingers of a man's hand, and wrote over against the candlestick upon the plaster of the wall of the king's palace: and the king saw the ^epart of the hand that wrote. 6 Then the king's ^fcountenance was changed in him, and his ^gthoughts troubled him; and the joints of his ^hloins were loosed, and his ⁱknees smote one against another. 7 The king cried aloud to bring in the ^jenchanters, the Chaldeans, and the soothsayers. The king spake and said to the wise men of Babylon, Whosoever shall read this writing, and show me the ^kinterpretation thereof, shall be ^lclothed with purple, and have a ^mchain of gold about his neck, and shall be the ⁿthird ruler in the kingdom. 8 Then came in all the king's wise men; but they ^ocould not read the writing, nor make known to the king the interpretation. 9 Then was king Belshazzar greatly ^ptroubled, and his ^qcountenance was changed in him, and his lords were perplexed.

10 Now the queen by reason of the words of the king and his lords came into the banquet house: the queen spake and said, ^rO king, live for ever; let not thy ^sthoughts trouble thee, nor let thy countenance be changed. 11 There is a ^tman in thy kingdom, in whom is the ^uspirit of the holy gods; and in the days of thy father light and ^vunderstanding and wisdom, like the wisdom of the gods, were found in him; and the king Nebuchadnezzar thy father, ^wthe king, I say, thy father, made him ^xmaster of the magicians, enchanters, Chaldeans, and soothsayers; 12 forasmuch as an ^yexcellent spirit, and knowledge, and understanding, interpreting of dreams, and showing of dark sentences, and "dissolving of doubts, were found in the same Daniel, whom the king named ^bBelteshazzar. Now let Daniel be called, and he will show the interpretation.

13 Then was Daniel brought in before the king. The king spake and said unto Daniel, Art thou that Daniel, who art of the ^cchildren of the captivity of Judah, whom the king my father ^dbrought out of Judah? 14 I have heard of thee, that the ^espirit of the gods is in thee, and that light and understanding and excellent wisdom are found in thee. 15 And now the ^fwisemen, the enchanters, have been brought in before me, that they should read this writing, and make known unto me the interpretation thereof; but they ^gcould not show the interpretation of the thing. 16 But I have ^hheard of thee, that thou canst give interpretations, and dissolve doubts: now if thou canst read the writing, and make known to me the ⁱinterpretation thereof, thou shalt be ^kclothed with purple, and have a chain of gold about thy neck, and shalt be the third ruler in the kingdom.

17 Then Daniel answered and said before the king, Let thy ^jgifts be to thyself, and give thy rewards to another; nevertheless I will read the writing unto the king, and make known to him the interpretation. 18 O thou king, the ^mMost High God ⁿgave Nebuchadnezzar thy father the kingdom, and ^ogreatness, and glory, and majesty: 19 and because of the greatness that he gave him, all the peoples, nations, and languages trembled and feared before him: ^pwhom he would he slew, and whom he would he kept alive; and whom he would he raised up, and whom he would he put down. 20 But when his heart was ^qlifted up, and his spirit was ^rhardened so that he dealt proudly, he was ^sdeposed from his kingly throne, and they took his glory from him: 21 and he was ^tdriven from the sons of men, and his ^uheart was made like the beasts', and his dwelling was with the ^vwild asses; he was ^wfed with grass like oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven; until he knew that the ^xMost High God ruleth in the

25 And this is the writing that was inscribed: ¹MENE, MENE, TEKEL, UPHARSIN. 26 This is the interpretation of the thing: MENE; God hath numbered thy kingdom, and ^kbrought it to an end. 27 TEKEL; thou art ^lweighed in the balances, and art found wanting. 28 ^mPERES; thy kingdom is divided, and given to the ⁿMedes and Persians.

29 Then commanded Belshazzar, and they clothed Daniel with ^opurple, and put a chain of gold about his neck, and made proclamation concerning him, that he should be the third ruler in the kingdom.

30 In that night ^pBelshazzar the Chaldean king was ^qslain. ^r31 And ^sDarius the Mede received the kingdom, being about three-score and two years old.

6 It pleased ^tDarius to set over the kingdom a ^uhundred and twenty ^vsatraps, who should be throughout the whole kingdom; 2 and over them three presidents, of whom ^wDaniel was one; that these satraps might give account unto them, and that the king should have ^xno damage. 3 Then this Daniel was ^ydistinguished above the presidents and the satraps, because an ^zexcellent spirit was in him; and the king thought to set him over the ^awhole realm.

4 Then the presidents and the satraps ^bsought to find occasion

against Daniel as touching the kingdom; but they could find ^ano occasion nor fault, forasmuch as he was ^bfaithful, neither was there any error or fault found in him. 5 Then said these men, We shall not find any occasion against this Daniel, except we find it against him concerning the ^claw of his God. 6 Then these presidents and satraps ^dassembled together to the king, and said thus unto him, King Darius, ^elive for ever. 7 All the ^fpresidents of the kingdom, the deputies and the satraps, the counsellors and the governors, have ^gconsulted together ^hto establish a royal statute, and to make a strong interdict, that whosoever shall ask a petition of any god or man for thirty days, save of thee, O king, he shall be ⁱcast into the den of lions. 8 Now, O king, ^jestablish the interdict, and sign the writing, that it be not changed, according to the ^klaw of the Medes and Persians, which ^laltereth not. 9 Wherefore king Darius ^msigned the writing and the interdict.

10 And when Daniel knew that the writing was signed, he went into his house (now his windows were open in his chamber ⁿtoward Jerusalem); and he ^okneeled upon his knees three times a day, and ^pprayed, and ^qgave thanks before his God, as he did aforetime. 11 Then these men ^rassembled together, and found Daniel making petition and supplication before his God. 12 Then they came near, and ^sspake before the king concerning the king's interdict: Hast thou not signed an interdict, that every man that shall make petition unto any god or man within thirty days, save unto thee, O king, shall be cast into the den of lions? The king answered and said, The thing is true, according to the ^tlaw of the Medes and Persians, which ^ualtereth not. 13 Then answered they and said before the king, That Daniel, who is of the ^vchildren of the captivity of Judah, ^wregardeth not thee, O king, nor the ^xinterdict that thou hast signed, but ^ymaketh his petition three times a day. 14 Then the king, when he heard these words, was sore ^zdispleased, and set his heart on Daniel to deliver him; and he labored till the going down of the sun to rescue him. 15 Then these men assembled together unto the king, and said unto the king, Know, O king, that it is a ^alaw of the Medes and Persians, that no interdict nor statute which the king establisheth may be changed.

16 Then the king commanded, and they brought Daniel, and ^bcast him into the den of lions. Now the king spake and said unto Daniel, ^cThy God whom thou servest continually, he will deliver thee. 17 And a ^dstone was brought, and laid upon the mouth of the den; and the king sealed it with his own signet, and with the signet of his lords; ^ethat nothing might be changed concerning Daniel. 18 Then the king went to his palace, and passed the night ^ffasting; neither were ^ginstruments of music brought before him: and his ^hsleep fled from him.

19 Then the king arose very early in the morning, and went in haste unto the den of lions. 20 And when he came near unto the den to Daniel, he cried with a lamentable voice; the king spake and said to Daniel, O Daniel, servant of the ⁱliving God, is ^jthy God, whom thou servest continually, ^kable to deliver thee from the lions? 21 Then said Daniel unto the king, ^lO king, live for ever. 22 My God hath ^msent his angel, and hath ⁿshut the lions' mouths, and they have not hurt me; forasmuch as before him ^oinnocency was found in me; and also before thee, O king, have I ^pdone no hurt. 23 Then was the king ^qexceeding glad, and commanded that they should take Daniel up out of the den. So Daniel was taken up out of the den, and ^rno manner of hurt was found upon him, because he had ^strusted in his God.

24 And the king commanded, and they brought those men that had accused Daniel, and they ^tcast them into the den of lions, them, their ^uchildren, and their wives; and the lions ^vhad the mastery of them, and ^wbrake all their bones

25 Then king Darius wrote unto all the ^a peoples, nations, and languages, that dwell in all the earth:

^b Peace be multiplied unto you.

26 I ^c make a decree, that in all the dominion of my kingdom men ^d tremble and fear before the God of Daniel; for he is the ^e living God, and ^f stedfast for ever, and his kingdom that which shall ^g not be destroyed; and his dominion shall be even ^h unto the end. 27 He ⁱ delivereth and rescueth, and he worketh ^k signs and wonders in heaven and in earth, who hath delivered Daniel from the power of the lions.

28 So this Daniel prospered in the reign of Darius, and in the reign of ^l Cyrus the Persian.

7 In the ^m first year of ⁿ Belshazzar king of Babylon Daniel ^o had a ^p dream and ^q visions of his head upon his bed: then he ^r wrote the dream and told the sum of the matters. 2 Daniel spake and said, I saw in my ^s vision by night, and, behold, the ^t four winds of heaven brake forth upon the great sea. 3 And ^u four great ^v beasts came up from the sea, diverse one from another. 4 The ^w first was like a lion, and had eagle's wings: I beheld till the wings thereof were plucked, and it was lifted up from the earth, and made to stand upon two feet as a man; and a man's heart was given to it. 5 And, behold, ^x another beast, a second, like to a bear; and ^y it was raised up on one side, and three ribs were in its mouth between its teeth: and they said thus unto it, Arise, devour much flesh. 6 After this I beheld, and, lo, ^z another, like a leopard, which had upon its back four wings of a bird; the beast had also four heads; and dominion was given to it. 7 After this I saw in the ^{aa} night-visions, and, behold, a ^{ab} fourth beast, terrible and ^{ac} powerful, and strong exceedingly; and it had great iron teeth; it devoured and brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with its feet: and it was diverse from all the beasts that were before it; and it had ^{ad} ten horns. 8 I considered the horns, and, behold, there came dom, and possess the kingdom for ever, even for ever and ever. 19 Then I desired to know the truth concerning the ^afourth beast, which was diverse from all of them, exceeding terrible, whose teeth were of iron, and its nails of brass; and stamped the residue with its feet; 20 and concerning the ten horns that were on its head, and the other horn which came up, and before which three fell, even that horn that had eyes, and a mouth that spake great things, whose look was more stout than its fellows. 21 I beheld, and the same horn ^bmade war with the saints, and prevailed against them; 22 until the ^cancient of days came, and ^djudgment was given ¹to the ^esaints of the Most High, and the time came that the saints possessed the kingdom.

23 Thus he said, The ^ffourth beast shall be a fourth kingdom upon earth, which shall be diverse from all the kingdoms, and shall devour the whole earth, and shall ²tread it down, and break it in pieces. 24 And as for the ³ten horns, out of this kingdom shall ten kings arise: and another shall arise after them; and he shall be diverse from the former, and he shall put down three kings. 25 And he shall ⁴speak words against the ⁵Most High, and shall ⁶wear out the saints of the Most High; and he shall think to ⁷change the times and the law; and they shall be given into his hand until a ⁸time and times and half a time. 26 But the ⁹judgment shall be set, and they shall ¹⁰take away his dominion, to consume and to destroy it unto the end. 27 And the ¹¹kingdom and the dominion, and the greatness of the kingdoms under the whole heaven, shall be given to the people of the ¹²saints of the Most High: his kingdom is an ¹³everlasting kingdom, and all dominions shall ¹⁴serve and obey him. 28 ¹⁵Here is the end of the matter. As for me, Daniel, my thoughts much ¹⁶troubled me, and my ¹⁷countenance was changed in me: but I ¹⁸kept the matter in my heart.

vision appeared unto me, even unto ¹me, Daniel, after that which appeared unto me at the first. 2 And I ²saw in the vision; now it was so, that when I saw, I was in ³Shushan the ⁴palace, which is in the province of ⁵Elam; and I saw in the vision, and I was by the river ⁶Ulai. 3 Then I ⁷lifted up mine eyes, and saw, and, behold, there stood before the river a ⁸ram which had two horns: and the two horns were high; but one was higher than the other, and the higher came up last. 4 I saw the ram ⁹pushing westward, and northward, and southward; and no beasts could stand before him, neither was there any that ¹⁰could deliver out of his hand; but he did according to his will, and magnified himself.

5 And as I was considering, behold, a ¹¹he-goat came from the west over the face of the whole earth, and ¹²touched not the ground: and the goat had a ¹³notable horn between his eyes. 6 And he came to the ¹⁴ram that had the two horns, which I saw standing before the river, and ran upon him in the fury of his power. 7 And I saw him come close unto the ram, and he was ¹⁵moved with anger against him, and smote the ram, and brake his two horns; and there was no power in the ram to stand before him; but he ¹⁶cast him down to the ground, and trampled upon him; and there was none that could deliver the ram out of his hand. 8 And the he-goat magnified himself exceedingly: and ¹⁷when he was strong, the ¹⁸great horn was broken; and instead of it there came up four notable horns toward the ¹⁹four winds of heaven.

9 And out of one of them came forth a ²⁰little horn, which waxed exceeding great, toward the south, and toward the east, and toward the ²¹glorious land. 10 And it waxed great, even to the host of heaven; and some of the host and of the ²²stars it cast down to the ground, and ²³trampled upon them. 11 Yea, it ²⁴magnified itself, even to the prince of the host; and ²⁵it took away from him the ²⁶continual burnt-offering, and the place of his sanctuary was cast down. 12 And ¹the host was given over to it together with the continual burnt-offering through transgression; and it ²cast down truth to the ground, and it did its pleasure and prospered. 13 Then I heard a ³holy one speaking; and another holy one said unto that certain one who spake, ⁴How long shall be the vision concerning the continual burnt-offering, and the transgression that maketh desolate, to give both the sanctuary and the host to be ⁵trodden under foot? 14 And he said unto me, Unto ⁶two thousand and three hundred evenings and ⁷mornings; then shall the sanctuary be ⁸cleansed.

15 And it came to pass, when I, even ⁹I Daniel, had seen the vision, that I sought ¹⁰to understand it; and, behold, there stood before me as the appearance of a ¹¹man. 16 And I heard a man's voice between the banks of the ¹²Ulai, which called, and said, ¹³Gabriel, make this man to understand the vision. 17 So he came near where I stood; and when he came, I was affrighted, and ¹⁴fell upon my face: but he said unto me, Understand, O son of man; for the vision belongeth to the ¹⁵time of the end. 18 Now as he was speaking with me, I ¹⁶fell into a deep sleep with my face toward the ground; but he ¹⁷touched me, and set me ¹⁸upright. 19 And he said, Behold, I will ¹⁹make thee know what shall be in the latter time of the indignation; for it belongeth to the appointed time of the end. 20 The ²⁰ram which thou sawest, that had the two horns, they are the kings of Media and Persia. 21 And the rough ²¹he-goat is the ²²king of ²³Greece; and the great horn that is between his eyes is the first king. 22 And as for ²⁴that which was broken, in the place whereof four stood up, four kingdoms shall stand up out of the nation, but not with his power. 23 And in the latter time of their kingdom, when the transgressors are come to the full, a ²⁵king of fierce countenance, and understanding dark sentences, shall stand up. 24 And his power shall be mighty, but not ²⁶by his own

9 In the first year of ¹Darius the son of Ahasuerus, of the seed of the Medes, who was made king over the realm of the Chaldeans, 2 in the first year of his reign I, Daniel, understood by the books the number of the years whereof the word of Jehovah came ³to ⁴Jeremiah the prophet, for the accomplishing of the desolations of Jerusalem, even ⁵seventy years.

3 And I set my face unto the ⁶Lord God, ⁷to seek by prayer and supplications, with fasting and sackcloth and ashes. 4 And I prayed unto Jehovah my God, and made confession, and said, Oh, Lord, the ⁸great and dreadful God, who ⁹keepeth covenant and loving-kindness with them that love him and keep his commandments, 5 we have ¹⁰sinned, and have dealt perversely, and have done wickedly, and have ¹¹rebelled, even ¹²turning aside from thy precepts and from thine ordinances; 6 neither have we ¹³hearkened unto thy servants the prophets, that spake in thy name to our ¹⁴kings, our princes, and our fathers, and to all the people of the land. 7 O Lord, ¹⁵righteousness belongeth unto thee, but unto us ¹⁶confusion of face, as at this day; to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and unto all Israel, that are near, and that are far off, through all the ¹⁷countries whither thou hast driven them, because of their trespass that they have transgressed against thee. 8 O Lord, to us belongeth confusion of face, to our kings, to our princes, and to our fathers, because we have sinned against thee. 9 To the Lord our God belong mercies and forgiveness; ¹for we have rebelled against him; 10 neither have we obeyed the voice of Jehovah our God, to walk in his laws, which he set before us by his servants the prophets. 11 Yea, ²all Israel have transgressed thy law, even turning aside, that they should not obey thy voice: therefore hath the curse been poured out upon us, and the oath that is written in the law of Moses the servant of God; for we have sinned against him. 12 And he hath confirmed his words, which he spake against us, and against our judges that judged us, by bringing upon us a great evil; for under the whole heaven hath not been done as hath been done upon Jerusalem. 13 As it is written in the law of Moses, all this evil is come upon us: yet have we not entreated the favor of Jehovah our God, that we should turn from our iniquities, and have discernment in thy truth. 14 Therefore hath Jehovah watched over the evil, and brought it upon us; for Jehovah our God is righteous in all his works which he doeth, and we have not obeyed his voice. 15 And now, O Lord our God, that hast brought thy people forth out of the land of Egypt with a mighty hand, and hast gotten thee renown, as at this day; we have sinned, we have done wickedly. 16 O Lord, according to all thy righteousness, let thine anger and thy wrath, I pray thee, be turned away from thy city Jerusalem, thy holy mountain; because for our sins, and for the iniquities of our fathers, Jerusalem and thy people are become a reproach to all that are round about us. 17 Now therefore, O our God, hearken unto the prayer of thy servant, and to his supplications, and cause thy face to shine upon thy sanctuary that is desolate, for the Lord's sake. 18 O my God, incline thine ear, and hear; open thine eyes, and behold our desolations, and the city which is called by thy name:

20 And while I was speaking, and praying, and confessing my sin and the sin of my people Israel, and presenting my supplication before Jehovah my God for the holy mountain of my God; 21 yea, while I was speaking in prayer, the man Gabriel, whom I had seen in the vision at the beginning, being caused to fly swiftly, touched me about the time of the evening oblation. 22 And he instructed me, and talked with me, and said, O Daniel, I am now come forth to give thee wisdom and understanding. 23 At the beginning of thy supplications the commandment went forth, and I am come to tell thee; for thou art greatly beloved: therefore consider the matter, and understand the vision.

24 Seventy weeks are decreed upon thy people and upon thy holy city, to finish transgression, and to make an end of sins, and to make reconciliation for iniquity, and to bring in everlasting righteousness, and to seal up vision and prophecy, and to anoint the most holy. 25 Know therefore and discern, that from the going forth of the commandment to restore and to build Jerusalem unto the anointed one, the prince, shall be seven weeks, and threescore and two weeks: it shall be built again, with street and moat, even in troublous times. 26 And after the threescore and two weeks shall the anointed one be cut off, and shall have nothing; and the people of the prince that shall

10 In the third year of ¹Cyrus king of Persia a thing was revealed unto Daniel, whose name was called ²Belteshazzar; and the thing was ^btrue, even a great warfare: and he understood the thing, and had understanding of the vision. 2 In those days I, Daniel, was ^amourning three whole weeks. 3 I ate ¹no pleasant bread, neither came flesh nor wine into my mouth, neither did I anoint myself at all, till three whole weeks were fulfilled. 4 And in the four and twentieth day of the first month, as I was by the side of the great ^mriver, which is ^{3a}Hiddekel, 5 I lifted up mine eyes, and looked, and, behold, a man ^eclothed in linen, whose loins were ²girded with pure ^agold of Uphaz: 6 his body also was like the ⁷beryl, and his ^aface as the appearance of lightning, and his ^eeyes as flaming torches, and his arms and his feet like unto ^aburnished brass, and the voice of his words like the ^avoice of a multitude. 7 And I, Daniel, ^aalone saw the vision; for the ^amen that were with me saw not the vision; but a great ^aquaking fell upon them, and they fled to hide themselves. 8 So I was ^aleft alone, and saw this great vision, and there ^bremained no strength in me; for my comeliness was turned in me into corruption, and I ^cretained no strength. 9 Yet heard I the voice of his words; and when I heard the voice of his words, then was I ^afallen into a deep sleep on my face, with my face toward the ground.

11 And he said unto me, O Daniel, thou man ^agreatly beloved, ^aunderstand the words that I speak unto thee, and ^bstand upright; for unto thee am I now sent. And when he had spoken this word unto me, I stood ^atrembling. 12 Then said he unto me, ^aFear not, Daniel; for from the first day that thou didst ^aset thy heart to understand, and to ^mhumble thyself before thy God, thy words were heard: and I am come ^afor thy words' sake. 13 But the ^aprince of the kingdom of Persia withstood me one and twenty days; but, lo, ^aMichael, one of the chief princes, came to help me: and I ^aremained there with the kings of Persia. 14 Now I am come to make thee ^aunderstand what shall befall thy people in the ^alatter days; for the vision is yet for ^amany days. 15 And when he had spoken unto me according to these words, I set my face toward the ground, and was ^adumb. 16 And, behold, one in the ^alikeness of the sons of men ^atouched my lips: then I opened my mouth, and spake and said unto him that stood before me, O my lord, by reason of the vision my ^asorrows are turned upon me, and I retain no strength. 17 For ^ahow can the servant of this my lord talk with this my lord? for as for me, straightway there remained ^ano strength in me, neither was there breath left in me.

18 Then there touched me again one like the ^aappearance of a man, and he ^bstrengthened me. 19 And he said, O man ^agreatly beloved, ^afear not; peace be unto thee, be ^astrong, yea, be strong. And when he spake unto me, I was strengthened, and said, Let my lord speak; for thou hast ^astrengthened me. 20 Then said he, Knowest thou wherefore I am come unto thee? and now will I return to fight with the ^aprince of Persia: and when I go forth, lo, the ^aprince of ^aGreece shall come. 21 But I will ^atell thee that which is inscribed in the writing of ^atruth: and there is none that ^aholdeth with me ^aagainst these,

1 And as for me, in the ^bfirst year of Darius the Mede, I stood up to confirm and ^cstrengthen him.

2 And now will I show thee the ^atruth. Behold, there shall stand up yet three kings in Persia; and the fourth shall be far richer than they all: and when he is waxed strong through his riches, ¹he shall stir up all against the realm of ²Greece. 3 And a ³mighty king shall stand up, that shall rule with great dominion, and ⁴do according to his will. 4 And when he shall stand up, his kingdom shall be broken, and shall be divided ⁵to-ward the ⁶four winds of heaven, but not to his posterity, nor according to his dominion wherewith he ruled; for his kingdom shall be ⁷plucked up, even for others besides these.

5 And the ¹king of the south ²shall be strong, and one of his princes; and he shall be strong above him, and have dominion; his dominion shall be a great dominion.
6 And at the ³end of years
they shall join themselves together; and the daughter of the king of the south shall come to the ⁴king of the north to make ⁵an agreement: but she shall not retain the strength of her arm; neither shall he stand, nor his arm; but she shall be given up, and they that brought her, and he that begat her, and he that strengthened her in those times.

7 But out of a shoot from her roots shall one stand up in his ¹place, who shall come ²unto the army, and shall enter into the ³fortress of the king of the north, and shall deal against them, and shall prevail. 8 And also their ⁴gods, with their ⁵molten images, and with their goodly vessels of silver and of gold, shall he carry captive into Egypt; and he shall ⁶refrain some years from the king of the north. 9 And he shall come into the realm of the king of the south, but he shall return into his much substance. 14 And in those times there shall many stand up to establish the vision; but they shall fall. 15 So the king of the north shall come, and cast up a perform them: and he shall give him the daughter of women, ²⁷to corrupt her; but ²⁸she shall not stand, neither be for him. 18 After this shall he turn his face unto the a ³⁰prince shall cause the reproach offered by him to cease; yea, more-

12 And at that time shall ¹Michael stand up, the great prince who standeth for the children of thy people; and there shall be a time of trouble, ⁹such as never was since there was a nation even to that same time: and at that time thy people shall be delivered, every one that shall be found written in the ^abook. 2 And ¹many of them that sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, ^ksome to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting ³contempt. 3 And ⁴they that are ¹wise shall ^mshine as the brightness of the firmament; and they that ⁿturn many to righteousness as the stars for ever and ever. 4 But thou, O Daniel, ^oshut up the words, and ^pseal the book, even to the ^qtime of the end: ^rmany shall run to and fro, and knowledge shall be increased.

THE BOOK OF HOSEA

Hosea's Wife and Children of Whoredom. Restoration of Israel and Judah. Their Unfaithfulness condemned

1 The word of Jehovah that came unto ^aHosea the son of Beeri, in the days of ^bUzziah, ^cJotham, ^dAhaz, and ^eHezekiah, kings of Judah, and in the days of ^fJeroboam the son of Joash, king of Israel.

2 When Jehovah spake at the first ¹by Hosea, Jehovah said unto Hosea, ²Go, take unto thee a ³wife of whoredom and children of whoredom; for the land doth ⁴commit great whoredom, departing from Jehovah. 3 So he went and took Gomer the daughter of Diblaim; and she conceived, and ⁵bare him a son. 4 And Jehovah said unto him, Call his name ⁶Jezreel; for yet a little while, and I will ⁷avenge the ⁸blood of Jezreel upon the house of Jehu, and will cause the kingdom of the house of Israel to cease. 5 And it shall come to pass at that day, that I will ⁹break the bow of Israel in the ¹⁰valley of Jezreel. 6 And she conceived again, and ¹¹bare a daughter. And Jehovah said unto him, Call her name ¹²Lo-ruhamah; for I will ¹³no more have mercy upon the house of Israel, that I should in any wise pardon them. 7 But I will have ¹⁴mercy upon the house of Judah, and will ¹⁵save them by Jehovah their God, and will not save them by ¹⁶bow, nor by sword, nor by battle, by horses, nor by horsemen. 8 Now when she had weaned Lo-ruhamah, she conceived, and ¹⁷bare a son. 9 And Jehovah said, Call his name ¹⁸Lo-ammi; for ye are not my people, and I will not be ¹⁹your God.

10 Yet the number of the children of Israel shall be as the ²⁰sand of the sea, which cannot be measured nor numbered; and ²¹it shall come to pass that, ²²in the place where it was said unto them,

Ye are ^anot my people, it shall be said unto them, Ye are the ^bsons of the living God. 11 And the children of Judah and the children of Israel shall be ^cgathered together, and they shall appoint themselves ^done head, and shall go up from the land; for great shall be the day of ^eJezreel.

2 ¹Say ye unto your brethren, ²^fAmmi; and to your sisters, ³^gRuhamah.

2 Contend with your mother, ⁴contend; for she is ⁵not my wife, neither am I her husband; and let her put away her ⁶whoredoms from her face, and her adulteries from between her breasts; 3 lest I strip her ⁷naked, and set her as in the day that she was born, and ⁸make her as a wilderness, and set her like a dry land, and slay her with ⁹thirst. 4 Yea, upon her ¹⁰children will I have no mercy; for they are children of whoredom; 5 for their mother hath ¹¹played the harlot; she that conceived them hath done shamefully; for she said, ¹²I will go after my lovers, that ¹³give me my bread and my water, my wool and my flax, mine oil and my ¹⁴drink. 6 Therefore, behold, I will ¹⁵hedge up thy way with ¹⁶thorns, and I will build a wall against her, that she shall not find her ¹⁷paths. 7 And she shall ¹⁸follow after her lovers, but she shall not overtake them; and she shall seek them, but shall not find them: then shall she say, I will go and return to my ¹⁹first husband; for then was it ²⁰better with me than now.

8 For she did ²¹not know that ²²I

sound an alarm at ^aBeth-aven; ^{1b}behind thee, O Benjamin. 9 Ephraim shall become a ^cdesolation in the ^dday of rebuke; among the tribes of Israel have I made known that which ^eshall surely be. 10 The princes of Judah are like them that ^fremove the landmark: I will ^gpour out my wrath upon them ^hlike water. 11 ⁱEphraim is oppressed, he is crushed in judgment; because he was content to walk after ^jman's command. 12 ^kTherefore am I unto Ephraim as a ^lmoth, and to the house of Judah as rottenness. 13 When Ephraim saw his sickness, and Judah ^msaw his wound, then went Ephraim to ⁿAssyria, and sent to ^oking Jareb: but he is ^pnot able to heal you, neither will he cure you of your wound. 14 For I will be unto Ephraim ^qas a lion, and as a young lion to the house of Judah: ^rI, even I, will tear and go away; I will carry off, and there shall be ^snone to deliver. 15 I will go and return to my place, till they ^tacknowledge their offence, and seek my face: in their affliction they will ^useek me ^vearnestly.

^d Adam have ^etransgressed the covenant: there have they ^fdealt treacherously against me. 8 ^gGilead is a city of them that work iniquity; it is stained with ^hblood. 9 ⁱAnd as ^jtroops of robbers wait for a man, so the company of priests ^kmurder in the way toward Shechem; yea, they have committed ^llewdness. 10 In the house of Israel I have seen a ^mhorrible thing: there ⁿwhoredom is ^ofound in Ephraim, Israel is deiled. 11 Also, O Judah, there is a ^pharvest appointed for thee, when I ^qbring back the captivity of my people.

7 When I ^rwould heal Israel, then is the iniquity of Ephraim uncovered, and the wickedness of Samaria; for they commit ^sfalsehood, and the thief entereth in, and the ^ttroop of robbers ^uravageth without. 2 And they consider not in their hearts that I ^vremember all their wickedness: now have their ^wown doings beset them about; they are before my face. 3 They make the ^xking glad with their wickedness, and the princes with their ^ylies. 4 They are ^zall adulterers; they are as an oven heated by the baker; he ceaseth to stir ^{aa}the fire, from the kneading of the dough, until it be leavened. 5 On the day of our ^{ab}king the princes ^{ac}made ^{ad}themselves sick with the heat of wine; he stretched out his hand with ^{ae}scoffers. 6 For they have ^{af}made ready their heart like an oven, while they lie in wait: their baker sleepeth all the night; in the morning it burneth as a flaming fire. 7 They are all hot as an ^{ag}oven, and devour their ^{ah}judges; all their ^{ai}kings are fallen: there is none among them that ^{aj}calleth unto me.

8 ^{ak}Ephraim, he mixeth himself among the peoples; Ephraim is a cake not turned. 9 ^{al}Strangers have devoured his strength, and he ^{am}knoweth it not: yea, gray hairs are ^{an}here and there upon him, and he knoweth it not. 10 And the ^{ao}pride of Israel doth testify to his face: yet they have *not returned unto Jehovah their God, nor sought him, for all this. 11 And Ephraim is like a silly dove, ^bwithout ¹understanding: they call unto ^cEgypt, they go to ^dAssyria. 12 When they shall go, I will ^espread my net upon them; I will bring them down as the birds of the heavens; I will chastise them, ^fas their congregation hath heard. 13 ^gWoe unto them! for they have ^hwandered from me; destruction unto them! for they have trespassed against me: though I ⁱhould redeem them, yet they have spoken lies against me. 14 And they have not ^jcried unto me with their heart, but they howl upon their beds: they ^kassemble themselves for grain and new wine; they ^lrebel against me. 15 Though I have ^mtaught and strengthened their arms, yet do they ⁿdevise mischief against me. 16 They return, but not to him that is on high; they are ^olike a deceitful bow; their ^pprinces shall fall by the sword for the ^qrage of their tongue: this shall be their ^rderision in the land of ^sEgypt.

tents. 7 The days of ^avisitation are come, the days of ^brecompense are come; Israel shall know it: the prophet is a ^cfool, the man that hath the spirit is ^dmad, for the abundance of thine ^einiquity, and because the enmity is great. 8 Ephraim ¹was a watchman with my God: as for the prophet, a ^ffowler's snare is in all his ways, and enmity in the house of his God. 9 They have ^gdeeply corrupted themselves, as in the days of ^hGibeah: he will ⁱremember their iniquity, he will visit their sins.

10 I found Israel like ^kgrapes in the wilderness; I saw your fathers as the ^lfirst-ripe in the fig-tree at its first season: but they came to ^mBaal-peor, and ⁿconsecrated themselves unto the ^oshameful thing, and became ^pabominable like that which they loved. 11 As for Ephraim, their glory shall ^qfly away like a bird: there shall be ^rno birth, and none with child, and no conception. 12 Though they ^sbring up their children, yet will I bereave them, so that not a man shall be left: yea, ^twoe also to them when I depart from them! 13 Ephraim, ^ulike as I have seen ^vTyre, is planted in a pleasant place: but Ephraim shall bring out his children to the slayer. 14 Give them, O Jehovah — what wilt thou give? give them a ^wmiscarrying womb and dry breasts. 15 All their wickedness is in ^xGilgal; for there I hated them: because of the ^ywickedness of their doings I will drive them out of my house; I will love them no more; all their princes are ^zrevoltors. 16 ^{aa}Ephraim is smitten, their root is dried up, they shall bear ^{ab}no fruit: yea, though they ^{ac}bring forth, yet will I slay the ^{ad}beloved fruit of their womb. 17 My God will cast them away, because they did ^{ae}not hearken unto him; and they shall be ^{af}wanderers among the nations.

10 Israel is a luxuriant ^{ag}'vine, that putteth forth his fruit: according to the abundance of his fruit he hath ^{ah}multiplied his altars; according to the ^{ai}goodness of their land they have made goodly ^{aj}pillars. 2 ^{ak}Their heart is ^{al}divided;

have ^aplowed wickedness, ye have reaped iniquity; ye have eaten the fruit of ^blies; for thou didst trust in thy way, in the ^cmultitude of thy mighty men. 14 Therefore shall a tumult arise ^damong thy ^epeople, and all thy ^ffortresses shall be destroyed, as Shalman destroyed Beth-arbel in the day of battle: the ^gmother was dashed in pieces with her children. 15 ^hSo shall ⁱBeth-el do unto you because of your great wickedness: at day-break shall the ^jking of Israel be utterly cut off.

11 When Israel was a child, then I loved him, and ^kcalled my son ^lout of Egypt. 2 The more the ^mprophets called them, the more they went from them: they ⁿsacrificed unto the Baalim, and ^oburned incense to graven images. 3 Yet I ^ptaught Ephraim to walk; ^qI ^rtook them on my arms; but they knew not that I ^shealed them. 4 I ^tdrew them with cords of a man, with bands of love; and I was to them as they that lift up the yoke on their jaws; and I ^ulaid food before them.

shall come trembling as a bird out of ^{ca}Egypt, and as a ^{cb}dove out of the land of ^{cc}Assyria; and I will make them to ^{cd}dwell in their houses, saith Jehovah.

*12 Ephraim compasseth me about with ^{ce}falsehood, and the house of Israel with deceit; ^{cf}but Judah yet ruleth with God, and is faithful with the Holy One.

12 I Ephraim feedeth on ^{cg}wind, and followeth after the ^{ch}east wind: he continually ^{ci}multiplieth lies and desolation; and they make a covenant with ^{cj}Assyria, and oil is carried into ^{ck}Egypt. 2 Jehovah hath also a ^{cl}controversy with Judah, and will ^{cm}punish Jacob ^{cn}according to his ways; according to his doings will he recompense him. 3 In the womb he ^{co}took his brother by the heel; and in his ^{cp}manhood he ^{cq}had ^{cr}power with God: 4 yea, he had power over the angel, and prevailed; he wept, and ^{cs}made supplication unto him: he found him at ^{ct}Beth-el, and there he spake with us, ^{cu}5 ^{cv}even Jehovah, the God of hosts; Jehovah is his ^{cw}memorial name. 6 Therefore ^{cx}turn thou to thy God: keep ^{cy}kindness and justice, and ^{cz}wait for thy God continually.

7 ^{da}He is ^{db}15 a ^{dc}trafficker, the ^{dd}balances of deceit are in his hand: he loveth to ^{de}oppress. 8 And Ephraim said, Surely I am become ^{df}rich, I have found me wealth: in all my labors they shall find in me ^{dg}no iniquity that were sin. 9 But I am Jehovah thy God from the land of ^{dh}Egypt; I will yet again make thee to ^{di}dwell in tents, as in the days of the solemn feast. 10 I have also spoken unto the ^{dj}prophets, and I have multiplied visions; and ^{dk}17 by the ministry of the prophets have I used ^{dl}similitudes. 11 Is ^{dm}Gilead iniquity? they are altogether false; in ^{dn}Gilgal they sacrifice bullocks; yea, ^{do}their altars ^{dp}18 are as heaps in the furrows of the field. 12 And ^{dq}Jacob fled into the field of Aram, and ^{dr}Israel served for a wife, and for a wife he kept sheep. 13 And by a prophet Jehovah brought Israel up out of Egypt, and by a prophet was he ¹preserved. 14 ^bEphraim hath provoked to anger most bitterly: therefore shall his ^cblood be left upon him, and his ^dreproach shall his Lord return unto him.

13 ^aWhen Ephraim ²spake, there was trembling; he ³exalted himself in Israel; but when he ⁴offended in ⁵Baal, he died. 2 And now they sin more and more, and have made them ^amolten images of their silver, even idols according to their own ^aunderstanding, all of them the ^awork of the craftsmen: they say of them, Let ⁴the men that sacrifice kiss the ¹calves. 3 Therefore they shall be as the ^mmorning cloud, and as the dew that passeth early away, as the ⁿchaff that is driven with the whirlwind out of the threshing-floor, and as the ^osmoke out of the chimney.

4 Yet I am ^pJehovah thy God from the land of Egypt; and thou ^qshalt know ^rno god but me, and ^sbesides me there is no saviour. 5 I did ^tknow thee in the wilderness, in the land of great drought. 6 According to their pasture, so were they ^ufilled; they were filled, and their ^vheart was exalted: therefore have they ^wforgotten me. 7 Therefore am I unto them as a ^xlion; as a ^yleopard will I watch by the way; 8 I will meet them as a bear that is bereaved of her whelps, and will rend the caul of her heart; and there will I ^zdevour them like a lioness; the wild beast shall tear them.

9 ^aIt is thy destruction, O Israel, that thou art ^bagainst me, against thy ^chelp. 10 Where now is thy ^dking, that he may save thee in all thy cities? and thy ^ejudges, of whom thou saidst, Give me a king and princes? 11 I have ^fgiven thee a king in mine anger, and have ^gtaken him away in my wrath. 12 The iniquity of Ephraim is bound up; his sin is ^hlaid up in store. 13 The sorrows of a ⁱtravailing woman shall come upon him: he is an ^junwise son; ^kfor

THE BOOK OF JOEL

A Devastation of the Land by Locusts. Terribleness of the Visitation

1 The "word of Jehovah that came to ^bJoel the son of Pethuel.

2 ^cHear this, ye ^aold men, and give ear, all ye inhabitants of the land. Hath this been in "your days, or in the days of your fathers? 3 ^dTell ye your children of it, and let your children tell their children, and their children another generation. 4 That which ^ethe "palmer-worm hath left hath ^fthe locust eaten; and that which the locust hath left hath ^gthe "canker-worm eaten; and that which the canker-worm hath left hath ^hthe "caterpillar eaten.

5 Awake, ye ⁱdrunkards, and weep; and wail, all ye drinkers of wine, because of the sweet wine; for it is "cut off from your mouth. 6 For a ^j"nation is come up upon my land, strong, and without number; his teeth are the teeth of a lion, and he hath the jaw-teeth of a lioness. 7 He hath ^k"laid my vine waste, and ^l"barked my fig-tree: he hath made it clean bare, and cast it ^maway; the branches thereof are made white.

8 Lament like a virgin ⁿ"girded with sackcloth for the husband of her youth. 9 The ^o"meal-offering and the drink-offering are cut off from the house of Jehovah; the ^p"priests, Jehovah's ministers, mourn. 10 The field is "laid waste, the land mourneth; for the grain is destroyed, the "new wine is "dried up, the oil languisheth. 11 ^q"Be "confounded, O ye husbandmen, wail, O ye vinedressers, for the wheat and for the barley; for the "harvest of the field is perished. 12 The "vine is "withered, and the fig-tree languisheth; the ^r"pomegranate-tree, the ^s"palm-tree also, and the ^capple-tree, even all the trees of the field are withered: for "joy is "withered away from the sons of men.

13 ^dBird yourselves with sackcloth, and lament, ye "priests; ^ewail, ye ministers of the altar; come, ^flie all night in sackcloth, ye ministers of my God: for the meal-offering and the drink-offering are withholden from the house of your God. 14 ^gSanctify a fast, call a solemn assembly, gather the ^hold men and all the inhabitants of the land unto the house of Jehovah your God, and ⁱcry unto Jehovah.

18 How do the ^rbeasts groan! the herds of cattle are perplexed, because they have no pasture; yea, the flocks of sheep ^sare made desolate. 19 O Jehovah, to "thee do I cry; for the ^tfire hath devoured the ^upastures of the wilderness, and the flame hath burned all the trees of the field. 20 Yea, the beasts of the field ^vpant unto thee; for the ^wwater brooks are dried up, and the fire hath devoured the ^xpastures of the wilderness.

the dawn spread upon the mountains; a ^agreat people and a strong; there hath ^bnot been ever the like, neither shall be any more after them, even to the years of many generations. 3 A ^cfire devoureth before them; and behind them a flame burneth; the land is ^aas the garden of Eden before them, and behind them a ^cdesolate wilderness; yea, and none hath escaped them.

4 The ^cappearance of them is as the appearance of horses; and as ¹horsemen, so do they run. 5 Like the ²noise of chariots on the tops of the mountains do they leap, like the noise of a ^bflame of fire that devoureth the stubble, as a strong people set in battle array. 6 At their presence the peoples are in ^aanguish; all ^afaces are waxed pale. 7 They run like ¹mighty men; they ^mclimb the wall like men of war; and they ⁿmarch every one on his ways, and they break not their ranks. 8 Neither doth one thrust another; they march every one in his path; and ²they burst through the weapons, and ³break not off their course. 9 They ^aleap upon the city; they run upon the wall; they climb up into the ²houses; they ^aenter in at the windows like a thief. 10 The earth ^rquaketh before them; the heavens tremble; the ^asun and the moon are darkened, and the stars withdraw their shining. 11 And Jehovah ^uuttereth his voice before ^uhis army; for his camp is very great; for he is ^sstrong that executeth his word; for the ^rday of Jehovah is great and very terrible; and ^vwho can abide it?

12 Yet even now, saith Jehovah, ²turn ye unto me with all your heart, and with ^afasting, and with weeping, and with mourning; 13 and rend your ^bheart, and ^cnot your garments, and turn unto Jehovah your God; for he is ^agracious and merciful, slow to anger, and abundant in lovingkindness, and ^crepenteth him of the evil. 14 Who knoweth ^rwhether he will not turn and repent, and leave a ^sblessing behind him, even a ^ameal-offering and a drink-offering unto Jehovah your God?

15 ^aBlow the trumpet in Zion, ^ksanctify a fast, call a solemn assembly; 16 gather the people, ^lsanctify the assembly, assemble the ^oold men, gather the children, and those that suck the breasts; let the ^mbridegroom go forth from his chamber, and the bride out of her closet. 17 Let the ^ppriests, the ministers of Jehovah, weep ^obetween the porch and the altar, and let them say, ⁿSpare thy people, O Jehovah, and give not thy heritage to ^rreproach, that the nations should ^srule over them: wherefore should they say among the peoples, ^rWhere is their God?

18 Then was Jehovah ^jjealous for his land, and had ^ppity on his people. 19 And Jehovah answered and said unto his people, Behold, I will send you ^agrain, and new wine, and oil, and ye shall be satisfied therewith; and I will ^vno more make you a reproach among the nations; 20 but I will remove far off from you the ^xnorthern army, and will drive it into a land barren and desolate, ⁶its forefront ⁷into the ^veastern sea, and its hinder part ⁷into the ^zwestern sea; and its ^astench shall come up, and its ill savor shall come up, because it hath done great things.

21 ^bFear not, O land, be glad and rejoice; for Jehovah hath ^cdone great things. 22 Be not afraid, ye beasts of the field; for the ^apastures of the wilderness do spring, for the tree beareth its fruit, the fig-tree and the vine do yield their strength. 23 Be glad then, ye ^cchildren of Zion, and ^rrejoice in Jehovah your God; for he ^vgiveth you the former rain ⁸in just measure, and he causeth to come down for you the rain, the former rain and the ^hlatter rain, ⁹in the first month. 24 And the ⁱfloors shall be full of wheat, and the vats shall overflow with new wine and oil. 25 And I will restore to you the years that the ^klocust hath eaten, the canker-worm, and the caterpillar, and the palmer-worm, my great army

*28 ^hAnd it shall come to pass afterward, that I will pour out my ⁱSpirit upon ^jall flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions: 29 and also upon the ^kservants and upon the handmaids in those days will I pour out my Spirit. 30 And I will ^lshow wonders in the heavens and in the earth: blood, and fire, and pillars of smoke. 31 The ^msun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the ⁿgreat and terrible day of Jehovah cometh. 32 And it shall come to pass, that ^owhosoever shall call on the name of Jehovah shall be delivered; for in mount Zion and in Jerusalem there shall be those that ^pescape, as Jehovah hath said, and ^qamong the remnant those whom Jehovah doth call.

*3 For, behold, in those days, ^rand in that time, when I shall ^sbring back the captivity of Judah and Jerusalem, 2 I will ^tgather all nations, and will bring them down into the ^uvalley of Jehoshaphat; and I will ^vexecute judgment upon them there for my people and for my heritage Israel, whom they have ^wscattered among the nations: and they have ^xparted my land, 3 and have ^ycast lots for my people, and have ^zgiven a boy for a harlot, and sold a girl for wine, that they may drink. 4 Yea, and what are ye to me, O ^aTyre, and Sidon, and all the regions of ^bPhilistia? ^cwill ye ^drender me a recompense? and if ye recompense me, swiftly and speedily will I ^ereturn your ^frecompense upon your own head. 5 Forasmuch as ye have ^gtaken my silver and my gold, and have carried into your temples my goodly

God's Judgments on Neighboring Nations

1 The words of Amos, who was among the ^aherdsmen of ^bTekoa, which he saw concerning Israel in the days of ^cUzziah king of Judah, and in the days of ^aJero-boam the son of Joash king of Israel, two years before the ^cearthquake.

2 And he said, ^fJehovah will roar from Zion, and utter his voice from Jerusalem; and the ¹⁹pastures of the shepherds shall mourn, and the ^htop of Carmel shall wither.

3 Thus saith Jehovah: ^eFor three transgressions of ^kDamascus, yea, for four, I will ²not turn away ³the punishment thereof; because they have threshed ^mGilead with threshing instruments of iron. 4 But I will send a ⁿfire into the house of Hazael, and it shall devour the palaces of ^cBen-hadad. 5 And I will ⁴break the bar of Damascus, and cut off ^ethe inhabitant from the valley of ⁵Aven, and him that holdeth the sceptre from ⁶the house of Eden; and the people of Syria shall go into captivity unto ⁹Kir, saith Jehovah.

6 Thus saith Jehovah: For three transgressions of ^rGaza, yea, for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they carried away captive ⁷the ^awhole people, to deliver them up to ^cEdom. 7 But I will send a fire on the wall of ^uGaza, and it shall devour the palaces thereof. 8 And I will cut off the inhabitant from ^aAshdod, and him that holdeth the sceptre from ^xAshkelon; and I will turn my hand against Ekron; and the remnant of the ^yPhilistines shall perish, saith the Lord Jehovah.

9 Thus saith Jehovah: ^zFor three transgressions of ^aTyre, yea, for four, I will not turn away the 12 But I will send a fire upon ⁱTe-man, and it shall devour the palaces of Bozrah.

13 Thus saith Jehovah: ^kFor three transgressions of the children of ^lAmmon, yea, for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they have ^mripped up the women with child of ⁿGilead, that they may ^oenlarge their border. 14 But I will kindle a fire in the wall of ^pRabbah, and it shall devour the palaces thereof, with ^qshouting in the day of battle, with a ^rtempest in the day of the whirlwind; 15 and their ^sking shall go into captivity, he and his princes together, saith Jehovah.

2 Thus saith Jehovah: ^tFor three transgressions of ^uMoab, yea, for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because he burned the bones of the king of Edom into lime. 2 But I will send a fire upon Moab, and it shall devour the palaces of ^vKerioth; and Moab shall die with ^wtumult, with ^xshouting, and with the sound of the trumpet; 3 and I will cut off the ^yjudge from the midst thereof,

God's Judgments on Judah and Israel. Necessity of prophesying Evil against Israel. Israel to be punished and will slay all the "princes thereof with him, saith Jehovah.

4 Thus saith Jehovah: For three transgressions of ^bJudah, yea, for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they have ^crejected the law of Jehovah, and have not kept his statutes, and their ^clies have caused them to err, after which their ^cfathers did walk. 5 But I will ^csend a fire upon Judah, and it shall devour the palaces of Jerusalem.

6 Thus saith Jehovah: "For three transgressions of ^bIsrael, yea, for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they have ^csold the righteous for silver, and the needy for a pair of shoes— 7 they that pant after the dust of the earth on the head of the ^cpoor, and ^cturn aside the way of the meek: and a ^mman and his father go unto the ^csame maiden, to profane my holy name: 8 and they lay themselves down beside every ^aaltar upon clothes ^ctaken in pledge; and in the house of their God they ^cdrink the wine of such as have been fined.

9 Yet destroyed I the ^cAmorite before them, whose ^cheight was like the height of the cedars, and he was strong as the oaks; yet I destroyed his ^cfruit from above, and his roots from beneath. 10 Also I brought you up out of the land of ^cEgypt, and led you ^cforty years in the wilderness, to possess the land of the ^cAmorite. 11 And I ^craised up of your sons for prophets, and of your young men for ^cNazirites. Is it not even thus, O ye children of Israel? saith Jehovah. 12 But ye gave the Nazirites wine to drink, and commanded the prophets, saying, ^cProphecy not.

13 Behold, ¹I will ^cpress you in your place, as a cart presseth that is full of sheaves. 14 And ^{2b}flight shall perish from the swift; and the strong shall not strengthen his force; neither shall the ^cmighty deliver ³himself; 15 neither shall he stand that ^chandleth the bow; and he that is swift of foot shall not deliver ^chimself; neither shall he that ^crideth the horse deliver ³himself; 16 and he that is courageous among the mighty shall

10 They hate him that ⁵reproveth in the gate, and they ⁶abhor him that speaketh uprightly. 11 Forasmuch therefore as ye ⁷trample upon the poor, and take exactions from him of wheat: ye have built ⁸houses of hewn stone, but ye shall not dwell in them; ye have planted pleasant vineyards, but ye shall ⁹not drink the wine thereof. 12 For I know how manifold are your transgressions, and how mighty are your sins—ye that ¹⁰afflict the just, that take a bribe, and that turn aside the ¹¹needy in the gate from their right. 13 Therefore he that is prudent shall ¹²keep silence in such a time; for it is an evil time.

14 ¹³Seek good, and not evil, that ye may live; and so Jehovah, the God of hosts, will be with you, ¹⁴as ye say. 15 ¹⁵Hate the evil, and love the good, and establish justice in the gate: it ¹⁶may be that Jehovah, the God of hosts, will be gracious unto the ¹⁷remnant of Joseph.

16 Therefore thus saith Jehovah, the God of hosts, the Lord: ¹⁸Wailing shall be in all the broad ways; and they shall say in all the streets, Alas! alas! and they shall call the ¹⁹husbandman to mourning, ²⁰and such as are ²¹skilful in lamentation to wailing. 17 And in all ²²vineyards shall be wailing; for I will pass through the midst of thee, saith Jehovah.

18 Woe unto you that desire the ²³day of Jehovah! Wherefore would ye have the day of Jehovah? It is ²⁴darkness, and not light. 19 As if a man did ²⁵flee from a lion, and a bear met him; ²⁶or went into the house and leaned his hand on the wall, and a serpent bit him. 20 Shall not the day of Jehovah be ²⁷darkness, and not light? even very dark, and no brightness in it?

This also shall not be, saith the Lord Jehovah.

7 Thus he showed me: and, behold, the Lord stood ^b'beside a wall made by a plumb-line, with a plumb-line in his hand. 8 And Jehovah said unto me, ^c'Amos, what seest thou? And I said, A plumb-line. Then said the Lord, Behold, I will set a ^d'plumb-line in the midst of my people Israel; I will ^e'not again pass by them any more; 9 and the ^f'high places of Isaac shall be desolate, and the ^g'sanctuaries of Israel shall be laid waste; and I will ^h'rise against the house of Jeroboam with the sword.

10 Then Amaziah the ⁱ'priest of ^j'Beth-el sent to Jeroboam king of Israel, saying, Amos hath ^k'conspired against thee in the midst of the house of Israel: the land is not able to bear all his words. 11 For thus Amos saith, ^l'Jeroboam shall die by the sword, and ^m'Israel shall surely be led away captive out of his land. 12 Also Amaziah said unto Amos, O thou seer, ⁿ'go, flee thou away into the land of Judah, and there eat bread, and prophesy there: 13 but ^o'prophesy not again any more at Beth-el; for it is the king's ^p'sanctuary, and it is a royal house.

14 Then answered Amos, and said to Amaziah, I ^q'was no prophet, neither ^r'was I ^s'a ^t'prophet's son; but I ^u'was a ^v'herdsman, and a dresser of ^w'sycomore-trees: 15 and ^x'Jehovah took me from following the flock, and ^y'Jehovah said unto me, Go, ^z'prophesy unto my people Israel. 16 Now therefore hear thou the word of Jehovah: Thou sayest, ^{aa}'Prophesy not against Israel, and ^{ab}'drop not thy word against the house of Isaac; 17 therefore thus saith Jehovah: Thy ^{ac}'wife shall be a harlot in the city, and thy ^{ad}'sons and thy daughters shall fall by the sword, and thy land shall be divided by ^{ae}'line; and thou thyself shalt die in a land that is ^{af}'unclean, and Israel shall surely be ^{ag}'led away captive out of his land.

Israel's Near End foreshadowed. A Famine of the Word threatened. Jehovah's Judgments unavoidable

8 Thus the Lord Jehovah showed me: and, behold, a basket of summer fruit. 2 And he said, "Amos, what seest thou? And I said, A basket of summer fruit. Then said Jehovah unto me, The end is come upon my people Israel; I will not again pass by them any more. 3 And the songs of the temple shall be wailings in that day, saith the Lord Jehovah: the dead bodies shall be many; in every place shall they cast them forth with silence.

4 Hear this, O ye that would swallow up the needy, and cause the poor of the land to fail, 5 saying, When will the new moon be gone, that we may sell grain? and the sabbath, that we may set forth wheat, making the ephah small, and the shekel great, and dealing falsely with balances of deceit; 6 that we may buy the poor for silver, and the needy for a pair of shoes, and sell the refuse of the wheat? 7 Jehovah hath sworn by the excellency of Jacob, Surely I will never forget any of their works. 8 Shall not the land tremble for this, and every one mourn that dwelleth therein? yea, it shall rise up wholly like the River; and it shall be troubled and sink again, like the River of Egypt. 9 And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the Lord Jehovah, that I will cause the sun to go down at noon, and I will darken the earth in the clear day. 10 And I will turn your feasts into mourning, and all your songs into lamentation; and I will bring sackcloth upon all loins, and baldness upon every head; and I will make it as the mourning for an only son, and the end thereof as a bitter day.

11 Behold, the days come, saith the Lord Jehovah, that I will send a famine in the land, not a famine of bread, nor a thirst for water, but of hearing the words of Jehovah. 12 And they shall wander from sea to sea, and from the north even to the east; they shall run to and fro to seek the word of Jehovah, and shall not find it. 13 In that day shall the fair virgins and the young men faint for thirst. 14 They that swear by the sin of Samaria, and say, As thy god, O

Dan, liveth; and, As the way of Beersheba liveth; they shall fail, and never rise up again.

9 I saw the Lord standing beside the altar: and he said, Smite the capitals, that the thresholds may shake; and break them in pieces on the head of all of them; and I will slay the last of them with the sword: there shall not one of them flee away, and there shall not one of them escape. 2 Though they dig into Sheol, thence shall my hand take them; and though they climb up to heaven, thence will I bring them down. 3 And though they hide themselves in the top of Carmel, I will search and take them out thence; and though they be hid from my sight in the bottom of the sea, thence will I command the serpent, and it shall bite them. 4 And though they go into captivity before their enemies, thence will I command the sword, and it shall slay them: and I will set mine eyes upon them for evil, and not for good.

5 For the Lord, Jehovah of hosts, is he that toucheth the land and it melteth, and all that dwell therein shall mourn; and it shall rise up wholly like the River, and shall sink again, like the River of Egypt; 6 it is he that buildeth his chambers in the heavens, and hath founded his vault upon the earth; he that calleth for the waters of the sea, and poureth them out upon the face of the earth; Jehovah is his name.

7 Are ye not as the children of the Ethiopians unto me, O children of Israel? saith Jehovah. Have not I brought up Israel out of the land of Egypt, and the Philistines from Caphtor, and the Syrians from Kir? 8 Behold, the eyes of the Lord Jehovah are upon the sinful kingdom, and I will destroy it from off the face of the earth; save that I will not utterly destroy the house of Jacob, saith Jehovah. 9 For, lo, I will command, and I will sift the

The Pride of Edom shall be humbled. Her Wicked Joy in Israel's Distress. Israel shall be exalted

1 The vision of Obadiah.

Thus saith the Lord Jehovah concerning ^aEdom: ^bWe have heard tidings from Jehovah, and an ^cambassador is sent among the nations, saying, ^dArise ye, and let us rise up against her in battle.

2 Behold, I have made thee ^esmall among the nations: thou art greatly despised. 3 The ^fpride of thy heart hath deceived thee, O thou that dwellest in the clefts of ^gthe ^hrock, whose habitation is high: that saith in his heart, ⁱWho shall bring me down to the ground? 4 Though thou ^jmount on high as the eagle, and though thy nest be set among the ^kstars, I will bring thee down from thence, saith Jehovah.

5 If ^lthieves came to thee, if robbers by night (how art thou ^mcut off!), would they not steal ⁿonly till they had enough? if grape-gatherers came to thee, would they not leave some ^ogleaning grapes?

6 How are ^pthe things of Esau ^qsearched! how are his hidden treasures sought out! 7 All the ^rmen of thy confederacy have ^sbrought thee on thy way, even to the border: the men that were at ^tpeace with thee have deceived thee, and prevailed against thee; ^uthey that eat thy ^vbread lay a ^wsnare under thee: there is ^xno understanding ^yin him. 8 Shall I not in that day, saith Jehovah, ^zdestroy the wise men out of Edom, and understanding out of the mount of Esau? 9 And thy ^{aa}mighty men, O ^{ab}Teman, shall be dismayed, to the end that every one may be ^{ac}cut off from the mount of Esau by slaughter.

THE BOOK OF JONAH

Jonah, sent by God to Nineveh, flees to Tarshish. In a Tempest he is cast overboard, and is swallowed by a Fish. His Prayer

1 Now the word of Jehovah came unto ^aJonah the son of Amittai, saying, 2 Arise, go to ^bNineveh, that ^cgreat city, and ^dcry against it; for their ^ewickedness is come up before me. 3 But Jonah rose up to flee unto ^fTarshish ^gfrom the presence of Jehovah; and he went down to ^hJoppa, and found a ship going to Tarshish: so he paid the fare thereof, and went down into it, to go with them unto Tarshish from the presence of Jehovah.

4 But ⁱJehovah ^jsent out a great wind upon the sea, and there was a mighty tempest on the sea, so that the ship was like to be broken. 5 Then the mariners were afraid, and cried every man unto ^khis god; and they ^lcast forth the wares that were in the ship into the sea, to lighten it unto them. But Jonah was gone down into the innermost parts of the ship; and he lay, and was fast asleep. 6 So the shipmaster came to him, and said unto him, What meanest thou, O sleeper? arise, ^mcall upon thy God, if so be that ⁿGod will think upon us, that we perish not. 7 And they said every one to his fellow, Come, and let us ^ocast lots, that we may know for whose cause this evil is upon us. So they cast lots, and the ^plot fell upon Jonah. 8 Then said they unto him, ^qTell us, we pray thee, for whose cause this evil is upon us; what is thine ^roccupation? and whence comest thou? what is thy country? and of what people art thou? 9 And he said unto them, I am a ^sHebrew; and I ^tfear Jehovah, the ^uGod of heaven, who hath ^vmade the sea and the dry land. 10 Then were the men exceedingly afraid, and said unto him, What is this that thou hast done? For the men ^wkn^w that he was ^xfleeing from the presence of Jehovah, because he had told them.

11 Then said they unto him, What shall we do unto thee, that the sea may be calm unto us? for the sea grew more and more tempestuous. 12 And he said unto them, ^yTake me up, and cast me forth into the sea; so shall the sea be calm unto you: for I know that ^zfor my sake this great tempest is upon you. 13 Nevertheless the men rowed hard to get them back to the land; but they ^{aa}could not: for the sea grew more and more tempestuous against them. 14 Wherefore they cried unto ^{ab}Jehovah, and said, We beseech thee, O Jehovah, we beseech thee, let us not perish for this man's life, and lay not upon us innocent blood; for ^{ac}thou, O Jehovah, hast done as it pleased thee. 15 So they took up Jonah, and cast him forth into the sea; and the sea ^{ad}ceased from its raging. 16 Then the men feared ^{ae}Jehovah exceedingly; and they offered a sacrifice unto Jehovah, and made ^{af}vows.

^{ag}17 And ^{ah}Jehovah prepared a great fish to swallow up Jonah; and Jonah was in the ^{ai}belly of the fish three days and three nights.

2 1 Then Jonah prayed unto Jehovah his God ^{aj}out of the fish's belly. 2 And he said, I ^{ak}called ^{al}by reason of mine affliction unto Jehovah, And he answered me; Out of the belly of ^{am}'Sheol cried I, And thou heardest my voice. 3 For thou didst ^{an}cast me into the depth, in the heart of the seas, And the flood was round about me;

2 Or, out of mine afflictions

Jonah's Prayer. He preaches to the Ninevites, and they repent. His Complaint against God's Forbearance

All thy ^awaves and thy billows passed over me.

4 And I said, I am ^bcast out from before thine eyes;

Yet I will look again ^ctoward thy holy temple.

5 The ^awaters compassed me about, even to the soul;

The ^cdeep was round about me;

The weeds were wrapped about my head.

6 I ^dwent down to the bottoms of the mountains;

The earth with its ^ebars closed upon me for ever:

Yet hast thou ^hbrought up my life from ⁱthe pit, O Jehovah my God.

7 When my soul ^ffainted within me, I ^kremembered Jehovah;

And my ^jprayer came in unto thee, into thy ^mholy temple.

8 They that ⁿregard lying vanities

Forsake their own mercy.

9 But I will ^osacrifice unto thee with the voice of thanksgiving;

I will ^ppay that which I have vowed.

^aSalvation is of Jehovah.

10 And Jehovah spake unto the ^rfish, and it vomited out Jonah upon the dry land.

3 And the word of Jehovah came unto Jonah the ^ssecond time, saying, 2 Arise, go unto ^tNineveh, that great city, and ^upreach unto it the preaching that I bid thee. 3 So Jonah arose, and went unto Nineveh, according to the word of Jehovah.

Now Nineveh was ^van ^wexceeding great city, of three days' journey.

4 And Jonah began to enter into the city a day's journey, and he ^xcried, and said, ^yYet forty days, and Nineveh shall be overthrown.

5 And the people of Nineveh believed God; and they proclaimed a ^zfast, and put on ^{aa}sackcloth,

^bfrom the greatest of them even to the least of them. 6 ^{ab}And the tidings reached the king of Nineveh, and he arose from his throne, and laid his robe from him, and ^ccovered him with sackcloth, and sat in ashes. 7 And he made

4 But it displeased Jonah exceedingly, and he was ^hangry. 2 And he ⁱprayed unto Jehovah, and said, I pray thee, O Jehovah, was not this my saying, when I was yet in my country? Therefore I ^jhasted to ^kflee unto Tarshish; for I knew that thou art a ^lgracious God, and merciful, slow to anger, and abundant in loving-kindness, and repentest thee of the evil. 3 Therefore now, O Jehovah, ^mtake, I beseech thee, my life from me; for it is ⁿbetter for me to die than to live. 4 And Jehovah said, ^oDoest thou well to be angry? 5 Then Jonah went out of the city, and ^psat on the east side of the city, and there made him a booth, and sat under it in the shade, till he might see what would become of the city.

6 And ^qJehovah God prepared a ^rgourd, and made it to come up over Jonah, that it might be a shade over his head, to deliver him from his evil case. So Jonah was ^sexceeding glad because of the gourd. 7 But God prepared a worm when the morning rose the next day, and it smote the gourd, that it ^twithered. 8 And it came to pass, when the sun arose, that God prepared a sultry ^ueast wind; and the ^vsun beat upon the head of Jonah, that he fainted, and requested for himself that he might

Destruction denounced against Israel and Judah. The Coming Desolation lamented. Woe to Greedy Oppressors

1 The word of Jehovah that came to ^aMicah the ^bMorashite in the days of ^cJotham, ^dAhaz, and ^eHezekiah, kings of Judah, which he saw concerning Samaria and Jerusalem.

2 Hear, ye peoples, all of you; ^fhearken, O earth, and ^gall that therein is: and let the Lord Jehovah be ^hwitness ⁱagainst you, the Lord from his holy temple. 3 For, behold, Jehovah ^jcometh forth out of his place, and will come down, and ^ktread upon the high places of the earth. 4 And ^lthe mountains shall be melted under him, and the valleys shall be cleft, as wax before the fire, as waters that are poured down a steep place. 5 For the transgression of Jacob is all this, and for the sins of the house of Israel. What is the transgression of Jacob? is it not ^mSamaria? and what are the ⁿhigh places of Judah? are they not Jerusalem? 6 Therefore I will make Samaria as a ^oheap of the field, and as places for ^pplanting vineyards; and I will ^qpour down the stones thereof into the valley, and I will ^runcover the foundations thereof. 7 And all her ^sgraven images shall be beaten to pieces, and all her ^thires shall be burned with fire, and all her idols will I lay desolate; for of the hire of a harlot hath she gathered them, and unto the hire of a harlot shall they return.

8 For this will I lament and wail; I will go ^ustripped and naked; I will make a wailing like the ^vjackals, and a lamentation like the ostriches. 9 For her ^wwounds are incurable; for it is come even unto Judah; it reacheth unto the ^xgate of my people, even to Jerusalem. 10 ^yTell it not in Gath, weep not at all: at ^zBeth-leaphrah ^{aa}have I rolled myself in the dust. 11 Pass away, O ^{ab}inhabitant of Shaphir, in ^{ac}nakedness and shame: the ^{ad}inhabitant of ^{ae}Zaanan is not come forth; the wailing of Beth-ezel shall take from you the ^{af}stay thereof. 12 For the ^{ag}inhabitant of Maroth ^{ah}waiteth anxiously for good, because evil is come down from Jehovah unto the ^{ai}gate of Jerusalem. 13 ^{aj}Bind the chariot to the swift steed, O ^{ak}inhabitant of ^{al}Lachish: she was the beginning of sin to the daughter of Zion; for the ^{am}transgressions of Israel were found in thee. 14 Therefore shalt thou give a parting ^{an}gift to ^{ao}Morsheth-gath: the houses of ^{ap}Achzib shall be ^{aq}a ^{ar}deceitful thing unto the kings of Israel. 15 I will yet bring unto thee, O ^{as}inhabitant of ^{at}Mareshah, him that shall ^{au}possess thee: the glory of Israel shall come even unto ^{av}Adullam. 16 Make thee ^{aw}bald, and cut off thy hair for the children of thy delight: enlarge thy baldness as the ^{ax}eagle; for they are ^{ay}gone into captivity from thee.

2 Woe to them that ^{ba}devise iniquity and work evil upon their beds! ^{bb}when the morning is light, they practise it, because it is in the ^{bc}power of their hand. 2 And they ^{bd}covet fields, and ^{be}seize them; and houses, and take them away; and they ^{bf}oppress a man and his house, even a man and his heritage. 3 Therefore thus saith Jehovah: Behold, against ^{bg}this family do I ^{bh}devise an evil, from which ye shall ^{bi}not remove your necks, neither shall ye walk ^{bj}haughtily; for it is an ^{bk}evil time. 4 In that day shall they ^{bl}take up a

* Come ye, and let us go up to the mountain of Jehovah, and to the house of the God of Jacob; and ^b he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths. For ^c out of Zion shall go forth ^d the law, and the word of Jehovah from Jerusalem; 3 and he will ^e judge ^f between ^g many peoples, and will decide concerning strong nations afar off; and they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning-hooks; nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more. 4 But they shall ^h sit every man under his vine and under his fig-tree; and ⁱ none shall make them afraid: for the ^j mouth of Jehovah of hosts hath spoken it. 5 For all the peoples walk every one in the ^k name of his god; and we will walk in the name of ^l Jehovah our God for ever and ever.

6 In that day, saith Jehovah, will I ^m assemble that which is ⁿ lame, and I will gather that which is driven away, and that which I have afflicted; 7 and I will make that which was lame a ^o remnant, and that which was cast far off a ^p strong nation: and ^q Jehovah will reign over them in mount Zion from henceforth even for ever. 8 And thou, O ^r tower of ^s the ^t flock, ^u the hill of the daughter of Zion, unto thee shall it come, yea, the ^v former dominion shall come, the kingdom of the daughter of Jerusalem.

hath gathered them as the sheaves to the threshing-floor. 13 Arise and ^{ba} thresh, O daughter of Zion; for I will make thy horn iron, and I will make thy hoofs brass; and thou shalt ^{bb} beat in pieces many peoples: and I will ^{bc} devote their gain unto Jehovah, and their substance unto the Lord of the whole ^{bd} earth. 1 Now shalt thou ^{be} gather thyself in troops, O daughter of troops: he hath laid siege against us; they shall ^{bf} smite the judge of Israel with a rod upon the cheek.

* 2 But ^{bg} thou, Beth-lehem ^{bh} Ephrathah, which art little to be among the ^{bi} thousands of Judah, out of ^{bj} thee shall one come forth unto me that is to be ^{bk} ruler in Israel; whose goings forth are ^{bl} from of old, ^{bm} from everlasting.

3 Therefore will he ^{bn} give them up, until the time that she who ^{bo} travaileth hath brought forth: then the ^{bp} residue of his brethren shall return ^{bq} unto the children of Israel. 4 And he shall stand, and shall ^{br} feed his flock in the strength of Jehovah, in the majesty of the name of Jehovah his God: and they shall abide; for now shall he be great unto the ^{bs} ends of the earth. 5 And ^{bt} this man shall be ^{bu} our peace. When the ^{bv} Assyrian shall come into our land, and when he shall tread in our palaces, then shall we raise against him seven shepherds, and eight ^{bw} principal men. 6 And they shall ^{bx} waste the land of Assyria with the sword, and the land of ^{by} Nimrod in the entrances thereof: and he shall ^{bz} deliver us from the Assyrian, when he cometh into our land, and when he treadeth within our border. 7 And the ^{ca} remnant of Jacob shall be in the midst of many peoples as ^{cb} dew from Jehovah, as ^{cc} showers upon the grass, that tarry not for man, nor wait for the sons of men. 8 And the remnant of Jacob shall be among the nations, in the midst of many peoples, ^{cd} as a lion among the beasts of the forest, as a young lion among the flocks of sheep; who, if he go through, ^{ce} treadeth down and

^ateareth in pieces, and there is ^anone to deliver. 9 Let thy hand be ^alifted up above thine adversaries, and let all thine enemies be cut off.

10 And it shall come to pass in that day, saith Jehovah, that I will cut off thy ^ahorses out of the midst of thee, and will destroy thy chariots: 11 and I will cut off the ^acities of thy land, and will throw down all thy ^astrongholds. 12 And I will cut off ^awitchcrafts out of thy hand; and thou shalt have no ^amore soothsayers: 13 and ^aI will cut off thy graven images and thy ^apillars out of the midst of thee; and thou shalt no more worship the work of thy hands; 14 and I will pluck up thine ^aAsherim out of the midst of thee; and I will destroy thy ^acities. 15 And I will ^aexecute vengeance in anger and wrath upon the nations ^awhich hearkened not.

6 Hear ye now what Jehovah saith: Arise, ^acontend thou before the mountains, and let the hills hear thy voice. 2 Hear, O ye mountains, Jehovah's controversy, and ye enduring ^afoundations of the earth; for ^aJehovah hath a controversy with his people, and he will contend with Israel. 3 ^aO my people, ^awhat have I done unto thee? and ^awherein have I wearied thee? testify against me. 4 For I ^abrought thee up out of the land of Egypt, and ^aredeemed thee out of the house of bondage; and I sent before thee ^aMoses, Aaron, and ^aMiriam. 5 O my people, remember now what ^aBalak king of Moab devised, and what Balaam the son of Beor answered him; ^aremember from ^aShittim unto ^aGilgal, that ye may know the ^arighteous acts of Jehovah.

6 ^aWherewith shall I come before Jehovah, and bow myself before the high God? shall I come before him with ^aburnt-offerings, with calves a year old? 7 will Jehovah be pleased with ^athousands of rams, or with ten thousands of rivers of oil? shall I give my ^afirst-born for my transgression, the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul? 8 He hath ^ashowed thee, O man, what is good; and ^awhat doth Jehovah require of thee, but to ^ado justly, and to ^alove kindness, and to walk ^ahumbly with thy God?

9 The voice of Jehovah crieth unto the city, and the man of wisdom will ^asee thy name: hear ye the ^arod, and who hath appointed it. 10 Are there yet treasures of ^awickedness in the house of the wicked, and a ^ameasure that is abominable? 11 Shall I be pure with wicked ^abalances, and with a bag of deceitful weights? 12 For the rich men thereof are full of ^aviolence, and the inhabitants thereof have spoken ^alies, and their ^atongue is deceitful in their mouth. 13 Therefore I also have smitten thee with a ^agrievous wound; I have made thee ^adesolate because of thy sins. 14 Thou shalt eat, but ^anot be satisfied; and thy ^ahumiliation shall be in the midst of thee: and thou shalt put away, but shalt ^anot save; and that which thou savest will I give up to the sword. 15 Thou shalt sow, but shalt ^anot reap; thou shalt tread the olives, but shalt not anoint thee with oil; and the vintage, but shalt ^anot drink the wine. 16 For the statutes of ^aOmri are kept, and all the works of the house of ^aAhab, and ye ^awalk in their counsels; that I may make thee ^adesolation, and the inhabitants thereof a ^ahissing; and ye shall bear the ^areproach of my people.

7 Woe is me! for I am as when they have gathered the summer fruits, as the ^agrape gleanings of the vintage: there is no cluster to eat; ^amy soul desireth the ^afirst-ripe fig. 2 The godly man is ^aperished out of the earth, and there is none upright among men: they all lie in wait for ^ablood; they hunt every man his brother with a ^anet. 3 ^aTheir hands are upon that which is evil to do it ^adiligently; the prince asketh, and the judge ^ais ready for a ^areward; and the great man, he uttereth the evil

Goodness and Severity of Jehovah. The Overthrow of Nineveh decreed

1 The ¹burden of ²Nineveh. The book of the vision of Nahum the Elkoshite.

2 ³Jehovah is a jealous God and avengeth; Jehovah ⁴avengeth and is full of wrath; Jehovah taketh vengeance on his adversaries, and he reserveth wrath for his enemies.

3 Jehovah is ⁵slow to anger, and great in power, and will by no means clear the guilty: Jehovah hath his way in the ⁶whirlwind and in the storm, and the ⁷clouds are the dust of his feet. 4 He ⁸rebuketh the sea, and maketh it dry, and drieth up all the rivers; ⁹Bashan languisheth, and Carmel; and the flower of Lebanon languisheth.

5 The mountains ¹⁰quake at him, and the hills ¹¹melt; and the earth is ¹²upheaved at his presence, yea, the ¹³world, and all that dwell therein. 6 Who can stand before his ¹⁴indignation? and who can abide in the ¹⁵fierceness of his anger? his ¹⁶wrath is poured out like fire, and the ¹⁷rocks are broken asunder by him. 7 Jehovah is ¹⁸good, a ¹⁹stronghold in the day of trouble; and he knoweth them that take refuge in him. 8 But with an ²⁰over-running flood he will make a full end of her place, and will pursue his enemies into ²¹darkness.

9 What do ye ²²devise against Jehovah? he will make a ²³full end; affliction shall not rise up the second time. 10 For entangled like ²⁴thorns, and ²⁵drunken as with their drink, they are ²⁶consumed ²⁷utterly as dry stubble. 11 There is one gone forth out of thee, that ²⁸deviseth evil against Jehovah, ²⁹that ³⁰counselleth ³¹wickedness. 12 Thus saith Jehovah: Though they be in full strength, and likewise many, even so shall they be ³²cut down, and he shall pass away. ³³Though I have afflicted thee, I will afflict thee ³⁴no more. 13 And now will I ³⁵break

THE BOOK OF HABAKKUK

The Chaldeans raised up to punish Judah's Sins. Habakkuk's Remonstrance. Jehovah's Reply

1 The ^{1a}burden which Habakkuk the prophet did see.

2 O Jehovah, ^bhow long shall I cry, and thou wilt not hear? I cry out unto thee of violence, and thou wilt ^cnot save. 3 Why dost thou show me ^diniquity, and ^elook upon perverseness? for ^fdestruction and violence are before me; and there is ^gstrife, and contention riseth up. 4 Therefore the ^hlaw is slackened, and justice ⁱdoth never go forth; for the wicked doth ^jcompass about the righteous; therefore justice goeth forth ^kperverted.

5 ^kBehold ye ^lamong the nations, and look, and ^mwonder marvelously; for ⁿI am working a ^owork in your days, which ye will not believe though it be told you. 6 For, lo, I ^praise up the Chaldeans, that bitter and hasty nation, that march through the breadth of the earth, to ^qpossess dwelling-places that are not theirs. 7 ^rThey are ^sterrible and dreadful; their ^tjudgment and their dignity proceed from themselves. 8 Their ^uhorses also are swifter than leopards, and are more fierce than the ^vevening wolves; and their horsemen ^wpress proudly on: yea, their horsemen come from far; they fly as an ^xeagle that hasteth to devour. 9 They come all of them for violence; ^ythe ^zset of their faces is ^{aa}forwards; and they ^{ab}gather captives as the sand. 10 ^{ac}Yea, he ^{ad}scoffeth at kings, and princes are a derision unto him; he ^{ae}derideth every stronghold; for he ^{af}heapeth up dust, and taketh it. 11 ^{ag}Then shall he sweep by as a ^{ah}wind, and shall ^{ai}pass over, and be ^{aj}guilty, even he whose ^{ak}might is his god.

Woes pronounced on the Chaldeans. God's Deliverance of his Ancient People

“keepeth not at home; who ^benlargeth his desire ^cas Sheol, and he is as death, and cannot be satisfied, but ^agathereth unto him all nations, and heapeth unto him all peoples. 6 Shall not all these ^atake up a parable against him, and a taunting ¹proverb against him, and say, ⁷Woe to him that increaseth that which is not his! how long? and that ladeth himself with ^apledges! 7 Shall they not ^hrise up suddenly that shall ²bite thee, and awake that shall ³vex thee, and thou shalt be for booty unto them? 8 Because thou hast ⁱplundered many nations, all the remnant of the peoples shall plunder thee, ^kbecause of men's blood, and for the ⁱviolence done to the land, to the city and to all that dwell therein.

9 Woe to him that getteth an ^mevil gain for his house, that he may ⁿset his nest on high, that he may be delivered from the hand of evil! 10 Thou hast devised ^oshame to thy house, by cutting off many peoples, and hast ^psinned against thy soul. 11 For the ^qstone shall cry out of the wall, and the beam out of the timber shall answer it.

12 Woe to him that ^rbuildeth a town with blood, and establisheth a city by iniquity! 13 Behold, is it not of Jehovah of hosts that the peoples ^slabor for the fire, and the nations weary themselves for ^tvanity? 14 For the earth shall be ^ufilled with the knowledge of the glory of Jehovah, as the waters cover the sea.

15 Woe unto him that giveth his neighbor ^vdrink, to thee that ^waddest thy ^vvenom, and makest him drunken also, that thou mayest look on their nakedness! 16 Thou art filled with ^xshame, and not glory: ^ydrink thou also, and ^zbe as one uncircumcised; the ^{aa}cup of Jehovah's right hand shall come round unto thee, and ^{ab}foul shame shall be upon thy glory. 17 For the ^{ac}violence done to Lebanon shall cover thee, and the destruction of the beasts, which made them afraid; ^{ad}because of men's blood, and for the ^{ae}violence done to the land, to the city and to all that dwell therein.

In the midst of the years make it known;

3 God ^{ap}10 came from ^{aq}Teman, And the Holy One from mount ^{ar}Paran. [Selah]

His ^{as}glory covered the heavens, And the ^{at}earth was full of his praise.

4 And ^{au}his ^{av}brightness was as the light;

He had ^{aw}11 rays coming forth ^{ax}12 from his hand;

And there was the hiding of his ^{ay}power.

5 Before him went the ^{az}pestilence, And ^{ba}13 fiery bolts went forth at his feet.

6 He stood, and ^{bb}14 measured the earth;

He beheld, and ^{bc}drove asunder the nations;

And the eternal ^{bd}mountains were scattered;

The everlasting hills did bow; ^{be}15 His goings were as ^{bf}of old.

7 I saw the tents of Cushan in ^{bg}affliction;

The curtains of the land of ^{bh}Midian did tremble.

8 Was Jehovah displeased with the ^{bi}rivers?

Jehovah's Day of Wrath coming upon Judah. The People warned to seek Jehovah

1 The word of Jehovah which came unto Zephaniah the son of Cushi, the son of Gedaliah, the son of Amariah, the son of Hezekiah, in the days of ^aJosiah the son of ^bAmon, king of Judah.

2 I will utterly ^cconsume all things from off the face of the ground, saith Jehovah. 3 I will consume ^dman and beast; I will consume the ^ebirds of the heavens, and the fishes of the sea, and the ^fstumblingblocks with the wicked; and I will cut off man from off the face of the ground, saith Jehovah. 4 And I will ^gstretch out my hand upon Judah, and upon all the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and I will ^hcut off the remnant of Baal from this place, and the name of the ⁱChemarim with the priests; 5 and them that worship the ^jhost of heaven upon the housetops; and them that worship, that ^kswear to Jehovah and swear by ^lMalcam; 6 and them that are ^mturned back from following Jehovah; and those that have ⁿnot sought Jehovah, nor inquired after him.

7 ^oHold thy peace at the presence of the Lord Jehovah; for the ^pday of Jehovah is at hand; for Jehovah hath prepared a ^qsacrifice, he hath ^rconsecrated his guests. 8 And it shall come to pass in the day of Jehovah's sacrifice, that I will ^spunish the princes, and the king's sons, and all such as are clothed with ^tforeign apparel. 9 And in that day I will ^upunish all those that leap over the threshold, that fill their master's house with ^vviolence and deceit. 10 And in that day, saith Jehovah, there shall be the noise of a ^wcry from the ^xfish gate, and a wailing from the ^ysecond quarter, and a great crashing from the ^zhills. 11 Wail, ye inhabitants of ^{aa}Maktesh; for all

^v the people of ^wCanaan are undone; all they that were laden with ^xsilver are cut off. 12 And it shall come to pass at that time, that I will ^ysearch Jerusalem with lamps; and I will ^zpunish the men that are ^{aa}settled on their lees, that ^{ab}say in their heart, Jehovah will not do good, neither will he do evil. 13 And their wealth shall become a ^{ac}spoil, and their houses a desolation: yea, ^{ad}they shall build houses, but shall not inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, but shall not drink the wine thereof.

14 The ^{ae}great ^{af}day of Jehovah is near, it is near and hasteth greatly, even the voice of the day of Jehovah; the mighty man ^{ag}crieth there bitterly. 15 That day is a day of wrath, a day of ^{ah}trouble and distress, a day of wasteness and desolation, a day of ^{ai}darkness and gloominess, a day of clouds and thick darkness, 16 a day of the ^{aj}trumpet and alarm, against the ^{ak}fortified cities, and against the high ^{al}battlements. 17 And I will bring ^{am}distress upon men, that they shall walk ^{an}like blind men, because they have sinned against Jehovah; and their ^{ao}blood shall be poured out as dust, and their ^{ap}flesh as dung. 18 ^{aq}Neither their silver nor their gold shall be able to deliver them in the day of Jehovah's wrath; but the whole land shall be ^{ar}devoured by the fire of his jealousy: for he will ^{as}make an end, yea, a ^{at}terrible end, of all them that dwell in the land.

THE BOOK OF HAGGAI

Haggai exhorts the People to build the Temple. Zerubbabel and Joshua obey. The Builders encouraged

1 In the ^asecond year of Darius the king, in the ^bsixth month, on the ^cfirst day of the month, came the word of Jehovah by ^aHaggai the prophet unto ^cZerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, ^cgovernor of Judah, and to ^dJoshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, saying, 2 Thus speaketh Jehovah of hosts, saying, This people say, ¹It is not the time for us to come, the time for Jehovah's house to be built. 3 Then came the word of Jehovah by Haggai the prophet, saying, 4 Is it a time for you yourselves to dwell in your ceiled ^ahouses, while this house ^clieth waste? 5 Now therefore thus saith Jehovah of hosts: ²Consider your ways. 6 Ye have ^asown much, and bring in little; ye eat, but ye have not enough; ye drink, but ye are not filled with drink; ye clothe you, but there is none warm; and he that earneth wages earneth wages to put it into a bag with holes.

7 Thus saith Jehovah of hosts: ²Consider your ways. 8 Go up to the ³mountain, and bring wood, and build the house; and I will ^mtake pleasure in it, and I will be ⁿglorified, saith Jehovah. 9 Ye ^olooked for much, and, lo, it came to little; and when ye brought it home, I did ⁴blow upon it. Why? saith Jehovah of hosts. Because of my house that ^clieth waste, while ye run every man to his own house. 10 Therefore ⁵for your sake the ^rheavens withhold the dew, and the earth withholdeth its fruit. 11 And I called for a ^sdrought upon the land, and upon the mountains, and upon the grain, and upon the new wine, and upon the oil, and upon that which the ground bringeth forth, and upon ^tmen, and upon cattle, and upon ^uall the labor of the hands.

10 In the ^j four and twentieth day of the ninth month, in the second year of Darius, came the word of Jehovah by Haggai the prophet, saying, 11 Thus saith Jehovah of hosts: "Ask now the priests concerning the law, saying, 12 If one bear ^k holy flesh in the skirt of his garment, and with his skirt do touch bread, or pottage, or wine, or oil, or any food, shall it become holy? And the priests answered and said, No. 13 Then said Haggai, ^l If one that is unclean by reason of a dead body touch any of these, shall it be unclean? And the priests answered and said, It shall be unclean. 14 Then answered Haggai and said, "So is this people, and so is this nation before me, saith Jehovah; and so is every work of their hands; and that which they offer there is unclean. 15 And now, I pray you, ^m consider from this day and backward, before a ⁿ stone was laid upon a stone in the temple of Jehovah. 16 ^o Through all that time, when one came to a heap of twenty ^p measures, there were but ^q ten; when one came to the winevat to draw out fifty ^r vessels, there were but twenty. 17 I smote you with ^s blasting and with mildew and with hail in all the work of your hands; yet ye ^t turned not to me, saith Jehovah. 18 ^u Consider, I pray you, from this day and backward, from the ^v four and twentieth day of the ninth month, since the day that the ^w foundation of Jehovah's temple was laid, consider it. 19 Is the seed yet in the barn? yea, the vine, and the fig-tree, and the pomegranate, and the olive-tree have not brought forth; from this day will I ^x bless you.

20 And the word of Jehovah came the second time unto Haggai in the ^y four and twentieth day of the month, saying, 21 Speak to ^z Zerubbabel, governor of Judah, saying, I will ^{aa} shake the heavens and the earth; 22 and I will overthrow the ^{ab} throne of kingdoms; and I will destroy the ^{ac} strength of the kingdoms of the nations; and I will overthrow the ^{ad} chariots, and those that ride in them; and the ^{ae} horses and their riders shall come down, ^{af} every one by the sword of his brother. 23 In that day, saith Jehovah of hosts, will I take thee, O Zerubbabel, my servant, the son of Shealtiel, saith Jehovah, and will make thee ^{ag} as a signet; for ^{ah} I have chosen thee, saith Jehovah of hosts.

THE BOOK OF ZECHARIAH

Jehovah remonstrates with the People. Zechariah's Vision of Horses. Promise of Mercy to Zion. Vision of Horns

1 In the ^aeighth month, in the second year of ^aDarius, came the word of Jehovah unto ^bZechariah the son of Berechiah, the son of ^cIddo, the prophet, saying, 2 Jehovah was ^asore displeased with your fathers. 3 Therefore say thou unto them, Thus saith Jehovah of hosts: ^cReturn unto me, saith Jehovah of hosts, and I will return unto you, saith Jehovah of hosts. 4 Be ye not ^cas your fathers, unto whom the ^bformer prophets cried, saying, Thus saith Jehovah of hosts, ^aReturn ye now from your evil ways, and from your evil doings: but they did ^cnot hear, nor hearken unto me, saith Jehovah. 5 Your ^kfathers, where are they? and the ^cprophets, do they live for ever? 6 But my words and my statutes, which I commanded my servants the prophets, did they not ^movertake your fathers? and they turned and said, "Like as Jehovah of hosts thought to do unto us, according to our ways, and according to our doings, so hath he dealt with us.

7 Upon the four and twentieth day of the ^celeventh month, which is the month Shebat, in the second year of ^cDarius, came the word of Jehovah unto ^cZechariah the son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo, the prophet, saying, 8 I saw in the night, and, behold, a man riding upon a ^pred horse, and he stood among the ^qmyrtle-trees that were in the ¹bottom; and behind him there were horses, ^rred, sorrel, and white. 9 Then said I, O ^mmy lord, what are these? And the ^aangel that talked with me said unto me, I will show thee what these are. 10 And the man that stood among the myrtle-trees answered and said, These are they whom Jehovah hath sent to ^uwalk to and fro through the earth. 11 the hand of his king; and they shall smite the land, and out of their hand I will ²not deliver them.

7 So I ³fed the flock of slaughter, verily ⁴the ⁵poor of the flock.

And I took unto me ⁶two staves; the one I called ⁷Beauty, and the other I called ⁸Bands; and I fed the flock. 8 And I cut off the three shepherds in ⁹one month; for my soul was weary of them, and their soul also loathed me.

9 Then said I, I will not feed you: that which ¹⁰dieth, let it die; and ¹¹that which is to be cut off, let it be cut off; and let them that are left eat every one the flesh of another. 10 And I took my staff

Beauty, and cut it asunder, that I might ¹²break my covenant which I had made with all the peoples.

11 And it was broken in that day; and ¹²thus ¹³the ¹⁴poor of the flock that gave heed unto me knew that it was the word of Jehovah.

12 And I said unto them, If ye think good, give me my ¹⁵hire; and if not, forbear. So they weighed for my hire ¹⁶thirty ¹⁷pieces of silver.

13 And Jehovah said unto me, Cast it unto the ¹⁸potter, the goodly price that I was prized at by them. And I took the thirty pieces of silver, and cast them unto the potter, in the house of Jehovah. 14 Then I cut asunder mine other staff, even ¹⁹Bands, that I might ²⁰break the brotherhood between Judah and Israel.

15 And Jehovah said unto me, Take unto thee yet again the instruments of a ²¹foolish shepherd.

16 For, lo, I will raise up a shepherd in the land, who will ²²not visit those that are ²³cut off, neither will seek ²⁴those that are scattered, nor heal that which is broken, nor feed that which ²⁵is sound; but he will ²⁶eat the flesh of the fat ²⁷sheep, and will tear their hoofs in pieces. 17 ²⁸Woe to the worthless shepherd that leaveth the flock! the ²⁹sword shall be upon his ³⁰arm, and upon his right eye: his arm shall be clean dried up, and his right eye shall be utterly darkened.

The Coming Night of Judah. Jerusalem's Repentance. Her Purification. Jehovah's Shepherd smitten

12 The ¹burden of the word of Jehovah concerning Israel.

Thus saith Jehovah, who ^astretcheth forth the heavens, and ^blayeth the foundation of the earth, and ^cformeth the spirit of man within him: 2 Behold, I will make Jerusalem a ^acup of reeling unto all the peoples round about, and ²upon ^cJudah also ³shall it be in the siege against Jerusalem. 3 And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will make Jerusalem a burdensome ^astone for all the peoples; all that burden themselves with it shall be ^asore wounded; and all the ^anations of the earth shall be gathered together against it. 4 In that day, saith Jehovah, I will smite every ^ahorse with terror, and his rider with madness; and I will open mine eyes upon the house of Judah, and will smite every horse of the peoples with blindness. 5 And the chieftains of Judah shall say in their heart, The inhabitants of Jerusalem are my ^astrength in Jehovah of hosts their God. 6 In that day will I make the chieftains of Judah like a pan of ^afire among wood, and like a flaming torch among sheaves; and they shall devour all the peoples round about, on the right hand and on the left; and they of ^mJerusalem shall yet again dwell in ^atheir own place, even in Jerusalem. 7 Jehovah also shall ^asave the tents of Judah first, that the glory of the house of ^aDavid and the glory of the inhabitants of Jerusalem be not magnified above Judah. 8 In that day shall Jehovah ^adefend the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and he ^athat is ^afeeble among them at that day shall be as David; and the house of David shall be as ^aGod, as the ^aangel of Jehovah before them. 9 And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will ^aseek to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem.

10 And I will ^apour upon the house of David, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the spirit of ^agrace and of supplication; and they shall look unto ^ame whom they have ^apierced; and they shall mourn for him, as one ^amourneth

Jehovah's Love of Jacob. Impious Priests rebuked

"covenant may be with Levi, saith Jehovah of hosts. 5 My covenant was with him of life and peace; and I gave them to him that he might fear; and he feared me, and stood in awe of my name. 6 The "law of truth was in his mouth, and unrighteousness was not found in his lips: he walked "with me in peace and uprightness, and "turned many away from iniquity. 7 For the priest's lips should keep "knowledge, and they should "seek the law at his mouth; for he is the messenger of Jehovah of hosts. 8 But ye are "turned aside out of the way; ye have caused many to "stumble in the law; ye have "corrupted the covenant of Levi, saith Jehovah of hosts. 9 Therefore have I also made you "contemptible and "base before all the people, according as ye have not kept my ways, but have had "respect of persons in the law.

10 Have we not all "one father? hath not one God created us? why do we deal "treacherously every man against his brother, profaning the "covenant of our fathers? 11 Judah hath dealt "treacherously, and an abomination is committed in Israel and in Jerusalem; for Judah hath "profaned the "holiness of Jehovah which he loveth, and hath married the daughter of a foreign god. 12 "Jehovah will cut off, to the man that doeth this, him that waketh and him that answereth, out of the tents of Jacob, and him that "offereth an offering unto Jehovah of hosts. 13 And this "again ye do: ye cover the altar of Jehovah with tears, with weeping, and with sighing, insomuch that he "regardeth not the offering any more, neither receiveth it with good will at your hand. 14 Yet ye say, Wherefore? for ye rob me, even this whole nation. 10 Bring ye the whole tithe into the store-house, that there may be food in my house, and prove me now herewith, saith Jehovah of hosts, if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it. 11 And I will rebuke the devourer for your sakes, and he shall not destroy the fruits of your ground; neither shall your vine cast its fruit before the time in the field, saith Jehovah of hosts. 12 And all nations shall call you happy; for ye shall be a delight-some land, saith Jehovah of hosts.

Yet ye say, What have we spoken against thee? 14 Ye have said, It is vain to serve God; and what profit is it that we have kept his charge, and that we have walked mournfully before Jehovah of hosts? 15 and now we call the proud happy; yea, they that work wickedness are built up; yea, they tempt God, and escape.

PREFACE

THIS edition of the Revised New Testament of 1881 embodies a purpose entertained by many members of the American Revision Committee almost from the publication of the work. The list of passages in which the New Testament Company dissented from the decisions of their English associates, when it was transmitted to them, bore the heading, "The American New Testament Revision Company, having in many cases yielded their preference for certain readings and renderings, present the following instances in which they differ from the English Company, as in their view of sufficient importance to be appended to the revision, in accordance with an understanding between the Companies."

The knowledge of the existence of these suppressed deviations naturally stirred a desire that they should be made accessible to at least the American public. This desire, especially on the part of those whose generous interest in the work from its inception had enabled the American revisers to meet the pecuniary outlay its preparation involved, they were not unwilling to gratify. The obligation they felt, however, to guard as far as they might the purity and integrity of the version, led them to pledge their support for fourteen years to the editions issued by the University Presses of Oxford and Cambridge. But the reiterated suggestion to those Presses to publish an edition especially for American readers not having met with favor, they acceded to the overtures of the Messrs. Nelson and engaged in preparing gratuitously the desired edition, to be issued when the expiration of the period specified should open the way for its honorable publication. The publishers, on their part, agreed to protect the version in its integrity, and to sell the book at a price not exceeding a fair profit on its cost.

In the preparation of this edition no attempt has been made to preserve a full record of the other readings and renderings than those that appeared in the work as published in 1881 which were preferred by the American revisers. The Appendix of that edition, however, was not only hastily compiled under pressure from the University Presses, but its necessarily limited compass compelled, as the original heading intimated, the exclusion of many suggestions that the American Company held to be of interest and importance. These, amounting in the aggregate to a considerable number, have been incorporated in the present edition. The opportunity has been taken also to introduce not a few alterations, individually of slight importance, yet as a body contributing decidedly to the perfection of the work. But the survivors of the New Testament Company have not felt at liberty to make new changes of moment which were not favorably passed upon by their associates at one stage or another of the original preparation of the work.

Respecting details, but little need be added to the ample statements made in the Preface prefixed to the work on its first appearance.

In the delicate matter of rendering the names of the several coins that occur in the New Testament, we have departed somewhat from our English brethren. For the Greek λεπτόν the term "mite" has been retained, and for κοδράντης the rendering "farthing" (see Mk. xii. 42). But ἀσάριον has been translated "penny" (Matt. x. 29; Lk. xii. 6); while in thirteen out of the sixteen instances where in the edition of 1881 the Greek δηνάριον was represented by this English word, the term "shilling" has been substituted, not only as corresponding more nearly to the coin's relative value, but also because "penny," according to its modern use, is in some cases highly inappropriate (see Matt. xx. 2; Lk. x. 35; Rev. vi. 6). In the three remaining instances (Matt. xxii. 19; Mk. xii. 15; Lk. xx. 24), the Greek name of the coin has been introduced, in order to meet the obvious requirement of the context. Where the English value of coins is given in the margin, we have added the equivalents in our national currency; but in the case of the talent (Matt. xviii. 24) what is believed to be a more accurate valuation has been given.

In formal particulars, this new edition will show but slight and infrequent deviations from its predecessor. The division of the text into paragraphs in that edition has not been often departed from; and then chiefly in cases where the same matter is found in more than one of the Gospels, and hence uniformity of division seemed desirable. Further, in the Epistles and the Revelation the more decided transitions to a new topic have been indicated by leaving a line blank. The somewhat ponderous and peculiar system of punctuation of the original edition has been in the main adhered to; although, pursuant to the principle there followed, a comma has here and there been dropped which seemed likely to obstruct the reader, and the gradations of thought have been occasionally indicated more distinctly by substituting a semicolon for the overworked colon. The titles of the books, which in the former edition were given as printed in 1611, have been somewhat abbreviated, at the dictate of convenience, and agreeably to usage, ancient as well as modern. They have been altered only in the few instances where the former heading was erroneous (as in the case of the Epistle to the Hebrews), or apt to mislead (as in the case of the Book of Acts), or hardly intelligible to the ordinary reader (as the "General" in the heading of some of the shorter Epistles), or founded in a misapprehension (as in the case of "Saint" prefixed to the names of the Evangelists). Moreover, the alternate title of the New Testament, and the mode of printing the headings of the Four Evangelists' narratives, are designed to recall to mind the inherent signification and primitive use of the terms "Testament" (compare Hebrews ix. 15 f.) and "Gospel." In the Book of Revelation, also, the "Glorias," "Trisagia," etc., have been marked typographically.

In dealing with the Language, the American revisers have endeavored to act with becoming deference and reserve. A few archaisms, such as "how that," "for to," "the which," "howbeit," etc., which are becoming uncouth to a modern ear, have been generally although not invariably discarded. Not a few of the instances of the superfluous use of "do" and "did" as auxiliaries, of "that" as equivalent to "that which," and the like, have also been removed; and current usage has been recognized in the case of forms which King James's revision employed indiscriminately, as "beside" and "besides" (see Luke xvi. 26; xxiv. 21). But in making these and other slight changes, the American editors have not forgotten that they were dealing with a venerable monument of English usage, and have been careful not to obliterate the traces of its historic origin and descent.

The two most obvious departures of this edition from that of 1881 consist in the addition of references to parallel and illustrative Biblical passages, and of running headings to indicate the contents of the pages.

The references have been selected in the main from a numerous collection provisionally attached to the text at one stage of the preparation of the original work, but withheld at the time of its publication. In selecting them, however, other similar collections and the better commentaries have not been neglected; but the aim has been to avoid multiplying them to such a degree as to embarrass or discourage a student. Accordingly, references which may be said to be of a hortatory or dogmatic character have been comparatively neglected, as belonging less to the study of Scripture than to its application, whether in the realm of thought or of life. On the other hand, prominence has been given to those which illustrate national customs, characteristic phrases, peculiarities of vocabulary or style, correspondences between different Biblical books, and the like. Some attempt has been made, also, to group references topically; as for example, in the case of Matthew's allusions to the "words" of Christ; of the "we" sections in Acts; of the use of "brethren" in addressing Christians on the one hand, and Jews on the other; of "Jews" as employed in a national and a hierarchical reference; and the like. In order further to lessen the number of "superiors" tending to distract a reader's eye, the different references belonging to a verse have often been consolidated, with the result occasionally that in the given group of passages one may illustrate one part of a verse, another another. References printed in italics designate parallel passages; in such cases the comprehensive reference is generally held to suffice for all details falling within the limits of the parallels, especially in the Gospels. In many cases, however, striking aphorisms, particularly when not found in all of the parallel narratives, have received a notation of their own. As the references constitute an apparatus mainly for Biblical study, and as their selection has been inevitably influenced somewhat by modern exegetical opinion, they have been separated from the citations and express allusions for which the sacred writer is responsible, by printing this latter class with Roman chapter-numerals and setting them at the foot of the page.

Notwithstanding the caution — as wise perhaps as prudent — which led the English Committee wholly to omit the headings of chapters and pages, and in spite of the disfavor which has been the fate of many attempts to furnish them from the days of Dr. Blayney, who, with four assistants, produced a set which speedily fell into neglect, it has been deemed best to equip the present edition with running headlines, which may serve in some sort instead of a detailed Table of Contents, and as landmarks to a reader familiar with the text. In preparing them it has been the constant aim to avoid as far as possible all pre-commitments, whether doctrinal or exegetical; and with this object in view, the forms of statement employed have been drawn in the main from the Biblical text. Often a fragmentary quotation which might serve as a catchword or reminder of a well-known passage has been deemed sufficient. The limitations of space have frequently compelled a partial selection from the contents of a given page, the continuation of a heading from one page to the next, or even the entry of the kernel of a statement on a page adjoining that on which it appears in the text. Slight displacement in such a case seemed preferable to total omission.

It is not superfluous to mention expressly the fact that in this edition the variant readings and renderings are placed at the foot of the pages, but in as close juxtaposition as possible with the passages to which they relate. The reader's attention is thereby drawn to the circumstance that some degree of uncertainty still cleaves, in the judgment of scholars, either to the text of the passage before him, or to its translation, or to both. Accordingly, when he remembers that, by the rule of procedure which the Committee followed, the translation of 1611 held its place in every instance until an alteration commanded the votes of two-thirds of the revisers, it will become evident to him that a rendering given in the margin may have commended itself to a majority, while still falling short of the degree of approval necessary to enable it to supplant the text. It is known that this was the case in a considerable number of instances, of which the established term "Comforter" as the appellation of the Holy Spirit in the fourteenth chapter of the Gospel of John is a notable representative.

The present volume, it is believed, will on the one hand bring a plain reader more closely into contact with the exact thought of the sacred writers than any version now current in Christendom, and on the other hand prove itself especially serviceable to students of the Word. In this belief the editors bid it anew God-speed, and in the realization of this desired result they will find their all-sufficient reward.

ILLUSTRATING THE BIBLE LANDS OF

THE NEW TESTAMENT.

Specially prepared for Nelson's Bibles by Frank Lloyd Rose, Cartographer, and edited by Rev. W. W. White, Ph.D., D.D., President of the Bible Teacher's Training School, New York,

These Maps include the results of recent careful surveys and the most authentic identification of Biblical localities.

They are placed through the Bible just where they should be to locate and firmly fix in the mind of the reader the places mentioned in the Sacred Text.

Flight into Egypt. Slaughter of the Innocents. Return to Nazareth. Preaching of the Baptist

¹ Wise-men from the east came to Jerusalem, saying, ² Where is he that is born ^a King of the Jews? for we saw ^b his star in the east, and are come to ³ worship him. ³ And when Herod the king heard it, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him. ⁴ And gathering together all the chief priests and scribes of the people, he inquired of them where the Christ should be born. ⁵ And they said unto him, ^c In Bethlehem of Judæa: for thus it is written through the prophet,

⁶ ^d And thou Bethlehem, land of Judah,

Art in no wise least among the princes of Judah:

For out of thee shall come forth a governor,

Who shall be ^e shepherd of my people Israel.

⁷ Then Herod privily called the ¹ Wise-men, and learned of them exactly ^f what time the star appeared. ⁸ And he sent them to Bethlehem, and said, Go and search out exactly concerning the young child; and when ye have found ^g him, bring me word, that I also may come and ³ worship him. ⁹ And they, having heard the king, went their way; and lo, the star, which they saw in the east, went before them, till it came and stood over where the young child was. ¹⁰ And when they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceeding great joy. ¹¹ And they came into the house and saw the young child with ^h Mary his mother; and they fell down and worshipped him; and opening their treasures they offered unto him gifts, gold and frankincense and myrrh. ¹² And being ⁱ warned of God in a dream that they should not return to Herod, they departed into their own country another way.

¹³ Now when they were departed, behold, an angel of the Lord ^j appeareth to Joseph in a dream, saying, Arise and take the young child and his mother, and flee into Egypt, and be thou there until I tell thee: for Herod will seek the young child to destroy

¹⁶ Then Herod, when he saw that he was mocked of the ¹ Wise-men, was exceeding wroth, and sent forth, and slew all the male children that were in Bethlehem, and in all the borders thereof, from two years old and under, according to the time which he had exactly learned of the ¹ Wise-men. ¹⁷ Then was fulfilled that which was spoken through Jeremiah the prophet, saying,

¹⁸ ⁷ A voice was heard in Ramah, Weeping and great mourning, Rachel weeping for her children;

And she would not be comforted, because they are not.

¹⁹ But when Herod was dead, behold, an angel of the Lord ⁱ appeareth in a dream to Joseph in Egypt, saying, ²⁰ Arise and take the young child and his mother, and go into the land of Israel: for they are dead that sought the young child's life. ²¹ And he arose and took the young child and his mother, and came into the land of Israel. ²² But when he heard that Archelaus was reigning over Judæa in the room of his father Herod, he was afraid to go thither; and being ^k warned of God in a dream, he withdrew into the parts of Galilee, ²³ and came and dwelt in a city called ^l Nazareth; that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through the prophets, ⁸ that he should be called a ^m Nazarene.

3 And ⁿ in those days cometh ³ John the Baptist, preaching in ^o the wilderness of Judæa, saying, ² ^p Repent ye; for ^q the kingdom of heaven is at hand. ³ For this is he that was spoken of through Isaiah the prophet, saying,

^r The voice of one crying in the wilderness,

^s Make ye ready the way of the Lord,

Make his paths straight.

13 ^qThen cometh Jesus ^rfrom Galilee to the Jordan unto John, to be baptized of him. 14 But John would have hindered him, saying, I have need to be baptized of thee, and comest thou to me? 15 But Jesus answering said unto him, Suffer ^sit now: for thus it becometh us to fulfil all righteousness. Then he suffereth him. 16 And Jesus, when he was baptized, went up straightway from the water: and lo, the heavens were opened ⁶unto him, and ^the saw the Spirit of God descending as a dove, and coming upon him; 17 and lo, a voice out of the heavens, saying, ⁷This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

18 ^a And walking by ^a the sea of Galilee, he saw two brethren, ^c Simon who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea; for they were fishers. 19 And he saith unto them, Come ye after me, and I will make you fishers of men. 20 And they straightway left the nets, and followed him. 21 And going on from thence he saw two other brethren, ^d James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, in the boat with Zebedee their father, mending their nets; and he called them. 22 And they straightway left the boat and their father, and followed him.

23 And ^e Jesus went about ^e in all Galilee, ^f teaching in their synagogues, and ^f preaching the ^g gospel of the kingdom, and ^h healing all manner of disease and all manner of sickness among the people. 24 And the report of him went forth ⁱ into all Syria: and they brought unto him all that were sick, holden with divers diseases and torments, ^j possessed with demons, and ^k epileptic, and ^k palsied; and he healed them. 25 And there ^l followed him great multitudes from Galilee and ^l Decapolis and Jerusalem and Judæa and from ^l beyond the Jordan.

5 ^a And seeing the multitudes, he went up into ^a the mountain: and when he had sat down, his disciples came unto him: 2 and he ^b opened his mouth and taught them, saying,

3 ^c Blessed are the poor in spirit: for ^c theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

43 ^aYe have heard that it was said, ¹⁷Thou shalt love thy neighbor, and hate thine enemy: 44 but I say unto you, ^aLove your enemies, and pray for them that persecute you; 45 that ye may be ^asons of your Father who is in heaven: for he maketh his sun to rise on the evil and the good, and sendeth rain on the just and the unjust. 46 For ^aif ye love them that love you, what reward have ye? do not even the ¹⁸publicans the same? 47 And if ye salute your brethren only, what do ye more ^athan others? do not even the Gentiles the same? 48 ^aYe therefore shall be perfect, as your heavenly Father is perfect.

their synagogues, and ^apreaching the ¹gospel of the kingdom, and ^bhealing all manner of disease and all manner of sickness. 36 But when he ^csaw the multitudes, he was moved with compassion for them, ^dbecause they were distressed and scattered, as sheep not having a shepherd. 37 Then saith he unto his disciples, ^eThe harvest indeed is plenteous, but the laborers are few. 38 ^fPray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he send forth laborers into his harvest.

10 ^gAnd he called unto him his twelve disciples, and gave them authority over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to ^hheal all manner of disease and all manner of sickness.

2 ⁱNow the names of the twelve apostles are these: The first, ^jSimon, who is called Peter, and ^kAndrew his brother; ^lJames the son of Zebedee, and John his brother; ^mPhilip, and Bartholomew; ⁿThomas, and ^oMatthew the ^ppublican; ^qJames the son of Alphaeus, and ^rThaddeus; ^s4 Simon the ^tCananean, and ^uJudas Iscariot, who also ^vbetrayed him.

5 ^wThese twelve Jesus sent forth, and charged them, saying, Go not into any way of the Gentiles, and enter not into any city of the ^xSamaritans: 6 but go rather to ^ythe lost sheep of the house of Israel. 7 And as ye go, preach, saying, ^zThe kingdom of heaven is at hand. 8 Heal the sick, raise the dead, cleanse the lepers, cast out demons: freely ye received, freely give. 9 ^{aa}Get you no gold, nor silver, nor brass in your ^{ab}purses; 10 no wallet for ^{ac}your journey, neither two coats, nor shoes, nor staff: for ^{ad}the laborer is worthy of his food. 11 And into whatsoever city or village ye shall enter, search out who in it is worthy; and there abide till ye go forth. 12 And as ye enter into the house, ^{ae}salute it. 13 And if the house be worthy, let your peace come upon it: but if it be not worthy, let your peace return to you. 14 And whosoever shall not receive you, nor hear your words, as ye go forth out of that house or that city, ^{af}shake off the dust of your feet. 15 Verily I say unto you, ^{ag}It shall be more tolerable for the land of ^bSodom and Gomorrah in ^cthe day of judgment, than for that city.

16 ^aBehold, I send you forth as sheep in the midst of wolves: be ye therefore ^bwise as serpents, and ^charmless as doves. 17 But beware of men: for they will deliver you up to ^dcouncils, and ^ein their synagogues they will scourge you; 18 yea and before governors and kings shall ye be brought for my sake, for a testimony to them and to the Gentiles. 19 ^fBut when they deliver you up, ^gbe not anxious how or what ye shall speak: for it shall be given you in that hour what ye shall speak. 20 For ^hit is not ye that speak, but the Spirit of your Father that speaketh in you. 21 ⁱAnd brother shall deliver up brother to death, and the father his child: and children shall rise up against parents, and ^jcause them to be put to death. 22 And ^kye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake: but ^lhe that endureth to the end, the same shall be saved. 23 But when they ^mpersecute you in this city, flee into the next: for verily I say unto you, Ye shall not have gone through the cities of Israel, ⁿtill the Son of man be come.

24 ^aA disciple is not above his teacher, nor a ^bservant above his lord. 25 It is enough for the disciple that he be as his teacher, and the ^cservant as his lord. ^dIf they have called the master of the house ^eBeelzebub, how much more them of his household! 26 ^fFear them not therefore: ^gfor there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; and hid, that shall not be known. 27 ^hWhat I tell you in the darkness, speak ye in the light; and what ye hear in the ear, proclaim ⁱupon the house-tops. 28 And be not afraid of them that kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul: but rather ^jfear him who is able to destroy both soul and body in ^khell. 29 ^lAre not two spar-

22 ^b Then was brought unto him ² one ^c possessed with a demon, blind and dumb: and he healed him, insomuch that the dumb man spake and saw. 23 And all the multitudes were amazed, and said, Can this be the ^a son of David? 24 But when the Pharisees heard it, they said, This man doth not cast out demons, but

^{3c} by ⁴ Beelzebub the prince of the demons. 25 ^a And ^b knowing their thoughts he said unto them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and every city or house divided against itself shall not stand: 26 and if ^a Satan casteth out ^a Satan, he is divided against himself; how then shall his kingdom stand?

27 And if I ^{3c} by ⁴ Beelzebub cast out demons, ^{3k} by whom do your sons cast them out? therefore shall they be your judges. 28

But if I ³ by the Spirit of God cast out demons, then is the kingdom of God come upon you. 29 Or how can one enter into the house of the strong man, and spoil his goods, except he first bind the strong man? and then he will spoil his house. 30 ^a He that is not with me is against me; and he that gathereth not with me scattereth. 31 ^m Therefore I say unto you, Every sin and blasphemy shall be forgiven unto men; but the blasphemy against the Spirit shall not be forgiven. 32 And whosoever shall speak a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him; but whosoever shall speak against the Holy Spirit, it shall not be forgiven him, neither in ^a this ^b world, nor in that which is to come. 33 Either make the tree good, and its fruit good; or make the tree corrupt, and its fruit corrupt: for ^a the tree is known by its fruit. 34 ^a Ye offspring of vipers, how can ye, being evil, speak good things? ^a for out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh. 35 The good man out of his good treasure bringeth forth good things: and the evil man out of his evil treasure bringeth forth evil things.

36 And I say unto you, that every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in ^a the day of judgment. 37 For by thy words thou shalt be justified, and by thy words thou shalt be condemned.

38 Then certain of the scribes and Pharisees answered him, saying, Teacher, ^a we would see a sign from thee. 39 But he answered and said unto them, ^a An evil and adulterous generation seeketh after a sign; and there shall no sign be given to it but the sign of Jonah the prophet: 40 for as ^a Jonah was three days and three nights in the belly of the ^b whale; so shall ^a the Son of man be ^a three days and three nights in the heart of the earth. 41 ^a The men of Nineveh shall stand up in the judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: for ^a they repented at the preaching of Jonah; and behold, ^a a greater than Jonah is here. 42 ^b The queen of the south shall rise up in the judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and behold, ^a a greater than Solomon is here. 43 ^a But the unclean spirit, when ^a he is gone out of the man, passeth through waterless places, seeking rest, and findeth it not. 44 Then ^a he saith, I will return into my house whence I came out; and when ^a he is come, ^a he findeth it empty, swept, and garnished. 45 Then goeth ^a he, and taketh with ^a himself seven other spirits more evil than ^a himself, and they enter in and dwell there: and ^a the last state of that man cometh worse than the first. 36 And I say unto you, that every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in ^a the day of judgment. 37 For by thy words thou shalt be justified, and by thy words thou shalt be condemned.

38 Then certain of the scribes and Pharisees answered him, saying, Teacher, ^a we would see a sign from thee. 39 But he answered and said unto them, ^a An evil and adulterous generation seeketh after a sign; and there shall no sign be given to it but the sign of Jonah the prophet: 40 for as ^a Jonah was three days and three nights in the belly of the ^b whale; so shall ^a the Son of man be ^a three days and three nights in the heart of the earth. 41 ^a The men of Nineveh shall stand up in the judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: for ^a they repented at the preaching of Jonah; and behold, ^a a greater than Jonah is here. 42 ^b The queen of the south shall rise up in the judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and behold, ^a a greater than Solomon is here. 43 ^a But the unclean spirit, when ^a he is gone out of the man, passeth through waterless places, seeking rest, and findeth it not. 44 Then ^a he saith, I will return into my house whence I came out; and when ^a he is come, ^a he findeth it empty, swept, and garnished. 45 Then goeth ^a he, and taketh with ^a himself seven other spirits more evil than ^a himself, and they enter in and dwell there: and ^a the last state of that man cometh worse than the first. Even so shall it be also unto this evil generation.

46 ^a While he was yet speaking to the multitudes, behold, his ^a mother and his ^a brethren stood without, seeking to speak to him. 47 ¹⁰ And one said unto him, Behold, thy ^a mother and thy ^a brethren stand without, seeking to speak to thee. 48 But he answered and said unto him that told him, Who is my mother? and who are my brethren? 49 And he stretched forth his hand towards his disciples, and said, Behold, my mother and my brethren! 50 For whosoever shall do the will of my Father who is in heaven, he is my brother, and sister, and mother.

13 On that day went Jesus out of ^athe house, and sat ^bby the sea side. 2 And there were gathered unto him great multitudes, so that ^che entered into a boat, and sat; and all the multitude stood on the beach. 3 And he spake to them many things in ^dparables, saying, Behold, the sower went forth to sow; 4 and as he sowed, some ^eseeds fell by the way side, and the birds came and devoured them: 5 and others fell upon the rocky places, where they had not much earth: and straightway they sprang up, because they had no deepness of earth: 6 and when the sun was risen, they were scorched; and because they had no root, they withered away. 7 And others fell upon the thorns; and the thorns grew up and choked them: 8 and others fell upon the good ground, and yielded fruit, some a ^fhundredfold, some sixty, some thirty. 9 ^gHe that hath ears¹, let him hear.

10 And the disciples came, and said unto him, Why speakest thou unto them in parables? 11 And he answered and said unto them, ^hUnto you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it is not given. 12 ⁱFor whosoever hath, to him shall be given, and he shall have abundance: but whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken away even that which he hath. 13 Therefore speak I to them in parables: because ^jseeing they see not, and hearing they hear not, neither do they understand. 14 And unto them is fulfilled the prophecy of Isaiah, which saith,

^kBy hearing ye shall hear, and shall in no wise understand; And seeing ye shall see, and shall in no wise perceive:

15 For this people's heart is waxed gross, And their ears are dull of hearing, And their eyes they have closed;

Lest haply they should perceive with their eyes, And hear with their ears, And understand with their heart, And should turn again, And I should heal them.

16 ^vBut blessed are your eyes, for they see; and your ears, for they hear. 17 For verily I say unto you, that ^wmany prophets and righteous men desired to see the things which ye see, and saw them not; and to hear the things which ye hear, and heard them not. 18 ^xHear then ye the parable of the sower. 19 When any one heareth ^ythe word of the kingdom, and understandeth it not, ^zthen cometh the evil one, and snatcheth away that which hath been sown in his heart. This is he that was sown by the way side. 20 And he that was sown upon the rocky places, this is he that heareth the word, and straightway with joy receiveth it; 21 yet hath he not root in himself, but endureth for a while; and when tribulation or persecution ariseth because of the word, straightway he ^{aa}stumbleth. 22 And he that was sown among the thorns, this is he that heareth the word; and the care of ^{ab}the ³world, and the ^{ac}deceitfulness of riches, choke the word, and he becometh unfruitful. 23 And he that was sown upon the good ground, this is he that heareth the word, and understandeth it; who verily beareth fruit, and bringeth forth, some ^{ad}a hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty.

24 Another parable set he before them, saying, "The kingdom of heaven is likened unto" ^{ae}a man that sowed good seed in his field: 25 but while men slept, his enemy came and sowed ^{af}tares also among the wheat, and went away. 26 But when the blade sprang up and brought forth fruit, then appeared the tares also. 27 And the ^{ag}servants of the householder came and said unto him, Sir, didst thou not sow good seed in thy field? whence then hath it tares? 28 And he said unto them, ^{ah}An enemy hath done this. And the ^{ai}servants say unto him, Wilt thou then that we go and gather them up? 29 But he saith, Nay; lest haply while ye

31 Another parable set he before them, saying, ^bc The kingdom of heaven is like unto ^aa grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and sowed in his field: 32 which indeed is less than all seeds; but when it is grown, it is greater than the herbs, and becometh a tree, so that ^ethe birds of the heaven come and lodge in the branches thereof.

33 Another parable spake he unto them; ^bc The kingdom of heaven is like unto leaven, which a woman took, and hid in ^fthree ¹measures of meal, till it was all leavened.

34 All these things spake Jesus in parables unto the multitudes; and ^gwithout a parable spake he nothing unto them: 35 that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through the prophet, saying,

I will utter things hidden from the foundation ³of the world.

36 Then he left the multitudes, and went into ^hthe house: and his disciples came unto him, saying, ⁱExplain unto us the parable of the tares of the field. 37 And he answered and said, He that soweth the good seed is ^kthe Son of man; 38 and the field is the world; and the good seed, these are ^lthe sons of the kingdom; and the tares are ^mthe sons of ⁿthe evil one; 39 and the enemy that sowed them is the devil: and the harvest is ^othe end of the world; and the reapers are angels. 40 As therefore the tares are gathered up and burned with fire; so shall it be in the ^pend of the world. 41 ^kThe Son of man ^qshall send forth his angels, and they shall gather out of his kingdom all things that cause stumbling, and them that do iniquity, 42 and ^rshall cast them into the furnace of fire: ^rthere shall be the weeping and the gnashing of teeth. 43 Then shall the right-

45 Again, ^cthe kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is a merchant seeking goodly pearls: 46 and having found one pearl of great price, he went and sold all that he had, and bought it.

47 Again, ^cthe kingdom of heaven is like unto a ⁷net, that was cast into the sea, and gathered of every kind: 48 which, when it was filled, they drew up on the beach; and they sat down, and gathered the good into vessels, but the bad they cast away. 49 So shall it be in ⁸the end of the world: the angels shall come forth, and sever the wicked from among the righteous, 50 and ⁹shall cast them into the furnace of fire: ^rthere shall be the weeping and the gnashing of teeth.

51 Have ye understood all these things? They say unto him, Yea. 52 And he said unto them, Therefore every scribe who hath been made a disciple to the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is a householder, who bringeth forth out of his treasure things new and old.

evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, railings : 20 these are the things which defile the man ; but to eat with unwashen hands defileth not the man.

21 ^a And Jesus went out thence, and withdrew into the parts of ^b Tyre and ^c Sidon. 22 And behold, a Canaanitish woman came out from those borders, and cried, saying, Have mercy on me, O Lord, thou ^d son of David ; my daughter is grievously ^e vexed with a demon. 23 But he answered her not a word. And his disciples came and besought him, saying, Send her away ; for she crieth after us. 24 But he answered and said, I was not sent but unto ^f the lost sheep of the house of Israel. 25 But she came and ^g worshipped him, saying, Lord, help me. 26 And he answered and said, It is not meet to take the children's ^h bread and cast it to the dogs. 27 But she said, Yea, Lord : for even the dogs eat of the crumbs which fall from their masters' table. 28 Then Jesus answered and said unto her, O woman, ⁱ great is thy faith : be it done unto thee even as thou wilt. And her daughter was healed from that hour.

29 ^a And Jesus departed thence, and came nigh unto ^b the sea of Galilee ; and he went up into the mountain, and sat there. 30 And there came unto him great multitudes, having with them the lame, blind, dumb, maimed, and many others, and they cast them down at his feet ; and ^c he healed them : 31 insomuch that the multitude wondered, when they saw the dumb speaking, the maimed whole, and the lame walking, and the blind seeing : and they ^d glorified the God of Israel.

32 ^a And Jesus called unto him his disciples, and said, ^b I have compassion on the multitude, because they continue with me now three days and have nothing to eat : and I would not send them away fasting, lest haply they faint on the way. 33 And the disciples say unto him, Whence should we have so many loaves in a desert place as to fill so great a multitude? 34 And Jesus said unto them, How many loaves have ye? And they said, Seven, and a few small fishes. 35 And he commanded the multi-

5 And the disciples came to the other side and forgot to take ^jbread. 6 And Jesus said unto them, Take heed and ^kbeware of the leaven of the ^lPharisees and Sadducees. 7 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, ^m"We took no ⁿbread. 8 And Jesus perceiving it said, ^o"O ye of little faith, why reason ye among yourselves, because ye have no ^pbread? 9 Do ye not yet perceive, neither remember ^qthe five loaves of the five thousand, and how many ^r"baskets ye took up? 10 Neither ^sthe seven loaves of the four thousand, and how many ^t"baskets ye took up? 11 How is it that ye do not perceive that I spake not to you concerning ^ubread? 17 ^dAnd after six days Jesus taketh with him ^ePeter, and ^eJames, and John his brother, and bringeth them up into a high mountain apart: 2 and he was transfigured before them; and his face did shine as the sun, and his garments became white as the light. 3 And behold, there appeared unto them Moses and Elijah talking with him. 4 And Peter ^fanswered, and said unto Jesus, Lord, it is good for us to be here: if thou wilt, ^gI will make here three ³tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah. 5 While he was yet speaking, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them: and behold, ^ha voice out of the cloud, saying, ⁱThis is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased; hear ye him. 6 And when the disciples heard it, they fell on their face, and were sore afraid. 7 And Jesus came and touched them and said, Arise, and ^kbe not afraid. 8 And lifting up their eyes, they saw no one, save Jesus only.

9 ^lAnd as they were coming down from the mountain, Jesus commanded them, saying, ^mTell the vision to no man, until ⁿthe Son of man be ^orisen from the dead. 10 And his disciples asked him, saying, Why then say the scribes that ^pElijah must first come? 11 And he answered and said, Elijah indeed cometh, and shall restore all things: 12 but I say unto you, that Elijah is come already, and they knew him not, but did unto him whatsoever they would. Even so shall ⁿthe Son of man also suffer of them. 13 Then understood the disciples that he spake unto them of John the Baptist.

14 ^qAnd when they were come to the multitude, there came to him a man, kneeling to him, and saying, 15 Lord, have mercy on my son: for he is ^repileptic, and suffereth grievously; for oft-times he falleth into the fire, and oft-times into the water. 16 And I

19 Then came the disciples to Jesus apart, and said, Why could not we cast it out? 20 And he saith unto them, Because of your little faith: for verily I say unto you, ^aIf ye have faith as ^aa grain of mustard seed, ye shall say unto ^bthis mountain, Remove hence to yonder place; and it shall remove; and ^cnothing shall be impossible unto you.⁴

The Question of Rank. Of Stumbling-blocks. The Lost Sheep. Duty towards Offenders. The Unmerciful Servant

Verily I say unto you, Except ye turn, and ^a become as little children, ye shall in no wise enter into the kingdom of heaven. 4 Whosoever therefore shall humble himself as this little child, the same is the ¹ greatest in the kingdom of heaven. 5 And whoso shall receive one such little child in my name receiveth me: 6 but ^b whoso shall ^c cause one of these little ones that believe on me to stumble, it is profitable for him that ² a great millstone should be hanged about his neck, and that he should be sunk in the depth of the sea.

7 Woe unto the world because of occasions of stumbling! for ^a it must needs be that the occasions come; but woe to that man through whom the occasion cometh! 8 And ^a if thy hand or thy foot ^c causeth thee to stumble, cut it off, and cast it from thee: it is good for thee to enter into life maimed or halt, rather than having two hands or two feet to be cast into the eternal fire. 9 And ^a if thine eye ^c causeth thee to stumble, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: it is good for thee to enter into life with one eye, rather than having two eyes to be cast into the ³ hell of fire. 10 See that ye despise not one of these little ones: for I say unto you, that in heaven ^a their angels do always behold the face of my Father who is in heaven.⁴ 12 How think ye? ^a if any man have a hundred sheep, and one of them be gone astray, doth he not leave the ninety and nine, and go unto the mountains, and seek that which goeth astray? 13 And if so be that he find it, verily I say unto you, he rejoiceth over it more than over the ninety and nine which have not gone astray. 14 Even so it is not ⁵ the will of ⁶ your Father who is in heaven, that one of these little ones should perish.

15 And ^a if thy brother sin ⁷ against thee, go, show him his fault between thee and him alone: if he hear thee, thou hast gained thy brother. 16 But if he hear thee not, take with thee one or two more, that ^a at the mouth of two witnesses or three every word may be established. 17 And if he refuse to hear them, ^m tell it unto the ⁸ church: and if he refuse to hear the ⁸ church also, ⁿ let him be unto thee as the Gentile and the ⁹ publican. 18 Verily I say unto you, ^o What things soever ye shall bind on earth shall be bound in heaven; and what things soever ye shall loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven. 19 Again I say unto you, that if two of you shall agree on earth as touching anything that they shall ask, ^p it ¹⁰ shall be done for them of my Father who is in heaven. 20 For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them.

21 Then came Peter and said to him, Lord, ^q how oft shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? until ^r seven times? 22 Jesus saith unto him, I say not unto thee, Until seven times; but, Until ¹¹ seventy times seven. 23 Therefore is ^a the kingdom of heaven likened unto a certain king, who would ^u make a reckoning with his ¹² servants. 24 And when he had begun to reckon, one was brought unto him, that owed him ten thousand ¹³ talents. 25 But forasmuch as he ^v had not wherewith to pay, his lord commanded him ^x to be sold, and his wife, and children, and all that he had, and payment to be made. 26 The ¹⁴ servant therefore fell down and ¹⁵ worshipped him, saying, Lord, have patience with me, and I will pay thee all. 27 And the lord of that ¹⁴ servant, being moved with compassion, released him, and forgave him the ¹⁶ debt. 28 But that ¹⁴ servant went out, and found one of his fellow-servants, who owed him a hundred ¹⁷ shillings; and he laid hold on him, and took him by the throat, saying, Pay what thou owest. 29 So his fellow-servant fell down and besought him, saying, Have patience with me, and I will pay thee. 30 And he would

20 1 For ^fthe kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that was a householder, who went out early in the morning to hire laborers into his ^gvineyard. 2 And when he had agreed with the laborers for a ³shilling a day, he sent them into his vineyard. 3 And he went out about the third hour, and saw others standing in the marketplace idle; 4 and to them he said, Go ye also into the vineyard, and whatsoever is right I will give you. And they went their way. 5 Again he went out about the sixth and the ninth hour, and did likewise. 6 And about the eleventh hour he went out, and found others standing; and he saith unto them, Why stand ye here all the day idle? 7 They say unto him, Because no man hath hired us. He saith unto them, Go ye also into the vineyard. 8 And when ^heven was come, the lord of the vineyard saith unto his ⁱsteward, Call the laborers, and pay them their hire, beginning from the last unto the first. 9 And when they came that were hired about the eleventh hour, they received every man a ^jshilling. 10 And when the first came, they supposed that they would receive more; and they likewise received every man a ^kshilling. 11 And

15 Then went the Pharisees, and took counsel how they might ensnare him in his talk. 16 And they send to him their disciples, with the ^gHerodians, saying, Teacher, we know that thou art true, and teachest the way of God in truth, and carest not for any one: for thou regardest not the person of men. 17 Tell us therefore, What thinkest thou? Is it lawful to give ^htribute unto ⁱCæsar, or not? 18 But Jesus perceived their wickedness, and said, Why make ye trial of me, ye hypocrites? 19 Show me the ^jtribute money. And they brought unto him a ^kdenarius. 20 And he saith unto them, Whose is this image and superscription? 21 They say unto him, Cæsar's. Then saith he unto them, ^lRender therefore unto Cæsar the things that are Cæsar's; and unto God the things that are God's. 22 And when they heard it, they marvelled, and ^mleft him, and went away.

23 ⁿOn that day there came to him ^oSadducees, ^pthey that say that there is no resurrection: and they asked him, 24 saying, Teacher, Moses said, ^qIf a man die, having no children, his brother ^rshall marry his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother. 25 Now there were with us seven brethren: and the first married and deceased, and having no seed left his wife unto his brother; 26 in like manner the second also, and the third, unto the ⁷seventh. 27 And after them all, the woman died. 28 In the resurrection therefore whose wife shall she be of the seven? for they all had her. 29 But Jesus answered and said unto them, Ye do err, ^dnot knowing the scriptures, nor the power of God. 30 For in the resurrection they neither ^emarry, nor are given in marriage, but are as angels ^fin heaven. 31 But as touching the resurrection of the dead, have ye not read that which was spoken unto you by God, saying, 32 ^gI am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob? God is not the God of the dead, but of the living. 33 And when the multitudes heard it, ^hthey were astonished at his teaching.

34 ⁱBut the Pharisees, when they heard that he had put ^jthe Sadducees to silence, gathered themselves together. 35 And one of them, ^ka lawyer, asked him a question, trying him: 36 Teacher, which is the great commandment in the law? 37 And he said unto him, ^lThou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. 38 This is the great and first commandment. 39 ^mAnd a second like unto it is this, ⁿThou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. 40 ^oOn these two commandments the whole law hangeth, and the prophets.

41 ^pNow while the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them a question, 42 saying, What think ye of the Christ? whose son is he? They say unto him, ^qThe son of David. 43 He saith unto them, How then doth David ^rin the Spirit call him Lord, saying,

44 ^sThe Lord said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, Till I put thine enemies underneath thy feet?

45 If David then calleth him Lord, how is he his son? 46 And ^tno one was able to answer him a word, neither durst any man from that day forth ask him any more questions.

23 ^uThen spake Jesus to the multitudes and to his disciples, 2 saying, ^vThe scribes and the Pharisees sit on Moses' seat:

25 Then shall ⁶⁸the kingdom of heaven be likened unto ten virgins, who took their ⁶⁹lamps, and went forth to meet the bridegroom. 2 And five of them were foolish, and five were ⁷⁰wise. 3 For the foolish, when they took their ⁷¹lamps, took no oil with them; 4 but the ⁷²wise took oil in their vessels with their ⁷³lamps. 5 Now while the bridegroom tarried, they all slumbered and slept. 6 But at midnight there is a cry, Behold, the bridegroom! Come ye forth to meet him. 7 Then all those virgins arose, and trimmed their ⁷⁴lamps. 8 And the foolish said unto the wise, Give us of your oil; for our ⁷⁵lamps are going out. 9 But the ⁷⁶wise answered, saying, Peradventure there will not be enough for us and you: go ye rather to them that sell, and buy for yourselves. 10 And while they went away to buy, the bridegroom came; and they that were ⁷⁷ready went in with him to ⁷⁸the marriage feast: and ⁷⁹the door was shut. 11 Afterward came also the other virgins, saying, ⁸⁰Lord, Lord, open to us. 12 But he answered and said, Verily I say unto you, I know you not. 13 ⁸¹Watch therefore, for ye know not the day nor the hour.

14 ⁸²For it is as when a man, ⁸³going into another country, called his own ⁸⁴servants, and delivered unto them his goods. 15 And unto one he gave five ⁸⁵talents, to another two, to another one; to each according to his several ability; and he ⁸⁶went on his journey. 16 Straightway he that received the five ⁸⁷talents went and traded with them, and made other five talents. 17 In like manner he also that received the two gained other two. 18 But he that received the one went away and digged in the earth, and hid his lord's money. 19 Now after a long time the lord of those ¹servants cometh, and ²maketh a reckoning with them. 20 And he that received the five ³talents came and brought other five talents, saying, Lord, thou deliverdest unto me five talents: lo, I have gained other five talents. 21 His lord said unto him, Well done, good and ⁴faithful ⁵servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will set thee over many things; enter thou into the joy of thy lord. 22 And he also that received the two ⁶talents came and said, Lord, thou deliverdest unto me two talents: lo, I have gained other two talents. 23 His lord said unto him, Well done, good and ⁷faithful ⁸servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will set thee over many things; enter thou into the joy of thy lord. 24 And he also that had received the one ⁹talent came and said, Lord, I knew thee that thou art a hard man, reaping where thou didst not sow, and gathering where thou didst not scatter; 25 and I was afraid, and went away and hid thy talent in the earth: lo, thou hast thine own. 26 But his lord answered and said unto him, Thou wicked and slothful ¹⁰servant, thou knewest that I reap where I sowed not, and gather where I did not scatter: 27 thou oughtest therefore to have put my money to the bankers, and at my coming I should have received back mine own with interest. 28 Take ye away therefore the talent from him, and give it unto him that hath the ten talents. 29 ¹¹For unto every one that hath shall be given, and he shall have abundance: but from him that hath not, even that which he hath shall be taken away. 30 And cast ye out the unprofitable ¹²servant into ¹³the outer darkness: ¹⁴there shall be the weeping and the gnashing of teeth.

31 But when ¹⁵the Son of man shall come in his glory, and all the angels with him, then ¹⁶shall he sit on the throne of his glory: 32 and before him shall be gathered all the nations: and he shall separate them one from another, Barabbas, or Jesus ^hwho is called Christ? 18 For he knew that for envy they had delivered him up. 19 And ⁱwhile he was sitting on the judgment-seat, his wife sent unto him, saying, Have thou nothing to do with that ^jrighteous man; for I have suffered many things this day ^kin a dream because of him. 20 Now the chief priests and the elders persuaded the multitudes that they should ^lask for Barabbas, and destroy Jesus. 21 But the governor answered and said unto them, Which of the two will ye that I release unto you? And they said, Barabbas. 22 Pilate saith unto them, What then shall I do unto Jesus ^mwho is called Christ? They all say, Let him be crucified. 23 And he said, Why, what evil hath he done? But they cried out exceedingly, saying, Let him be crucified. 24 So when Pilate saw that he prevailed nothing, but rather that ⁿa tumult was arising, he took water, and ^owashed his hands before the multitude, saying, I am innocent ^pof the blood of this ^qrighteous man; ^rsee ye to it. 25 And all the people answered and said, ^sHis blood be on us, and on our children. 26 Then released he unto them Barabbas; but Jesus he ^tscourged and delivered to be crucified.

27 ^aThen the soldiers of the governor took Jesus into ^bthe ¹Prætorium, and gathered unto him the whole ^{2c}band. 28 And they ³stripped him, and ^aput on him a scarlet robe. 29 ^dAnd they platted a crown of thorns and put it upon his head, and a reed in his right hand; and they kneeled down before him, and mocked him, saying, ^eHail, King of the Jews! 30 And ^fthey spat upon him, and took the reed and smote him on the head. 31 ^gAnd when they had mocked him, they took off from him the robe, and put on him his garments, and led him away to crucify him.

32 ^hAnd as they came out, they found a man of ⁱCyrene, Simon by name: him they ^jcompelled to go with them, that he might bear his cross.

33 ^kAnd when they were come unto a place called ^lGolgotha, that is to say, The place of a skull, 34 they gave him ^mwine to drink mingled with gall: and when he had tasted it, he would not drink. 35 And when they had crucified him, they parted his garments among them, casting lots; 36 and they sat and ⁿwatched him there. 37 And they set up over his head his accusation written, ^oTHIS IS JESUS THE KING OF THE JEWS. 38 Then are there crucified with him two robbers, one on the right hand and one on the left. 39 And they that passed by railed on him, ^pwagging their heads, 40 and saying, ^qThou that destroyest the ^rtemple, and buildest it in three days, save thyself: ^sif thou art the Son of God, come down from the cross. 41 In like manner also the chief priests mocking ^thim, with the scribes and elders, said, 42 ^uHe saved others; ^vhimself he cannot save. ^wHe is the King of Israel; ^xlet him now come down from the cross, and we will believe on him. 43 ^yHe trusteth on God; let him deliver him now, if he desireth him: for he said, I am the Son of God. 44 ^zAnd the robbers also that were crucified with him cast upon him the same reproach.

1 The beginning of the ¹gospel of Jesus Christ, ^{2a} the Son of God.

2 ^b Even as it is written ³ in Isaiah the prophet,

^{4c} Behold, I send my messenger before thy face,

3 ^{5a} The voice of one crying in the wilderness,

Make ye ready the way of the Lord,

Make his paths straight;

4 John came, who baptized in the wilderness and ⁶ preached the baptism of repentance unto ⁷ remission of sins. 5 And there went out unto him all the country of Judæa, and all they of Jerusalem; and they were baptized of him in the river Jordan, confessing their sins.

6 And John was clothed with camel's hair, and ^{had} a leathern girdle about his loins, and did eat locusts and wild honey. 7 And he preached, saying, There cometh after me he that is mightier than I, the latchet of whose shoes I am not ⁶ worthy to stoop down and unloose. 8 I baptized you ⁷ in water; but he shall baptize you ⁷ in the Holy Spirit.

9 ⁹ And it came to pass in those days, that Jesus ^a came from Nazareth of Galilee, and was baptized of John ⁸ in the Jordan. 10 And straightway coming up out of the water, he saw the heavens rent asunder, and the Spirit as a dove descending upon him: 11 and a voice came out of the heavens, ¹ Thou art my beloved Son, in thee I am well pleased.

12 ^a And straightway the Spirit driveth him forth into the wilderness. 13 And he was in the wilderness forty days tempted of ¹ Satan; and he was with the wild beasts; and the angels ministered unto him.

14 ^m Now after John was delivered up, Jesus came into Galilee, ⁿ preaching the ¹gospel of God, 15 and saying, ^o The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: ^p repent ye, and believe in the ¹gospel.

16 ^q And passing along by the sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and Andrew the brother of Simon casting a net in the sea; for they were fishers. 17 And Jesus said unto them, Come ye after me, and I will make you to become fishers of men. 18 And straightway they left the nets, and followed him. 19 And going on a little further, he saw ⁹ James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, who also were in the boat mending the nets. 20 And straightway he called them; and they left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired servants, and went after him.

21 ^a And they go into Capernaum; and straightway on the sabbath day ¹ he entered into the synagogue and taught. 22 And ¹ they were astonished at his teaching: for he taught them as having authority, and not as the scribes. 23 And straightway there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit; and he cried out, 24 saying, ^u What have we to do with thee, Jesus thou ^v Nazarene? art thou come to destroy us? I know thee who thou art, ^z the Holy One of God. 25 And Jesus rebuked ¹⁰ him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him. 26 And the unclean spirit, ¹¹ tearing him and crying with a loud voice, came out of him. 27 And they were all ^y amazed, inasmuch that they questioned among themselves, saying, What is this? a new teaching! with authority he commandeth even the unclean spirits, cleansing the things which Moses ⁷ commanded, for a testimony unto them. 45 But he went out, and began to ⁸ publish it much, and to ⁹ spread abroad the ⁸ matter, insomuch that ⁹ Jesus could no more openly enter into ¹⁰ a city, but was without in desert places: and ¹¹ they came to him from every quarter.

2 And when he entered again into Capernaum after some days, it was noised that he was ¹² in the house. 2 And ⁷ many were gathered together, so that there was no longer room for them, no, not even about the door: and he spake the word unto them.

3 ⁴ And they come, bringing unto him a man ⁶ sick of the palsy, borne of four. 4 And when they could not ¹² come nigh unto him for the crowd, they ¹¹ uncovered the roof where he was: and when they had broken it up, they let down the ¹³ bed whereon the ⁶ sick of the palsy lay. 5 And Jesus seeing their faith saith unto the sick of the palsy, ¹⁴ Son, ⁹ thy sins are forgiven. 6 But there were certain of the scribes sitting there, and reasoning in their hearts, 7 Why doth this man thus speak? he blasphemeth: ² who can forgive sins but one, even God? 8 And straightway Jesus, perceiving in his spirit that they so reasoned within themselves, saith unto them, Why reason ye these things in your hearts? 9 Which is easier, to say to the ⁶ sick of the palsy, Thy sins are forgiven; or to say, Arise, and take up thy ¹³ bed, and walk?

10 But that ye may know that the Son of man hath authority on earth to forgive sins (he saith to the sick of the palsy), 11 I say unto thee, Arise, take up thy ¹³ bed, and go unto thy house. 12 And he arose, and straightway took up the ¹³ bed, and went forth before them all; insomuch that they were all amazed, and ⁹ glorified God, saying, ² We never saw it on this fashion.

13 And he went forth again by the sea side; and ^a all the multitude resorted unto him, and he taught them. 14 ^b And as he passed by, he saw ^c Levi the son of Alphæus sitting at the place of

15 And it came to pass, that he was sitting at meat in his house, and many ¹publicans and sinners sat down with Jesus and his disciples: for there were many, and they followed him. 16 And ^bthe scribes ²of the Pharisees, when they saw that he was eating with the sinners and ¹publicans, said unto his disciples, ^{3c}How is it that he eateth ⁴and drinketh with ¹publicans and sinners? 17 And when Jesus heard it, he saith unto them, ^a*They that are ⁵whole have no need of a physician, but they that are sick: I came not to call the righteous, but sinners.*

18 ^eAnd John's disciples and the Pharisees were fasting: and they come and say unto him, Why do John's disciples and the disciples of the Pharisees fast, but thy disciples fast not? 19 And Jesus said unto them, Can the ⁶sons of the bridechamber fast, while the bridegroom is with them? as long as they have the bridegroom with them, they cannot fast. 20 But ^fthe days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, and then will they fast in that day. 21 No man seweth a piece of undressed cloth on an old garment: else that which should fill it up taketh from it, the new from the old, and a worse rent is made. 22 And no man putteth new wine into old ⁷wine-skins; else the wine will burst the skins, and the wine perisheth, and the skins: but they put new wine into fresh wine-skins.

23 ^gAnd it came to pass, that he was going on the sabbath day through the grainfields; and his disciples ⁸began, as they went, to ^hpluck the ears. 24 And the Pharisees said unto him, Behold, ⁱwhy do they on the sabbath day that which is not lawful? 25 And he said unto them, ⁹Did ye never read what David did, when he had need, and was hungry, he, and they

that were with him? 26 How he entered into the house of God ¹⁰when ^kAbiathar was high priest, and ate the showbread, which it is not lawful to eat save for the priests, and gave also to them that were with him? 27 And he said unto them, ^lThe sabbath was made for man, and ^mnot man for the sabbath: 28 so that the Son of man is lord even of the sabbath.

3 ⁿAnd he ^oentered again into the synagogue; and there was a man there who had his hand withered. 2 And ^pthey watched him, whether he would heal him on the sabbath day; ^qthat they might accuse him. 3 And he saith unto the man that had his hand withered, ¹¹Stand forth. 4 And he saith unto them, Is it lawful on the sabbath day to do good, or to do harm? to save a life, or to kill? But they held their peace. 5 And when he had ^rlooked round about on them with anger, being grieved at the hardening of their heart, he saith unto the man, Stretch forth thy hand. And he stretched it forth; and his hand was restored. 6 And the Pharisees went out, and straightway with the ^sHerodians took counsel against him, how they might destroy him.

7 ^tAnd Jesus with his disciples withdrew to the sea: and ^ua great multitude from Galilee followed; and from Judæa, 8 and from Jerusalem, and from ^vIdumæa, and beyond the Jordan, and about ^wTyre and Sidon, a great multitude, hearing ¹²what great things he did, came unto him. 9 And he spake to his disciples, that a little boat should wait on him because of the crowd, lest they should throng him: 10 for he had ^yhealed many; inso-much that as many as had ^{13z}plagues ¹⁴pressed upon him that they might ^atouch him. 11 And the unclean spirits, whensoever they beheld him, fell down before him, and cried, saying, Thou art ^bthe Son of God. 12 And he ^ccharged them much that they should not make him known.

The Twelve are chosen. Calumny of the Scribes refuted. Spiritual Kinship more than Natural. The Reason for Parables pointed twelve,¹ that they might be with him, and that he might send them forth to preach, 15 and to have authority to cast out demons: 16 ^{2a} and Simon he surnamed Peter; 17 and ³ James the son of Zebedee, and John the brother of ³ James; and them he surnamed Boanerges, which is, Sons of thunder: 18 and Andrew, and Philip, and Bartholomew, and Matthew, and Thomas, and ³ James, the son of Alphæus, and Thaddæus and Simon the ⁴ Cananean, 19 and Judas Iscariot, who also ⁵ betrayed him.

And he cometh ^{6a} into a house. 20 And ⁶ the multitude cometh together again, ^a so that they could not so much as eat bread. 21 And when ⁶ his friends heard it, they went out to lay hold on him: for they said, ⁷ He is beside himself. 22 And the scribes that came down ⁷ from Jerusalem said, He hath ^{7b} Beelzebub, and, ⁸ By the prince of the demons casteth he out the demons. 23 ^a And he called them unto him, and said unto them in ¹ parables, How can ^m Satan cast out Satan? 24 And if a kingdom be divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand. 25 And if a house be divided against itself, that house will not be able to stand. 26 And if ^m Satan hath risen up against himself, and is divided, he cannot stand, but hath an end. 27 ⁿ But no one can enter into the house of the strong man, and spoil his goods, except he first bind the strong man; and then he will spoil his house. 28 ^o Verily I say unto you, All their sins shall be forgiven unto the sons of men, and their blasphemies wherewith soever they shall blaspheme: 29 but whosoever shall blaspheme against the Holy Spirit hath never forgiveness, but is guilty of an eternal sin: 30 because they said, He hath an unclean spirit.

31 ^p And there come his mother and his brethren; and, standing without, they sent unto him, calling him. 32 And a multitude was sitting about him; and they say unto him, Behold, thy mother and thy brethren without seek for thee. 33 And he answereth them, and saith, Who is my mother and my brethren? 34 And looking round on them that sat round about him, he saith, Behold, my mother and my brethren! 35 For whosoever shall do the will of God, the same is my brother, and sister, and mother.

4 ^q And again he began to teach ^r by the sea side. And there is gathered unto him a very great multitude, so that he entered into a boat, and sat in the sea; and all the multitude were by the sea on the land. 2 And he taught them many things in ¹ parables, and said unto them in his teaching, 3 Harken: Behold, the sower went forth to sow: 4 and it came to pass, as he sowed, some seed fell by the way side, and the birds came and devoured it. 5 And other fell on the rocky ground, where it had not much earth; and straightway it sprang up, because it had no deepness of earth: 6 and when the sun was risen, it was scorched; and because it had no root, it withered away. 7 And other fell among the thorns, and the thorns grew up, and choked it, and it yielded no fruit. 8 And others fell into the good ground, and yielded fruit, growing up and increasing; and brought forth, thirtyfold, and sixtyfold, and a hundredfold. 9 And he said, ^s Who hath ears to hear, let him hear.

10 And when he was alone, they that were about him with the twelve asked of him the parables. 11 And he said unto them, Unto you is given the mystery of the kingdom of God: but unto ^t them that are without, all things are done ^u in parables: 12 ^v that seeing they may see, and not perceive; and hearing they may hear, and not understand; lest haply they should turn again, and it should be forgiven them. 13 ^x And he saith unto them, Know ye not this parable? and how shall ye know all the parables? 14 The sower soweth the word. 15 And these are they by the way side, where the word is sown; and when they have heard, straightway cometh ^m Satan, and taketh away the word which hath been sown in them. 16 And these in like manner are they that are sown upon the rocky places, who, when they have heard the word, straightway receive it with joy;

Admonition to hear. The Secret Growth of the Seed. The Mustard Seed. The Storm. The Gerasene Demoniac

17 and they have no root in themselves, but endure for a while; then, when tribulation or persecution ariseth because of the word, straightway they stumble. 18 And others are they that are sown among the thorns; these are they that have heard the word, 19 and the cares of ^athe ¹world, and the deceitfulness of riches, and the lusts of other things entering in, choke the word, and it becometh unfruitful. 20 And those are they that were sown upon the good ground; such as hear the word, and accept it, and bear fruit, thirtyfold, and sixtyfold, and a hundredfold.

21 And he said unto them, ^bIs the lamp brought to be put under the bushel, or under the bed, and not to be put on the stand? 22 ^cFor there is nothing hid, save that it should be manifested; neither was anything made secret, but that it should come to light. 23 ^aIf any man hath ears to hear, let him hear. 24 And he said unto them, Take heed what ye hear: ^dwith what measure ye mete it shall be measured unto you; and more shall be given unto you. 25 ^eFor he that hath, to him shall be given: and he that hath not, from him shall be taken away even that which he hath.

26 And he said, ^fSo is the kingdom of God, as if a man should cast seed upon the earth; 27 and should sleep and rise night and day, and the seed should spring up and grow, he knoweth not how. 28 The earth ²beareth fruit of herself; first the blade, then the ear, then the full grain in the ear. 29 But when the fruit ³is ripe, straightway he ⁴putteth forth the sickle, because the harvest is come.

30 ^hAnd he said, How shall we liken the kingdom of God? or in what parable shall we set it forth? 31 ⁵It is like a grain of mustard seed, which, when it is sown upon the earth, though it be less than all the seeds that are upon the earth, 32 yet when it is sown, groweth up, and becometh greater than all the herbs, and putteth out great branches; so that the birds of the heaven can lodge under the shadow thereof.

33 And with many such parables spake he the word unto them, as they were able to hear it; 34 and ^kwithout a parable spake he not unto them: but privately to his own disciples he expounded all things.

35 ¹And on that day, when even was come, he saith unto them, Let us go over unto the other side. 36 And leaving the multitude, they take him with them, even as he was, ^min the boat. And other boats were with him. 37 And there ariseth a great storm of wind, and the waves beat into the boat, insomuch that the boat was now filling. 38 And he himself was in the stern, asleep on the cushion: and they awake him, and say unto him, Teacher, carest thou not that we perish? 39 And he awoke, and rebuked the wind, and said unto the sea, Peace, be still. And the wind ceased, and there was a great calm. 40 And he said unto them, Why are ye fearful? have ye not yet faith? 41 And they feared exceedingly, and said one to another, Who then is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?

5 ⁿAnd they came to the other side of the sea, into the country of the Gerasenes. 2 And when he was come out of ^mthe boat, straightway there met him out of the tombs a man ^owith an unclean spirit, 3 who had his dwelling in the tombs: and no man could any more bind him, no, not with a chain; 4 because that he had been often bound with fetters and chains, and the chains had been rent asunder by him, and the fetters broken in pieces: and no man had strength to tame him. 5 And always, night and day, in the tombs and in the mountains, he was crying out, and cutting himself with stones. 6 And when he saw Jesus from afar, he ran and ⁶worshipped him; 7 and crying out with a loud voice, he saith, ^pWhat have I to do with thee, Jesus, thou ^qSon of ^rthe Most High God? I adjure thee by God, torment me not. 8 For he said unto him, Come forth, thou unclean spirit, out of the man. 9 And he asked him, What is thy name? And he saith unto him, My name is ^sLegion; for we are many. 10 And he besought him much that he would not send them away

Herod, when he heard ^{thereof}, said, John, whom I beheaded, he is risen. 17 For Herod himself had sent forth and laid hold upon John, and bound him in prison for the sake of ²Herodias, his brother Philip's wife; for he had married her. 18 For John said unto Herod, ^a"It is not lawful for thee to have thy brother's wife. 19 And ²Herodias set herself against him, and desired to kill him; and she could not; 20 for ³Herod feared John, knowing that he was a righteous and holy man, and kept him safe. And when he heard him, he ⁴was much perplexed; and he heard him gladly. 21 And when a convenient day was come, that Herod on his birthday ^cmade a supper to his lords, and the ¹⁰high captains, and the chief men ^dof Galilee; 22 and when ¹¹the daughter of ²Herodias herself came in and danced, ¹²she pleased Herod and them that sat at meat with him; and the king said unto the damsel, Ask of me whatsoever thou wilt, and I will give it thee. 23 And he sware unto her, Whatsoever thou shalt ask of me, I will give it thee, unto ^ethe half of my kingdom. 24 And she went out, and said unto her mother, What shall I ask? And she said, The head of John the Baptist. 25 And she came in straightway with haste unto the king, and asked, saying, I will that thou forthwith give me on a platter the head of John the Baptist. 26 And the king was exceeding sorry; but for the sake of his oaths, and of them that sat at meat, he would not reject her. 27 And straightway the king sent forth a soldier of his guard, and commanded to bring his head: and he went and beheaded him in the prison, 28 and brought his head on a platter, and gave it to the damsel; and the damsel gave it to her mother. 29 And when his disciples heard ^{thereof}, they came and took up his corpse, and laid it in a tomb. 30 ^fAnd the ⁹apostles gather themselves together unto Jesus; and they told him all things, whatsoever they had done, and whatsoever they had taught. 31 And he saith unto them, Come ye yourselves apart into a desert place, and rest a while. For there were many coming and going, and ^athey had no leisure so much as to eat. 32 ^bAnd they went away in ^cthe boat to a desert place apart. 33 And the people saw them going, and many knew them, and they ran together there ¹on foot from all the cities, and outwent them. 34 And he came forth and ^asaw a great multitude, and he had compassion on them, because ^cthey were as sheep not having a shepherd: and he began to teach them many things. 35 And when the day was now far spent, his disciples came unto him, and said, The place is desert, and the day is now far spent; 36 send them away, that they may go into the country and villages round about, and buy themselves somewhat to eat. 37 But he answered and said unto them, Give ye them to eat. ¹And they say unto him, Shall we go and buy two hundred ²⁹shillings' worth of bread, and give them to eat? 38 And he saith unto them, How many loaves have ye? go and see. And when they knew, they say, Five, and two fishes. 39 And he commanded them that all should ³sit down by companies upon the green grass. 40 And they sat down in ranks, by hundreds, and by fifties. 41 And he took the five loaves and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, he ^bblessed, and brake the loaves; and he gave to the disciples to set before them; and the two fishes divided he among them all. 42 And they all ate, and were filled. 43 And they took up broken pieces, twelve ⁴basketfuls, and also of the fishes. 44 And they that ate the loaves were ^kfive thousand men.

45 ¹And straightway he constrained his disciples to enter into ^mthe boat, and to go before him unto the other side to ⁿBethsaida, while he himself sendeth the multitude away. 46 And after he had ^otaken leave of them, he departed ^pinto the mountain to pray. 47 And when even was come, the boat was in the midst of the sea, and he alone on the land. 48 And seeing them distressed in rowing, for the wind was contrary unto them, about the ^qfourth watch of the night he cometh unto them, walking on the sea; and he would have passed by them: 49 but they, when they saw him walking on the sea, supposed that it was a ghost, and cried out; 50 for they all saw him, and were troubled. But he straightway spake with them, and saith unto them, ^rBe of good cheer: it is I; ^sbe not afraid. 51 And he went up unto them into ^tthe boat; and the wind ceased: and they were sore amazed in themselves; 52 for ^u"they understood not concerning the loaves, but their heart ^vwas hardened.

53 ^xAnd when they had ⁴crossed over, they came to the land unto Gennesaret, and moored to the shore. 54 And when they were come out of the boat, straightway the people knew him, 55 and ran round about that whole region, and began to carry about on their ⁵beds those that were sick, where they heard he was. 56 And whosoever he entered, into villages, or into cities, or into the country, they laid the sick in the market-places, and besought him that they might ^ytouch if it were but ^zthe border of his garment: and as many as touched ^bhim were made whole.

7 ^aAnd there are gathered together unto him the Pharisees, and certain of the scribes, who had come ^bfrom Jerusalem, 2 and had seen that some of his disciples ate their bread with ^cdefiled, that is, unwashen, hands. 3 (For the Pharisees, and all the Jews, except they wash their hands ^ddiligently, eat not, holding the ^etradition of the elders; 4 and when they come from the marketplace, except they ⁹bathe themselves, they eat not; and many other things there are, which they have received to hold, ¹⁰washings of ^ecups, and pots, and brassen vessels¹¹.) 5 And the Pharisees and the scribes ask him, Why walk not thy disciples according to the ^etradition of the elders, but eat their bread with ^fdefiled hands? 6 And he said unto them,

Ceremonial and Real Defilement. The Syrophœnician Woman. Cure of a Deaf-mute

Well did Isaiah prophesy of you hypocrites, as it is written,

¹This people honoreth me with their lips,

But their heart is far from me.

⁸ Ye leave the commandment of God, and hold fast the ^atradition of men. ⁹ And he said unto them, Full well do ye reject the commandment of God, that ye may keep your ^atradition. ¹⁰ For Moses said, ²Honor thy father and thy mother; and, He that speaketh evil of father or mother, let him ³die the death: ¹¹ but ye say, If a man shall say to his father or his mother, That wherewith thou mightest have been profited by me is ^bCorban, that is to say, Given to God; ¹² ye no longer suffer him to do ought for his father or his mother; ¹³ making void the word of God by your ^atradition, which ye have delivered: and many such like things ye do. ¹⁴ And he called to him the multitude again, and said unto them, Hear me all of you, and understand: ¹⁵ there is nothing from without the man, that going into him can defile him; but the things which proceed out of the man are those that defile the man.⁴ ¹⁷ And when he was entered ^cinto the house from the multitude, ^ahis disciples asked of him the parable. ¹⁸ And he saith unto them, Are ye so without understanding also? Perceive ye not, that whatsoever from without goeth into the man, it cannot defile him; ¹⁹ because it goeth not into his heart, but into his belly, and goeth out into the draught? This he said, ^emaking all meats ^fclean. ²⁰ And he said, ^gThat which proceedeth out of the man, that defileth the man. ²¹ For from within, out of the heart of men, ⁵evil thoughts proceed, fornications, thefts, murders, adulteries, ²²covetings, wickednesses, deceit, lasciviousness, an ^hevil eye, railing, pride, foolishness: ²³ all these evil things proceed from within, and defile the man.

and went away into the borders of ^kTyre ⁶and Sidon. And he entered into a house, and would have no man know it; and he could not be hid. ²⁵ But straightway a woman, whose little daughter had an unclean spirit, having heard of him, came and fell down at his feet. ²⁶ Now the woman was a ⁷Greek, a Syrophœnician by race. And she besought him that he would cast forth the demon out of her daughter. ²⁷ And he said unto her, Let the children first be filled: for it is not meet to take the children's ⁸bread and cast it to the dogs. ²⁸ But she answered and saith unto him, Yea, Lord; even the dogs under the table eat of the children's crumbs. ²⁹ And he said unto her, For this saying go thy way; the demon is gone out of thy daughter. ³⁰ And she went away unto her house, and found the child laid upon the bed, and the demon gone out.

8 In those days, when there was again a great multitude, and they had nothing to eat, ¹he called unto him his disciples, and saith unto them, ² ^uI have compassion on the multitude, because they continue with me now three days, and have nothing to eat: ³ and if I send them away fast-

2 ^eAnd after six days Jesus taketh with him ^fPeter, and ^gJames, and John, and bringeth them up into a high mountain apart by themselves: and he was transfigured before them; 3 and ^hhis garments became glistening, exceeding white, so as no fuller on earth can whiten them. 4 And there appeared unto them Elijah with Moses: and they were talking with Jesus. 5 And Peter answereth and saith to Jesus, ⁱRabbi, it is good for us to be here: and ^jlet us make three ^ktabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah. 6 For he knew not what to answer; for they became sore afraid. 7 And there came a cloud overshadowing them: and there came ^la voice out of the cloud, ^m'This is my beloved Son: hear ye him. 8 And suddenly looking round about, they saw no one any more, save Jesus only with themselves.

9 ⁿAnd as they were coming down from the mountain, he ^ocharged them that they should tell no man what things they had seen, save when the Son of man should have risen again from the dead. 10 And they kept the saying, questioning among themselves what the rising again from the dead should mean. 11 And they asked him, saying, ^p*How is it* that the scribes say that ^qElijah must first come? 12 And he said unto them, Elijah indeed cometh first, and restoreth all things: and how is it written of ^rthe Son of man, that ^she should suffer many things and be set at nought? 13 But I say unto you, that Elijah is come, and they have also done unto him whatsoever they would, even as it is written of him.

14 ^tAnd when they came to the disciples, they saw a great multitude about them, and scribes questioning with them. 15 And straightway all the multitude, when they saw him, were ^ugreatly amazed, and running to him saluted him. 16 And he asked them, What question ye with them? 17 And one of the multitude answered him, Teacher, I brought unto thee my son, who hath a dumb spirit; 18 and where-soever it taketh him, it ^vdasheth him down: and he foameth, and grindeth his teeth, and pineth away: and I spake to thy disciples that they should cast it out; and they were not able. 19 And he answereth them and saith, O faithless generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I bear with you? bring him unto me. 20 And they brought him unto him: and when he saw him, straightway the spirit ^wtore him grievously; and he fell on the ground, and wallowed foaming. 21 And he asked his father, How long time is it since this hath come unto him? And he said, From a child. 22 And oft-times it hath cast him both into the fire and into the waters, to destroy him: but if thou canst do anything, have compassion on us, and help us. 23 And Jesus said unto him, If thou canst! ^xAll things are possible to him that believeth. 24 Straightway the father of the child cried out, and said^y, I believe; help thou mine unbelief. 25 And when Jesus saw that ^za multitude came running together, he rebuked the unclean spirit, saying unto him, Thou dumb and deaf spirit, I command thee, come out of him, and enter no more into him. 26 And having cried out, and ^{aa}torn him much, he came out: and ^{ab}the boy became as one dead; insomuch that the more part said, He is dead. 27 But Jesus took him by the hand, and raised him up; and he arose. 28 And when he was come ^{ac}into the house, his disciples asked him privately, ^{ad}How is it that we could not cast it out? 29 And he said unto them, This kind can come out by nothing, save by prayer^{ae}.

Christ is the 'son of David? 36 David himself said in the Holy Spirit,

37 David himself calleth him Lord; and whence is he his son? And ⁸ m the common people heard him gladly.

38 ^a And in his teaching he said, Beware of the scribes, who desire to walk in long robes, and to have ^c salutations in the marketplaces, 39 and chief seats in the synagogues, and chief places at feasts; 40 ^b they that devour widows' houses, ^d and for a pretence make long prayers; these shall receive greater condemnation.

41 ^e And he sat down over against ^f the treasury, and beheld how the multitude ^g cast ^h money into the treasury: and many that were rich cast in much. 42 And there came ⁱ a poor widow, and she cast in two mites, which make a farthing. 43 And he called unto him his disciples, and said unto them, Verily I say unto you, This poor widow cast in more than all they that are casting into the treasury: 44 for they all did cast in of their superfluity; but she of her want did cast in all that she had, even all her ^j living.

13 ^k And as he went forth out of the temple, one of his disciples saith unto him, Teacher, behold, what manner of stones and what manner of buildings! 2 And Jesus said unto him, Seest thou these great buildings? ^l there shall not be left here one stone upon another, which shall not be thrown down.

3 And as he sat on ^m the mount of Olives over against the temple, ⁿ Peter and ^o James and John and Andrew asked him privately, 4 Tell us, when shall these things be? and what shall be the sign when these things are all about to be accomplished? 5 And Jesus began to say unto them, Take heed that no man lead you astray. 6 Many shall come in my name, saying, ^p I am he; and shall lead many astray. 7 And when ye shall hear of wars and rumors of wars, be not troubled: these things must needs come to pass; but the end is not yet. 8 For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom; there shall be earthquakes in divers places; there shall be famines: these things are the beginning of travail.

9 But take ye heed to yourselves: for they shall ^adeliver you up to councils; and ^bin synagogues shall ye be beaten; and before governors and kings shall ye stand for my sake, for a testimony unto them. 10 ^cAnd the ¹gospel must first be preached unto all the nations. 11 ^aAnd when they lead you to judgment, and deliver you up, be not anxious beforehand what ye shall speak: but whatsoever shall be given you in that hour, that speak ye; for it is not ye that speak, but the Holy Spirit. 12 And brother shall ²deliver up brother to death, and the father his child; and children shall rise up against parents, and ³cause them to be put to death. 13 And ^eye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake: but he that endureth to the end, the same shall be saved.

14 But ^fwhen ye see the abomination of desolation standing where he ought not (let him that readeth understand), then let them that are in Judæa flee unto the mountains: 15 and let him that is on the housetop not go down, nor enter in, to take anything out of his house: 16 and let him that is in the field not return back to take his cloak. 17 But woe unto them that are with child and to them that give suck in those days! 18 And pray ye that it be not in the winter. 19 For those days shall be tribulation, such as there hath not been the like ^gfrom the beginning of the creation which God created until now, and never shall be. 20 And except the Lord had shortened the days, no flesh would have been saved; but for the elect's sake, whom he chose, he shortened the days. 21 And then if any man shall say unto you, Lo, here is the Christ; or, Lo, there; believe

^lit not: 22 for there shall arise false Christs and ^mfalse prophets, and shall show ⁿsigns and ^owonders, that they may lead astray, if possible, the elect. 23 But take ye heed: behold, I have told you all things beforehand.

24 But in those days, after that tribulation, the sun shall be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, 25 and the stars shall be falling from heaven, and the powers that are in the heavens shall be shaken. 26 And then shall they see the Son of man ^pcoming in clouds with great power and glory. 27 And then shall he send forth the angels, and shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from the uttermost part of the earth to the uttermost part of heaven.

28 Now from the fig tree learn her parable: when her branch is now become tender, and putteth forth its leaves, ye know that the summer is nigh; 29 even so ye also, when ye see these things coming to pass, know ye that ^qhe is nigh, even at the doors. 30 Verily I say unto you, This generation shall not pass away, until all these things be accomplished. 31 Heaven and earth shall pass away: but my words shall not pass away. 32 ^rBut of that day or that hour knoweth no one, not even the angels in heaven, neither the Son, but the Father.

33 Take ye heed, ^swatch ^tand pray: for ye know not when the time is. 34 It is as when a man, sojourning in another country, having left his house, and given authority to his ^uservants, to each one his work, commanded also the porter to watch. 35 ^vWatch therefore: for ye know not when the lord of the house cometh, whether at even, or at midnight, or at ^wcockcrow, or ^xin the morning; 36 lest coming suddenly he find you ^ysleeping. 37 And what I say unto you I say unto all, ^zWatch.

And they murmured against her. 6 But Jesus said, Let her alone; why trouble ye her? she hath wrought a good work on me. 7 ^a For ye have the poor always with you, and whensoever ye will ye can do them good: but me ye have not always. 8 She hath done what she could; ^c she hath anointed my body beforehand for the burying. 9 And verily I say unto you, ^d Whersoever the ^e gospel shall be preached throughout the whole world, that also which this woman hath done shall be spoken of for a memorial of her.

10 ^a And Judas Iscariot, ^{5a} he that was one of the twelve, went away unto the chief priests, that he might ^e deliver him unto them. 11 And they, when they heard it, were glad, and promised to give him money. And he sought how he might conveniently ^e deliver him unto them.

6 ^m Now at ⁿ the feast he used to release unto them one prisoner, whom they asked of him. 7 And there was one called Barabbas, lying bound with them that had made insurrection, men who in the insurrection had committed murder. 8 And the multitude went up and began to ask him to do as he was wont to do unto them. 9 And Pilate answered them, saying, Will ye that I release unto you the King of the Jews? 10 For he perceived that for envy the chief priests had delivered him up. 11 But the chief priests stirred up the multitude, ^o that he should rather release Barabbas unto them. 12 And Pilate again answered and the Christ, ^athe King of Israel, now come down from the cross, that we may see and believe. And ^bthey that were crucified with him reproached him.

But they cried out exceedingly, Crucify him. 15 And Pilate, wishing to content the multitude, released unto them Barabbas, and delivered Jesus, when he had ^p scourged him, to be crucified.

33 ^cAnd when the ^asixth hour was come, there was darkness over the whole ¹land until the ^aninth hour. 34 And at the ^aninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, ^eEloi, Eloi, lama sabachthani? which is, being interpreted, ²My God, my God, ³why hast thou forsaken me? 35 And some of them that stood by, when they heard it, said, Behold, he calleth Elijah. 36 And one ran, and filling a sponge full of vinegar, put it on a reed, and gave him to drink, saying, Let be; let us see whether Elijah cometh to take him down. 37 ^dAnd Jesus uttered a loud voice, and gave up the ghost. 38 ^eAnd the veil of the ^atemple was rent in two from the top to the bottom. 39 ^hAnd when the centurion, who stood by over against him, saw that he ⁵so gave up the ghost, he said, Truly this man was ⁶the Son of God. 40 ⁱAnd there were also women beholding from afar: among whom ⁷were both Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of ⁸James ^kthe ⁸less and of ⁹Joses, and ^lSalome; 41 who, when he was in Galilee, followed him, and ^mministered unto him; and many other women that came up with him unto Jerusalem.

42 ⁿAnd when even was now come, because it was ^othe Preparation, that is, the day before the sabbath, 43 there came Joseph of Arimathæa, a ^pcouncillor ^qof honorable estate, who also himself was ^rlooking for the kingdom of God; and he ^sboldly went in unto Pilate, and asked for the body of Jesus. 44 And Pilate marvelled if he were already dead: and calling unto him the centurion, he asked him whether he ^thad been any while dead. 45 And when he learned it of ^uthe centurion, he granted the corpse to Joseph. 46 And he bought a linen cloth, and taking him down, wound him in the linen cloth, and laid him in a tomb which had been hewn out of a rock; and he rolled

ACCORDING TO LUKE

Preface. Birth of the Baptist foretold

1 Forasmuch as many have taken in hand to draw up a narrative concerning those matters which ^ahave been ¹fulfilled among us, ²even as they delivered them unto us, who ^bfrom the beginning were ^ceyewitnesses and ^dministers of ^ethe word, ³it seemed good to me also, ^fhaving traced the course of all things accurately from the first, to write unto thee ^gin order, ^hmost excellent ⁱTheophilus; ⁴that thou mightest know the certainty concerning the ²things ³wherein thou ^kwast instructed.

5 There was ^jin the days of Herod, king of Judæa, a certain priest named Zacharias, of the ^mcourse of Abijah: and he had a wife of the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elisabeth. 6 And they were both ⁿrighteous before God, walking in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord ^oblameless. 7 And they had no child, because that Elisabeth was barren, and they both were ^pnow well stricken in years.

8 Now it came to pass, while ^qhe executed the priest's office before God in the order of his course, 9 according to the custom of the priest's office, his lot was ^rto enter into the ^stemple of the Lord and burn incense. 10 And the whole multitude of the people were praying ^twithout at the hour of incense. 11 And there appeared unto him ^uan angel of the Lord standing on the right side of the altar of incense. 12 And Zacharias was troubled when he saw ^vhim, and fear fell upon him. 13 But the angel said unto him, ^wFear not, Zacharias: because thy supplication is heard, and thy wife Elisabeth shall bear thee a son, and ^xthou shalt call his name John. 14 And thou shalt have joy and gladness; and many

Birth of Jesus foretold. The Annunciation. Mary visits Elisabeth. The 'Magnificat.' Naming of the Baptist

26 Now in the sixth month the angel ^aGabriel was sent from God unto a city of Galilee, named ^bNazareth, 27 to ^ca virgin betrothed to a man whose name was Joseph, ^dof the house of David; and the virgin's name was Mary. 28 And he came in unto her, and said, Hail, thou that art ^ehighly favored, the Lord is with thee². 29 But she ^ewas greatly troubled at the saying, and cast in her mind what manner of salutation this might be. 30 And the angel said unto her, ^fFear not, Mary: for thou hast found ^gfavor with God. 31 And behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a son, and ^hshalt call his name JESUS. 32 He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of ⁱthe Most High: and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David: 33 ^jand he shall reign over the house of Jacob ^kfor ever; ^land of his kingdom there shall be no end. 34 And Mary said unto the angel, How shall this be, seeing I know not a man? 35 And the angel answered and said unto her, ^mThe Holy Spirit shall come upon thee, and the power of ⁿthe Most High shall overshadow thee: wherefore also ^othe holy thing which is begotten⁶ shall be called ^pthe Son of God. 36 And behold, Elisabeth thy kinswoman, she also hath conceived a son in her old age; and this is the sixth month with her that ^qwas called barren. 37 For ^rno word from God shall be void of power. 38 And Mary said, Behold, the ^shandmaid of the Lord; be it unto me according to thy word. And the angel departed from her.

39 And Mary arose in these days and went into ^tthe hill country with haste, into a city of Judah; 40 and entered into the house of Zacharias and saluted Elisabeth. 41 And it came to pass, when Elisabeth heard the salutation of Mary, the babe leaped in her womb; and Elisabeth was ^ufilled with the Holy Spirit; 42 and she lifted up her voice with a loud cry, and said, Blessed ^vart thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb. 43 And

2 Now it came to pass in those days, there went out a decree from ^bCæsar Augustus, that ^call ^dthe world should be enrolled. 2

This was the first enrolment made when Quirinius was governor of ^eSyria. 3 And all went to enrol themselves, every one to his own city. 4 And Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judæa, to the city of David, which is called Bethlehem, because ^fhe was of the house and family of David; 5 to enrol himself with Mary, who was betrothed to him, being great with child. 6 And it came to pass, while they were there, the days were fulfilled that she should be delivered. 7 And she brought forth her firstborn son; and she wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn.

8 And there were shepherds in the same country abiding in the field, and keeping ^gwatch by night over their flock. 9 And ^han angel of the Lord ⁱstood by them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them: and they were sore afraid.

10 And the angel said unto them, ^jBe not afraid; for behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy which shall be to all the people: 11 for there is born to you this day in the city of David a ^kSaviour, who is

^lChrist ^mthe Lord. 12 And ⁿthis ^ois the sign unto you: Ye shall find a babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, and lying in a manger. 13 And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying,

14 ^pGlory to God in the highest, And on earth ^qpeace among ^rmen ^sin whom he is well pleased.

15 And it came to pass, when the angels went away from them into heaven, the shepherds said one to

And they came, and filled both the boats, so that they began to sink. 8 But Simon Peter, when he saw it, fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, Depart from me; for I am a sinful man, O Lord. 9 For he was amazed, and all that were with him, at the draught of the fishes which they had taken; 10 and so were also ¹James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. "Love your enemies, do good to them that hate you, 28 bless them that curse you, "pray for them that despitefully use you. 29 "To him that smiteth thee on the one cheek offer also the other; and from him that taketh away thy cloak withhold not thy coat also. 30 Give to every one that asketh thee; and of him that taketh away thy goods ask them not again. 31 "And as ye would that men should do to you, do ye also to them likewise. 32 And "if ye love them that love you, what thank have ye? for even sinners love those that love them. 33 And if ye do good to them that do good to you, what thank have ye? for even sinners do the same. 34 "And if ye lend to them of whom ye hope to receive, what thank have ye? even sinners lend to sinners, to receive again as much. 35 But "love your enemies, and do them good, and lend, "never despairing; and your reward shall be great, and ye shall be "sons of "the Most High: for he is kind toward the unthankful and evil. 36 Be ye merciful, even as your Father is merciful. 37 "And judge not, and ye shall not be judged: and condemn not, and ye shall not be condemned: "release, and ye shall be released: 38 give, and it shall be given unto you; "good measure, pressed down, shaken together, running over, shall they give "into your bosom. For with what measure ye mete it shall be measured to you again.

39 And he spake also a parable unto them, "Can the blind guide the blind? shall they not both fall into a pit? 40 "The disciple is not above his teacher: but every one when he is perfected shall be as his teacher. 41 And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but considerest not the beam that is in thine own eye? 42 Or how canst thou say to thy brother, Brother, let me cast out the mote that is in thine eye, when thou thyself beholdest not the beam that is in thine own eye? Thou hypocrite, cast out first the beam out of thine own eye, and then shalt thou see clearly to cast out the mote that is in thy brother's eye. 43 "For there is no good tree that bringeth forth corrupt fruit; and as soon as it grew, it withered away, because it had no moisture.

7 And other fell amidst the thorns; and the thorns grew with it, and choked it. 8 And other fell into the good ground, and grew, and brought forth fruit a hundredfold.
As he said these things, he cried, ^pHe that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

9 ^aAnd his disciples asked him what this parable might be.
10 And he said, ^rUnto you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God: but to the rest in parables; ^athat seeing they may not see, and hearing they may not understand. 11 Now the parable is this: ^cThe seed is the word of God. 12 And those by the way side are they that have heard; then cometh the devil, and taketh away the word from their heart, that they may not believe and be saved. 13 And those on the rock are they who, when they have heard, receive the word with joy; and these have no root, who for a while believe, and in time of temptation fall away. 14 And that which fell among the thorns, these are they that have heard, and as they go on their way they are choked with cares and riches and pleasures of this life, and bring no fruit to perfection. 15 And that in the good ground, these are such as in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, hold it fast, and bring forth fruit with ⁹patience.

16 And ^ano man, when he hath lighted a lamp, covereth it with a vessel, or putteth it under a bed; but putteth it on a stand, that they that enter in may see the light. 17 ^aFor nothing is hid.

19 ^bAnd there came to him his mother and brethren, and they could not come at him for the crowd. 20 And it was told him, Thy mother and thy brethren stand without, desiring to see thee. 21 But he answered and said unto them, My mother and my brethren are these ^cthat hear the word of God, and do it.

22 ^aNow it came to pass on one of those days, that he entered into a boat, himself and his disciples; and he said unto them, Let us go over unto the other side of ^ethe lake: and they launched forth. 23 But as they sailed he fell asleep: and there came down a storm of wind on ^ethe lake; and they were filling with water, and were in jeopardy. 24 And they came to him, and awoke him, saying, ^fMaster, master, we perish. And he awoke, and ^grebuked the wind and the raging of the water: and they ceased, and there was a calm. 25 And he said unto them, Where is your faith? And being afraid they marvelled, saying one to another, Who then is this, that he commandeth even the winds and the water, and they obey him?

26 ^hAnd they arrived at the country of the ²Gerasenes, which is over against Galilee. 27 And when he was come forth upon the land, there met him a certain man out of the city, who had demons; and for a long time he had worn no clothes, and abode not in any house, but in the tombs. 28 And when he saw Jesus, he cried out, and fell down before him, and with a loud voice said, What have I to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of ^kthe Most High God? And he said, Legion; for many demons were entered into him. 31 And they entreated him that he would not command them to depart into ^mthe abyss. 32 Now there was there a herd of many swine feeding on the mountain: and they entreated him that he would give them leave to enter into them. And he gave them leave. 33 And the demons came out from the man, and entered into the swine: and the herd rushed down the steep into ^ethe lake, and were drowned. 34 And when they that fed them saw what had come to pass, they fled, and told it in the city and in the country. 35 And they went out to see what had come to pass; and they came to Jesus, and found the man, from whom the demons were gone out, sitting, clothed and in his right mind, ⁿat the feet of Jesus: and they were afraid. 36 And they that saw it told them how he that was ^opossessed with demons was ^amade whole. 37 And all the people of the country of the Gerasenes round about asked him to depart from them; for they were holden with great fear: and he entered into a boat, and returned. 38 ^pBut the man from whom the demons were gone out prayed him that he might be with him: but he sent him away, saying, 39 Return to thy house, and declare how great things God hath done for thee. And he went his way, publishing throughout the whole city how great things Jesus had done for him.

40 ^qAnd as Jesus returned, the multitude welcomed him; for they were all waiting for him. 41 ^rAnd behold, there came a man named Jairus, and he was ^aa ruler of the synagogue: and he fell down at Jesus' feet, and besought him to come into his house; 42 for he had an only daughter, about twelve years of age, and she was dying. Lord of heaven and earth, that thou didst hide these things from the wise and understanding, and didst reveal them unto babes : yea, Father; ¹for so it was well-pleasing in thy sight. 22 All things have been delivered unto me of my Father : and no one knoweth who the Son is, save the Father ; and who the Father is, save the Son, and he to whomsoever the Son willeth to reveal him. 23 ^aAnd turning to the disciples, he said privately, Blessed are the eyes which see the things that ye see : 24 for I say unto you, that many prophets and kings desired to see the things which ye see, and saw them not ; and to hear the things which ye hear, and heard them not.

25 ^aAnd behold, a certain ^olawyer stood up and made trial of him, saying, Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life ? 26 And he said unto him, What is written in the law ? how readest thou ? 27 And he answering said, ²Thou shalt love the Lord thy God ³with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind ; ⁴and thy neighbor as thyself. 28 And he said unto him, Thou hast answered right : ^athis do, and thou shalt live. 29 But he, desiring ^eto justify himself, said unto Jesus, And who is my neighbor ? 30 Jesus made answer and said. A certain man was ^ggoing down from Jerusalem to Jericho ; and he fell among robbers, who both stripped him and beat him, and departed, leaving him half dead. 31 And by chance a certain priest was going down that way : and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side. 32 And in like manner a Levite also, when he came to the place, and saw him, passed by on the other side. 33 But a certain ^oSamaritan, as he journeyed, came where he was : and when he saw him, he was moved with compassion, 34 and came to him, and bound up his wounds, pouring on them oil and wine ; and he set him on his own beast, and brought him to an inn, and took care of him. 35 And on the morrow he took out two ^oshillings, and gave them to the host, and said, Take care of him ;

38 Now as they went on their way, he entered into a certain village : and a certain woman named ^aMartha received him into her house. 39 And she had a sister called ^aMary, who also ^asat at the Lord's feet, and heard his word. 40 But ^aMartha was ^cumbered about much serving ; and she came up to him, and said, Lord, dost thou not care that my sister did leave me to serve alone ? bid her therefore that she help me. 41 But the Lord answered and said unto her, ⁷^aMartha, Martha, thou art ^aanxious and troubled about many things : 42 ⁸^mbut one thing is needful : for ^aMary hath chosen the good part, which shall not be taken away from her.

27 And it came to pass, as he said these things, a certain woman out of the multitude lifted up her voice, and said unto him, ^eBlessed is the womb that bare thee, and the breasts which thou didst suck. 28 But he said, Yea rather, blessed are ^fthey that hear the word of God, and keep it.

29 And when the multitudes were gathering together unto him, he began to say, ^gThis generation is an evil generation: it ^hseeketh after a sign; and there shall no sign be given to it but the sign of Jonah. 30 For even as Jonah became a sign unto the Ninevites, so shall also the Son of man be to this generation. 31 The queen of the south shall rise up in the judgment with the men of this generation, and shall condemn them: for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and behold, ⁱa greater than Solomon is here. 32 The men of Nineveh shall stand up in the judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: for they repented at the preaching of Jonah; and behold, ^ja greater than Jonah is here.

42 ^gBut woe unto you Pharisees! for ye ^htithe the mint and rue and every herb, and pass over justice and the love of God: but these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone. 43 Woe unto you Pharisees! for ye ⁱlove the chief seats in the synagogues, and the salutations in the marketplaces. 44 ^jWoe unto you! for ye are as the tombs which appear not, and the men that walk over them know it not.

45 And one of the ^klawyers answering saith unto him, Teacher, in saying this thou reproachest us also. 46 And he said, Woe unto you ^llawyers also! for ^mye load men with burdens grievous to be borne, and ye yourselves touch not the burdens with one of your fingers. 47 ⁿWoe unto you! for ye build the tombs of the prophets, and your fathers killed them. 48 So ye are witnesses and consent unto the works of your fathers: for they killed them, and ye build ^otheir tombs. 49 Therefore also said ^pthe wisdom of God, ^qI will send unto them prophets and apostles; and ^rsome of them they shall kill and persecute; 50 that the blood of all the prophets, which was shed ^sfrom the foundation of the world, may be required of this generation; 51 from the blood of Abel unto the blood of Zachariah, who perished between the altar and the ^tsanctuary: yea, I say unto you, it shall be required of this generation. 52 Woe unto you ^ulawyers! for ye took away the key of knowledge: ^vye entered not in yourselves, and them that were entering in ye hindered.

¹for a man's life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth. 16 And he spake a parable unto them, saying, The ground of a certain rich man brought forth plentifully : 17 and he reasoned within himself, saying, What shall I do, because I have not where to bestow my fruits ? 18 And he said, This will I do : I will pull down my barns, and build greater ; and there will I bestow all my grain and my goods. 19 And I will say to my ²soul, ²Soul, ^athou hast much goods laid up for many years ; take thine ease, eat, drink, be merry. 20 But God said unto him, ^bThou foolish one, this night ^cis thy ²soul required of thee ; and ^dthe things which thou hast prepared, whose shall they be ? 21 So is he that ^elayeth up treasure for himself, and is not rich toward God.

22 And he said unto his disciples, ^fTherefore I say unto you, Be not anxious for your ⁴life, what ye shall eat ; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. 23 For the ⁴life is more than the food, and the body than the raiment. 24 Consider the ⁹ravens, that they sow not, neither reap ; which have no store-chamber nor ^hbarn ; and God feedeth them : of how much more value are ye than the birds ! 25 And which of you by being anxious can add a ⁱcubit unto ^ethe measure of his life ? 26 If then ye are not able to do even that which is least, why are ye anxious concerning the rest ? 27 Consider the lilies, how they grow : they toil not, neither do they spin ; yet I say unto you, Even ^kSolomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. 28 But if God doth so clothe the grass in the field, which to-day is, and to-morrow is cast into the oven ; how much more ^{shall he clothe you,} ^lO ye of little faith ? 29 And seek not ye what ye shall eat, and what ye shall drink, neither be ye ^mof doubtful mind. 30 For all these things do the nations of the world seek after : but your Father knoweth that ye have need of these things. 31 Yet seek ye ⁿhis king-

35 ^uLet your ^vloins be girded about, and your lamps burning ; 36 and be ye yourselves like unto men looking for their lord, when he shall return from the marriage feast ; that, when he cometh and knocketh, they may straightway open unto him. 37 Blessed are those ^wservants, whom the lord when he cometh shall find ^xwatching : verily I say unto you, that ^yhe shall gird himself, and make them sit down to meat, and shall come and serve them. 38 And if he shall come in the ^zsecond watch, and if in the ³third, and find ^{them}so, blessed are those ^{servants}. 39 ^{3a}But know this, that if the master of the house had known in what hour the thief was coming, he would have watched, and not have left his house to be ^{9b}broken through. 40 ^oBe ye also ready : for in an hour that ye think not the Son of man cometh.

41 And Peter said, Lord, speakest thou this parable unto us, or even ^aunto all ? 42 And ^ethe Lord said, ^fWho then is ¹⁰the faithful and wise ⁹steward, whom his lord shall set over his household, to give them their portion of food in due season ? 43 Blessed is that ¹¹servant, whom his lord when he cometh shall find so doing. 44 Of a truth I say unto you, that he will set him over all that he hath. 45 But if that ¹¹servant shall say in his heart, My lord delayeth his coming ; and shall begin to beat the menservants and the maidservants, and to eat and drink, and to be drunken : 46 the lord of that ¹¹servant shall come in a day when he expecteth not, and in an hour when he knoweth not, and shall ¹²cut him asunder, and appoint his portion with the unfaithful. 47 And that

49 I came to cast fire upon the earth; and ² what do I desire, if it is already kindled? 50 But I have a ^a baptism to be baptized with; and how am I straitened till it be accomplished! 51 ^a Think ye that I am come to give peace in the earth? 54 And he said to the multitudes also, ^a When ye see a cloud rising in the west, straightway ye say, There cometh a shower; and so it cometh to pass. 55 And when ye see a south wind blowing, ye say, There will be a ^b scorching heat; and it cometh to pass. 56 Ye hypocrites, ^a ye know how to ⁴ interpret the face of the earth and the heaven; but how is it that ye know not how to ⁴ interpret this time? 57 And ^a why even of yourselves judge ye not what is right? 58 For ^a as thou art going with thine adversary before the magistrate, on the way give diligence to be quit of him; lest haply he drag thee unto the judge, and the judge shall deliver thee to the ^b officer, and the ^b officer shall cast thee into prison. 59 I say unto thee, Thou shalt by no means come out thence, till thou have paid the very last ^m mite.

19 It is like unto a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and cast into his own garden; and it grew, and became a tree; and the birds of the heaven lodged in the branches thereof.

20 And again he said, "Whereunto shall I liken the kingdom of God? 21 "It is like unto leaven, which a woman took and hid in 'three ¹measures of meal, till it was all leavened.

14 And it came to pass, when he went into the house of one of the rulers of the Pharisees on a sabbath to eat bread, that "they were watching him. 2 And behold, there was before him a certain man that had the dropsy. 3 And Jesus "answering spake unto the "lawyers and Pharisees, saying, "Is it lawful to heal on the sabbath, or not? 4 But they held their peace. And he took him, and healed him, and let him go. 5 And he said unto them, "Which of you shall have ⁵an ass or an ox fallen into a well, and will not straightway draw him up on a sabbath day? 6 "And they could not answer again unto these things.

7 And he spake a parable unto those that were bidden, when he marked how "they chose out the chief seats; saying unto them, 8 When thou art bidden of any man to a marriage feast, "sit not down in the chief seat; lest haply a more honorable man than thou be bidden of him, 9 and he that bade thee and him shall come and say to thee, Give this man place; and then thou shalt 'begin with shame to take the lowest place. 10 But when thou art bidden, go and sit down in the lowest place; that when he that hath bidden thee cometh, he may say to thee, Friend, 'go up higher: then shalt thou have glory in the presence of all that 'sit at meat with thee. 11 "For every one that exalteth himself shall be humbled; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.

12 And he said to him also that had bidden him, When thou makest a dinner or a supper, call not thy friends, nor thy brethren, nor thy kinsmen, nor rich neighbors; lest haply they also bid thee again, and a recompense be made thee. 13 But when thou makest a feast, bid the poor, the maimed, the lame, the blind: 14 and thou shalt be blessed ; because they have not wherewith to recompense thee : for thou shalt be recompensed in ^a the resurrection of the just.

15 And when one of them that ¹sat at meat with him heard these things, he said unto him, ^b Blessed is he that shall eat bread in the kingdom of God. 16 But he said unto him, ^c A certain man made a great supper ; and he bade many : 17 and he sent forth his ²servant at supper time to say to them that were bidden, Come ; for all things are now ready. 18 And they all with one consent began to make excuse. The first said unto him, I have bought a field, and I must needs go out and see it ; I pray thee have me excused. 19 And another said, I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I go to prove them ; I pray thee have me excused. 20 And another said, ^a I have married a wife, and therefore I cannot come. 21 And the ²servant came, and told his lord these things. Then the master of the house being angry said to his ²servant, Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in hither the poor and maimed and blind and lame. 22 And the ²servant said, Lord, what thou didst command is done, and yet there is room. 23 And the lord said unto the ²servant, Go out into the highways and hedges, and constrain them to come in, that my house may be filled. 24 For I say unto you, that none of those men that were bidden shall taste of my supper.

25 Now there went with him great multitudes : and he turned, and said unto them, 26 ^a If any man cometh unto me, and hateth not his own father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brethren, and sisters, yea, and his own life also, he cannot be my disciple. 27 Whosoever doth not ^b bear his own cross, and come after me, cannot be my disciple. 28 For which of you, desiring to build a tower, doth not first sit down and count the cost, whether he have wherewith to complete it ? 29 Lest haply, when he hath laid a foundation, and is not able to finish, all that behold begin to mock him, 30 saying, This man began to build, and was not able to finish. 31 Or what king, as he goeth to encounter another king in war, will not sit down first and take counsel whether he is able with ten thousand to meet him that cometh against him with twenty thousand ? 32 Or else, while the other is yet a great way off, he sendeth an ambassador, and asketh conditions of peace. 33 So therefore whosoever he be of you that ^c renounceth not all that he hath, he cannot be my disciple. 34 Salt therefore is good : but ^d if even the salt have lost its savor, wherewith shall it be seasoned ? 35 It is fit neither for the land nor for the dunghill : men cast it out. ^e He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

15 Now all the ³publicans and sinners were drawing near unto him to hear him. 2 And both the Pharisees and the scribes murmured, saying, This man receiveth sinners, and ^f eateth with them.

3 And he spake unto them this parable, saying, 4 ^g What man of you, having a hundred sheep, and having lost one of them, doth not leave the ninety and nine in the wilderness, and go after that which is lost, until he find it ? 5 And when he hath found it, he layeth it on his shoulders, rejoicing. 6 And when he cometh home, he calleth together his friends and his neighbors, saying unto them, Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep which was lost. 7 I say unto you, that even so there shall be joy in heaven over one sinner that repenteth, more than over ninety and nine righteous persons, who need no repentance.

8 Or what woman having ten ^h pieces of silver, if she lose one piece, doth not light a lamp, and sweep the house, and seek diligently until she find it ? 9 And when she hath found it, she calleth together her friends and neighbors, saying, Rejoice with me, for I have found the piece which I had lost. 10 Even so, I say unto you, there is joy ⁱ in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner that repenteth.

of them said to his father, Father, give me ^athe portion of ¹thy substance that falleth to me. And he divided unto them his ^bliving. 13 And not many days after, the younger son gathered all together and took his journey into a far country; and there he wasted his substance with riotous living. 14 And when he had spent all, there arose a mighty famine in that country; and he began to be in want. 15 And he went and joined himself to one of the citizens of that country; and he sent him into his fields to feed swine. 16 And he would fain ^chave filled his belly with ³the husks that the swine did eat; and no man gave unto him. 17 But when he came to himself he said, How many hired servants of my father's have bread enough and to spare, and I perish here with hunger! 18 I will arise and go to my father, and will say unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and in thy sight: 19 I am no more worthy to be called thy son: make me as one of thy hired servants. 20 And he arose, and came to his father. 16 And he said also unto the disciples, There was a certain rich man, who had a steward; and the same was accused unto him that he was ⁱwasting his goods. 2 And he called him, and said unto him, What is this that I hear of thee? render the account of thy stewardship; for thou canst be no longer steward. 3 And the steward said within himself, What shall I do, seeing that my lord taketh away the stewardship from me? I have not strength to dig; to beg I am ashamed. 4 I am resolved what to do, that, when I am put out of the stewardship, they may receive me into their houses. 5 And calling to him each one of his lord's debtors, he said to the first, How much owest thou unto my lord? 6 And he said, A hundred ⁸measures of oil. a very little is faithful also in much: and he that is unrighteous in a very little is unrighteous also in much. 11 If therefore ye have not been faithful in the unrighteous ^amammon, who will commit to your trust the true ^briches? 12 And if ye have not been faithful in that which is another's, who will give you that which is ^cyour own? 13 ^dNo ^eservant can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and ^fmammon.

14 And the Pharisees, who were ^glovers of money, heard all these things; and they ^hscoffed at him. 15 And he said unto them, Ye are they that ⁱjustify yourselves in the sight of men; but ^jGod knoweth your hearts: for that which is exalted among men is an abomination in the sight of God. 16 ^kThe law and the prophets ^lwere until John: from that time ^mthe ⁿgospel of the kingdom of God is preached, and every man entereth violently into it. 17 ^oBut it is easier for heaven and earth to pass away, than for one tittle of the law to fall.

19 Now there was a certain rich man, and he was clothed in purple and fine linen, ^rfaring sumptuously every day: 20 and a certain beggar named Lazarus ^swas laid at his gate, full of sores, 21 and desiring to be fed with the ^tcrumbs that fell from the rich man's table; yea, even the dogs came and licked his sores. 22 And it came to pass, that the beggar died, and that he was carried away by the angels into ^uAbraham's bosom: and the rich man also died, and was buried. 23 And in ^vHades he lifted up his eyes, being in torments, and seeth Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom. 24 And he cried and said, ^wo Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue; for I am in anguish in ^xthis flame. 25 But Abraham said, ^ySon, remember

17 And he said unto his disciples, ^{ae}It is impossible but that occasions of stumbling should come; but woe unto him, through whom they come! 2 ^{af}It were well for him if a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he were thrown into the sea, rather than that he should cause one of these little ones to stumble. 3 Take heed to yourselves: ^{ag}if thy brother sin, rebuke him; and if he repent, forgive him. 4 And if he sin against thee ^{ah}seven times in the day, and seven times turn again to thee, saying, I repent; thou shalt forgive him.

The Samaritan Leper. The Coming of the Kingdom. The Importunate Widow and the Unrighteous Judge things that are commanded you, say, We are unprofitable¹ servants; we have done that which it was our duty to do.

11 And it came to pass,² as they were ^aon the way, to Jerusalem, that ^bhe was passing ^calong the borders of Samaria and Galilee. 12 And as he entered into a certain village, there met him ten men that were lepers, who ^cstood afar off: 13 and they lifted up their voices, saying, Jesus, ^aMaster, have mercy on us. 14 And when he saw them, he said unto them, ^cGo and show yourselves unto the priests. And it came to pass, as they went, they were cleansed. 15 And one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, with a loud voice ^cglorifying God; 16 and he fell upon his face at his feet, giving him thanks: and he was a ^cSamaritan. 17 And Jesus answering said, Were not the ten cleansed? but where are the nine? 18 ^cWere there none found that returned to ^cgive glory to God, save this ^cstranger? 19 And he said unto him, Arise, and go thy way: ^bthy faith hath ^cmade thee whole.

20 And being asked by the Pharisees, ^cwhen the kingdom of God cometh, he answered them and said, The kingdom of God cometh not with ^cobservation: 21 neither shall ^cthey say, Lo, here! or, There! for lo, the kingdom of God is ^cwithin you.

22 And he said unto the disciples, ^mThe days will come, when ye shall desire to see one of the days of the Son of man, and ye shall not see it. 23 ⁿAnd they shall say to you, Lo, there! Lo, here! go not away, nor follow after them: 24 ^cfor as the lightning, when it lighteneth out of the one part under the heaven, shineth unto the other part under heaven; so shall the Son of man be ^cin his day. 25 ^pBut first must he suffer many things and be rejected of this generation. 26 ^qAnd as it came to pass ^rin the days of Noah, even so shall it be also in the days of the Son of man. 27 They ate, they drank, they married, they were given in marriage, until the day that Noah entered into the ark, and the flood came, and destroyed them all. 28 Likewise even as it came to pass in ^cthe days of Lot; they ate, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they builded; 29 but in the day that Lot went out from Sodom it rained fire and brimstone from heaven, and destroyed them all: 30 after the same manner shall it be in the day that the Son of man ^cis revealed. 31 In that day, he that shall be ^con the housetop, and his goods in the house, let him not go down to take them away: and let him that is in the field likewise not return back. 32 ^rRemember Lot's wife. 33 ^sWhosoever shall seek to gain his life shall lose it: but whosoever shall lose his life shall ^spreserve it. 34 I say unto you, In that night there shall be two men on one bed; the one shall be taken, and the other shall be left. 35 ^tThere shall be two women grinding together; the one shall be taken, and the other shall be left.¹⁰ 37 And they answering say unto him, Where, Lord? And he said unto them, - Where the body is, thither will the ^teagles also be gathered together.

18 And he spake a parable unto them to the end that they ^cought always to pray, and not to ^bfaint; 2 saying, There was in a city a judge, who feared not God, and ^cregarded not man: 3 and there was a widow in that city; and she came oft unto him, saying, ¹²Avenge me of mine adversary. 4 And he would not for a while: but afterward he said within himself, Though I fear not God, nor ^cregard man; 5 yet ^cbecause this widow troubleth me, I will avenge her, ¹³lest she ¹⁴wear me out by her continual coming. 6 And ^rthe Lord said, Hear what ¹⁵the unrighteous judge saith. 7 And shall not God ^qavenge his ^helect, that cry to him day and night, ¹⁶and yet he is ^clongsuffering over them? 8 I say unto you, that he will avenge them speedily. cometh, ^a shall he find ¹ faith on the earth?

9 And he spake also this parable unto certain who ^b trusted in themselves that they were righteous, and ^c set ² all others at nought: 10 Two men ^a went up into the temple to pray; the one a Pharisee, and the other a ³ publican. 11 The Pharisee ^c stood and prayed thus with himself, God, I thank thee, that I am not as the rest of men, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this ³ publican. 12 I fast twice in the week; I ^d give tithes of all that I get. 13 But the ³ publican, ^e standing afar off, ^f would not lift up so much as his eyes unto heaven, but ^g smote his breast, saying, God, ^h be thou merciful to me ^a a sinner. 14 I say unto you, This man went down to his house justified rather than the other: ⁱ for every one that exalteth himself shall be humbled; but he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.

15 ^j And they were bringing unto him also their babes, that he should touch them: but when the disciples saw it, they rebuked them. 16 But Jesus called them unto him, saying, Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for ^k to such belongeth the kingdom of God. 17 Verily I say unto you, ^m Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall in no wise enter therein.

18 ⁿ And a certain ruler asked him, saying, Good Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life? 19 And Jesus said unto him, Why callest thou me good? none is good, save one, even God. 20 Thou knowest the commandments, ^o Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Honor thy father and mother. 21 And he said, All these things have I observed from my youth up. 22 And when Jesus heard it, he said unto him, One thing thou lackest yet: ^p sell all that thou hast, and distribute unto the poor, and thou shalt have ^q treasure in heaven: and come, follow me. 23 But when he heard these things, he became exceeding sorrowful; for he was very rich.

24 And Jesus seeing him said, ^c How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God! 25 For ^d it is easier for a camel to enter in through a needle's eye, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God. 26 And they that heard it said, Then who can be saved? 27 But he said, ^e The things which are impossible with men are possible with God. 28 And Peter said, Lo, ^f we have left ^g our own, and followed thee. 29 And he said unto them, Verily I say unto you, ^h There is no man that hath left house, or wife, or brethren, or parents, or children, for the kingdom of God's sake, 30 who shall not receive manifold more in this time, and in ⁱ the ^j world to come eternal life.

31 ^k And he took unto him the twelve, and said unto them, Behold, ^l we go up to Jerusalem, and ^m all the things that are written through the prophets shall be accomplished unto the Son of man. 32 ⁿ For he shall be ^o delivered up unto the Gentiles, and shall be mocked, and shamefully treated, and spit upon: 33 and they shall scourge and kill him: and the third day he shall rise again. 34 And ^p they understood none of these things; and this saying was hid from them, and they perceived not the things that were said.

35 ^q And it came to pass, ^r as he drew nigh unto Jericho, a certain blind man sat by the way side begging: 36 and hearing a multitude going by, he inquired what this meant. 37 And they told him, that Jesus of Nazareth passeth by. 38 And he cried, saying, Jesus, thou ^s son of David, have mercy on me. 39 And they that went before rebuked him, that he should hold his peace: but he cried out the more a great deal, Thou ^t son of David, have mercy on me. 40 And Jesus stood, and commanded him to be brought unto him: and when he was come near, he asked him, 41 What wilt thou that I should do unto thee? at Jericho. Zacchæus the Publican.

The Parable of the Pounds. The Triumphal Entry and ^aall the people, when they saw it, gave praise unto God.

19 And he ^centered and was passing through Jericho. 2 And behold, a man called by name Zacchæus; and he was a chief publican, and he was rich. 3 And he sought to see Jesus who he was; and could not for the crowd, because he was little of stature. 4 And he ran on before, and climbed up into a ^csycomore tree to see him: for he was to pass that way. 5 And when Jesus came to the place, he looked up, and said unto him, Zacchæus, make haste, and come down; for to-day I must abide at thy house. 6 And he made haste, and came down, and received him joyfully. 7 And when they saw it, they all murmured, saying, He is gone in to lodge with a man that is a sinner. 8 And Zacchæus stood, and said unto ^athe Lord, Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor; and if I have ^awrongfully exacted aught of any man, I restore ^afourfold. 9 And Jesus said unto him, To-day is salvation come to this house, forasmuch as he also is ^aa son of Abraham. 10 For ^athe Son of man came to seek and to save that which was lost.

11 And as they heard these things, he added and spake a parable, because ^ahe was nigh to Jerusalem, and ^abecause they supposed that ^athe kingdom of God was immediately to appear. 12 He said therefore, ^aA certain nobleman went into a far country, to receive for himself a kingdom, and to return. 13 And he called ten ^aservants of his, and gave them ten ^apounds, and said unto them, Trade ye ^aherewith till I come. 14 But his citizens hated him, and sent an ambassage after him, saying, We will not that this man reign over us. 15 And it came to pass, when he was come back again, having received the kingdom, that he commanded these ^aservants, unto whom he had given the money, to be called to him, that he might know what they had gained by trading. 16 And the first came before him, saying, Lord, thy pound hath made ten pounds more. 17 And he said unto him, Well done, thou good ^aservant:

because thou wast found ^mfaithful in a very little, have thou authority over ten cities. 18 And the second came, saying, Thy pound, Lord, hath made five pounds. 19 And he said unto him also, Be thou also over five cities. 20 And ^aanother came, saying, Lord, behold, ^ahere is thy pound, which I kept laid up in a napkin: 21 for I feared thee, because thou art an austere man: thou takest up that which thou layedst not down, and reapest that which thou didst not sow. 22 He saith unto him, Out of thine own mouth will I judge thee, thou wicked ^aservant. Thou knowest that I am an austere man, taking up that which I laid not down, and reaping that which I did not sow; 23 then wherefore gavest thou not my money into the bank, and ^aI at my coming should have required it with interest? 24 And he said unto them that stood by, Take away from him the pound, and give it unto him that hath the ten pounds. 25 And they said unto him, Lord, he hath ten pounds. 26 ^aI say unto you, that unto every one that hath shall be given; but from him that hath not, even that which he hath shall be taken away from him. 27 But ^athese mine enemies, that would not that I should reign over them, bring hither, and ^aslay them before me.

And they said, Cæsar's. ²⁵ And he said unto them, Then ^f render unto Cæsar the things that are Cæsar's, and unto God the things that are God's. ²⁶ And they were not able to ^g take hold of the saying before the people: and they marvelled at his answer, and held their peace.

²⁷ ^g And there came to him certain of the Sadducees, they that say that there is no resurrection; ²⁸ and they asked him, saying, Teacher, ³ Moses wrote unto us, that if a man's brother die, having a wife, and he be childless, his brother should take the wife, and raise up seed unto his brother. ²⁹ There were therefore seven brethren: and the first took a wife, and died childless; ³⁰ and the second: ³¹ and the third took her; and likewise the seven also left no children, and died. ³² Afterward the woman also died. ³³ In the resurrection therefore whose wife of them shall she be? for the seven had her to wife. ³⁴ And Jesus said unto them, The sons of ^h this ⁴ world marry, and are given in marriage: ³⁵ but they that are accounted worthy to attain to ⁱ that ⁴ world, and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry, nor are given in marriage: ³⁶ for neither can they die any more: for they are equal unto the angels; and are ^j sons of God, being sons of the resurrection. ³⁷ But that the dead are raised, even Moses showed, in ^k the place concerning the Bush, when he calleth the Lord the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. ³⁸ ¹ Now he is not the God of the dead, but of the living: for ^m all live unto him. ³⁹ And certain of the scribes answering said, Teacher, thou hast well said. ⁴⁰ For ⁿ they durst not any more ask him any question.

⁴¹ ^o And he said unto them, How say they that the Christ is ^p David's son? ⁴² For David himself saith in the book of Psalms, ⁶ The Lord said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, ⁴³ Till I make thine enemies the footstool of thy feet.

21 ¹ And he looked up, ² and saw the rich men that were casting their gifts into the treasury. ² And he saw a certain poor widow casting in thither ³ two mites. ³ And he said, Of a truth I say unto you, This poor widow cast in more than they all: ⁴ for all these did of their superfluity cast in unto the gifts; but she of her want did cast in all the ⁴ living that she had.

⁵ ^v And as some spake of the temple, how it was adorned with goodly stones and offerings, he said, ⁶ As for these things which ye behold, the days will come, in which ^w there shall not be left here one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down. ⁷ And they asked him, saying, Teacher, when therefore shall these things be? and what shall be the sign when these things are about to come to pass? ⁸ And he said, Take heed that ye be not led astray: for many shall come in my name, saying, ⁹ I am he; and, The time is at hand: ¹⁰ go ye not after them. ⁹ And when ye shall hear of wars and tumults, be not terrified: for these things must needs come to pass first; but the end is not immediately.

10 Then said he unto them, Nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom; 11 and there shall be great earthquakes, and in divers places famines and pestilences; and there shall be terrors and great signs from heaven. 12 But before all these things, ^athey shall lay their hands on you, and shall persecute you, delivering you up to the synagogues and prisons, ¹bringing you before kings and governors for my name's sake. ^b13 It shall turn out unto you for a testimony. 14 ^cSettle it therefore in your hearts, not to meditate beforehand how to answer: 15 for ^dI will give you a mouth and wisdom, which all your adversaries shall not be able to withstand or to gainsay. 16 But ye shall be ^edelivered up even by parents, and brethren, and kinsfolk, and friends; and some of you ^fshall they cause to be put to death. 17 And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake. 18 And ^gnot a hair of your head shall perish. 19 ^hIn your ⁱpatience ye shall win your ^jsouls.

29 And he spake to them a parable: Behold the fig tree, and all the trees: 30 when they now shoot forth, ye see it and ⁱknow of your own selves that the summer is now nigh. 31 Even so ye also, when ye see these things coming to pass, know ye that ^jthe kingdom of God is nigh. 32 Verily I say unto you, This generation shall not pass away, till all things be accomplished. 33 ^kHeaven and earth shall pass away: but my words shall not pass away.

34 ^lBut take heed to yourselves, lest haply your hearts be overcharged with surfeiting, and drunkenness, and cares of this life, and that day come on you suddenly as a snare: 35 for so shall it come upon all them that dwell on the face of all the earth. 36 But ^mwatch ye at every season, making supplication, that ye may prevail to escape all these things that shall come to pass, and to ⁿstand before the Son of man.

37 And every day he was ^oteaching in the temple; and ^pevery night he went out, and lodged in ^qthe mount that is called Olivet. 38 And all the people came ^rearly in the morning to him in the temple, to hear him.

them, ^a Pray that ye enter not into temptation. 41 And he was parted from them about a stone's cast; and he ^b kneeled down and prayed, 42 saying, Father, if thou be willing, remove this ^c cup from me: ^d nevertheless not my will, but thine, be done. 43 ^e And there appeared unto him an ^f angel from heaven, strengthening him. 44 And ^g being in an agony he prayed more earnestly; and his sweat became as it were great drops of blood falling down upon the ground. 45 And when he rose up from his prayer, he came unto the disciples, and found them sleeping for sorrow, 46 and said unto them, Why sleep ye? rise and ^h pray, that ye enter not into temptation.

47 ⁱ While he yet spake, behold, a multitude, and he that was called Judas, one of the twelve, went before them; and he drew near unto Jesus to kiss him. 48 But Jesus said unto him, Judas, ^j betrayest thou the Son of man with a kiss? 49 And when they that were about him saw what would follow, they said, Lord, shall we smite with the ^k sword? 50 And a certain one of them smote the ^l servant of the high priest, and struck off his right ear. 51 But Jesus answered and said, Suffer ye ^m them thus far. And he touched his ear, and healed him. 52 And Jesus said unto the chief priests, and ⁿ captains of the temple, and elders, that were come against him, Are ye come out, ^o as against a robber, with swords and staves? 53 When I was daily with you in the temple, ye stretched not forth your hands against me: but this is your hour, and the power of darkness.

54 ^p And they seized him, and led him ^q away, and brought him into the high priest's house. 8 Now when Herod saw Jesus, he was exceeding glad: for ^che was of a long time desirous to see him, because he had heard concerning him; and he hoped to see some ^dmiracle done by him. 9 And he questioned him in many words; but ^ehe answered him nothing. 10 And the chief priests and the scribes stood, vehemently accusing him. 11 And Herod with his soldiers set him at nought, and mocked him, and ^farraying him in gorgeous apparel sent him back to Pilate. 12 And ^gHerod and Pilate became friends with each other that very day: for before they were at enmity between themselves.

13 And Pilate called together the chief priests and the ^hrulers and the people, 14 and said unto them, Ye brought unto me this man, as one that ⁱperverteth the people: and behold, I, having examined him before you, ^jfound no fault in this man touching those things whereof ye accuse him: 15 no, nor yet ^kHerod: for ^lhe sent him back unto us; and behold, nothing worthy of death hath been done by him. 16 I will therefore ^mchastise him, and release him.³ 18 But they cried out all together, saying, ⁿAway with this man, and release unto us Barabbas:—19 one who for a certain insurrection made in the city, and for murder, was cast into prison. 20 And Pilate spake unto them again, desiring to release Jesus; 21 but they shouted, saying, Crucify, crucify him. 22 And he said unto them the third time, Why, what evil hath this man done? Pilate gave sentence that what they asked for should be done. 25 And he released him that for insurrection and murder had been cast into prison, whom they asked for; but Jesus he delivered up to their will.

26 ^aAnd when they led him away, they laid hold upon one Simon of ^bCyrene, coming from the country, and laid on him the cross, to bear it after Jesus.

27 And there followed him a great multitude of the people, and of women who ^cbewailed and lamented him. 28 But Jesus turning unto them said, Daughters of Jerusalem, weep not for me, but weep for yourselves, and for your children. 29 For behold, the days are coming, in which they shall say, ^dBlessed are the barren, and the wombs that never bare, and the breasts that never gave suck. 30 Then shall they begin to ^esay to the mountains, Fall on us; and to the hills, Cover us. 31 For if they do these things in the green tree, what shall be done in the dry?

32 ^fAnd there were also two others, malefactors, led with him to be put to death.

33 ^gAnd when they came unto the place which is called ^hThe skull, there they crucified him, and the malefactors, one on the right hand and the other on the left. 34 ⁱAnd Jesus said, ^jFather, forgive them; for they know not what they do. And parting his garments among them, they ^kcast lots. 35 And the people stood beholding. And the ^lrulers also scoffed at him, saying, He saved others; ^mlet him save himself, if this is the Christ of God, his chosen. 36 And the soldiers also mocked him, coming to him, ⁿoffering him vinegar. 37 and saying, ^oIf thou art the King of the Jews, save thyself. 38 And there was also a superscription over him, ^pTHIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS.

39 ^qAnd one of the malefactors that were hanged railed on him, saying, Art not thou the Christ? ^rsave thyself and us. 40 But the other answered, and rebuking him said, Dost thou not even fear God, seeing thou art in the same condemnation? 41 And we indeed

ACCORDING TO JOHN

The Prologue. The Baptist's Disclaimer. The Baptist's Testimony

1 ^aIn the beginning was ^bthe Word, and the Word was ^cwith God, and ^dthe Word was God. 2 The same was in the beginning with God. 3 ^eAll things were made through him; and without him ^fwas not anything made that hath been made. 4 ^gIn him was life; and the life was ^hthe light of men. 5 And ⁱthe light shineth in the darkness; and the darkness ^japprehended it not. 6 There came a man, sent from God, whose name was ^kJohn. 7 The same came ^lfor witness, that he might bear witness of the light, ^mthat all might believe through him. 8 ⁿHe was not the light, but ^ocame that he might bear witness of the light. 9 ^pThere was ^qthe true light, ^reven the light which lighteth ^severy man, coming into the world. 10 He was in the world, and ^tthe world was made through him, and the world knew him not. 11 He came unto ^uhis own, and they that were his own received him not. 12 But as many as received him, to them gave he the right to become ^vchildren of God, ^weven ^xto them that believe on his name: 13 ^ywho were ^zborn, not of ^{aa}blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God. 14 And ^{ab}the Word ^{ac}became flesh, and ^{ad}dwelt among us (and ^{ae}we beheld his glory, glory as of ^{af}the only begotten from the Father), full of ^{ag}grace and ^{ah}truth. 15 John ^{ai}bear-eth witness of him, and crieth, saying, ^{aj}This was he of whom I said, ^{ak}He that cometh after me is become before me: ^{al}for he was ^{am}before me. 16 For of his ^{an}fulness we all received, and ^{ao}grace for grace.

17 For ^athe law was given through Moses; ^bgrace and ^ctruth came through Jesus Christ. 18 ^dNo man hath seen God at any time; ^ethe only begotten Son, who is in ^fthe bosom of the Father, ^ghe hath declared ^hhim.

19 And this is ⁱthe witness of John, when ^jthe Jews sent unto him ^kfrom Jerusalem priests and Levites to ask him, Who art thou? 20 And he confessed, and denied not; and he confessed, ^lI am not the Christ. 21 And they asked him, What then? Art thou ^mElijah? And he saith, I am not. Art thou ⁿthe prophet? And he answered, No. 22 They said therefore unto him, Who art thou? that we may give an answer to them that sent us. What sayest thou of thyself? 23 He said, ^oI am the voice of one crying in the wilderness, Make straight the way of the Lord, as ^psaid Isaiah the prophet. 24 ^qAnd they had been sent from the Pharisees. 25 And they asked him, and said unto him, Why then baptizest thou, if thou art not the Christ, neither Elijah, neither ^rthe prophet? 26 John answered them, saying, ^sI baptize ^tin water: in the midst of you standeth one whom ye know not, 27 ^ueven ^vhe that cometh after me, the ^wlatchet of whose shoe I am not worthy to unloose. 28 These things were done in ^xBethany ^ybeyond the Jordan, where John was baptizing.

35 Again ^mon the morrow John was standing, and two of his disciples; 36 and he looked upon Jesus as he walked, and saith, Behold, ⁿthe Lamb of God! 37 And the two disciples heard him speak, and they followed Jesus. 38 And Jesus turned, and beheld them following, and saith unto them, What seek ye? And they said unto him, ^oRabbi (which is to say, being interpreted, Teacher), where abidest thou? 39 He saith unto them, Come, and ye shall see. They came therefore and saw where he abode; and they abode with him that day: it was about the tenth hour. 40 ^pOne of the two that heard John ^qspeak, and followed him, was Andrew, Simon Peter's brother. 41 He findeth first his own brother Simon, and saith unto him, We have found the ^rMessiah (which is, being interpreted, ^sChrist). 42 He brought him unto Jesus. Jesus looked upon him, and said, Thou art Simon the son of ^tJohn: thou shalt be called ^uCephas (which is by interpretation, ^vPeter).

43 ^wOn the morrow he was minded to go forth into ^xGalilee, and he findeth ^yPhilip: and Jesus saith unto him, ^zFollow me. 44 Now ^{aa}Philip was from ^{ab}Bethsaida, of the city of Andrew and Peter. 45 ^{ac}Philip findeth ^{ad}Nathanael, and saith unto him, We have found him, of whom ^{ae}Moses in the law, which is worse: thou hast kept the good wine until now. 11 This beginning of his "signs did Jesus in Cana of Galilee, and manifested his glory; and his disciples believed in him.

12 After this he went down to Capernaum, he, and his mother, and his brethren, and his disciples; and there they abode not many days.

13 And the passover of the Jews was at hand, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. 14 And he found in the temple those that sold oxen and sheep and doves, and the changers of money sitting: 15 and he made a scourge of cords, and cast all out of the temple, both the sheep and the oxen; and he poured out the changers' money, and overthrew their tables; 16 and to them that sold the doves he said, Take these things hence; make not my Father's house a house of merchandise. 17 His disciples remembered that it was written, Zeal for thy house shall eat me up. 18 The Jews therefore answered and said unto him, What sign shonest thou unto us, seeing that thou doest these things? 19 Jesus answered and said unto them, Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up. 20 The Jews therefore said, Forty and six years was this temple in building, and wilt thou raise it up in three days? 21 But he spake of the temple of his body. 22 When therefore he was raised from the dead, his disciples remembered that he spake this; and they believed the scripture, and the word which Jesus had said.

23 Now when he was in Jerusalem at the passover, during the feast, many believed on his name, beholding his signs which he did. 24 But Jesus did not trust himself unto them, for that he knew all men, 25 and because he needed not that any one should bear witness concerning man; for he himself knew what was in man.

3 Now there was a man of the Pharisees, named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews: 2 the same came unto him by night, and said to him, Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God; for no one can do these signs that thou doest, except a God be with him. 3 Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except one be born anew, he cannot see the kingdom of God. 4 Nicodemus saith unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter a second time into his mother's womb, and be born? 5 Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except one be born of water and the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God. 6 That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit. 7 Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born anew. 8 The wind bloweth where it will, and thou hearest the voice thereof, but knowest not whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is every one that is born of the Spirit. 9 Nicodemus answered and said unto him, How can these things be? 10 Jesus answered and said unto him, Art thou the teacher of Israel, and understandest not these things? 11 Verily, verily, I say unto thee, We speak that which we know, and bear witness of that which we have seen; and ye receive not our witness. 12 If I told you earthly things and ye believe not, how shall ye believe if I tell you heavenly things? 13 And no one hath ascended into heaven, but he that descended out of heaven, even the Son of man, who is in heaven. 14 And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up; 15 that whosoever believeth may in him have eternal life.

16 For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth on him should not perish, but have eternal life. 17 For God sent not the Son into the world to judge the world; but that the world should be saved through him. 18 "He that believeth on him is not judged: he that believeth not hath been judged already, because he hath not believed on the name of ^bthe only begotten Son of God. 19 And this is the judgment, that ^cthe light is come into the world, and men loved the darkness rather than the light; for ^dtheir works were evil. 20 "For every one that ^edoeth evil hateth the light, and cometh not to the light, lest his works should be ^freproved. 21 But he that ^gdoeth the truth cometh to the light, that his works may be made manifest, ^hthat they have been wrought in God.

22 After these things came Jesus and his ⁱdisciples into the land of Judæa; and there he tarried with them, and ^jbaptized. 23 And John also was baptizing in Ænon near to Salim, because there ^kwas much water there: and they came, and were baptized. 24 For ^lJohn was not yet cast into prison. 25 There arose therefore a questioning on the part of John's disciples with a Jew about ^mpurifying. 26 And they came unto John, and said to him, ⁿRabbi, he that was with thee ^obeyond the Jordan, to whom thou ^phast borne witness, behold, the same baptizeth, and all men come to him. 27 John answered and said, "A man can receive nothing, except it have been given him from heaven. 28 Ye yourselves bear me witness, that I said, ^qI am not the Christ, but, that I am sent before him. 29 He that hath the bride is ^rthe bridegroom: but the friend of the bridegroom, that standeth and heareth him, rejoiceth greatly because of the bridegroom's voice: this my ^sjoy therefore is made full. 30 He must increase, but I must decrease.

31 "He that cometh from above is above all: he that is of the earth is of the earth, and ^tof the earth he speaketh: ^uhe that cometh from heaven is above all. 32 What he hath seen and heard, of that he ^vbeareth witness; and ^wno man receiveth his witness. 33 He that hath received his witness ^xhath set his seal to this, that God is true.

4 When therefore ^fthe Lord knew that the Pharisees had heard that Jesus was making and ^gbaptizing more disciples than John 2 (although ^hJesus himself baptized not, but his ⁱdisciples), 3 he ^jleft Judæa, and departed ^kagain into Galilee. 4 And he must needs pass through ^lSamaria. 5 So he cometh to a city of ^mSamaria, called Sychar, near to the parcel of ground that ⁿJacob gave to his son Joseph: 6 and Jacob's ^owell was there. Jesus therefore, being wearied with his journey, sat ^pthus by the ^qwell. It was about the sixth hour. 7 There cometh a woman of Samaria to draw water: Jesus saith unto her, Give me to drink. 8 For his ^rdisciples were gone away into ^sthe city to buy food. 9 The ^tSamaritan woman therefore saith unto him, How is it that thou, being a Jew, askest drink of me, who am a Samaritan woman? (^uFor ^vJews have no dealings with Samaritans.) 10 Jesus answered and said unto her, If thou knewest the gift of God, and who it is that saith to thee, Give me to drink; thou wouldest have asked of him, and he would have given thee ^wliving water. 11 The woman saith unto him, ^xSir, thou hast nothing to draw with, and the well is deep: whence then hast thou that ^yliving water? 12 Art thou greater than our father Jacob, who ^zgave us the well, and drank thereof himself, and his sons, and his cattle? 13 Jesus answered and said unto her, Every one that drinketh of this water shall thirst again: 14 but whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him ^ashall never thirst; but the water that I shall give him shall become in him a well of water springing up unto ^beternal life. 15 The woman saith

Jesus saith unto her, Thou saidst well, I have no husband: 18 for thou hast had five husbands; and he whom thou now hast is not thy husband: this hast thou said truly. 19 The woman saith unto him, ¹ Sir, I perceive that thou art ^b a prophet. 20 ^c Our fathers worshipped in ^d this mountain; and ye say, that ^e in Jerusalem is the place where men ought to worship. 21 Jesus saith unto her, Woman, believe me, ^f the hour cometh, when ^g neither in this mountain, nor in Jerusalem, shall ye worship the Father. 22 ^h Ye worship that which ye know not: we worship that which we know; for ⁱ salvation is from the Jews. 23 But ^j the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father ^k in spirit and truth: ^l for such doth the Father seek to be his worshippers. 24 God is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship ^m in spirit and truth. 25 The woman saith unto him, I know that ⁿ Messiah cometh (^o he that is called Christ): when he is come, he will declare unto us all things. 26 Jesus saith unto her, ^p I that speak unto thee am ^q he.

27 And upon this ^r came his ^s disciples; and they marvelled that he was speaking with a woman; yet no man said, What seekest thou? or, Why speakest thou with her? 28 So the woman left her water-pot, and went away into the city, and saith to the people, 29 Come, see a man, ^t who told me all things that ^u ever I did: ^v can this be the Christ? 30 They went out of the city, and were coming to him. 31 In the mean while the disciples prayed him, saying, ^w Rabbi, eat. 32 But he said unto them, I have meat to eat that ye know not. 33 The ^x disciples therefore said one to another, Hath any man brought him ^y aught to eat? 34 Jesus saith unto them, My meat is to ^z do the will of him that sent me, and to ^{aa} accomplish his work. 35 Say not ye, There are yet four months, and ^{ab} then cometh the harvest? behold, I say unto you, Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields, that they are ^{ac} white already ^{ad} unto harvest. 36 He that reapeth receiveth ^{ae} wages, and gathereth ^{af} fruit unto ^{ag} a life eternal; that he that soweth and he that reapeth may rejoice together. 37 For here-in is the saying true, ^{ah} One soweth, and another reapeth. 38 I sent you to reap that whereon ye have not labored: others have labored, and ye are entered into their labor.

39 And from ^{ai} that city many of the Samaritans believed on him because of the word of the woman, who testified, ^{aj} He told me all things that ^{ak} ever I did. 40 So when the Samaritans came unto him, they besought him to abide with them: and he abode there two days. 41 And many more believed because of his word: 42 and they said to the woman, Now we believe, not because of thy speaking: for we have heard for ourselves, and know that this is indeed ^{al} the Saviour of the world.

43 And after ^{am} the two days he went forth from thence into Galilee. 44 For Jesus himself testified, that ^{an} a prophet hath no honor in his own country. 45 So when he came into Galilee, the Galilæans received him, ^{ao} having seen all the things that he did in Jerusalem at the feast: for they also went unto the feast.

46 He came therefore again unto ^{ap} Cana of Galilee, ^{aq} where he made the water wine. 19 Jesus therefore answered and said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, ^gThe Son can do nothing of himself, but what he seeth the Father doing: for what things soever he doeth, these the Son also doeth in like manner. 20 ^hFor the Father loveth the Son, and sheweth him all things that himself doeth: and ⁱgreater works than these will he show him, that ye may marvel. 21 For as the Father raiseth the dead and ^jgiveth them life, even so ^kthe Son also giveth life to whom he will. 22 For neither doth the Father judge any man, but ^lhe hath given all judgment unto the Son; 23 that all may honor the Son, even as they honor the Father. ^mHe that honoreth not the Son honoreth not the Father that sent him. 24 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and ⁿbelieveth him that sent me, hath eternal life, and ^ocometh not into judgment, but hath ^ppassed out of death into life. 25 Verily, verily, I say unto you, ^qThe hour cometh, and now is, when ^rthe dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God; and they that ^shear shall live. 26 For as the Father hath life in himself, even so ^tgave he to the Son also to have life in himself: 27 and he gave him authority to ^uexecute judgment, because he is a son of man. 28 Marvel not at this: for ^vthe hour cometh, in which ^wall that are in the tombs shall hear his voice, 29 and shall come forth; ^xthey that have done good, unto the resurrection of life; and they that have ^ydone evil, unto the resurrection of judgment.

And Jesus went up into ^athe mountain, and there he sat with his disciples. 4 Now ^bthe passover, the feast of the Jews, was at hand. 5 Jesus therefore lifting up his eyes, and seeing that a great multitude cometh unto him, saith unto ^cPhilip, Whence are we to buy ^dbread, that these may eat? 6 And this he said to ^eprove him: for he himself knew what he would do. 7 ^fPhilip answered him, 'Two hundred ^gshillings' worth of ^hbread is not sufficient for them, that every one may take a little. 8 One of his ⁱdisciples, ^jAndrew, Simon Peter's brother, saith unto him, 9 There is a lad here, who hath five barley loaves, and two ^kfishes: but what are these among so many? 10 Jesus said, Make the people sit down. Now there was ^lmuch grass in the place. So the men sat down, in number about ^mfive thousand. 11 Jesus therefore took the loaves; and ⁿhaving given thanks, he distributed to them that were set down; likewise also of the ^ofishes as much as they would. 12 And when they were filled, he saith unto his ^pdisciples, Gather up the broken pieces which remain over, that nothing be lost. 13 So they gathered them up, and filled twelve ^qbaskets with broken pieces from the five barley loaves, which remained over unto them that had eaten. 14 When therefore the people saw the ^rsign which he did, they said, This is of a truth the ^sprophet that cometh into the world. 15 Jesus therefore perceiving that they were about to come and take him by force, ^tto make him king, ^uwithdrew again into ^vthe mountain himself alone. 16 And when evening came, his ^wdisciples went down unto the sea; 17 and they entered into a boat, and were going over the sea ^xunto Capernaum. 53 ²[And they went every man ³unto his own house: I but Jesus went unto ⁴the mount of Olives. 2 And early in the morning he came again into the temple, and all the people came unto him; and ⁵he sat down, and taught them. 3 And the scribes and the Pharisees bring a woman taken in adultery; and having set her in the midst, 4 they say unto him, Teacher, this woman hath been taken in adultery, in the very act. 5 ³Now in the law Moses commanded us to stone such: what then sayest thou of her? 6 And this they said, ⁴trying him, ⁵that they might have whereof to accuse him. But Jesus stooped down, and with his finger wrote on the ground. 7 But when they continued asking him, ⁶he lifted up himself, and said unto them, ⁷He that is without sin among you, let him ⁸first cast a stone at her. 8 And again he stooped down, and with his finger wrote on the ground. 9 And they, when they heard it, went out one by one, beginning from the eldest, even unto the last: and Jesus was left alone, and the woman, where she was, in the midst. 10 And Jesus ⁹lifted up himself, and said unto her, Woman, where are they? did no man condemn thee? 11 And she said, No man, Lord. And Jesus said, ¹⁰Neither do I condemn thee: go thy way; from henceforth ¹¹sin no more.

12 Again therefore Jesus spake unto them, saying, ¹I am the light of the world: ²he that followeth me shall not walk in the darkness, but shall have the light of life. 13 The Pharisees therefore said unto him, ³Thou bearest witness of thyself; thy witness is not true. 14 Jesus answered and said unto them, ⁴Even if I bear witness of myself, my witness is true; for I know ⁵whence I came, and whither I go; but ⁶ye know not whence I come, or whither I go. 15 ⁷Ye judge after the flesh; ⁸I judge no man. 16 Yea and ⁹if I judge, my judgment is true; for I am not away therefore, and washed, and came seeing. 8 The neighbors therefore, and they that saw him aforetime, that he was a beggar, said, Is not this he that ^bsat and begged? 9 Others said, It is he: others said, No, but he is like him. He said, I am he. 10 They said therefore unto him, How then were thine eyes opened? 11 He answered, The man that is called Jesus made clay, and anointed mine eyes, and said unto me, Go to ^cSiloam, and wash: so I went away and washed, and I received sight. 12 And they said unto him, Where is he? He saith, I know not.

13 They bring to the Pharisees him that aforetime was blind. 14 ^aNow it was the sabbath on the day when Jesus made the clay, and opened his eyes. 15 ^aAgain therefore the Pharisees also asked him how he received his sight. And he said unto them, He put clay upon mine eyes, and I washed, and I see. 16 Some therefore of the Pharisees said, ^aThis man is not from God, because he keepeth not the sabbath. But others said, How can a man that is a sinner do such ^asigns? And ^athere was a division among them. 17 They say therefore unto the blind man ^aagain, What sayest thou of him, in that he opened thine eyes? And he said, He is a ^aprophet. 18 ^aThe Jews therefore did not believe concerning him, that he had been blind, and had received his sight, until they called the parents of him that had received his sight, 19 and asked them, saying, Is this your son, who ye say was born blind? how then doth he now see? 20 His parents answered and said, We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind: 21 but how he now seeth, we know not; or who opened his eyes, we know not: ask him; he is of age; he shall speak for himself. 22 These things said his parents, because they ^afeared the Jews: for the Jews ^ahad agreed already, that if any man should confess him to be Christ, ^ahe should be put out of the synagogue. 23 Therefore said his parents, ^aHe is of age; ask him. 24 So they called a second time the man that was blind, and said unto him, ^aGive glory to God: we know that ^athis man is a sinner. 25 He therefore answered, Whether he is a sinner,

22 ^aAnd it was ^athe feast of the dedication at Jerusalem: 23 it was winter; and Jesus was walking in the temple in ^aSolomon's ^aporch. 24 ^aThe Jews therefore came round about him, and said unto him, How long dost thou hold us in suspense? If thou art the Christ, tell us ^aplainly. 25 Jesus answered them, ^aI told you, and ye believe not: ^athe works that I do in my Father's name, these bear witness of me. 26 But ye believe not, because ^aye are not of my sheep. 27 My sheep ^ahear my voice, and ^aI know them, and they follow me: 28 and I give unto them ^aeternal life; and they shall never perish, and ^ano one shall snatch them out of ^amy hand. 29 ^aMy Father, who hath given ^athem unto me, is greater than all; and no one is able to snatch ^athem out of ^athe Father's hand. 30 ^aI and the Father are one. 31 The Jews ^mtook up stones again to stone him. 32 Jesus answered them, Many good works have I showed you from the Father; for which of those works do ye stone me? 33 The Jews answered him, For a good work we stone thee not, but for ^ablasphemy; and because that thou, being a man, ^amakest thyself God. 34 Jesus answered them, Is it not written in ^ayour ^alaw, ^aI said, Ye are gods? 35 If he called them gods, unto whom the word of God came (and the scripture cannot be broken), 36 say ye of him, whom the Father ¹³sanctified and ^asent into the world, Thou blasphemest; because I said, ^aI am the Son of God? 37 ^aIf I do not the works of my Father, believe me not. 38 But if I do them, though ye believe not me, believe ^athe works: that ye may know and understand that ^athe Father is in me, and I in the Father. 39 ^aThey sought

40 And he went away ^bagain beyond the Jordan into the place where John was at the first baptizing; and there he abode. 41 And many came unto him; and they said, John indeed did no ^csign: but ^dall things whatsoever John spake of this man were true. 42 And ^emany believed on him there.

11 Now a certain man was sick, Lazarus of ^fBethany, of the village of Mary and her sister ^gMartha. 2 And it was that Mary who ^hanointed ⁱthe Lord with ointment, and wiped his feet with her hair, whose brother Lazarus was sick. 3 The sisters therefore sent unto him, saying, ^jLord, behold, ^khe whom thou lovest is sick. 4 But when Jesus heard it, he said, This sickness is not unto death, but for ^lthe glory of God, that the Son of God may be glorified thereby. 5 Now Jesus loved ^mMartha, and her sister, and Lazarus. 6 When therefore he heard that he was sick, he abode at that time two days in the place where he was. 7 Then after this he saith to the disciples, ⁿLet us go into Judæa again. 8 The disciples say unto him, ^oRabbi, the Jews were but now seeking ^pto stone thee; and goest thou thither again? 9 Jesus answered, ^qAre there not twelve hours in the day? If a man walk in the day, he stumbleth not, because he seeth the light of this world. 10 But if a man walk in the night, he stumbleth, because the light is not in him. 11 These things spake he: and after this he saith unto them, Our ^rfriend Lazarus ^sis fallen asleep; but I go, that I may awake him out of sleep. 12 The disciples therefore said unto him, Lord, if he is fallen asleep, he will ^trecover. 13 Now ^uJesus had spoken of his death: but they thought that he spake of taking rest in sleep. 14 Then Jesus therefore said unto them plainly, Lazarus is dead. 15 And I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, to the intent ye may believe; nevertheless let us go unto him. 16 ^vThomas therefore, who is called ^w2^d Didymus, said unto his fellow-disciples, Let us also go, that we may die with him.

17 So when Jesus came, he found that he had been in the tomb ^lfour days already. 18 Now ^mBethany was nigh unto Jerusalem, about fifteen furlongs off; 19 and many of ⁿthe Jews had come to ^oMartha and Mary, ^pto console them concerning their brother. 20 ^qMartha therefore, when she heard that Jesus was coming, went and met him: but ^rMary still sat in the house. 21 Martha therefore said unto Jesus, ^sLord, ^tif thou hadst been here, my brother had not died. 22 And even now I know that, ^uwhatsoever thou shalt ask of God, God will give thee. 23 Jesus saith unto her, Thy brother shall rise again. 24 Martha saith unto him, ^vI know that he shall rise again in the resurrection at the last day. 25 Jesus said unto her, ^wI am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth on me, though he die, yet shall he live; 26 and whosoever liveth and believeth on me ^xshall never die. Believest thou this? 27 She saith unto him, Yea, Lord: I have believed that thou art ^ythe Christ, the Son of God, ^zeven ^ahe that cometh into the world. 28 And when she had said this, she ^bwent away, and called Mary ^cher sister secretly, saying, ^dThe Teacher is here, and calleth thee. 29 And she, when she heard it, arose quickly, and went unto him. 30 (Now Jesus was not yet come into the village, but ^ewas still in the place where Martha met him.) 31 ^fThe Jews then who were with her in the house, and ^gwere consoling her, when they saw Mary, that she rose up quickly and went out, followed her, supposing that she was going unto the tomb to ^hweep there. 32 Mary therefore, when she came where Jesus was, and saw him, fell down at his feet, saying unto him, ⁱLord, ^jif thou hadst been here, my brother had not died. 33 When Jesus therefore saw her ^kweeping, and ^lthe Jews ^malso ⁿweeping who came with her, he ^ogroaned in the spirit, and ^pwas troubled, 34 and said,

In Consequence the Pharisees plot to put Jesus to Death. Jesus withdraws to Ephraim. The Anointing at Bethany

Where have ye laid him? They say unto him, Lord, come and see. 35 Jesus ^a wept. 36 ^b The Jews therefore said, Behold how he ^c loved him! 37 But some of them said, Could not this man, who ^d opened the eyes of him that was blind, have caused that this man also should not die? 38 Jesus therefore again ^e groaning in himself cometh to the tomb. Now it was ^f a cave, and ^g a stone lay ^h against it. 39 Jesus saith, Take ye away the stone. Martha, the sister of him that was dead, saith unto him, Lord, by this time ⁱ the body decayeth; for he hath been ^j dead ^k four days. 40 Jesus saith unto her, ^l Said I not unto thee, that, if thou believedst, thou shouldst see the glory of God? 41 So they took away the ^m stone. And Jesus ⁿ lifted up his eyes, and said, ^o Father, I thank thee that thou hearest me. 42 And I knew that thou hearest me always: but ^p because of the multitude that standeth around I said it, that they may believe that ^q thou didst send me. 43 And when he had thus spoken, he cried with a loud voice, Lazarus, come forth. 44 He that was dead came forth, ^r bound hand and foot with ^s grave-clothes; and ^t his face was bound about with a napkin. Jesus saith unto them, Loose him, and let him go.

45 ^u Many therefore of the Jews, ^v who came to Mary and ^w beheld ^x that which he did, believed on him. 46 But some of them went away to the ^y Pharisees, and told them the things which Jesus had done.

9 The ^acommon people therefore of the Jews learned that he was there: and they came, not for Jesus' sake only, but that they might see Lazarus also, ^bwhom he had raised from the dead. 10 But the chief priests took counsel that they might put Lazarus also to death; ^c11 because that ^cby reason of him ^dmany of the Jews went away, and believed on Jesus.

12 On the morrow ^e12 a great multitude that had come to ^fthe feast, when they heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem, ^g13 took the ^hbranches of the palm trees, and went forth to meet him, and cried out, ⁱHosanna: Blessed ^jis he that cometh in the name of the Lord, even the ^kKing of Israel. 14 And Jesus, having found a young ass, sat thereon; as it is written, ^l15 ^lFear not, daughter of Zion: behold, thy King cometh, sitting on an ass's colt. 16 ^mThese things understood not his disciples at the first: but when Jesus ⁿwas glorified, then remembered they that these things were written of him, and that they had done these things unto him. 17 ^oThe multitude therefore that was with him when he called Lazarus out of the tomb, and raised him from the dead, bare witness. 18 ^pFor this cause also the multitude went and met him, ^qfor that they heard that he had done this sign. 19 The Pharisees therefore said among themselves, ^rBehold how ye prevail nothing; lo, the world is gone after him.

he that ¹hateth his ²life in this world shall keep it unto ³life eternal. 26 If any man serve me, let him follow me; and ⁴where I am, there shall also my servant be: if any man serve me, him will the Father ⁵honor. 27 ⁶Now is my soul troubled; and what shall I say? ⁷Father, save me from ⁸this ⁹hour. But for this cause came I unto this hour. 28 ¹⁰Father, glorify thy name. There came therefore a ¹¹voice out of heaven, ¹²saying, I have both glorified it, and will glorify it again. 29 The multitude therefore, that stood by, and heard it, said that it had thundered: others said, ¹³An angel hath spoken to him. 30 Jesus answered and said, ¹⁴This voice hath not come for my sake, but for your sakes. 31 ¹⁵Now is ¹⁶the judgment of this world: now shall ¹⁷the prince of this world be cast out. 32 And I, if I ¹⁸be lifted up ¹⁹from the earth, will ²⁰draw all men unto myself. 33 But this he said, ²¹signifying by what manner of death he should die. 34 The multitude therefore answered him, We have heard out of ²²the law that ²³the Christ abideth for ever: and how sayest thou, The ²⁴Son of man must be ²⁵lifted up? who is this ²⁶Son of man? 35 Jesus therefore said unto them, ²⁷Yet a little while is ²⁸the light ²⁹among you. ³⁰Walk while ye have the light, that darkness overtake you not: and he that ³¹walketh in the darkness knoweth not whither he goeth. 36 While ye have the light, ³²believe on the light, that ye may become ³³sons of light.

These things spake Jesus, and he departed and ³⁴hid himself from them. 37 But though he had done so many ³⁵signs before them, yet they believed not on him: 38 that the word of Isaiah the prophet might be fulfilled, which he spake, ³⁶Lord, who hath believed our report?

And to whom hath the arm of the Lord been revealed?

39 For this cause they could not believe, for that Isaiah said again, gan to ^a wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the towel wherewith he was girded. 6 So he cometh to Simon Peter. Jesus points out the Betrayer. The New Commandment. Peter's Denial foretold. The Farewell Discourse

I say unto you, that ^aone of you shall ¹betray me. ²² The disciples looked one on another, ^adoubting of whom he spake. ²³ There was at the table reclining in ^bJesus' bosom one of his disciples, ^awhom Jesus loved. ²⁴ Simon Peter therefore beckoneth to him, and saith unto him, Tell us who it is of whom he speaketh. ²⁵ He ^aleaning back, as he was, on Jesus' breast saith unto him, Lord, who is it? ²⁶ Jesus therefore answereth, ^aHe it is, for whom I shall dip the sop, and give it him. So when he had dipped the sop, he taketh and giveth it to Judas, ^athe son of Simon Iscariot. ²⁷ And after the sop, then ^centered ^bSatan into him. Jesus therefore saith unto him, What thou doest, do quickly. ²⁸ Now no man at the table knew for what intent he spake this unto him. ²⁹ For some thought, because Judas ^bhad the ²bag, that Jesus said unto him, Buy what things we have need of ^afor the feast; or, that he should ^kgive something to the poor. ³⁰ He then having received the sop went out straightway: and ⁱit was night.

³¹ When therefore he was gone out, Jesus saith, Now ³is ^mthe Son of man ⁿglorified, and ^oGod ³is glorified in him; ³² and ^pGod shall glorify him in himself, and straightway shall he glorify him. ³³ ^aLittle children, ^ryet a little while I am with you. ^sYe shall seek me: and as I said unto the Jews, Whither I go, ye cannot come; so now I say unto you. ³⁴ A ^tnew commandment I give unto you, ^uthat ye love one another; ⁴even as I have loved you, that ye also love one another. ³⁵ ^vBy this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another.

³⁶ Simon Peter saith unto him, Lord, whither goest thou? Jesus answered, ^wWhither I go, thou canst not follow me now; but ^xthou shalt follow afterwards. ³⁷ Peter saith unto him, Lord, why cannot I follow thee even now? ^aI will lay down my life for thee. ³⁸ Jesus answereth, Wilt thou lay down thy life for me? The Betrayal. The Seizure. Peter's First Denial.

Jesus questioned by the High Priest

17 ^{1a} Sanctify them in the truth: thy word is truth. 18 As ^b thou didst send me into the world, ^c even so sent I them into the world. 19 And for their sakes I ^{1a} sanctify myself, that they themselves also may be ^a sanctified ^e in truth. 20 Neither for these only do I ² pray, but for them also that believe on me through their word; 21 that they may all be one; ^f even as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be in us: ^g that the world may believe that ^b thou didst send me. 22 And the ^h glory which thou hast given me I have given unto them; that they may be one, even as we are one; 23 ⁱ I in them, and thou in me, that they may be perfected into one; that the world may know that ^b thou didst send me, and ^j lovedst them, even as thou lovedst me. 24 Father, ^k I desire that ^l they also whom thou hast given me ^m be with me where I am, that they may behold my ^h glory, which thou hast given me: for thou lovedst me before ⁿ the foundation of the world. 25 O ⁿ righteous Father, ^o the world knew thee not, but I knew thee; and these knew that ^b thou didst send me; 26 and ^p I made known unto them thy name, and will make it known; that ^q the love wherewith thou lovedst me may be in them, and I in them.

18 When Jesus had spoken these words, ^r he went forth with his disciples over ^s the ^t brook Kidron, where was ^u a garden, into which he entered, himself and his disciples. 2 Now Judas also, who ^v betrayed him, knew the place: for Jesus ^w oft-times resorted thither with his disciples. 3 ^x Judas then, having received ^y the ^z band of soldiers, and ^{aa} officers from the chief priests and the Pharisees, cometh thither with lanterns and ^{ab} torches and weapons. 4 Jesus therefore, ^{ac} knowing all the things that were coming upon him, went forth, and saith unto them, ^b Whom seek ye? 5 They answered him, Jesus of Nazareth. Jesus saith unto them, I am ^{he}. And Judas also, who ^{ad} betrayed him, was standing with them. 6 When therefore he said unto them, I am ^{he}, they went backward, and fell to the ground. 7 Again therefore he asked them, ^b Whom seek ye? And they said, Jesus of Nazareth. 8 Jesus answered, I told you that I am ^{he}; if therefore ye seek me, let these go their way: 9 that the word might be fulfilled which he spake, ^c Of those whom thou hast given me I lost not one. 10 Simon Peter therefore ^d having a sword drew it, and struck the high priest's ^e servant, and cut off his right ear. Now the ^f servant's name was Malchus. 11 Jesus therefore said unto Peter, Put up the sword into the sheath: ^g the cup which the Father hath given me, shall I not drink it?

12 ^h So ⁱ the ^j band and the ^k chief captain, and the ^l officers of the Jews, seized Jesus and bound him, 13 and led him to ^m Annas first; for he was father in law to ⁿ Caiaphas, who was high priest that year. 14 Now Caiaphas was he that gave counsel to the Jews, that ^o it was expedient that one man should die for the people.

15 And ^p Simon Peter followed Jesus, and so ^q did another disciple. Now that disciple was known unto the high priest, and entered in with Jesus into ^r the court of the high priest; 16 ^s but Peter was standing at the door without. So the other disciple, who was known unto the high priest, went out and spake unto her that kept the door, and brought in Peter. 17 ^t The maid therefore that kept the door saith unto Peter, ^u Art thou also one of this man's disciples? He saith, I am not. 18 Now the ^v servants and the ^w officers were standing ^x there, ^y having made ^z a fire of coals; for it was cold; and they were warming themselves: and Peter also was with them, standing and warming himself.

19 ^a The high priest therefore asked Jesus of his disciples, and of his teaching. 20 Jesus answered him, I ^b have spoken openly to the world; I ever ^ataught in ¹synagogues, and ^bin the temple, where all the Jews come together; and in secret spake I nothing. 21 Why askest thou me? ask them that have heard me, what I spake unto them: behold, these know the things which I said. 22 And when he had said this, one of the ^cofficers standing by ^dstruck Jesus ^ewith his hand, saying, Answerest thou the high priest so? 23 ^eJesus answered him, If I have spoken evil, bear witness of the evil: but if well, why smitest thou me? 24 ^fAnnas therefore sent him bound unto ^gCaiaphas the high priest.

25 ^hNow ^hSimon Peter was standing and warming himself. They said therefore unto him, ⁱArt thou also one of his disciples? He denied, and said, I am not. 26 One of the ^jservants of the high priest, being a kinsman of him ^kwhose ear Peter cut off, saith, Did not I see thee in ^lthe garden with him? 27 Peter therefore denied again: and straightway ^mthe cock crew.

28 ⁿThey lead Jesus therefore from ^oCaiaphas into ^pthe ^qPrætorium: and it was early; and they themselves entered not into ^rthe ^sPrætorium, that ^tthey might not be defiled, but might eat the pass-over. 29 ^uPilate therefore went out unto them, and saith, What accusation bring ye against this man? 30 They answered and said unto him, If this man were not an evil-doer, we should not have delivered him up unto thee. 31 Pilate therefore said unto them, Take him yourselves, and judge him according to your law. The Jews said unto him, It is not lawful for us to put any man to death: 32 that ^vthe word of Jesus might be fulfilled, which he spake, signifying by what manner of death he should die.

33 Pilate therefore ^wentered again into the ^xPrætorium, and called Jesus, and said unto him, ^yArt thou the King of the Jews? 34 Jesus answered, Sayest thou this of thyself, or did others tell it thee concerning me? 35 Pilate answered, Am I a Jew? ⁵ servants fight, that I should not be delivered to the Jews: but now is my kingdom not from hence. 37 Pilate therefore said unto him, Art thou a king then? Jesus answered, ⁶Thou sayest that I am a king. To this end have I been born, and to this end am I come into the world, that ⁷I should bear witness unto the truth. ⁸Every one that is of the truth heareth my voice. 38 Pilate saith unto him, What is truth?

And when he had said this, he ⁹went out again unto the Jews, and saith unto them, ¹⁰I find no crime in him. 39 ¹¹But ye have a custom, that I should release unto you one at the passover: will ye therefore that I release unto you the King of the Jews? 40 They cried out therefore again, saying, ¹²Not this man, but Barabbas. Now Barabbas was a robber.

19 Then Pilate therefore took Jesus, and ¹³scourged him. 2 ¹⁴And the soldiers platted a crown of thorns, and put it on his head, and arrayed him in a purple garment: 3 and they came unto him, and said, ¹⁵Hail, King of the Jews! and they ¹⁶struck him ¹⁷with their hands. 4 And Pilate ¹⁸went out again, and saith unto them, Behold, I bring him out to you, that ye may know that ¹⁹I find no crime in him. 5 Jesus therefore came out, ²⁰wearing the crown of thorns and the purple garment. Pilate saith unto them, Take him yourselves, and crucify him: for ²³I find no crime in him. 7 The Jews answered him, ²⁴We have a law, and by that law he ought to die, because he ²⁵made himself the Son of God. 8 When Pilate therefore heard this saying, he was the more afraid: 9 and he ²⁶entered into the ²⁷Prætorium again, and saith unto Jesus, Whence art thou? release thee, and have ¹power to crucify thee? 11 Jesus answered him, "Thou wouldest have no ¹power against me, except it were given thee from above: therefore ²he that delivered me unto thee hath greater sin. 12 Upon this Pilate sought to release him: but the Jews cried out, saying, "If thou release this man, thou art not Cæsar's friend: every one that maketh himself a king ³speaketh against Cæsar. 13 When Pilate therefore heard these words, he brought Jesus out, and ⁴sat down on the judgment-seat at a place called The Pavement, but ⁵in Hebrew, Gabbatha. 14 Now it was ⁶the Preparation of the passover: it was about the ⁷sixth hour. And he saith unto the Jews, Behold, ⁸your King! 15 They therefore cried out, ⁹Away with him, away with him, crucify him! Pilate saith unto them, Shall I crucify your King? The chief priests answered, We have no king but Cæsar. 16 Then therefore he ¹⁰delivered him unto them to be crucified.

17 ¹¹They took Jesus therefore: and he went out, ¹²bearing the cross for himself, unto the place called ¹³The place of a skull, which is called ¹⁴in Hebrew Golgotha: 18 where they crucified him, and with him ¹⁵two others, on either side one, and Jesus in the midst. 19 And Pilate wrote a title also, and put it on the cross. And there was written, ¹⁶JESUS OF NAZARETH, ¹⁷THE KING OF THE JEWS. 20 This title therefore read many of the Jews, ¹⁸for the place where Jesus was crucified was nigh to the city; and it was written ¹⁹in Hebrew, and in Latin, and in Greek. 21 The chief priests of the Jews therefore said to Pilate, Write not, ²⁰The King of the Jews; but, that he said, I am ²¹King of the Jews. 22 Pilate answered, ²¹What I have written I have written.

23 ²²The soldiers therefore, when they had crucified Jesus, took his garments and made ²³four parts, to every soldier a part; and also the ²⁴coat: now the ²⁵coat was without seam, woven from the top throughout. 24 They said therefore one to another, ²⁶Let us not rend it, but cast lots for it, whose it shall be: ²⁷that the scripture might be fulfilled, which saith,

25 These things therefore the soldiers did. ⁶But there were standing by the cross of Jesus ⁷his mother, and his mother's sister, Mary the ⁸wife of ⁹Clopas, and ¹⁰Mary Magdalene. 26 When Jesus therefore saw his mother, and ¹¹the disciple standing by whom he loved, he saith unto his mother, ¹²Woman, behold, thy son! 27 Then saith he to the disciple, Behold, thy mother! And from that hour the disciple took her unto ¹³his own home.

28 After this Jesus, ¹⁴knowing that all things are now finished, ¹⁵that the scripture might be accomplished, saith, I thirst. 29 There was set there a vessel full of vinegar: so ¹⁶they put a sponge full of the vinegar upon hyssop, and brought it to his mouth. 30 When Jesus therefore had received the vinegar, he said, ¹⁷It is finished: and he bowed his head, and ¹⁸gave up his spirit.

31 The Jews therefore, because it was ¹⁹the Preparation, that ²⁰the bodies should not remain on the cross upon the sabbath (for the day of that sabbath was a ²¹high day), asked of Pilate that their legs might be broken, and ²²that they might be taken away. 32 The soldiers therefore came, and brake the legs of the first, and of the other that ²³was crucified with him: 33 but when they came to Jesus, and saw that he was dead already, they brake not his legs: 34 howbeit one of the soldiers with a spear pierced his side, and straightway there came out ²⁴blood and water. 35 And he that hath seen hath ²⁵borne witness, and his witness is true: and he knoweth that he saith true, that ye also may believe. 36 For these things came to pass, ²⁶that the scripture might be fulfilled, A bone of him shall not be ²⁷broken. 37 And again another scripture saith, ²⁸They shall look on him whom they pierced.

of Arimathæa, being a disciple of Jesus, but ^asecretly for ^bfear of the Jews, asked of Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus: and Pilate gave him leave. He came therefore, and took away his body. 39 And there came also ^cNicodemus, he who at the first came to him by night, ^dbringing a ^emixture of ^fmyrrh and aloes, about a ^ghundred pounds. 40 So they took the body of Jesus, and ^hbound it in ⁱlinen cloths with the spices, as the custom of the Jews is to bury. 41 Now in the place where he was crucified there was a garden; and in the garden a ^jnew tomb ^kwherein was never man yet laid. 42 There then because of the Jews' Preparation (for the tomb was ^lnow open at hand) they laid Jesus.

20 ^mNow on the first day of ⁿthe week cometh ^oMary Magdalene early, while it was yet dark, unto the tomb, and seeth ^pthe stone taken away from the tomb. 2 She runneth therefore, and cometh to Simon Peter, and to the other ^qdisciple whom Jesus loved, and saith unto them, ^r"They have taken away the Lord out of the tomb, and we know not where they have laid him. 3 ^sPeter therefore went forth, and the other disciple, and they went toward the tomb. 4 And they ran both together: and the other disciple outran Peter, and came first to the tomb; 5 and ^tstooping and looking in, he seeth the ^u"linen cloths lying; yet entered he not in. 6 Simon Peter therefore also cometh, following him, and entered into the tomb; and he beholdeth the linen cloths lying, 7 and ^vthe napkin, that was upon his head, not lying with the ^w"linen cloths, but rolled up in a place by itself. 8 Then entered in therefore the other disciple also, who ^xcame first to the tomb, and he saw, and believed. 9 For as yet ^ythey knew not the scripture, ^zthat he must rise again from the dead. 10 So the disciples went away again ^{aa}unto their own home.

11 ^{bb}But Mary was standing without at the tomb weeping: so, as she wept, she ^{cc}stooped and looked into the tomb; 12 and she beholdeth ^{dd}two angels in white sitting, one at the head, and one at the feet, where the body of Jesus had lain. 13 And they say unto

"My Lord and my God." The Writer's Object. The Epilogue: — the Appearance at the Sea of Tiberias. "Lovest thou me?"

26 And after eight days again his disciples were within, and Thomas with them. Jesus cometh, the doors being shut, and stood in the midst, and said, ^aPeace be unto you. 27 Then saith he to Thomas, ^bReach hither thy finger, and see my hands; and reach ^chither thy hand, and put it into my side: and be not faithless, but believing. 28 Thomas answered and said unto him, My Lord and my God. 29 Jesus saith unto him, Because thou hast seen me, ^dthou hast believed: ^eblessed are they that have not seen, and ^fyet have believed.

30 ^aMany other ^esigns therefore did Jesus in the presence of the disciples, which are not written in this book: 31 but these are written, ^fthat ye may believe that Jesus is the Christ, ^gthe Son of God; and that ^hbelieving ye may have life in his name.

21 After these things Jesus ⁱmanifested himself ^kagain to the disciples at ^lthe sea of Tiberias; and he manifested ^mhimself on this wise. 2 There were together Simon Peter, and ⁿThomas called ^o"Didymus," and ^pNathanael of ^qCana in Galilee, and ^rthe sons of Zebedee, and two other of his disciples. 3 Simon Peter saith unto them, I go a fishing. They say unto him, We also come with thee. They went forth, and entered into the boat; and ^sthat night they took nothing. 4 But when day was now breaking, Jesus stood on the beach: yet the disciples ^tknew not that it was Jesus. 5 Jesus therefore saith unto them, Children, ^uhave ye aught to eat? They answered him, No. 6 And he said unto them, ^vCast the net on the right side of the boat, and ye shall find. They cast therefore, and now they were not able to draw it for the multitude of fishes. 7 ^wThat disciple therefore whom Jesus loved saith unto Peter, It is the Lord. So when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he girt his coat about him (for he ^xwas naked), and cast himself into the sea. 8 But the other disciples came in the little boat (for they were not far from the land, but about two hundred cubits off), dragging the net ^yfull of fishes. 9 So when they got out

And none of the disciples durst inquire of him, Who art thou? knowing that it was the Lord. 13 Jesus cometh, and taketh ⁱthe ^jbread, and giveth them, and the ^kfish likewise. 14 This is now the ^lthird time that Jesus was manifested to the disciples, after that he was risen from the dead.

15 So when they had ^mbroken their fast, Jesus saith to Simon Peter, Simon, ⁿson of ^oJohn, ^plovest thou me more than these? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I ^qlove thee. He saith unto him, Feed ^rmy lambs.

18 Verily, verily, I say unto thee, When thou wast young, thou girdedst thyself, and walkedst whither thou wouldest: but when thou shalt be old, thou shalt stretch forth thy hands, and another shall gird thee, and carry thee whither thou wouldest not.

THE ACTS

The Introduction. The Ascension. "The Upper Chamber." The Fate of Judas

1 The ¹former treatise I made, ² O ^aTheophilus, concerning all that Jesus ^bbegan both to do and to teach, ² until the day in which he ^cwas received up, after that he ^dhad given commandment through the Holy Spirit unto ^ethe apostles whom he had ^fchosen: ³ to whom ^ghe also ^hshowed himself alive after his passion by many proofs, appearing unto them by the space of forty days, and speaking ⁱthe things concerning the kingdom of God: ⁴ and, ^jbeing assembled together with them, he charged them ^knot to depart from Jerusalem, but to wait for ^lthe promise of the Father, which, said he, ye heard from me: ⁵ for ^mJohn indeed baptized with water; but ye shall be baptized ⁿin the Holy Spirit ^onot many days hence.

6 They therefore, when they were come together, asked him, saying, Lord, ^pdost thou at this time restore the kingdom to Israel? 7 And he said unto them, It is not for you to know times or seasons, which ^qthe Father hath ^rset within his own authority. 8 But ye shall receive power, ^swhen the Holy Spirit is come upon you: and ye shall be ^tmy witnesses both in Jerusalem, and in all Judæa and ^uSamaria, and unto ^vthe uttermost part of the earth. 9 And when he had said these things, as they were looking, ^whe was taken up; and a cloud received him out of their sight. 10 And while they were looking stedfastly into heaven as he went, behold ^xtwo men stood by them in white apparel; 11 who also said, ^yYe men of Galilee, why stand ye looking into heaven? this Jesus, who ^zwas received up from you into heaven, shall so ^{aa}come in like manner as ye beheld him going into heaven.

23 And they put forward two,
Joseph called Barsabbas, who was 24 And they ^f prayed, and said,

Its Results. The Brotherhood of Believers. Cure of the Lame Beggar at the Door "Beautiful"

ye yourselves know; 23 him, being delivered up by the ^adeterminate counsel and foreknowledge of God, ^bye by the hand of ¹lawless men did crucify and slay: 24 whom ^cGod raised up, having loosed the pangs of death: because it ^awas not possible that he should be holden of it. 25 For David saith concerning him,

²I beheld the Lord always before my face;

For he is on my right hand, that I should not be moved:

26 Therefore my heart was glad, and my tongue rejoiced;

Moreover my flesh also shall ³dwell in hope:

27 Because thou wilt not leave my soul unto ^cHades, ⁴Neither wilt thou give thy Holy One to see corruption.

28 Thou madest known unto me the ways of life;

Thou shalt make me full of gladness ⁴with thy countenance.

29 Brethren, I may say unto you freely of the ⁵patriarch David, that he both ^adied and ^bwas buried, and ^chis tomb is with us unto this day.

30 Being therefore ^aa prophet, and knowing that ^mGod had sworn with an oath to him, that of the fruit of his loins ⁵he would set one upon his throne;

31 he foreseeing this spake of the resurrection of the Christ, that neither was he left unto ^cHades, nor did his flesh see corruption.

32 This Jesus did ^cGod raise up, ⁶whereof we all are ⁷witnesses.

33 Being therefore ⁷by the right hand of God exalted, and ⁸having received of the Father ⁸the promise of the Holy Spirit, he hath ⁹poured forth this, which ye see and hear.

34 For David ascended not into the heavens: but he saith himself,

⁸The Lord said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand,

35 Till I make thine enemies the footstool of thy feet.

36 Let ⁹all the ⁹house of Israel therefore know assuredly, that God hath made him both ^aLord and Christ, this Jesus ⁹whom ye crucified.

37 Now when they heard this, they were pricked in their heart, and said unto Peter and the rest of the apostles, Brethren, ²what shall we do? 38 And Peter said unto them, ³Repent ye, and be ⁴baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ unto the remission of your sins; and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. 39 For to you is ^athe promise, and to your children, and to all that are ^bafar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call unto him. 40 And with many other words he ^ctestified, and exhorted them, saying, Save yourselves from this ^dcrooked generation. 41 They then ¹⁰that received his word were baptized: and there were added unto them in that day about three thousand ^esouls. 42 And they ^fcontinued stedfastly in the apostles' teaching and ¹¹fellowship, in ^gthe breaking of bread and ^hthe prayers.

43 And fear came upon every soul: and many ⁱwonders and signs were done through the apostles¹². 44 And all that believed were together, and ^jhad all things common; 45 and they ^ksold their possessions and goods, and parted them to all, according as any man had need. 46 ¹And day by day, continuing stedfastly with one accord in the temple, and ^gbreaking bread at home, they took their food with gladness and singleness of heart, 47 praising God, and ^mhaving favor with all the people. And the Lord ⁿadded ¹³to them day by day ^othose that ¹⁴were saved.

3 Now ¹Peter and John were going up into the temple at ²the hour of prayer, being the ninth hour. 2 And ^aa certain man that was lame from his mother's womb was carried, whom they ^blaid daily at the door of the temple which is called Beautiful, ^cto ask alms of them that entered into the temple; 3 who seeing ^dPeter and John about to go into the temple, asked to receive an alms. 4 And Peter,

Peter's Discourse. Peter and John are arrested; brought before the Sanhedrin;

"fastening his eyes upon him, with John, said, Look on us. 5 And he gave heed unto them, expecting to receive something from them. 6 But Peter said, Silver and gold have I none; but what I have, that give I thee. ^bIn the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, walk. 7 And he took him by the right hand, and raised him up; and immediately his feet and his ankle-bones received strength. 8 ^cAnd leaping up, he stood, and began to walk; and he entered with them into the temple, walking, and leaping, and praising God. 9 And ^dall the people saw him walking and praising God: 10 and they took knowledge of him, that it was he that ^esat for alms at the Beautiful Gate of the temple; and they were filled with wonder and amazement at that which had happened unto him.

11 And as he held ^fPeter and John, all the people ran together unto them in the ^gporch that is called Solomon's, greatly wondering. 12 And when Peter saw it, he ^hanswered unto the people, Ye men of Israel, why marvel ye at this ⁱman? or why fasten ye your eyes on us, as though by our own power or godliness we had made him to walk? 13 ^jThe God of Abraham, and of Isaac, and of Jacob, ^kthe God of our fathers, hath glorified his ^lServant Jesus; whom ^mye delivered up, and denied before the face of ⁿPilate, when he had ^odetermined to release him. 14 But ye denied ^pthe Holy and Righteous One, and ^qasked for a murderer to be granted unto you, 15 and killed the ^rPrince of life; whom ^sGod raised from the dead; ^twhereof we are ^uwitnesses. 16 And ^vby faith ^win his name hath his name made this man strong, whom ye behold and know: yea, the faith which is through him hath given him this perfect soundness in the presence of you all. 17 And now, Brethren, I know that ^xin ignorance ye did it, as did also your ^yrulers. 18 But the things which ^zGod foreshowed by the mouth of all the prophets, ^athat his Christ should suffer, he thus fulfilled. 19 ^bRepent ye therefore, and turn again, that your sins may

4 And as they spake unto the people, ^athe priests and ^bthe captain of the temple and ^cthe Sadducees ^dcame upon them, 2 being sore troubled because they taught the people, and proclaimed ^ein Jesus the resurrection from the dead. 3 And they laid hands on them, and ^fput them in ward unto the morrow: for it was now even-tide. 4 But many of them that heard the word believed; and ^gthe number of the men came to be about five thousand.

5 And it came to pass on the morrow, that their ^arulers and elders and scribes were gathered together in Jerusalem; 6 and ^bAnnas the high priest ^cwas there, and ^dCaiaphas, and John, and Alexander, and as many as were of the kindred of the high priest. 7 And when they had set them in

13 Now when they beheld the ^mboldness of ⁿPeter and John, and had perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men, they marvelled; and ^othey took knowledge of them, that they had been with Jesus. 14 And seeing the man that was healed standing with them, they could say nothing against it. 15 But when they had commanded them to go aside out of the ^pcouncil, they conferred among themselves, 16 saying, ^qWhat shall we do to these men? for that indeed a ^rnotable ^smiracle hath been wrought through them, is manifest to all that dwell in Jerusalem; and we cannot deny it. 17 But that it spread no further among the people, let us threaten them, that they speak henceforth to no man ^tin this name. 18 And they called them, and ^ucharged them not to speak at all nor teach in the name of Jesus. 19 But ^vPeter and John answered and said unto them, ^wWhether it is right in the sight of God to hearken unto you rather than unto God, judge ye: 20 for ^xwe cannot but speak the things which we saw and heard. 21 And they, when they had further threatened them, let them go, finding nothing how they might punish them, ^ybecause of the people; for all men ^zglorified God for that which was done. 22 For the man was more than forty years old, on

And the high priest asked them, 28 saying, We ^b strictly charged you not to teach in this name: and behold, ye have filled Jerusalem with your teaching, and ^c intend to bring this man's blood upon us. 29 But Peter and the apostles answered and said, ^d "We must obey God rather than men. 30 ^e "The God of our fathers ^f raised up Jesus, whom ye ^g slew, hanging him on a tree. 31 ^h Him did God exalt ⁱ with his right hand to be a ^j Prince and a ^k Saviour, to give ^l repentance to Israel, and remission of sins. 32 And we are ^m witnesses ⁿ of these ^o things; ^p and ^q so is the Holy Spirit, whom God hath given to them that obey him.

33 But they, when they heard this, were ^r cut to the heart, and were minded to slay them. 34 But there stood up one in ^s the council, a Pharisee, named ^t Gamaliel, a ^u doctor of the law, had in honor of all the people, and commanded to put the men forth a little while. 35 And he said unto them, Ye men of Israel, take heed to yourselves as touching these men, what ye are about to do. 36 For before these days rose up Theudas, ^v giving himself out to be somebody; to whom a number of men, about four hundred, joined themselves: who was slain; and all, as many as obeyed him, were dispersed, and came to nought. 37 After this man rose up Judas of Galilee in the days of ^w the enrolment, and drew away ^x some of the people after him: he also perished; and all, as many as obeyed him, were scattered abroad. 38 And now I say unto you, Refrain from these men, and let them alone: for if this counsel or this work ^y be of men, it will be overthrown: 39 but if it is of God, ye will not be able to overthrow them; lest haply ye be found even to be ^z fighting against God. 40 And to him they agreed: and when they had called the apostles unto them, they ^{aa} beat them and charged them not to speak in the name of Jesus, and let them go. 41 They

6 Now in these days, when ^{ag} the number of the ^{ah} disciples was multiplying, there arose a murmuring of the ^{ai} Grecian Jews against the ^{aj} Hebrews, because their ^{ak} widows were neglected in ^{al} the daily ministration. 2 And the twelve called the multitude of the disciples unto them, and said, It is not ^{am} fit that we should forsake the word of God, and ^{an} serve tables. 3 ^{ao} Look ye out therefore, ^{ap} brethren, from among you seven men of good report, ^{aq} full of the Spirit and of wisdom, whom we may appoint over this business. 4 But we will ^{ar} continue steadfastly in prayer, and in the ministry of the word. 5 And the saying pleased the whole multitude: and they chose ^{as} Stephen, a man ^{at} full of faith and of the Holy Spirit, and ^{au} Philip, and Prochorus, and Nicanor, and Timon, and Parmenas, and Nicolaus a ^{av} proselyte of ^{aw} Antioch; 6 whom they set before the apostles: and when they had ^{ax} prayed, they ^{ay} laid their hands upon them.

Stephen. 10 And they were not able to withstand the wisdom and the Spirit by which he spake. 11 Then they suborned men, who said, We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Moses, and against God. 12 And they stirred up the people, and the elders, and the scribes, and ^acame upon him, and seized him, and brought him into ^bthe council, 13 and set up ^cfalse witnesses, who said, This man ceaseth not to speak words against this ^dholy place, and the law: 14 for we have heard him say, that ^ethis Jesus of Nazareth shall destroy this place, and shall change ^fthe customs which Moses delivered unto us. 15 And all that sat in the ^bcouncil, fastening their eyes on him, saw his face as it had been the face of an angel.

⁷ And the high priest said, Are these things so? 2 And he said,

² Brethren and fathers, hearken: ^aThe God of glory ^aappeared unto our father Abraham, when he was in Mesopotamia, before he dwelt in Haran, 3 and said unto him, ^aGet thee out of thy land, and from thy kindred, and come into the land which I shall show thee. 4 ^aThen came he out of the land of the Chaldeans, and dwelt in Haran: and ^afrom thence, when his father was dead, God removed him into this land, wherein ye now dwell: 5 and he gave him none inheritance in it, no, not so much as to set his foot on: and ^mhe promised that he would give it to him in possession, and to his seed after him, when ^{as} yet he had no child. 6 And ⁿGod spake on this wise, that his seed should sojourn in a strange land, and that they should bring them into bondage, and treat them ill, four hundred years. 7 And the nation to which they shall be in bondage will I judge, said God: and ^aafter that shall they come forth, and serve me in this place. 8 And he ^pgave him the covenant of circumcision: and so ^aAbraham begat Isaac, and circumcised him the eighth day; and ^rIsaac begat Jacob, and ^sJacob the twelve ^ppatriarchs. 9 And the patriarchs, ^amoved with jealousy against Joseph, sold him into Egypt: and God was with him, 10 and delivered him out of all his afflictions,

8 And when he had said this, he ⁱfell asleep. 1 And ^jSaul was consenting unto his death.

And there arose on that day a great persecution against ^kthe church which was in Jerusalem; and they were all ^lscattered abroad throughout the regions of Judæa and ^mSamaria, except the apostles. 2 And devout men buried Stephen, and made great lamentation over him. 3 But ⁿSaul laid waste the church, entering into every house, and ^odragging men and women committed them to prison.

4 They therefore that ^pwere scattered abroad went about ^qpreaching the word. 5 And ^rPhilip went down to the city of Samaria, and proclaimed unto them the Christ. 6 And the multitudes gave heed with one accord unto the things that were spoken by Philip, when they heard, and saw the signs which he did. 7 ^sFor from many of those that had ^tunclean spirits, they came out, crying with a loud voice: and many that were ^upalsied, and that were lame, were healed. 8 And there was ^vmuch joy in that city.

14 Now when ^ethe apostles that were at Jerusalem heard the word of God, they sent unto them ^fPeter and John: 15 who, when they were come down, prayed for them, ^gthat they might receive the Holy Spirit: 16 for as yet it was fallen upon none of them: only they had been ^hbaptized into the name of the Lord Jesus. 17 Then ⁱlaid they their hands on them, and they ^jreceived the Holy Spirit. 18 Now when Simon saw that through the laying on of the apostles' hands the ^kHoly Spirit was given, he offered them money, 19 saying, Give me also this power, that on whomsoever I lay my hands, he may receive the Holy Spirit. 20 But Peter said unto him, Thy silver perish with thee, because thou hast thought ^lto obtain the gift of God with money. 21 Thou hast ^mneither part nor lot in this ⁿmatter: for thy heart is not ^oright before God. 22 Repent therefore of this thy wickedness, and pray the Lord, if perhaps the thought of thy heart shall be forgiven thee. 23 For I see that thou ^part in the gall of bitterness and in ^qthe bond of iniquity. 24 And Simon answered and said, Pray ye for me to the Lord, that none of the things which ye have spoken come upon me.

Philip and the Ethiopian Eunuch.

The Conversion of Saul, who is visited by Ananias

eunuch of great authority under Candace, queen of the Ethiopians, who was over all her treasure, who ^ahad come to Jerusalem to worship; 28 and he was returning and sitting in his chariot, and was reading the prophet Isaiah. 29 And ^bthe Spirit said unto Philip, Go near, and join thyself to this chariot. 30 And Philip ran to him, and heard him reading Isaiah the prophet, and said, Understandest thou what thou readest? 31 And he said, How can I, except some one shall guide me? And he besought Philip to come up and sit with him. 32 Now the passage of the scripture which he was reading was this,

And as a lamb before his shearer is dumb,

33 In his humiliation his judgment was taken away:

His generation who shall declare?

For his life is taken from the earth.

34 And the eunuch answered Philip, and said, I pray thee, of whom speaketh the prophet this? of himself, or of some other? 35 And Philip ^copened his mouth, and ^dbeginning from this scripture,

^epreached unto him Jesus. 36 And as they went on the way, they came unto a certain water; and the eunuch saith, Behold, here is water;

^fwhat doth hinder me to be baptized?³ 38 And he commanded the chariot to stand still: and they both went down into the water, both Philip and the eunuch; and he baptized him. 39 And when they came up out of the water, ^gthe Spirit of the Lord caught away Philip; and the eunuch saw him no more, for he went on his way rejoicing. 40 But Philip was found at ^hAzotus: and passing through he ⁱpreached the gospel to all the cities, till he came to ^kCæsarea.

cus unto ^pthe synagogues, that if he found any that were of ^qthe Way, whether men or women, he might bring them bound to Jerusalem. 3 And as he journeyed, it came to pass that he drew nigh unto Damascus: and ^rsuddenly there shone round about him a light out of heaven: 4 and ^she fell upon the earth, and heard a voice saying unto him, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? 5 And he said, Who art thou, Lord? And he said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest: 6 but rise, and enter into the city, and ^tit shall be told thee what thou must do. 7 And the men that journeyed with him ^ustood speechless, ^vhearing the ^wvoice, but beholding no man. 8 And Saul arose from the earth; and ^xwhen his eyes were opened, he saw nothing; and they led him by the hand, and brought him into ^yDamascus. 9 And he was three days without sight, and did neither eat nor drink.

10 Now there was a certain disciple at ^zDamascus, named ^{aa}Ananias; and the Lord said unto him in ^{ab}a vision, Ananias. And he said, Behold, I am here, Lord. 11 And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go to the street which is called Straight, and inquire in the house of Judas for one named Saul, a man of ^{ac}Tarsus: for behold, he prayeth; 12 and he hath seen a man named Ananias coming in, and ^{ad}laying his hands on him, that he might receive his sight. 13 But Ananias answered, Lord, I have heard from many of this man, ^{ae}how much evil he did to ^{af}thy saints at Jerusalem: 14 and here he ^{ag}hath authority from the chief priests to bind all that ^{ah}call upon thy name. 15 But the Lord said unto him, Go thy way: for ^{ai}he is a ^{aj}chosen vessel unto me, to bear my name before ^{ak}the Gentiles and ^{al}kings, and the children of Israel: 16 for ^{am}I will show him how many things he must suffer for my name's sake. 17 And Ananias departed, and en-

18 And he sought for him, but found him not. 19 Then he returned to Jerusalem, and said, I have seen a man, who is called Saul, who persecuteth the saints: but the Lord hath chosen him to bear his name before the Gentiles, and kings, and the children of Israel: 20 for he will show him how many things he must suffer for his name's sake. 21 And he returned to Damascus.

22 And it came to pass, that as he went, he came to a certain Damascus, and entered into a certain house, and found a certain man, who was called Saul, who was persecuting the saints: but the Lord hath chosen him to bear his name before the Gentiles, and kings, and the children of Israel: 23 for he will show him how many things he must suffer for his name's sake. 24 And he returned to Damascus.

25 And he sought for him, but found him not. 26 Then he returned to Jerusalem, and said, I have seen a man, who is called Saul, who persecuteth the saints: but the Lord hath chosen him to bear his name before the Gentiles, and kings, and the children of Israel: 27 for he will show him how many things he must suffer for his name's sake. 28 And he returned to Damascus.

29 And he sought for him, but found him not. 30 Then he returned to Jerusalem, and said, I have seen a man, who is called Saul, who persecuteth the saints: but the Lord hath chosen him to bear his name before the Gentiles, and kings, and the children of Israel: 31 for he will show him how many things he must suffer for his name's sake. 32 And he returned to Damascus.

33 And he sought for him, but found him not. 34 Then he returned to Jerusalem, and said, I have seen a man, who is called Saul, who persecuteth the saints: but the Lord hath chosen him to bear his name before the Gentiles, and kings, and the children of Israel: 35 for he will show him how many things he must suffer for his name's sake. 36 And he returned to Damascus.

37 And he sought for him, but found him not. 38 Then he returned to Jerusalem, and said, I have seen a man, who is called Saul, who persecuteth the saints: but the Lord hath chosen him to bear his name before the Gentiles, and kings, and the children of Israel: 39 for he will show him how many things he must suffer for his name's sake. 40 And he returned to Damascus.

41 And he sought for him, but found him not. 42 Then he returned to Jerusalem, and said, I have seen a man, who is called Saul, who persecuteth the saints: but the Lord hath chosen him to bear his name before the Gentiles, and kings, and the children of Israel: 43 for he will show him how many things he must suffer for his name's sake. 44 And he returned to Damascus.

45 And he sought for him, but found him not. 46 Then he returned to Jerusalem, and said, I have seen a man, who is called Saul, who persecuteth the saints: but the Lord hath chosen him to bear his name before the Gentiles, and kings, and the children of Israel: 47 for he will show him how many things he must suffer for his name's sake. 48 And he returned to Damascus.

49 And he sought for him, but found him not. 50 Then he returned to Jerusalem, and said, I have seen a man, who is called Saul, who persecuteth the saints: but the Lord hath chosen him to bear his name before the Gentiles, and kings, and the children of Israel: 51 for he will show him how many things he must suffer for his name's sake. 52 And he returned to Damascus.

And ^dhe was certain days with ^ethe disciples that were at Damascus. 20 And straightway ^fin the synagogues he proclaimed Jesus, that he is ^gthe Son of God. 21 And all that heard him were amazed, and said, Is not this he that in Jerusalem ^hmade havoc of them that ⁱcalled on this name? and he had come hither for this intent, that he might bring them bound before the chief priests. 22 But Saul increased the more in strength, and confounded the Jews that dwelt at Damascus, proving that this is the Christ.

23 And when ^kmany days were fulfilled, ^lthe Jews took counsel together to kill him: 24 but ^mtheir plot became known to Saul. And ⁿthey watched the gates also day and night that they might kill him: 25 but his disciples took him by night, and let him down through the wall, lowering him in a ^obasket.

26 And ^pwhen he was come to Jerusalem, he assayed to join himself to ^qthe disciples: and they were all afraid of him, not believing that he was a disciple. 27 But ^rBar-nabas took him, and brought him to the apostles, and declared unto them how he had ^sseen the Lord in the way, and that he had spoken to him, and how ^tat Damascus he had ^upreached boldly in the name of Jesus. 28 And he was with them going in and going out at Jerusalem, 29 ^vpreaching boldly in the name of the Lord: and he spake and disputed against the ^wGrecian Jews; but they were seeking to kill him. 30 And when ^xthe brethren knew it, they brought him down to ^yCæsarea, and ^zsent him forth to ^{aa}Tarsus.

36 Now there was at ^gJoppa a certain disciple named Tabitha, which by interpretation is called ^hDorcas: this woman was full of good works and almsdeeds which she did. 37 And it came to pass in those days, that she fell sick, and died: and when they had washed her, they laid her in an ⁱupper chamber. 38 And as Lydda was nigh unto ^jJoppa, ^kthe disciples, hearing that Peter was there, sent two men unto him, entreating him, Delay not to come on unto us. 39 And Peter arose and went with them. And when he was come, they brought him into the ^lupper chamber: and all the ^mwidows stood by him weeping, and showing the coats and garments which Dorcas made, while she was with them. 40 But Peter ⁿput them all forth, and ^okneeled down, and prayed; and turning to the body, he said, ^pTabitha, arise. And she opened her eyes; and when she saw Peter, she sat up. 41 And he gave her his hand, and raised her up; and calling ^qthe saints and ^rwidows, he presented her alive. 42 And it became known throughout all ^sJoppa: and ^tmany believed on the Lord. 43 And it came to pass, that he abode many days in ^uJoppa with ^vone Simon a tanner.

hour of the day, "an angel of God coming in unto him, and saying to him, Cornelius. 4 And he, "fastening his eyes upon him, and being affrighted, said, What is it, Lord? And he said unto him, Thy prayers and thine alms "are gone up "for a memorial before God. 5 And now send men to "Joppa, and fetch one Simon, who is surnamed Peter: 6 he lodgeth with "one Simon a tanner, whose house is by the sea side. 7 And when the angel that spake unto him was departed, he called two of his household-servants, and a devout soldier of them that waited on him continually; 8 and having rehearsed all things unto them, he sent them to "Joppa.

9 Now on the morrow, as they were on their journey, and drew nigh unto the city, "Peter went up upon "the housetop to pray, about "the sixth hour: 10 and he became hungry, and desired to eat: but while they made ready, he "fell into a trance; 11 and he beholdeth "the heaven opened, and a certain vessel descending, as it were a great sheet, let down by four corners upon the earth: 12 wherein were all manner of fourfooted beasts and creeping things of the earth and birds of the heaven. 13 And there came a voice to him, Rise, Peter; kill and eat. 14 But Peter said, Not so, "Lord; for "I have never eaten anything that is common and unclean. 15 And a voice came unto him again the second time, "What God hath cleansed, make not thou common. 16 And this was done thrice: and straightway the vessel was received up into heaven.

17 Now while Peter was much perplexed in himself what "the vision which he had seen might mean, behold, "the men that were sent by Cornelius, having made inquiry for Simon's house, stood before the gate, 18 and called and asked whether Simon, who was surnamed Peter, were lodging there. 19 And while Peter thought on "the vision, "the Spirit said unto him, Behold, three men seek thee. 20 But arise, and get thee down, and "go with them, nothing doubting: for I have sent them. 21 And Peter went down to the men, and said, Behold, I am he whom ye seek: what is the cause wherefore ye are come? 22 And they said, Cornelius a centu-

44 While Peter yet spake these words, ^uthe Holy Spirit fell on all them that heard the word. 45 And ^vthey of the circumcision that believed were amazed, as many as came with Peter, because that on the Gentiles also was ^wpoured out the gift of the Holy Spirit. 46 For they heard them ^xspeak with tongues, and magnify God. 24 But ^athe word of God grew and multiplied.

25 And ¹Barnabas and ¹Saul returned ^afrom Jerusalem, ^mwhen they had fulfilled their ministration, taking with them ⁿJohn whose surname was Mark.

13 Now there were at ^aAntioch, in the ^pchurch that was ^{there}, ^aprophets and ^ateachers, ¹Barnabas, and Symeon that was called Niger, and Lucius of ^cCyrene, and Manaen the foster-brother of ^aHerod the tetrarch, and ¹Saul. 2 And as they ministered to the Lord, and fasted, ^athe Holy Spirit said, Separate me ¹Barnabas and ¹Saul for ^athe work whereunto I have called them. 3 Then, when they had fasted and ^aprayed and ¹laid their hands on them, ^athey sent them away.

4 So they, being ^asent forth by the Holy Spirit, went down to Seleucia; and from thence they sailed to ^bCyprus. 5 And when they were at Salamis, they proclaimed the word of God in ^cthe synagogues of the Jews: and they had also ^aJohn as their attendant. 6 And when they had gone through the whole island unto Paphos, they found a certain ^asorcerer, a ¹false prophet, a Jew, whose name was Bar-Jesus; 7 who was with the ^aproconsul, Sergius Paulus, a man of understanding. The same called unto him Barnabas and Saul, and sought to hear the word of God. 8 But Elymas the ^asorcerer (for so is his name by interpretation) withstood them, seeking to turn aside the ^aproconsul from ^bthe faith. 9 But Saul, who is also called Paul, ¹filled with the Holy Spirit, fastened his eyes on him, 10 and said, O full of all guile and all villany, thou ^ason of the devil, thou enemy of all righteousness, wilt thou not cease to pervert ¹the right ways of the Lord? 11 And now, behold, ^mthe hand of the Lord is upon thee, and thou shalt be blind, not seeing the sun ^afor a season. And immediately there fell on him a mist and a darkness; and he went about seeking some to lead him by the hand. 12 Then the ^aproconsul, when he saw what was done, believed, being astonished at ^athe teaching of the Lord.

13 Now Paul and his company set sail from ^cPaphos, and came to ^pPerga in ^aPamphylia: and ^aJohn departed from them and returned to Jerusalem. 14 But they, passing through from Perga, came to ^aAntioch of ^cPisidia; and they went into ¹the synagogue on ^athe sabbath day, and sat down. 15 And after ^athe reading of the law and ^athe prophets ^athe rulers of the synagogue sent unto them, saying, Brethren, if ye have any word of exhortation for the people, say on. 16 And Paul stood up, and ^abeckoning with the hand said,

Men of Israel, and ^aye that fear

God, hearken: 17 The God of this people Israel ^achose our fathers, and exalted the people when they sojourned in the land of Egypt, and with a high arm led he them forth out of it. 18 And for about ^bthe time of forty years ^cas a nursing-father bare he them in the wilderness. 19 And ^dwhen he had destroyed ^eseven nations in the land of Canaan, he ^fgave them their land for an inheritance, for ^gabout four hundred and fifty years: 20 and after these things he ^hgave them judges until ⁱSamuel the prophet. 21 And afterward they ^jasked for a king: and God gave unto them ^kSaul the son of Kish, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, for the space of forty years. 22 And when he had ^lremoved him, he raised up David to be their king; to whom also he bare witness and said, ^mI have found ⁿDavid the son of Jesse, a man after my heart, who shall do all my ^owill. 23 ^pOf this man's seed hath God ^qaccording to promise brought unto Israel ^ra Saviour, Jesus; 24 when ^sJohn had first preached ^tbefore his coming the baptism of repentance to all the people of Israel. 25 And as John ^uwas fulfilling his course, ^vhe said, What suppose ye that I am? I am not ^whe. But behold, there cometh one after me the shoes of whose feet I am not worthy to unloose. 26 Brethren, children of the stock of Abraham, and those among you that fear God, to us is the word of ^xthis salvation sent forth. 27 For they that dwell in Jerusalem, and their ^yrulers, ^zbecause they knew him not, nor the voices of ^{aa}the prophets which are ^{ab}read every sabbath, fulfilled them by condemning him. 28 And though they found no cause of death ^{ac}in him, yet ^{ad}asked they of Pilate that he should be slain. 29 And when they had ^{ae}fulfilled all things that were written of him, ^{af}they took him down from ^{ag}the tree, and laid him in a tomb. 30 But God ^{ah}raised him from the dead: 31 and he was seen for many days of them that came up with him ^{ai}from Galilee to Jerusalem, who are now ^{aj}his witnesses unto the people. 32 And we ^{ak}bring you good tidings of ^{al}the promise made unto the fathers, 33 that God hath fulfilled the same unto our children, in that he ^araised up Jesus; as also it is written in the second psalm, ^bThou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee. 34 And as concerning that he ^craised him up from the dead, now no more to return to corruption, he hath spoken on this wise, ^dI will give you the holy and sure blessings of David. 35 Because he saith also in another psalm, ^eThou wilt not give thy Holy One to see corruption. 36 For ^fDavid, after he had ^gin his own generation served ^hthe counsel of God, ⁱfell asleep, and was laid unto his fathers, and saw corruption: 37 but he whom God ^jraised up saw no corruption. 38 Be it known unto you therefore, brethren, that ^kthrough this man is proclaimed unto you remission of sins: 39 and by him ^levery one that believeth is justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses. 40 Beware therefore, lest that come upon you which is spoken ^min the prophets:

For I work a work in your days, A work which ye shall in no wise believe, if one declare it unto you.

42 And as they went out, they besought that these words might be spoken to them the next ^psabbath. 43 Now when the synagogue broke up, many of the Jews and of the ^qdevout ^rproselytes followed Paul and Barnabas; who, speaking to them, urged them to continue in ^sthe grace of God.

44 And the next ^tsabbath almost the whole city was gathered together to hear the word of ^uGod. 45 But when ^vthe Jews saw the multitudes, they were filled with jealousy, and contradicted the things which were spoken by Paul, and ^wblasphemed. 46 And Paul and Barnabas spake out boldly, and said, It was necessary that the word of God should "first be spoken to you. Seeing ye thrust it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of eternal life, lo, ^bwe turn to the Gentiles. 47 For so hath the Lord commanded us, saying, ¹I have set thee for a "light of the Gentiles,

That thou shouldst be for salvation unto the uttermost part of the earth.

48 And as the Gentiles heard this, they were glad, and glorified "the word of ²God: and as many as were "ordained to eternal life believed. 49 And "the word of the Lord was spread abroad throughout all the region. 50 But "the Jews urged on the "devout women ^hof honorable estate, and the chief men of the city, and stirred up a persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and cast them out of their borders. 51 But "they shook off the dust of their feet against them, and came unto ^kIconium. 52 And the disciples were "filled with joy and with the Holy Spirit.

14 And it came to pass in ^kIconium that ^mthey entered together into the synagogue of the Jews, and so spake "that a great multitude both of Jews and of "Greeks believed. 2 But "the Jews that were ^pdisobedient stirred up the souls of the Gentiles, and made them evil affected against "the brethren. 3 Long time therefore they tarried there "speaking boldly in the Lord, who bare witness unto the word of his grace, granting "signs and "wonders to be done by their hands. 4 "But the multitude of the city was divided; and part held with "the Jews, and part with "the apostles. 5 And when there was made an onset both of the Gentiles and of "the Jews with their rulers, to treat them shamefully and to "stone them, 6 they became aware of it, and fled unto the cities of "Lycaonia, "Lystra and "Derbe, and the region round about: 7 and there they ^{3a}preached the gospel.

8 And at "Lystra there sat ^aa certain man, impotent in his feet, a cripple from his mother's womb, who never had walked. 9 The same heard Paul speaking: who, "fastening his eyes upon him, and seeing that he had "faith to be made whole, 10 said with a loud voice, Stand upright on thy feet. "And he leaped up and walked. 11 And when the multitude saw what Paul had done, they lifted up their voice, saying in the speech of "Lycaonia, "The gods are come down to us in the likeness of men. 12 And they called Barnabas, "Jupiter: and Paul, "Mercury, because he was the chief speaker. 13 And the priest of Jupiter whose temple was before the city, brought oxen and garlands unto the gates, and ^dwould have done sacrifice with the multitudes. 14 But when "the apostles, Barnabas and Paul, heard of it, they ^erent their garments, and sprang forth among the multitude, crying out 15 and saying, Sirs, why do ye these things? We also are "men of like "passions with you, and ^kbring you good tidings, that ye should turn from these "vain things unto a "living God, who "made the heaven and the earth and the sea, and all that in them is: 16 who in the generations gone by "suffered all the "nations to "walk in their own ways. 17 And yet "he left not himself without witness, in that he did good and "gave you from heaven rains and fruitful seasons, filling your hearts with food and gladness. 18 And with these sayings scarce restrained they the multitudes from doing sacrifice unto them.

19 But there came "Jews thither from "Antioch and "Iconium: and having persuaded the multitudes, they "stoned Paul, and dragged him out of the city, supposing that he was dead. 20 But as "the disciples stood round about him, he rose up, and entered into the city: and on the morrow he went forth with Barnabas to "Derbe. 21 And when they had ²preached the gospel to that city, and had "made many disciples, they returned to ^bLystra, and to "Iconium, and to "Antioch, 22 confirming the souls of "the dis-

Deputation and Letter to Antioch. Its Reception.

Paul and Barnabas disagree about Mark. Paul chooses Timothy him, being read in the synagogues every sabbath.

22 Then it seemed good to ^athe apostles and the elders, with the whole church, to choose men out of their company, and send them to ^bAntioch with Paul and Barnabas; namely, Judas called Barsabbas, and ^cSilas, chief men among ^dthe brethren: 23 and they wrote thus by them, ^{1a}The apostles and the elders, brethren, unto ^athe brethren who are of the Gentiles in ^bAntioch and ^cSyria and ^dCilicia, ^egreeting: 24 Forasmuch as we have heard that ^acertain ²who went out from us have ¹troubled you with words, subverting your souls; to whom we gave no commandment; 25 ^ait seemed good unto us, having come to one accord, to choose out men and send them unto you with our beloved Barnabas and Paul, 26 men that have ¹hazarded their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. 27 We have sent therefore ^mJudas and ⁿSilas, who themselves also shall tell you the same things by word of mouth. 28 For ^ait seemed good to ^othe Holy Spirit, and to ^pus, to lay upon you no greater burden than these necessary things: 29 that ye abstain from ^qthings sacrificed to idols, and from ^rblood, and from ^sthings strangled, and from ^tfornication; from which ^uye keep yourselves, it shall be well with you. Fare ye well.

30 So they, when they were dismissed, ^vcame down to Antioch; and having gathered the multitude together, they delivered the epistle. 31 And when they had read it, they rejoiced for the ³consolation. 32 And ^mJudas and ⁿSilas, being themselves also ⁴prophets, ^eexhorted ^athe brethren with many words, and confirmed them. 33 And after they had spent some time there, they were dismissed ⁱⁿpeace from the brethren unto those that had ⁵sent them forth.⁵ 35 But ^aPaul and Barnabas tarried in Antioch, teaching and ⁶preaching ^athe word of the Lord, with many others also.

36 And after some days Paul said unto Barnabas, Let us return

now and visit the brethren in ^aevery city wherein we proclaimed ^athe word of the Lord, and see how they fare. 37 And Barnabas was minded to take with them ^bJohn also, who was called Mark. 38 But Paul thought not good to take with them him who ^cwithdrew from them from Pamphylia, and went not with them to the work. 39 And there arose a sharp contention, so that they parted asunder one from the other, and Barnabas took ^dMark with him, and sailed away unto ^eCyprus: 40 but Paul chose ^fSilas, and went forth, being ^gcommended by the brethren to the grace of the Lord. 41 And he went through ^hSyria and ⁱCilicia, confirming the churches.

16 ^kAnd he came also to ^kDerbe and to ^kLystra: and behold, a certain disciple was there, named ^lTimothy, the son of ^ma Jewess that believed; but his father was a Greek. 2 The same was well reported of by ⁿthe brethren that were at ^kLystra and ^oIconium. 3 Him would Paul have to go forth with him; and he ^ptook and circumcised him because of the Jews that were in those parts: for they all knew that his father was a Greek. 4 And as they went on their way through the cities, they delivered them ^qthe decrees to keep which had been ordained of ^rthe apostles and ^selders that were at Jerusalem. 5 So ^tthe churches were strengthened ⁷in the faith, and ^uincreased in number daily.

6 And they went through ^vthe region of ^vPhrygia and ^vGalatia, having been forbidden of the Holy Spirit to speak the word in ^wAsia; 7 and when they were come over against ^xMysia, they assayed to go into ^yBithynia; and the ^zSpirit of Jesus suffered them not; 8 and passing by ^zMysia, they came down to ^aTroas. 9 And ^aa vision appeared to Paul in the night: There was a man of ^aMacedonia standing, beseeching him, and saying, Come over into Macedonia, and help us. 10 And when he had seen ^athe vision, straightway ^bwe sought to go forth into Macedonia, concluding that God had called us to ^{1c}preach the gospel unto them.

11 Setting sail therefore from ^aTroas, we made ^aa straight course to Samothrace, and the day following to Neapolis; 12 and from thence to ⁷Philippi, which is a city of ⁷Macedonia, the first of the district, ^aa Roman colony: and we were in this city tarrying certain days. 13 And on ⁴the sabbath day we went forth without the gate by a river side, ²where we supposed there was a place of prayer; and we sat down, and spake unto the women that were come together. 14 And a certain woman named Lydia, a seller of purple, of the city of ^kThyatira, ¹one that worshipped God, heard us: ^mwhose heart the Lord opened to give heed unto the things which were spoken by Paul. 15 And when she was baptized, and ⁿher household, she besought us, saying, If ye have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come into my house, and abide there. And she constrained us.

16 And it came to pass, as we were going to ^othe place of prayer, that a certain maid having ^{3p}a spirit of divination met us, who brought her masters much gain by soothsaying. 17 The same following after Paul and us cried out, saying, These men are ⁴servants of ^qthe Most High God, who proclaim unto you ⁶the way of salvation. 18 And this she did for many days. But Paul, being sore troubled, turned and said to the spirit, I charge thee ^rin the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her. And it came out that very hour.

19 But when her masters saw that the hope of their ^sgain was ⁶gone, they laid hold on ⁴Paul and Silas, and ^udragged them into the marketplace before the rulers, 20 and when they had brought them unto the ⁷magistrates, they said, These men, being Jews, do

17 Now when they had passed through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to ¹Thessalonica, where was a synagogue of the Jews: 2 and Paul, ²as his custom was, went in unto them, and for three ³sabbath days reasoned with them from ⁴the scriptures, 3 opening and alleging that ⁵it behooved the Christ to suffer, and ⁶to rise again from the dead; and that ⁷this Jesus, whom, said he, I proclaim unto you, is the Christ. 4 ⁸And some of them were persuaded, and consorted with ⁹Paul and Silas; and of the ¹⁰devout ¹¹Greeks a great multitude, and of the ¹²chief women not a few. 5 But ¹³the Jews, being moved with jealousy, took unto them certain vile fellows of the rabble, and gathering a crowd, set the city on an uproar; and assaunting the house of ¹⁴Jason, they sought to bring them forth to the people. 6 And when they found them not, they ¹⁵dragged Jason and certain brethren before the rulers of the city, crying, These that have turned ¹⁶the world upside down are come hither also; 7 whom Jason ¹⁷hath received: and these all act ¹⁸contrary to the decrees of Caesar, saying that there is another king, one Jesus. 8 And they troubled the multitude and the rulers of the city, when they heard these things. 9 And when they had taken security from ¹⁹Jason and the rest, they let them go.

synagogue of the Jews. 11 Now these were more noble than those in ¹Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, examining the scriptures daily, whether these things were so. 12 ²Many of them therefore believed; also of the Greek ³women ⁴of honorable estate, and of men, not a few. 13 But when the Jews of ⁵Thessalonica had knowledge that the word of God was proclaimed of Paul at ⁶Berea also, they came thither likewise, stirring up and troubling the multitudes. 14 And then immediately ⁷the brethren sent forth Paul to go as far as to the sea: and ⁸Silas and ⁹Timothy abode there still. 15 But ¹⁰they that conducted Paul brought him as far as ¹¹Athens: and receiving a commandment unto ¹²Silas and Timothy that they should ¹³come to him with all speed, they departed.

and observed the ^aobjects of your worship, I found also an altar with this inscription, TO AN UNKNOWN GOD. What therefore ^bye worship in ignorance, this I set forth unto you. 24 ^cThe God that made the world and all things therein, he, being ^dLord of heaven and earth, ^edwelleth not in ^ftemples made with hands; 25 neither is he served by men's hands, ^gas though he needed anything, seeing he himself giveth to all life, and breath, and all things; 26 and ^hhe made of one every nation of men to dwell on all the face of the earth, having ⁱdetermined ^jtheir appointed seasons, and the bounds of their habitation; 27 that they should seek God, if haply they might feel after him and find him, ^kthough he is not far from each one of us: 28 for ^lin him we live, and move, and have our being; as certain even of your own poets ^mhave said,

For we are also his offspring. 29 Being then the offspring of God, we ⁿought not to think that ^othe Godhead is like unto gold, or silver, or stone, graven by art and device of man. 30 ^pThe times of ignorance therefore God ^qoverlooked; but ^rnow he ^scommandeth men that they should all everywhere repent: 31 inasmuch as he hath appointed ^ta day in which ^uhe will judge ^vthe world in righteousness ^wby ^xthe man whom he hath ^yordained; whereof he hath given assurance unto all men, in that he ^zhath raised him from the dead.

32 Now when they heard of ^athe resurrection of the dead, some mocked; but others said, We will hear thee concerning this yet again.

33 Thus Paul went out from among them. 34 But certain men clave unto him, and believed: among whom also was Dionysius the ^bAreopagite, and a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

18 After these things he departed from ^cAthens, and came to ^dCorinth. 2 And he found a certain Jew named ^eAquila, a man of ^fPontus by race, lately come from ^gItaly, with his wife ^hPriscilla, because ⁱClaudius had commanded all the Jews to depart from Rome: and he came unto

5 But when ^fSilas and Timothy ^gcame down from ^hMacedonia, Paul was constrained by the word, ⁱtestifying to the Jews that ^jJesus was the Christ. 6 And when they opposed themselves and ^kblasphemed, he ^lshook out his raiment and said unto them, ^mYour blood be upon your own heads; I am clean: from henceforth I will go ⁿunto the Gentiles. 7 And he departed thence, and went into the house of a certain man named Titus Justus, ^oone that worshipped God, whose house joined hard to the synagogue. 8 And ^pCrispus, ^qthe ruler of the synagogue, ^rbelieved in the Lord ^swith all his house; and many of the ^tCorinthians hearing believed, and were baptized. 9 And the Lord said unto Paul in the night by ^ua vision, Be not afraid, but speak and hold not thy peace: 10 for I am with thee, and no man shall set on thee to harm thee: for I have much people in this city. 11 And he dwelt ^vthere a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them.

12 But when Gallio was ^wproconsul of ^xAchaia, ^ythe Jews with one accord rose up against Paul and brought him before ^zthe judgment-seat, 13 saying, This man persuadeth men to worship God contrary to ^athe law. 14 But when Paul was about to ^bopen his mouth, Gallio said unto the Jews, If indeed it were a matter of wrong or of wicked villany, O ye Jews, reason would that I should bear with you: 15 but if they are ^cquestions about words and names and your own law, look to it yourselves; I am not minded to be a judge of these matters. 16 And 21 Now after these things were ended, Paul purposed in the spirit, ^ewhen he had passed through ^fMacedonia and ^hAchaia, to ^ggo to Jerusalem, saying, After I have been there, ^kI must also see Rome. 22 And having sent into ^gMacedonia two of ⁱthem that ministered unto him, ^mTimothy and ⁿErastus, he himself stayed in ^oAsia for a while.

27 And when ⁱthe seven days were almost completed, ^jthe Jews from ^kAsia, when they saw him in the temple, stirred up all the multitude and laid hands on him, 28 crying out, Men of Israel, help: ^lThis is the man that teacheth all men everywhere against the people, and the law, and this place; and moreover he brought Greeks also into the temple, and hath ^mdefiled this ⁿholy place. 29 For they had before seen with him in the city ^oTrophimus the ^pEphesian, whom they supposed that Paul had brought into the temple. 30 And all the city was moved, and the people ran together; and they laid hold on Paul, and ^qdragged him out of the temple: and straightway the doors were shut. 31 And as they were seeking to kill him, tidings came up to the ^rchief captain of the ^sband, that all Jerusalem was in confusion. 32 And forthwith he ^ttook soldiers and centurions, and ran down upon them: and they, when they saw the ^uchief captain and the soldiers, left off beating Paul. 33 Then the ^vchief captain came near, and laid hold on him, and commanded him to be ^wbound with ^xtwo chains; and inquired who he was, and what he had done.

est inquire somewhat more exactly concerning him. 21 Do not thou therefore yield unto them: for there^u lie in wait for him of them more than forty men, who have^v bound themselves under a curse, neither to eat nor to drink till they have slain him: and now are they ready, looking for the promise from thee. 22 So the¹ chief captain let the young man go, charging him, Tell no man that thou hast signified these things to me. 23 And he called unto him two of the centurions, and said, Make ready two hundred soldiers to go as far as^w Cæsarea, and horsemen threescore and ten, and spearmen two hundred, at the third hour of the night: 24 and^x he bade them provide beasts, that they might set Paul thereon, and bring him safe unto^y Felix the governor. 25 And he wrote a letter after this form:

26 Claudius Lysias unto the^z most excellent governor Felix, greeting. 27 This man was seized by the Jews, and^a was about to be slain of them, when^b I came upon them with the soldiers and rescued him, ^c having learned that he was a Roman. 28 And^d desiring to know the cause wherefore they accused him, ^e I¹ brought him down unto their^f council: 29 whom I found to be accused about^g questions of their law, but to have^h nothing laid to his charge worthy of death or of bonds. 30 And when it wasⁱ shown to me that there would be^j a plot^k against the man, I sent him to thee forthwith, charging^l his accusers also to speak against him before thee.^m

31 So the soldiers, as it was commanded them, took Paul and brought him by night to Antipatris. 32 But on the morrow they leftⁿ the horsemen to go with him, and returned to^o the castle: 33 and they, when they came to^p Cæsarea and delivered the letter to^q the governor, presented Paul also before him. 34 And when he had read it, he asked of what^r province he was; and when he understood that^s he was of Cilicia, 35 I will hear thee fully, said he, when thine

Seeing that by thee we enjoy much peace, and that by thy providence evils are corrected for this nation, 3 we accept it in all ways and in all places, ^vmost excellent Felix, with all thankfulness. 4 But, that I be not further tedious unto thee, I entreat thee to hear us of thy clemency a few words. 5 For we have found this man ^aa pestilent fellow, and a mover of insurrections among all the Jews throughout ²the world, and a ring-leader of the ^bsect of the Nazarenes: 6 who moreover assayed to ^aprofane the temple: on whom also we laid hold: ³8 from whom thou wilt be able, by examining him thyself, to take knowledge of all these things whereof we accuse him. 9 And ^athe Jews also joined in the charge, affirming that these things were so.

Forasmuch as I know that thou hast been of many years a judge unto this nation, I cheerfully make my defence: 11 seeing that thou canst take knowledge that it is not more than ¹twelve days since I went up to worship at Jerusalem: 12 and ^mneither in the temple did they find me disputing with any man or ⁿstirring up a crowd, nor in the synagogues, nor in the city. 13 ^oNeither can they prove to thee the things whereof they now accuse me. 14 But this I confess unto thee, that after ^pthe Way which they call a ^hsect, so serve I ^athe God of our fathers, ^bbelieving all things which are according to the law, and which are written in the prophets; 15 having hope toward God, which ^athese also themselves ^alook for, that there shall be a resurrection both of the just and unjust. 16 ^bHerein ^aI also exercise myself to have a conscience void of offence toward God and men always. 17 Now ^aafter some years I ^vcame to bring alms to my nation, and offerings: 18 ^aamidst which they found me ^cpurified in the temple, with no ^vcrowd, nor yet with tumult: but there were certain ²Jews from Asia — 19 who ought to have been here before thee, and to ^amake accusation, if they had aught against me. 20 Or else let these men themselves say what wrong-doing they found when I stood before ^bthe council, 21 except it be for this one voice, that ^aI cried standing among them, Touching the resurrection of the dead I am called in question before you this day.

22 But Felix, having more exact knowledge concerning ^athe Way, deferred them, saying, When Lysias the ⁷chief captain shall come down, I will determine your matter. 23 And he gave order to the centurion that he should be ^akept in charge, and should ^vhave indulgence; and not to forbid any of ^ghis friends to minister unto him.

24 But after certain days, Felix came with Drusilla, ⁸his wife, who was a Jewess, and sent for Paul, and heard him concerning ^hthe faith in Christ Jesus. 25 And as he reasoned of ^arighteousness, and ^kself-control, and ⁱthe judgment to come, Felix was terrified, and answered, Go thy way for this time; and when I have a convenient season, I will call thee unto me. 26 He hoped withal that ^mmoney would be given him of Paul: wherefore also he sent for him the oftener, and communed with him. 27 But when two years were fulfilled, Felix was succeeded by Porcius ⁿFestus; and ^odesiring to gain favor with the Jews, Felix left Paul ⁱⁿbonds.

25 Festus therefore, ⁹having come into ^athe province, after three days went up to Jerusalem from ^rCæsarea. 2 And the chief priests and the principal men of the Jews ^ainformed him against Paul; and they besought him, 3 asking a favor against him, that he would send for him to Jerusalem; ^a laying a plot to kill him on the way. 4 Howbeit Festus ^b answered, that Paul ^c was kept in charge at ^d Cæsarea, and that he himself was about to depart thither shortly. 5 Let them therefore, saith he, that are of power among you go down with me, and if there is anything amiss in the man, let them accuse him.

6 And when he had tarried among them not more than eight or ten days, he went down unto ^e Cæsarea; and on the morrow he sat on ^f the judgment-seat, and commanded Paul to be brought. 7 And when he was come, the Jews that had come down from Jerusalem stood round about him, bringing against him ^g many and grievous charges ^h which they could not prove; 8 while Paul said in his defence, ⁱ Neither against the law of the Jews, nor against the temple, nor against Cæsar, have I sinned at all. 9 But Festus, ^j desiring to gain favor with the Jews, answered Paul and said, ^k Wilt thou go up to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these things before me? 10 But Paul said, I am standing before Cæsar's ^l judgment-seat, where I ought to be judged: to the Jews have I done no wrong, as thou also very well knowest. 11 If then I am a wrong-doer, and have committed anything worthy of death, I refuse not to die; but if none of those things is true whereof these accuse me, no man can ^m give me up unto them. I ⁿ appeal unto Cæsar. 12 Then Festus, when he had conferred with ^o the council, answered, Thou hast appealed unto Cæsar: unto Cæsar shalt thou go.

13 Now when certain days were passed, Agrippa the king and Bernice arrived at ^p Cæsarea, ^q and saluted Festus. 14 And as they tarried there many days, Festus laid Paul's case before the king, saying, There is a certain man ^r left a prisoner by Felix; 15 about whom, when I was at Jerusalem, the ^s chief priests and the elders of the Jews ^t informed me, asking for sentence against him. 16 To whom I ^u answered, that it is not the custom of the Romans to ^v give up any man, before that ^w the accused have, the accusers ^x face to face, and have had opportunity to make his defence concerning the matter laid against him. 17 When therefore they were come together here, I made no delay, but on the next day sat on ^a the judgment-seat, and commanded the man to be brought. 18 Concerning whom, when the accusers stood up, they brought no charge of such evil things as I supposed; 19 but had certain ^b questions against him of their own ^c religion, and of one Jesus, who was dead, whom Paul affirmed to be alive. 20 And I, ^d being perplexed how to inquire concerning these things, asked whether he would go to Jerusalem and there be judged of these matters. 21 But when Paul had ^e appealed to be kept for the decision of ^f the emperor, I commanded him to be kept till I should send him to Cæsar. 22 And ^g Agrippa said unto Festus, I also ^h could wish to hear the man myself. To-morrow, saith he, thou shalt hear him.

23 So on the morrow, when ⁱ Agrippa was come, and ^j Bernice, with great pomp, and they were entered into the place of hearing with the ^k chief captains and the principal men of the city, at the command of Festus Paul was brought in. 24 And Festus saith, King Agrippa, and all men who are here present with us, ye behold this man, about whom ^l all the multitude of the Jews made suit to me, both at Jerusalem and here, crying that ^m he ought not to live any longer. 25 But I found that he had committed ⁿ nothing worthy of death: and as he himself ^o appealed to ^p the emperor I determined to send him. 26 Of whom I have no certain thing to write unto my lord. Wherefore I have brought him forth before you, and specially before thee, king Agrippa, that, after examination had, I may have somewhat to write. 27 For it seemeth to me unreasonable, in sending a prisoner, not withal to signify the charges against him.

26 And ^q Agrippa said unto Paul, Thou art permitted to speak for thyself. Then Paul stretched forth his hand, and made his defence:

defence before thee this day touching all the things whereof I am accused by the Jews: 3¹ especially because thou art expert in all^a customs and questions which are among the Jews: wherefore I beseech thee to hear me patiently. 4^b My manner of life then from my youth up, which was from the beginning among mine own nation and at Jerusalem, know all the Jews; 5 having knowledge of me from the first, if they be willing to testify, that^c after the straitest^d sect of our religion I lived a^e Pharisee. 6 And now I stand^f here to be judged^g for the hope of^h the promise made of God unto our fathers; 7 unto whichⁱ promise^j our twelve tribes, earnestly serving God night and day, hope to attain. And concerning this^k hope I am^l accused by the Jews, O king! 8 Why is it judged incredible with you,^k if God doth raise the dead? 9^l I verily thought with myself that I ought to do many things contrary to^m the name of Jesus of Nazareth. 10 And this I alsoⁿ did in Jerusalem: and I both shut up many of the saints in prisons, having^o received authority from the chief priests, and when they were put to death I^p gave my vote against them. 11 And^q punishing them oftentimes in all the synagogues, I strove to make them blaspheme; and being^r exceedingly mad against them, I persecuted them^s even unto foreign cities. 12^t Whereupon^u as I journeyed to Damascus with the authority and commission of the chief priests, 13 at midday, O king, I saw on the way a light from heaven, above the brightness of the sun, shining round about me and them that journeyed with me. 14 And when we were^v all fallen to the earth, I heard a voice saying unto me in the^w Hebrew language, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? it is hard for thee to kick against^x the goad. 15 And I said, Who art thou, Lord? And the Lord said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest. 16 But arise, and^y stand upon thy feet: for to this end have I appeared unto thee, to^z appoint thee a^{aa} minister and^{ab} a witness both of the things^{ac} wherein thou hast seen me, and of the things wherein I will appear unto thee; 17^{ad} delivering thee^{ae} from the people, and from the Gentiles, unto whom I send thee, 18 to^{af} open their eyes,^{ag} that they may turn from^{ah} darkness to light and from the power of^{ai} Satan unto God, that they may receive^{aj} remission of sins and an^{ak} inheritance among them that are sanctified by^{al} faith in me. 19 Wherefore, O king Agrippa, I was not disobedient unto the heavenly vision: 20 but declared both^{am} to them of Damascus first, and^{an} at Jerusalem, and throughout all the country of Judæa, and also^{ao} to the Gentiles, that they should^{ap} repent and turn to God, doing works^{aq} worthy of^{ar} repentance. 21 For this cause the Jews^{as} seized me in the temple, and assayed^{at} to kill me. 22 Having therefore obtained the help that is from God, I stand unto this day^{au} testifying both to small and great, saying nothing^{av} but what^{aw} the prophets and Moses did say should come; 23^{ax} how^{ay} that the Christ^{az} must suffer, and^{ba} how that^{bb} he first by the resurrection of the dead should proclaim^{bc} light both to the people and to the Gentiles.

24 And as he thus made his defence, Festus saith with a loud voice, Paul, thou art mad; thy much^{bd} learning^{be} is turning thee mad. 25 But Paul saith, I am not mad, ^{bf}most excellent Festus; but speak forth words of truth and soberness. 26 For the king^{bg} knoweth of these things, unto whom also I speak freely: for I am persuaded that none of these things is hidden from him; for this hath not been done in a corner. 27 King Agrippa, believest thou the prophets? I know that thou believest. 28 And Agrippa said unto Paul, ^{bh}With but little persuasion thou wouldest fain make me a^{bi} Christian. 29 And Paul said, I would to God, that^{bj} whether with little or with much, not thou only, but also all that hear me this day, might become such as I am, except these^{bk} bonds.

Paul might have been set at Liberty but for his Appeal. Paul sails for Italy. The Voyage Dangerous

30 And the king rose up, and the governor, and Bernice, and they that sat with them: 31 and when they had withdrawn, they spake one to another, saying, ^bThis man doeth nothing worthy of death or of bonds. 32 And Agrippa said unto Festus, This man might have been ^cset at liberty, if he had not ^dappealed unto Caesar.

27 And when it was determined that ^ewe should sail for ^fItaly, they delivered Paul and certain other prisoners to a centurion named Julius, of the Augustan ^hband. 2 And embarking in a ship of Adramyttium, which was about to sail unto the places on the coast of ⁱAsia, we put to sea, ^kAristarchus, a ^lMacedonian of ^mThessalonica, being with us. 3 And the next day we touched at ⁿSidon: and Julius ^otreated Paul kindly, and ^pgave him leave to go unto his friends and ^qrefresh himself. 4 And putting to sea from thence, we sailed under the lee of ^rCyprus, because ^sthe winds were contrary. 5 And when we had sailed across the sea which is off ^tCilicia and ^uPamphylia, we came to Myra, a city of Lycia. 6 And there the centurion found a ^vship of Alexandria sailing for ^wItaly; and he put us therein. 7 And when we had sailed slowly many days, and were come with difficulty over against Cnidus, ^xthe wind not ^yfurther suffering us, we sailed under the lee of ^zCrete, over against Salmone; 8 and with difficulty ^{aa}coasting along it we came unto a certain place called Fair Havens; nigh whereunto was the city of Lasea.

9 And when much time was spent, and the voyage was now dangerous, because ^{ab}the Fast was now already gone by, Paul admonished them, 10 and said unto them, Sirs, I perceive that the voyage will be with ^{ac}injury and much loss, not only of the lading and the ship, but also of our lives. 11 But the centurion gave more heed to the ^{ad}master and to the owner of the ship, than to those things which were spoken by Paul. 12 And because the haven was not commodious to winter in, the more part advised to put to sea from thence, if by any means they could reach Phoenix, and winter there; which is a haven of ^cCrete, looking ^dnorth-east and south-east. 13 And when the south wind blew softly, supposing that they had obtained their purpose, they weighed anchor and ^esailed along ^fCrete, close in shore. 14 But after no long time there ^gbeat down from it a tempestuous wind, which is called Euraquilo: 15 and when the ship was caught, and could not face the wind, we gave way to it, and were driven. 16 And running under the lee of a small island called ^hCauda, we were able, with difficulty, to secure the boat: 17 and when they had hoisted it up, they used helps, under-girding the ship; and, fearing lest they should ⁱbe cast upon the Syrtis, they lowered the gear, and so were driven. 18 And as we labored exceedingly with the storm, the next day they began to ^jthrow the freight overboard; 19 and the third day they cast out with their own hands the ^ktackling of the ship. 20 And when neither sun nor stars shone upon us for many days, and no small tempest lay on us, all hope that we should be saved was now taken away. 21 And when they had been long without food, then Paul stood forth in the midst of them, and said, ^lSirs, ye should have hearkened unto me, and not have set sail from ^mCrete, and have gotten this ⁿinjury and loss. 22 And now I exhort you to be ^oof good cheer; for there shall be no loss of life among you, but only of the ship. 23 For ^pthere stood by me this night ^qan angel of the God whose I am, ^rwhom also I serve, 24 saying, Fear not, Paul; ^sthou must stand before Caesar: and lo, God hath granted thee ^tall them that sail with thee. 25 Wherefore, sirs, be ^uof good cheer: for I believe God, that it shall be even so as it hath been spoken unto me. 26 But we must ^vbe cast upon a certain ^wisland.

27 But when the fourteenth night was come, as we were driven to and fro in the sea of Adria, about midnight the sailors surmised that they were drawing near to some country: 28 and they sounded, and found twenty fathoms; and after a little space, they sounded again, and found fifteen fathoms. 29 And fearing lest haply we should ^a be cast ashore on rocky ground, they let go four anchors from the stern, and ¹ wished for the day. 30 And as the sailors were seeking to flee out of the ship, and had lowered ^b the boat into the sea, under color as though they would lay out anchors from the foreship, 31 Paul said to the centurion and to the soldiers, Except these abide in the ship, ye cannot be saved. 32 Then the soldiers cut away the ^c ropes of the boat, and let her fall off. 33 And while the day was coming on, Paul besought them all to take some food, saying, This day is the fourteenth day that ye wait and continue fasting, having taken nothing. 34 Wherefore I beseech you to take some food: for this is for your safety: for ^d there shall not a hair perish from the head of any of you. 35 And when he had said this, and had taken bread, he ^e gave thanks to God in the presence of all; and he brake it, and began to eat. 36 Then were they all ^f of good cheer, and themselves also took food. 37 And we were in all in the ship two hundred threescore and sixteen ^g souls. 38 And when they had eaten enough, they lightened the ship, ^h throwing out the wheat into the sea. 39 And when it was day, ⁱ they knew not the land: but they perceived a certain bay with a beach, and they took counsel whether they could ^j drive the ship upon it. 40 And casting off ^k the anchors, they left them in the sea, at the same time loosing the bands of the rudders; and hoisting up the foresail to the wind, they made for the beach. 41 But lighting upon a place where two seas met, they ran the vessel aground; and the foreship struck and remained unmoveable, but the stern began to break up by the violence of the waves. 42 And the soldiers' counsel was to ^l kill the prisoners, lest any of them should swim out, and escape. 43 But the centurion, ^m desiring to save Paul, stayed them from their purpose; and commanded that they who could swim should cast themselves overboard, and get first to the land; 44 and the rest, some on planks, and some on other things from the ship. And so it came to pass, that ⁿ they all escaped safe to the land.

28 And when ^o we were escaped, ^p then we knew that ^q the island was called ^r Melita. 2 And ^s the barbarians showed us no common kindness: for they kindled a fire, and ^t received us all, because of the present rain, and because of the cold. 3 But when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks and laid them on the fire, a viper came out ^u by reason of the heat, and fastened on his hand. 4 And when ^v the barbarians saw the venomous creature hanging from his hand, they said one to another, ^w No doubt this man is a murderer, whom, though he hath escaped from the sea, yet ^x Justice hath not suffered to live. 5 Howbeit ^y he shook off the creature into the fire, and took no harm. 6 But they expected that he would have swollen, or fallen down dead suddenly: but when they were long in expectation and beheld nothing amiss come to him, they changed their minds, and ^z said that he was a god.

7 Now in the neighborhood of that place were lands belonging to the chief man of the island, named Publius; who received us, and entertained us three days courteously. 8 And it was so, that the father of Publius lay sick of fever and dysentery: unto whom Paul entered in, and ^{aa} prayed; and ^{ab} laying his hands on him healed him. 9 And when this was done, the rest also that had diseases in the island came, and were cured: 10 who also honored us with many honors; and when we sailed, they put on board such things as we needed.

11 And after three months we set sail in ^{ac} a ship of Alexandria which had wintered in the island, whose sign was ^{ad} The Twin Brothers. 12 And touching at Syracuse, we tarried there three days, 13 And from thence we ^{ae} made a circuit, and arrived at Rhegium; and after one day a south wind sprang up, and on the second day we came to Puteoli; 14 where

16 And when we entered into Rome, ¹Paul was ^bsuffered to abide by himself with the soldier that guarded him.

17 And it came to pass, that after three days he called together ²those that were ^cthe chief of the Jews: and when they were come together, he said unto them, I, ^abrethren, ^ethough I had done nothing against the people, or ^fthe customs of our fathers, yet was delivered prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans: 18 who, when they had examined me, ^gdesired to set me at liberty, because there was ^hno cause of death in me. 19 But when the Jews spake against it, I was constrained to ⁱappeal unto Cæsar; not that I had aught whereof to accuse my nation. 20 For this cause therefore did I ^jentreat you to see and to speak with me: for ^kbecause of the hope of Israel I am bound with ^lthis chain. 21 And they said unto him, We neither received letters from Judæa concerning thee, nor did any of ^mthe brethren come hither and report or speak any harm of thee. 22 But we desire to hear of thee what thou thinkest: for as concerning this ⁿsect, it is known to us that everywhere ^oit is spoken against.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO THE ROMANS

Salutation. Personal Explanations. The Gospel. The Gentiles' Need of Righteousness

1 Paul, a ¹servant of Jesus Christ, ^acalled to be an apostle, ²separated unto ^cthe ²gospel of God, ²which he ^apromised afore through his ^cprophets in the holy scriptures, ³concerning his Son, who was born ^dof the seed of David ^eaccording to the flesh, ⁴who was ³declared to be ^hthe Son of God ⁴with power, according to the spirit of holiness, by the resurrection ⁵from the dead; even Jesus Christ our Lord, ⁵through whom we received grace and ^aapostleship, unto ^bobedience ⁶of faith among ^mall the ⁷nations, for his name's sake; ⁶among whom are ye also, ⁿcalled to be Jesus Christ's: ⁷to all that are in Rome, ^obeloved of God, ^pcalled to be ^qsaints: ^rGrace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

8 First, ^sI thank my God through Jesus Christ for you all, ^tthat ^uyour faith is proclaimed throughout the whole world. 9 For ^vGod is my witness, whom I ^wserve in my spirit in the ²gospel of his Son, how unceasingly ^xI make mention of you, always in my prayers 10 making request, if by any means now at length I may be prospered ^yby ^zthe will of God to come unto you. 11 For ^{aa}I long to see you, that I may impart unto you some spiritual gift, to the end ye may be established; 12 that is, that I with you may be comforted ^{ab}in you, each of us by the other's faith, both yours and mine. 13 And ^{ac}I would not have you ignorant, ^{ad}brethren, that oftentimes I ^{ae}purposed to come unto you (and was hindered hitherto), that I might have some ^{af}fruit ^{ag}in you also, even as ^{ah}in the rest of the Gentiles. 14 ^{ai}I am debtor both to Superiority in Privilege does not diminish Guilt. Jew and Gentile alike under Sin, as the Scriptures testify

19 and art confident that thou thyself art a guide of the blind, a light of them that are in darkness, 20¹ a corrector of the foolish, a teacher of babes, having in the law^a the form of knowledge and of the truth; 21 thou therefore^b that teachest another, teachest thou not thyself? thou that preachest a man should not steal, dost thou steal? 22 thou that sayest a man should not commit adultery, dost thou commit adultery? thou that abhorrest idols, dost thou^c rob temples? 23 thou who^d gloriest in the law, through thy transgression of the law dishonorest thou God? 24 For the name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles^e because of you,² even as it is written. 25 For circumcision indeed profiteth, if thou be a^f doer of the law: but if thou be a transgressor of the law,^g thy circumcision is become uncircumcision. 26^h If thereforeⁱ the uncircumcision^j keep the ordinances of the law, shall not his uncircumcision be reckoned for circumcision? 27 and shall not^k the uncircumcision which is by nature, if it fulfil the law, judge thee, who with the letter and circumcision art a transgressor of the law? 28 For^m he is not a Jew who is one outwardly; neither is that circumcision which is outward in the flesh: 29 butⁿ he is a Jew who is one inwardly; and circumcision is that of the heart, in^o the spirit not in the letter; ^p whose praise is not of men, but of God.

3 What advantage then hath the Jew? or what is the profit of circumcision? 2 Much every way: first of all, that^q they were intrusted with the^r oracles of God. 3 For what if^s some were without faith? shall their want of faith make of none effect the faithfulness of God? 4³ God forbid: yea, let God be found true, but every man^a a liar; as it is written, ^t That thou mightest be justified in thy words,

And mightest prevail when thou comest into judgment.

5 But if our unrighteousness^u commendeth the righteousness of God, what shall we say? Is God unrighteous who visiteth with wrath? (^v I speak after the manner of men.) 6³ God forbid; for then how shall

9 Is this blessing then pronounced upon the circumcision, or upon the uncircumcision also? for we say, To Abraham his faith was reckoned for righteousness.

10 How then was it reckoned? when he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision: 11 and he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had while he was in uncircumcision: that he might be the father of all them that believe, though they be in uncircumcision, that righteousness might be reckoned unto them; 12 and the father of circumcision to them who not only are of the circumcision, but who also walk in the steps of that faith of our father Abraham which he had in uncircumcision. 13 For not through the law was the promise to Abraham or to his seed that he should be heir of the world, but through the righteousness of faith. 14 For if they that are of the law are heirs, faith is made void, and the promise is made of none effect: 15 for the law worketh wrath; but where there is no law, neither is there transgression. 16 For this cause it is of faith, that it may be according to grace; to the end that the promise may be sure to all the seed; not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham, who is the father of us all 17 (as it is written, A father of many nations have I made thee) before him whom he believed, even God, who giveth life to the dead, and calleth the things that are not, as though they were. 18 Who in hope believed against hope, to the end that he might become the father of many nations, according to that which had been spoken, So shall thy seed be. 19 And without being weakened in faith he considered his own body ¹now ^aas good as dead (^bhe being about a hundred years old), and ^cthe deadness of Sarah's ²womb; 20 yet, looking unto the promise of God, he wavered not through unbelief, but waxed strong through faith, ^dgiving glory to God, 21 and ^ebeing fully assured that ^fwhat he had promised, he was able also to perform. 22 Wherefore also ^git was reckoned unto him for righteousnessness. 23 Now ^hit was not written for his sake alone, that it was reckoned unto him; 24 but for our sake also, unto whom it shall be reckoned, ⁱwho believe on him that ^kraised Jesus our Lord from the dead, 25 who was ^ldelivered up for our trespasses, and was ^mraised for our justification.

¹¹ but we also rejoice in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received ¹the reconciliation.

12 Therefore, as through ¹one man sin entered into the world, and ²death through sin; and ³so death passed unto all men, for that all sinned:—13 for until the law sin was in the world; but ⁴sin is not imputed when there is no law. 14 Nevertheless death reigned from Adam until Moses, even over them that had ⁵not sinned ⁶after the likeness of Adam's transgression, who is a ⁷figure of him that was to come. 15 But not as the trespass, so also ⁸is the free gift. For if by the trespass of ⁹the one ¹⁰the many died, much more did the grace of God, and the gift by ¹¹the grace of the one man, Jesus Christ, abound unto ¹²the many. 16 And not as through one that sinned, ¹³so is the gift: for ¹⁴the judgment ¹⁵came of one unto condemnation, but the free gift ¹⁶came of many trespasses unto ¹⁷justification. 17 For if, by the trespass of the one, death reigned ¹⁸through the one; much more shall they that receive the abundance of grace and ¹⁹of the gift of righteousness ²⁰reign in life through the one, ²¹even Jesus Christ. 18 So then as through ²²one trespass ²³the judgment ²⁴came unto all men to condemnation; even so through one ²⁵act of righteousness ²⁶the free gift ²⁷came unto all men to ²⁸justification of life. 19 For as through the one man's disobedience ²⁹the many ³⁰were made sinners, even so through ³¹the obedience of the one shall ³²the many be made righteous. 20 And ³³the law came in besides, that the trespass might abound; but where sin abounded, ³⁴grace did abound more exceedingly: 21 that, as ³⁵sin reigned in death, even so might ³⁶grace reign through righteousness unto eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

came obedient from the heart to that ^{si}form of teaching whereunto ye were delivered; ¹⁸ and being ^{sk}made free from sin, ye became ^{sl}servants of righteousness. ¹⁹ smI speak after the manner of men because of the infirmity of your flesh; for ^{sn}as ye presented your members as servants to uncleanness and to iniquity unto iniquity, even so now present your members as servants to righteousness unto sanctification. ²⁰ For ^{so}when ye were ^{sp}servants of sin, ye were free in regard of righteousness. ²¹ What ^{sq}fruit then had ye at that time in the things whereof ye are now ashamed? for the end of those things is ^{sr}death. ²² But now being ^{ss}made free from sin and become stservants to God, ye have your ^{su}fruit unto sanctification, and ^{sv}the end eternal life. ²³ For the wages of ^{sw}sin is death; but the free gift of God is ^{sx}eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

7 Or are ye ignorant, ^{sy}brethren (for I speak to men who know ^{sz}the law), that the law hath dominion over a man for so long time as he liveth? ² For ^{ta}the woman that hath a husband is bound by law to the husband while he liveth; but if the husband die, she is discharged from the law of the husband. ³ So then if, while the husband liveth, she be joined to another man, she shall be called an adulteress: but if the husband die, she is free from the law, so that she is no adulteress, though she be joined to another man. ⁴ Wherefore, my brethren, ye also were ^{tb}made dead ^{tc}to the law ^{td}through the body of Christ; that ye should be joined to another, even to him who was raised from the dead, that we might bring forth fruit unto God. ⁵ For when we were ^{te}in the flesh, the ^{tf}sinful passions, which were ^{tg}through the law, wrought thin our members to bring forth fruit unto death. ⁶ But now we have been ^{ti}discharged from the law, having ^{tj}died to that

7 ^cWhat shall we say then? Is the law sin? ^dGod forbid. Howbeit, ^eI had not known sin, except through ^fthe law: for I had not known ^gcoveting, except the law had said, ^hThou shalt not ⁱcovet: 8 but sin, ^jfinding occasion, wrought in me ^kthrough the commandment all manner of ^lcoveting: for ^mapart from ⁿthe law sin is dead. 9 And I was alive apart from ^othe law once: but when the commandment came, sin revived, and I died; 10 and the commandment, which ^pwas ^qunto life, this I found to ^rbe unto death: 11 for sin, ^sfinding occasion, ^tthrough the commandment ^ubeguiled me, and through it slew me. 12 ^vSo that the law is holy, and the commandment holy, and righteous, and good. 13 Did then that which is good become death unto me? ^wGod forbid. But sin, that it might be shown to be sin, by working death to me through that which is good; —that through the commandment sin might become exceeding sinful. 14 For we know that the law is ^xspiritual: but I am ^ycarnal, ^zsold ^{aa}under sin. 15 For that which I ^{ab}do ^{ac}I know not: for ^{ad}not what I would, that do I practise; but what I hate, that I do. 16 But if what I would not, that I do, I consent ^{ae}to the law that it is good. 17 So now ^{af}it is no more I that ^{ag}do it, but sin which dwelleth in me. 18 For I know that in me, that is, in my ^{ah}flesh, dwelleth no good thing: for to will is present with me, but to ^{ai}do that which is good is not. 19 For ^{aj}the good which I would I do not: but the evil which I would not, that I practise. 20 But if what I would not, that I do, ^{ak}it is no more I that ^{al}do it, but sin which dwelleth in me. 21 I find then ^{am}the law, that, to me who would do good, evil is present. 22 For I delight ^{an}in the law of God after ^{ao}the inward man: 23 but I see ^{ap}a different law in my members, warring against the ^{aq}law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity ^{ar}under ^{as}the law of sin which is in my members.

24 Wretched man that I am! who shall deliver me out of ¹the body of this ²death? 25 ³I ⁴thank God through Jesus Christ our Lord. So then I of myself with the mind, indeed, serve the law of God; but with the flesh ⁵the law of sin.

8 There is therefore now no ¹condemnation to them that are ²in ³Christ Jesus. 2 For ⁴the law of the Spirit of life in ⁵Christ Jesus ⁶made me free from the law of sin and of death. 3 For ⁷what the law could not do, ⁸in that it ⁹was weak through the flesh, God, sending his own Son in ¹⁰the likeness of ¹¹sinful flesh ¹²and for sin, condemned sin in the flesh: 4 that the ¹³ordinance of the law might be fulfilled in us, who ¹⁴walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit. 5 For they that are after the flesh mind ¹⁵the things of the flesh; but they that are after the Spirit ¹⁶the things of the Spirit. 6 ¹⁷For the mind of the flesh is ¹⁸death; but the mind of the Spirit is life and peace: 7 because the mind of the flesh is ¹⁹enmity against God; for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can it be: 8 and they that are ²⁰in the flesh cannot please God. 9 But ye are not ²¹in the flesh but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God ²²dwelleth in you. But ²³if any man hath not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his. 10 And ²⁴if Christ is in you, the body is dead because of sin; but the spirit is life because of righteousness. 11 But if the Spirit of him that ²⁵raised up Jesus from the dead dwelleth in you, ²⁶he that raised up ²⁷Christ Jesus from the dead shall give life also to your mortal bodies ²⁸through his Spirit that dwelleth in you.

12 So then, brethren, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live after the flesh: 13 for ¹if ye live after the flesh, ye must die; but if by the Spirit ye ²put to death the ³deeds of the body, ye shall live.

The Spirit of Adoption. Pledge of Complete Redemption. "Who shall separate us from Christ's Love?" The Apostle's

14 For as many as are ^aled by the Spirit of God, these are ^bsons of God. 15 For ye ^creceived not the spirit of bondage again unto fear; but ye ^dreceived the spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, ^eAbba, Father. 16 The Spirit himself ^fbeareth witness with our spirit, that we are ^gchildren of God: 17 and if children, then ^hheirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; ⁱif so be that we suffer with ^jhim, that we may be also glorified with ^khim.

18 For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time ^lare not worthy to be compared with the ^mglory which shall be revealed to us-ward. 19 For the ⁿearnest expectation of the creation waiteth ^ofor ^pthe revealing of the ^qsons of God. 20 For the creation ^rwas subjected to ^svanity, not of its own will, but ^tby reason of him who subjected it, ^uin hope 21 that ^vthe creation itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the liberty of the glory of the children of God. 22 For we know that ^wthe whole creation ^xgroaneth and travaileth in pain ^ytogether until now. 23 ^zAnd not only so, but ourselves also, who have ^{aa}the first-fruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves ^{ab}groan within ourselves, ^{ac}waiting for ^{ad}our adoption, ^{ae}to wit, ^{af}the redemption of our body. 24 For ^{ag}in hope were we saved: but ^{ah}hope that is seen is not hope: ^{ai}for who ^{aj}hopeth for that which he seeth? 25 But ^{ak}if we hope for that which we see not, ^{al}then do we with ^{am}patience wait for it.

26 And in like manner the Spirit also helpeth our infirmity: for ^{an}we know not how to pray as we ought; but ^{ao}the Spirit himself ^{ap}maketh intercession for ^{aq}us with groanings which cannot be uttered; 27 and ^{ar}he that searcheth the hearts knoweth what is ^{as}the mind of the Spirit, ^{at}because he ^{au}maketh intercession for the saints according to ^{av}the will of God. 28 And we know that to them that love God ^{aw}all things work together for good, ^{ax}even to them that are ^{ay}called according to ^{az}his purpose. 29 For whom he ^{ba}fore-

witness with me in the Holy Spirit, 2 that I have great sorrow and unceasing pain in my heart. 3 For ^a I could wish that I myself were ^b anathema from Christ for my brethren's sake, my kinsmen ^c according to the flesh: 4 who are ^d Israelites; whose is ^e the adoption, and ^f the glory, and ^g the covenants, and ^h the giving of the law, and ⁱ the service of God, and ^j the promises; 5 whose are ^k the fathers, and ^l of whom is Christ as concerning the ^m flesh, ⁿ who is over all, ^o God ^p blessed ^q for ever. 6 But it is not as though ^r the word of God hath come to nought. ^s For they are not all Israel, that are of Israel: 7 neither, ^t because they are Abraham's seed, are they all children: but, ^u In Isaac shall thy seed be called. 8 That is, it is not the children of the flesh that are ^v children of God; but the ^w children of the promise are reckoned for a seed. 9 For this is a word of promise, ^x According to this season will I come, and Sarah shall have a son. 10 ^y And not only so; but ^z Rebecca also having conceived by one, even by our father Isaac—11 for the children being not yet born, neither having done anything good or bad, that ^{aa} the purpose of God according to election might stand, not of works, but of him that call-eth, 12 it was said unto her, ^{ab} The elder shall serve the younger. 13 Even as it is written, ^{ac} Jacob I loved, but Esau I hated.

14 ^{ad} What shall we say then? ^{ae} Is there unrighteousness with God? ^{af} God forbid. 15 For he saith to Moses, ^{ag} I will have mercy on whom I have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I have compassion. 16 So then it is not of him that willeth, nor of him that ^{ah} runneth, but of ^{ai} God that hath mercy. 17 For the scripture saith unto Pharaoh, ^{aj} For this very purpose did I raise thee up, that I might show in thee my power, and that my name might be published abroad in all the earth. 18 So then he hath mercy on whom he will, and whom he will he ^{ak} hardeneth.

Israel responsible for their Own Rejection. That Rejection not total righteousness, did not ^aarrive at that law. 32 Wherefore? ¹ Because they sought it not by faith, but as it were by works. They stumbled at ^bthe stone of stumbling; 33 even as it is written,

^cAnd he that believeth on ³him shall not be put to shame.

10 Brethren, my heart's desire and my supplication for God is for them, that they may be saved. 2 For I bear them witness that they have ^aa zeal for God, but not according to knowledge. 3 For being ignorant of God's righteousness, and seeking to establish their own, they did not subject themselves to the righteousness of God. 4 For ^aChrist is the end of the law unto righteousness to every one that believeth. 5 For Moses writeth that ^bthe man that doeth the righteousness which is of the law shall live thereby. 6 But the righteousness which is of faith saith thus, ⁶Say not in thy heart, Who shall ascend into heaven? (that is, to bring Christ down:) 7 or, Who shall descend into the abyss? (that is, to bring Christ up from the dead.) 8 But what saith it? ⁷The word is nigh thee, in thy mouth, and in thy heart: that is, the word of faith, which we preach: 9 ⁸because if thou shalt confess with thy mouth Jesus as Lord, and shalt believe in thy heart that God raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved: 10 for with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation. 11 For the scripture saith, ¹⁰Whosoever believeth on him shall not be put to shame. 12 For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek: for the same Lord is Lord of all, and is rich unto all that call upon him: 13 for, ¹⁰Whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved. 14 How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher?

15 and how shall they preach, except they be sent? even as it is written, ¹²How beautiful are the feet of them that bring ¹³glad tidings of good things!

16 But they did not all hearken to the ¹⁴glad tidings. For Isaiah saith, ¹⁵Lord, who hath believed our report? 17 So believeth cometh of hearing, and hearing by the word of Christ. 18 But I say, Did they not hear? Yea, verily, ¹⁶Their sound went out into all the earth,

And their words unto the ends of the world.

19 But I say, Did Israel not know? First Moses saith, ¹⁸I will provoke you to jealousy with that which is no nation, With a nation void of understanding will I anger you.

20 And Isaiah is very bold, and saith,

¹⁹I was found of them that sought me not;

I became manifest unto them that asked not of me.

21 But as to Israel he saith, ²⁰All the day long did I spread out my hands unto a disobedient and gainsaying people.

11 I say then, Did God cast off his people? God forbid. For I also am an Israelite, of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin. 2 God did not cast off his people which he foreknew.

ⁿ Or know ye not what the scripture

²¹saith ²²of Elijah? how he pleadeth with God against Israel: 3

Lord, they have killed thy prophets, they have digged down thine altars; and I am left alone, and they seek my life. 4 But what ²³saith the answer of God unto him? I have left for myself seven thousand men, who have not bowed the knee to Baal. 5 Even so then at this present time also there is a remnant according to the election of grace. 6 But if it is by grace, it is no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace. 7 What then? That which Israel seeketh for, that he obtained not; but the election obtained it, and the rest were hardened: 8 according as it

Their Partial Apostasy preludes Final Salvation is written, ^{1a} God gave them a spirit of stupor, eyes that they should not see, and ears that they should not hear, unto this very day. 9 And David saith,

² Let their table be made a snare, and a trap,

And a stumblingblock, and a recompense unto them:

10 Let their eyes be darkened, that they may not see,

And bow thou down their back always.

11 ^b I say then, Did they stumble that they might fall? ^c God forbid: but by their ³ fall ^a salvation is come unto the Gentiles, to ^d provoke them to jealousy.

12 Now if their fall is the riches of the world, and their loss the riches of the Gentiles; how much more their ^f fulness? 13 But I speak to you that are Gentiles.

Inasmuch then as ^g I am an apostle of Gentiles, I glorify my ministry; 14 if by any means I may ^e provoke to jealousy them that are ^h my flesh, and may ⁱ save some of them.

15 For if the casting away of them is the ^k reconciling of the world, what shall the receiving of them be, what ^l life from the dead? 16 And if the ^m firstfruit is holy, so is the lump: and if the root is holy, so are the branches.

17 But if some of the ⁿ branches were broken off, and ^o thou, being a wild olive, wast grafted in among them, and didst become partaker with them ⁴ of the root of the fatness of the olive tree; 18 glory not over the branches: but if thou gloriest, ^p it is not thou that bearest the root, but the root thee.

19 ^q Thou wilt say then, Branches were broken off, that I might be grafted in.

20 Well; by their unbelief they were broken off, and thou ^r standest by thy faith. ^s Be not high-minded, but fear: 21 for if God spared not the natural branches, neither will he spare thee.

22 Behold then the goodness and severity of God: toward them that fell, severity; and toward thee, God's ^t goodness, ^u if thou continue in his goodness: otherwise thou also ^v shalt be cut off.

23 And they also, ^w if they continue not in their unbelief, shall be grafted in: for God is able to graft them in again. 24 For if thou wast cut out of that which is by nature a wild olive tree, and wast grafted contrary to nature into a good olive tree; how much more shall these, which are the natural branches, be grafted into their own olive tree?

25 For ^y I would not, brethren, have you ignorant of this ^z mystery, lest ye be ^a wise in your own conceits, that a ^b hardening in part hath befallen Israel, until the ^c fulness of the Gentiles be come in; 26 and so all Israel shall be saved: even as it is written,

^d There shall come out of Zion the Deliverer;
He shall turn away ^e ungodliness from Jacob:

27 ^f And this is ^g my covenant unto them,
When I shall take away their sins.

28 As touching the ^h gospel, they are ⁱ enemies for your sake: but as touching the election, they are beloved for ^j the fathers' sake. 29 For the gifts and the ^k calling of God ^l are not repented of. 30 For as ye in time past were disobedient to God, but now have obtained mercy by their disobedience, 31 even so have these also now been disobedient, that by the mercy shown to you they also may now obtain mercy. 32 For ^m God hath shut up all unto disobedience, that he might have mercy upon all.

12 ^aI beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, to ^bpresent your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, ^cacceptable to God, which is your ^dspiritual ^eservice. 2 And be not ^ffashioned according to ^gthis ^hworld: but be ye transformed by the ⁱrenewing of your mind, that ye may ^jprove what is ^kthe good and ^lacceptable and perfect will of God.

3 For I say, through ^mthe grace that was given me, to every man that is among you, ⁿnot to think of himself more highly than he ought to think; but so to think as to think soberly, ^oaccording as God hath dealt to each man a measure of faith. 4 For ^peven as we have many members in one body, and all the members have not the same office: 5 so we, ^qwho are many, are ^rone body in Christ, and severally members one of another. 6 And having gifts ^sdiffering according to the grace that was given to us, whether ^tprophecy, let us prophesy according to the proportion of our faith; 7 or ^uministry, let us give ourselves to our ministry; or he that ^vteacheth, to his teaching; 8 or he that ^wexhorteth, to his exhorting: he that giveth, let him do it with ^xliberality; ^yhe that ruleth, with diligence; he that showeth mercy, with ^zcheerfulness.

9 Let ^{aa}love be without hypocrisy. ^{ab}Abhor that which is evil; cleave to that which is good. 10 In ^{ac}love of the brethren be tenderly affectioned one to another; ^{ad}in honor preferring one another; 11 in diligence not slothful; ^{ae}fervent in spirit; ^{af}serving ^{ag}the Lord; 12 ^{ah}rejoicing in hope; ^{ai}patient in tribulation; ^{aj}continuing stedfastly in prayer; 13 ^{ak}communicating to the necessities of the saints; ^{al}given to hospitality. 14 ^{am}Bless them that persecute you; bless, and curse not. 15 ^{an}Rejoice with them that rejoice; weep with them that weep. 16 ^{ao}Be of the same mind one toward another. ^{ap}Set not your mind on high things, but ^{aq}condescend to ^{ar}things that are lowly. ^{as}Be not wise in your own conceits. 17 ^{at}Render to no man evil for evil.

13 Let every ^asoul be in ^bsubjection to the higher powers: for ^cthere is no power but of God; and the ^dpowers that be are ordained of God. 2 Therefore he that resisteth the power, withstandeth the ordinance of God: and they that withstand shall receive to themselves judgment. 3 For ^erulers are not a terror to the good work, but to the evil. And wouldest thou have no fear of the power? do that which is good, and thou shalt have praise from the same: 4 for ^fhe is a minister of God to thee for good. But if thou do that which is evil, be afraid; for ^ghe beareth not the sword in vain: for ^hhe is a minister of God, an ⁱavenger for wrath to him that doeth evil. 5 Wherefore ye must needs be in subjection, not only because of the wrath, but also ^jfor conscience' sake. 6 For for this cause ye pay tribute also; for they are ministers of God's service, attending continually upon this very thing. 7 ^kRender to all their dues: ^ltribute to whom tribute ^mis due; ⁿcustom to whom custom; fear to whom fear; honor to whom honor.

Fulfilment of the Law. Salvation is at Hand. Forbearance towards Scruples. Self-denial on behalf of Others not commit adultery, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not covet, and if there be any other commandment, it is summed up in this word, namely, ^aThou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. 10 Love worketh no ill to his neighbor: ^blove therefore is the fulfilment of the law.

11 And this, knowing the season, that ^calready it is time for you to ^dawake out of sleep: for now is ^esalvation nearer to us than when we ^ffirst believed. 12 ^gThe night is far spent, and ^hthe day is at hand: let us therefore cast off ⁱthe works of darkness, and let us put on ^jthe armor of light. 13 Let us ^kwalk becomingly, as in the day; ^lnot in revelling and drunkenness, not in chambering and wantonness, not in strife and jealousy. 14 But ^mput ye on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make not provision for the flesh, ⁿto fulfil the lusts thereof.

14 But him that is ^oweak in faith ^preceive ye, yet not ^qfor decision of scruples. 2 ^rOne man hath faith to eat all things: but he that is ^sweak eateth herbs. 3 Let not him that eateth ^tset at nought him that eateth not; and let not him that eateth not ^ujudge him that eateth: for God hath ^vreceived him. 4 ^wWho art thou that judgest the ^xservant of another? to his own lord he standeth or falleth. Yea, he shall be made to stand; for the Lord hath power to make him stand. 5 ^yOne man esteemeth one day above another: another esteemeth every day alike. Let each man be ^zfully assured in his own mind. 6 He that regardeth the day, regardeth it unto the Lord: and he that eateth, eateth unto the Lord, for he ^{aa}giveth God thanks; and he that eateth not, unto the Lord he eateth not, and giveth God thanks. 7 For none of us ^{ab}liveth to himself, and none dieth to himself. 8 For whether we live, we live unto the Lord; or whether we die, we die unto the Lord: ^{ac}whether we live therefore, or die, we are the Lord's. 9 For to this end ^{ad}Christ died and lived again, that he might be ^{ae}Lord of both the dead and the living. 10 But thou, why dost thou judge thy brother? or thou again, why dost thou ^aset at nought thy brother? for ^bwe shall all stand before the judgment-seat of God. 11 For it is written, ^cAs I live, saith the Lord, to me ^devery knee shall bow, And every tongue shall ^econfess to God.

12 So then ^feach one of us shall give account of himself to God.

13 Let us not therefore ^gjudge one another any more: but judge ye this rather, that ^hno man put a stumblingblock in his brother's way, or an occasion of falling. 14 I know, and am persuaded in the Lord Jesus, that ⁱnothing is unclean of itself: save that to him who ^jaccounteth anything to be unclean, to him it is unclean. 15 For if because of meat thy brother is grieved, thou ^kwalkest no longer in love. ^lDestroy not with thy meat him for whom Christ died. 16 ^mLet not then your good be evil spoken of: 17 for the kingdom of God ⁿis not eating and drinking, but righteousness and ^opeace and ^pjoy in the Holy Spirit. 18 For he that herein ^qserveth Christ is ^rwell-pleasing to God, and approved of men. 19 So then ^slet us ^tfollow after things which make for peace, and things whereby we may ^uedify one another. 20 ^vOverthrow not for meat's sake the work of God.

^wAll things indeed are clean; howbeit ^xit is evil for that man who eateth with offence. 21 ^yIt is good not to eat flesh, nor to drink wine, nor ^zto do anything whereby thy brother stumbleth. 22 The faith which thou hast, have thou to thyself before God. Happy is he that ^{aa}judgeth not himself in that which he ^{ab}approveth. 23 But ^{ac}he that doubteth is condemned if he eat, because ^{ad}he eateth not of faith; and whatsoever is not of faith is sin. ^{ae}

saints that are at Jerusalem, 27 Yea, it hath been their good pleasure; and their debtors they are. For ^aif the Gentiles have been made partakers of their spiritual things, they owe it to them also to minister unto them in carnal things. 28 When therefore I have accomplished this, and ^bhave sealed to them this fruit, I will ^cgo on by you unto Spain. 29 And I know that, when ^dI come unto you, I shall come in the fulness of the blessing of Christ.

30 Now I beseech you, brethren, by our Lord Jesus Christ, and by ^ethe love of the Spirit, that ye ^fstrive together with me in your prayers to God for me; 31 that I may be ^gdelivered from them that are disobedient in Judæa, and that my ^hministration which I have for Jerusalem may be acceptable to the ⁱsaints; 32 that ^kI may come unto you in joy through ^lthe will of God, and together with you find rest. 33 Now ^mthe God of peace be with you all. THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL TO THE CORINTHIANS

Salutation. Thanksgiving. Exhortation to Unity

1 Paul, ^acalled to be an apostle of Jesus Christ ^bthrough the will of God, and ^cSosthenes ¹our brother, ²unto ^ethe church of God which is at ^fCorinth, even them that are sanctified in Christ Jesus, ^gcalled to be saints, with all that ^hcall upon the name of our Lord Jesus Christ in every place, their Lord and ours: ³ Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

⁴ ^aI thank ²my God always concerning you, for the grace of God which was given you in Christ Jesus; ⁵ that in everything ye were ⁱenriched in him, in all ^mutterance and ⁿall knowledge; ⁶ even as ^othe testimony of Christ was confirmed in you: ⁷ so that ye come behind in no gift; ^pwaiting for the revelation of our Lord Jesus Christ; ⁸ ^qwho shall also confirm you unto the end, that ye be unreprouvable in ^rthe day of our Lord Jesus Christ. ⁹ ^rGod is faithful, through whom ye were ^scalled into the ^tfellowship of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

¹⁰ Now ^uI beseech you, ^vbrethren, through the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no ^wdivisions among you; but that ye be perfected together in ^xthe same mind and in the same judgment. ¹¹ For it hath been signified unto me concerning you, my brethren, by ^ythem that are of the household of Chloe, that there are contentions among you. ¹² Now this I mean, that ^zeach one of you saith, I am of Paul; and I of ^{aa}Apollos; and I of ^{ab}Cephas; and I of Christ. ¹³ ^{ac}Is Christ divided? was Paul crucified for you? or were ye ^{ad}baptized into the name

6 We speak wisdom, however, among them that are ^{am}fullgrown: yet a wisdom not of ^{an}this ^{ao}world, nor of the rulers of ^{ap}this ^{aq}world, who are ^{ar}coming to nought: 7 but we speak God's wisdom in a ^{as}mystery, even the wisdom that hath been hidden, which God ^{at}foreordained before the ^{au}worlds unto our glory: 8 ^{av}which none of the rulers of ^{aw}this ^{ax}world hath known: for had they known it, they would or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or ^{ba}life, or death, or things present, or things to come; all are yours; 23 and ^{bb}ye are Christ's; and ^{bc}Christ is God's.

4 Let a man so account of us, as of ^{ca}ministers of Christ, and ^{cb}stewards of ^{cc}the mysteries of God. 2 Here, moreover, it is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful. 3 But with me it is a very small thing that I should be ^{cd}judged of you, or of man's ^{ce}judgment: yea, I ^{cf}judge not mine own self. 4 For I ^{cg}know nothing against myself; yet am I not hereby ^{ch}justified: but he that ^{ci}judgeth me is the Lord. 5 Wherefore ^{cj}judge nothing before the time, ^{ck}until the Lord come, who will both ^{cl}bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and make manifest the counsels of the hearts; and then shall each man ^{cm}have his praise from God.

6 Now these things, brethren, I have in a figure transferred to myself and Apollos for your sakes; that in us ye might learn not to ^{da}go beyond ^{db}the things which are written; that no one of you be ^{dc}puffed up ^{dd}for the one against the other. 7 For who maketh thee to differ? and ^{de}what hast thou that thou didst not receive? but if thou didst receive it, why dost thou glory as if thou hadst not received it? 8 ^{df}Already are ye filled, already ye are become rich, ye have come to reign without us: yea and I would that ye did reign, that we also might reign with you. 9 For, I think, God hath set forth us the apostles last of all, as men ^{dg}doomed to death: for we are ^{dh}made a spectacle unto the world, ^{di}unto angels and men. 10 We are ^{dj}fools for Christ's sake, but ^{dk}ye are wise in Christ; ^{dl}we are weak, but ye are strong; ^{dm}ye have glory, but we have dishonor. 11 Even unto this present hour we both ^{dn}hunger, and thirst, unto the wife her due: and likewise also the wife unto the husband. ⁴The wife hath not power over her own body, but the husband; and likewise also the husband hath not power over his own body, but the wife. ⁵Defraud ye not one the other, except it be by consent for a season, that ye may give yourselves unto prayer, and may be together again, that ⁱSatan tempt you not because of your incontinency. ⁶But this I say by way of concession, ^jnot of commandment. ⁷⁵Yet I would that all men were ^keven as I myself. Howbeit ^leach man hath his own gift from God, one after this manner, and another after that.

⁸But I say to the unmarried and to widows, It is ^agood for them if they abide ^beven as I. ⁹But if they have not continency, ^clet them marry: for it is better to marry than to burn. ¹⁰But unto the married I give charge, ^dyea not I, but the Lord, That the wife depart not from her husband ¹¹(but should she depart, let her remain unmarried, or else be reconciled to her husband); and that the husband leave not his wife. ¹²But to the rest say ^eI, not the Lord: If any brother hath an unbelieving wife, and she is content to dwell with him, let him not leave her. ¹³And the woman that hath an unbelieving husband, and he is content to dwell with her, let her not leave her husband. ¹⁴For the unbelieving husband is sanctified in the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified in the brother: else were your children unclean; but now are they ^fholy. ¹⁵Yet if the unbelieving departeth, let him depart: the brother or the sister is not under bondage in such ^gcases: but God hath called ^hus in peace. ¹⁶For how knowest thou, O wife, whether thou shalt ⁱsave thy husband? or how knowest thou, O husband, whether thou shalt save thy wife? ¹⁷Only, ^jas the Lord hath distributed to each man, as God hath called each, so let him walk.

Concerning Virgins. Concerning Things sacrificed to Idols

And ^aso ordain I in ^ball the churches. 18 Was any man called being circumcised? let him not become ^cuncircumcised. Hath any been called in uncircumcision? ^dlet him not be circumcised. 19 ^eCircumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing; but ^fthe keeping of the commandments of God. 20 ^gLet each man abide in that calling wherein he was called. 21 Wast thou called being a bond-servant? care not for it: ^hnay, even if thou canst become free, use ⁱit rather. 22 For he that was called in the Lord being a bondservant, is ^jthe Lord's freedman: likewise he that was called being free, is ^kChrist's bondservant. 23 ^l'Ye were bought with a price; become not bondservants of men. 24 Brethren, ^mlet each man, wherein he was called, therein abide with God.

25 Now concerning virgins I have ⁿno commandment of the Lord: but I give my judgment, as one that hath ^oobtained mercy of the Lord to be trustworthy. 26 I think therefore that this is good by reason of the ^pdistress that is upon us, namely, that ^q'it is good for a man ^rto be as he is. 27 Art thou bound unto a wife? seek not to be loosed. Art thou loosed from a wife? seek not a wife. 28 But shouldest thou marry, thou hast not sinned; and if a virgin marry, she hath not sinned. Yet such shall have tribulation in the flesh: and I would spare you. 29 But this I say, brethren, ^s'the time ^tis shortened, that henceforth both those that have wives may be as though they had none; 30 and those that weep, as though they wept not; and those that rejoice, as though they rejoiced not; and those that buy, as though they possessed not; 31 and those that use the world, as not ^uusing it to the full: for ^v'the fashion of this world passeth away. 32 But I would have you to be free from cares. He that is ^wunmarried is careful for the things of the Lord, how he may please the Lord: 33 but he that is married is careful for the things of the world, how he may please his ^xwife, 34 and is divided. So also the woman that is unmarried and the virgin is careful for the things of the Lord, that she may be holy both in body and in spirit: but she that is married is careful for the things of the world, how she may please her husband. 35 And this I say for your own profit; not that I may cast a ^ysnare upon you, but for that which is seemly, and that ye may attend upon the Lord without distraction. 36 But if any man thinketh that he behaveth himself unseemly toward his ^zvirgin daughter, if she be ^{aa}'past the flower of her age, and if need so requireth, let him do what he will; he sinneth not; let them marry. 37 But he that standeth stedfast in his heart, having no necessity, but hath power as touching his own will, and hath determined this in his own heart, to keep his own ^{ab}virgin daughter, shall do well. 38 So then both he that giveth his own ^{ac}virgin daughter in marriage doeth well; and he that giveth her not in marriage shall do better. 39 ^{ad}'A wife is bound for so long time as her husband liveth; but if the husband be ^{ae}'dead, she is free to be married to whom she will; only ^{af}'in the Lord. 40 But she is happier if she abide as she is, ^{ag}'after my judgment: and I think that I also have the Spirit of God.

8 Now concerning ^{ah}'things sacrificed to idols: We know that we all have ^{ai}'knowledge. Knowledge ^{aj}'puffeth up, but love ^{ak}'edifieth. 2 ^{al}'If any man thinketh that he knoweth anything, he ^{am}'knoweth not yet as he ought to know; 3 but if any man loveth God, the same ^{an}'is known by him. 4 Concerning therefore the eating of ^{ao}'things sacrificed to idols, we know that ^{ap}'no idol is anything in the world, and that ^{aq}'there is no God but one. 5 For though there be ^{ar}'that are called gods, whether in heaven or on earth; as there are gods many, and lords many; 6 yet to us ^{as}'there is one God, ^{at}'the Father, ^{au}'of whom are all things, and we unto him; and ^{av}'one Lord, Jesus Christ, ^{aw}'through whom are all things, and we through him. 7 Howbeit there is not in all men ^athat knowledge: but ^bsome, being used until now to the idol, eat as of a thing sacrificed to an idol; and their conscience being weak is defiled. 8 But ^cfood will not ^dcommend us to God: neither, if we eat not, ^eare we the worse; nor, if we eat, ^fare we the better. 9 But ^gtake heed lest by any means this ^hliberty of yours become a stumblingblock to the ⁱweak. 10 For if a man see thee who hast ^jknowledge sitting at meat in an idol's temple, will not his conscience, if he is weak, ^kbe emboldened to eat ^lthings sacrificed to idols? 11 For ^mthrough ⁿthy knowledge he that is weak ^operisheth, the brother for whose sake Christ died. 12 ^pAnd thus, sinning against the brethren, and wounding their conscience when it is weak, ye sin ^qagainst Christ. 13 Wherefore, ^rif meat causeth my brother to stumble, I will eat no flesh for evermore, that I cause not my brother to stumble.

9 Am I not ^sfree? am I not an ^tapostle? have I not ^useen Jesus our Lord? are not ye ^vmy work in the Lord? 2 If to others I am not an apostle, yet at least I am to you; for the ^wseal of mine ^xapostleship are ye in the Lord. 3 My defence to them that examine me is this. 4 ^yHave we no right to eat and to drink? 5 Have ^zwe no right to lead about a wife that is a ^{aa}believer, even as the rest of the apostles, and the ^{ab}brethren of the Lord, and ^{ac}Cephas? 6 Or I only and ^{ad}Barnabas, have we not a right to forbear working? 7 What ^{ae}soldier ever serveth at his own charges? who ^{af}planteth a vineyard, and eateth not the fruit thereof? or who feedeth a flock, and eateth not of the milk of the flock? 8 Do I speak these things ^{ag}after the manner of men? or saith not the law also the same? 9 For it is written in the law of Moses, ^{ah}Thou shalt not muzzle the ox when he treadeth out the corn. Is it for ^{ai}the oxen that God careth, 10 or saith he it ^{aj}assuredly for our sake? Yea, ^{ak}for our sake it was written: because ^{al}he that ploweth ought to plow in hope, and he that thresheth, to thresh in hope of partaking. 11 ^{am}If we sowed unto you spiritual things, is it a great matter if we shall reap your carnal things? 12 If others partake of ^{an}this right over you, do not we yet more? Nevertheless we ^{ao}did not use this right; but we bear all things, ^{ap}that we may cause no hindrance to the ^{aq}gospel of Christ. 13 ^{ar}Know ye not that they that ^{as}minister about sacred things eat of the things of the temple, and they that wait upon the altar have their portion with the altar? 14 Even so did ^{at}the Lord ordain that they that proclaim the ^{au}gospel should ^{av}live of the ^{aw}gospel. 15 But I have ^{ax}used none of these things: and I write not these things that it may be so done in my case; for ^{ay}it were good for me rather to die, than that any man should make ^{az}my glorying void. 16 For if I ^{ba}preach the gospel, I have nothing to glory of; for ^{bb}necessity is laid upon me; for woe is unto me, if I ^{bc}preach not ^{bd}the gospel. 17 For if I do this of mine own will, I have a ^{be}reward: but if not of mine own will, I have a ^{bf}stewardship intrusted to me. 18 What then is my ^{bg}reward? That, when I ^{bh}preach the gospel, I may make the ^{bi}gospel ^{bj}without charge, so as ^{bk}not to use to the full my right in the ^{bl}gospel. 19 For though I was ^{bm}free from all men, I brought myself under ^{bn}bondage to all, that I might ^{bo}gain the more. 20 ^{bp}And ^{bq}to the Jews I became as a Jew, that I might gain Jews; to them that are under the law, as under the law, ^{br}not being myself under the law, that I might gain them that are under the law; 21 to them that are ^{bs}without law, ^{bt}as without law, not being without law to God, but ^{bu}under law to Christ, that I might gain them that are without law. 22 To the ^{bv}weak I became weak, that I might gain the weak: I am become ^aall things to all men, ^bthat I may by all means ^csave some. 23 And I do all things for the ^dgospel's sake, that I may be a joint partaker thereof. 24 ^eKnow ye not that they that run in a ^frace run all, but one receiveth ^gthe prize? Even so ^hrun; that ye may attain. 25 And every man that ⁱstriveth in the games exerciseth self-control in all things. Now they ^jdo it to receive a corruptible ^kcrown; but we an incorruptible. 26 I therefore so ^lrun, as not uncertainly; so ^mfight I, as not ⁿbeating the air: 27 but I ^obuffet ^pmy body, and bring it into bondage: lest by any means, after that I ^qhave preached to others, I myself should be rejected.

10 For ^rI would not, brethren, have you ignorant, that our fathers were all ^sunder the cloud, and all ^tpassed through the sea; ^u2 and were all ^vbaptized ^wunto Moses in the cloud and in the sea; ^x3 and did all ^yeat the same spiritual food; ^z4 and did all ^{aa}drink the same spiritual drink: for they drank of a spiritual rock that followed them: and the rock was ^{ab}Christ. ^{ac}5 Howbeit with most of them God was not well pleased: for ^{ad}they were overthrown in the wilderness. ^{ae}6 Now ^{af}these things were our ^{ag}examples, to the intent we should not lust after evil things, as ^{ah}they also lusted. ^{ai}7 Neither be ye ^{aj}idolaters, as were some of them; as it is written, ^{ak}9 The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to ^{al}play. ^{am}8 Neither let us commit fornication, as ^{an}some of them committed, and fell in one day ^{ao}three and twenty thousand. ^{ap}9 Neither let us make trial of the ^{aq}Lord, as ^{ar}some of them made trial, and perished by the serpents. ^{as}10 Neither murmur ye, ^{at}as some of them murmured, and ^{au}perished by the ^{av}destroyer. ^{aw}11 Now these things happened unto them ^{ax}by way of ^{ay}example; and ^{az}they were written for our admonition, upon whom ^{ba}the ends of the ages are come. ^{bb}12 Wherefore let him that asking no question for conscience' sake. 28 But "if any man say unto you, This hath been offered in sacrifice, eat not, for his sake that showed it, and for conscience' sake: 29 conscience, I say, not thine own, but the other's; for ^bwhy is my liberty judged by another conscience? 30 ¹If I partake with thankfulness, ^cwhy am I evil spoken of for that for which I ^dgive thanks? 31 Whether therefore ye eat, or drink, or ^ewhatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God. 32 ^fGive no occasion of stumbling, either to Jews, or to Greeks, or to ^gthe church of God: 33 even as I also ^hplease all men in all things, ⁱnot seeking mine own profit, but the profit of the many, ^jthat they may be saved. 1 ^kBe ye imitators of me, even as I also am of Christ.

2 Now ^mI praise you that ye ⁿremember me in all things, and ^ohold fast the traditions, even as I delivered them to you. 3 But I would have you know, that the ^phead of every man is Christ; and ^qthe head of the woman is the man; and the ^rhead of Christ is God. 4 Every man praying or ^sprophesying, having his head covered, dishonoreth his head. 5 But every ^twoman praying or prophesying with her head unveiled dishonoreth her head; for it is one and the same thing as if she were ^ushaven. 6 For if a woman is not veiled, let her also be shorn: but if it is a shame to a woman to be shorn or shaven, let her be veiled. 7 For a man indeed ought not to have his head veiled, forasmuch as he is the ^vimage and glory of God: but the woman is the glory of the man. 8 For ^wthe man is not of the woman; but the woman is of the man: 9 for neither was the man created for the woman: but ^xthe woman for the man: 10 for this cause ought the woman to have ^ya sign of authority on her head, because of the angels. 11 Nevertheless, neither is the woman without the man, nor the man without the woman, in the Lord. 12 For as the woman is of the man, so is the man also by the woman; but ^zall things are ^{aa}of God. 13 ^{ab}Judge ye ^{ac}in yourselves: is it seemly that a woman pray unto God unveiled?

Concerning Spiritual Gifts. Gifts Diverse, but the Spirit the Same. The Body one, the Members many 28 But let a man ^aprove himself, and so let him eat of the bread, and drink of the cup. 29 For he that eateth and drinketh, eateth and drinketh judgment unto himself, if he ¹discern not the body. 30 For this cause many among you are weak and sickly, and not a few ^bsleep. 31 But if we ²discerned ourselves, we should not be judged. 32 ³But ³when we are judged, we are ⁴chastened of the Lord, that we may not be condemned with ⁴the world. 33 Wherefore, my brethren, when ye come together to eat, wait one for another. 34 If any man is ⁵hungry, let him eat ⁶at home; that your coming together be not unto judgment. And the rest will I ⁷set in order ⁸whenever I come.

12 Now concerning ⁹spiritual gifts, brethren, ¹⁰I would not have you ignorant. 2 ¹¹Ye know that when ye were Gentiles ¹²ye were ¹³led away unto those ¹⁴"dumb idols, howsoever ye might be led. 3 Wherefore I make known unto you, that no man speaking ¹⁵in the Spirit of God saith, Jesus is ¹⁶"anathema; and no man can say, Jesus is ¹⁷"Lord, but ¹⁸in the Holy Spirit.

4 Now there are ¹⁹diversities of gifts, but the same Spirit. 5 And there are diversities of ministrations, and the same Lord. 6 And there are diversities of workings, but the same ²⁰God, who worketh all things in all. 7 But to each one is given the manifestation of the Spirit ²¹"to profit withal. 8 For to one is given through the Spirit the word of ²²"wisdom; and to another the word of ²³"knowledge, according to the same Spirit: 9 to another ²⁴"faith, in the same Spirit; and to another ²⁵"gifts of healings, in the one Spirit; 10 and to another workings of ²⁶"miracles; and to another ²⁷"prophecy; and to another ²⁸"discernings of spirits: to another ²⁹"divers kinds of tongues; and to another the ³⁰"interpretation of tongues: 11 but all these worketh the one and the same Spirit, ³¹"dividing to each one severally even as he will.

members of the body, being many, are one body; ³³so also is Christ. 13 For ³⁴in one Spirit were we all baptized into one body, whether ³⁵"Jews or Greeks, whether bond or free; and were all made to ³⁶"drink of one Spirit. 14 For ³⁷the body is not one member, but many. 15 If the foot shall say, Because I am not the hand, I am not of the body; it is not therefore not of the body. 16 And if the ear shall say, Because I am not the eye, I am not of the body; it is not therefore not of the body. 17 If the whole body were an eye, where were the hearing? If the whole were hearing, where were the smelling? 18 But now hath God ³⁸"set the members each one of them in the body, ³⁹even as it pleased him. 19 And if they were all one member, where were the body? 20 But now ⁴⁰they are many members, but one body. 21 And the eye cannot say to the hand, I have no need of thee: or again the head to the feet, I have no need of you. 22 Nay, much rather, those members of the body which seem to be more feeble are necessary: 23 and those ⁴¹parts of the body, which we think to be less honorable, upon these we ⁴²bestow more abundant honor; and our uncomely ⁴³parts have more abundant comeliness; 24 whereas our comely ⁴⁴parts have no need: but God tempered the body together, giving more abundant honor to that ⁴⁵part which lacked; 25 that there should be no schism in the body; but ⁴⁶that the members should have the same care one for another. 26 And, whether one member suffereth, all the members suffer with it; or ⁴⁷one member is ⁴⁸"honored, all the members rejoice with it. 27 Now ye are ⁴⁹the body of Christ, and ⁵⁰"severally members thereof. 28 And God hath ⁵¹"set some in ⁵²the church, first ⁵³"apostles, secondly ⁵⁴"prophets, thirdly ⁵⁵"teachers, then ⁵⁶"miracles, then ⁵⁷"gifts of healings, helps, ⁵⁸"governments, divers kinds of tongues. 29 Are all apostles? are all prophets? are all teachers? are all workers of ¹miracles? 30 have all gifts of healings? do all speak with tongues? do all interpret? 31 But ²desire earnestly the greater gifts. And moreover a most excellent way show I unto you.

13 If I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, but have not love, I am become sounding brass, or a ¹clanging cymbal. 2 And if I have the gift of ²prophecy, and know all ³mysteries and ⁴all knowledge; and if I have ⁵all faith, so as to remove mountains, but have not love, I am nothing. 3 And if I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and if I give my body ²to be burned, but have not love, it profiteth me nothing. 4 Love ⁵suffereth long, and is kind; love ⁶envieth not; love vaunteth not itself, is not ⁷puffed up, ⁸doth not behave itself unseemly, ⁹seeketh not its own, is not provoked, ¹⁰taketh not account of evil; ¹¹rejoiceth not in unrighteousness, but ¹²rejoiceth with the truth; ¹³bear-eth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things. 8 Love never faileth: but whether there be ²prophecies, they shall be done away; whether there be ³tongues, they shall cease; whether there be knowledge, it shall be done away. 9 For we ⁴know in part, and we prophesy in part; 10 but when that which is perfect is come, that which is in part shall be done away. 11 When I was a child, I spake as a child, I felt as a child, I thought as a child: now that I am become a man, I have put away childish things. 12 For now we ⁵see in a mirror, ⁶darkly; but then ⁷face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I know fully even as also I ⁸was fully known. 13 But now abideth faith, hope, love, these three; and the ⁹greatest of these is ¹⁰love.

14 Follow after love; yet ¹desire earnestly ²spiritual gifts, but rather that ye may ³prophecy. 2 For he that ⁴speaketh in a tongue speaketh not unto men, but unto God; for no man ⁵un-

at thy ^agiving of thanks, seeing he knoweth not what thou sayest? 17 For thou verily givest thanks well, but the other is not ^{1b}edified. 18 I thank God, I speak with tongues more than you all: 19 howbeit in the church I had rather speak five words with my understanding, that I might instruct others also, than ten thousand words in a tongue.

20 ^cBrethren, ^dbe not children in mind: yet in malice ^ebe ye babes, but in mind be ^fmen. 21 In ^gthe law it is written, ^hBy men of strange tongues and by the lips of strangers will I speak unto this people; and not even thus will they hear me, saith the Lord. 22 Wherefore tongues are for a sign, not to them that believe, but to the unbelieving: but ⁱpropheying is for a sign, not to the unbelieving, but to them that believe. 23 If therefore the whole church be assembled together and all speak with tongues, and there come in men unlearned or unbelieving, will they not say that ^jye are mad? 24 But if all ^kprophecy, and there come in one unbelieving or unlearned, he is ^lreproved by all, he is judged by all; 25 ^mthe secrets of his heart are made manifest; and so he will ⁿfall down on his face and worship God, ^odeclaring that God is ^pamong you indeed. 26 ^qWhat is it then, ^rbrethren?

When ye come together, ^seach one hath a ^tpsalm, hath a ^uteaching, hath a ^vrevelation, hath a ^wtongue, hath an ^xinterpretation. Let ^yall things be done unto edifying. 27 If any man speaketh in a ^ztongue, let it be by two, or at the most three, and that in turn; and let one ^{aa}interpret: 28 but if there be no interpreter, let him keep silence in the church; and let him speak to himself, and to God. 29 And let the ^{ab}prophets speak ^{ac}by two or three, and let the others ^{ad}discern. 30 But if a revelation be made to another sitting by, let the first keep silence. 31 For ye all can prophesy one by one, that all may learn, and all may be ^{ae}exhorted; 32 and the spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets; 33 for God is not a ^{af}God of ^{ag}confusion, but of peace.

Christ's Resurrection the Pledge of ours. Baptisms for the Dead. The Resurrection vindicated

because I ^apersecuted the church of God. 10 But by ^bthe grace of God I am what I am: and his grace which was bestowed upon me was not found ^cvain; but I ^dlabored more abundantly than they all: yet ^enot I, but the grace of God which was with me. 11 Whether then it be I or they, so we preach, and so ye believed.

12 Now if Christ is preached that he hath been raised from the dead, how say some among you that there ^eis no resurrection of the dead? 13 But if there is no resurrection of the dead, neither hath Christ been raised: 14 and ^fif Christ hath not been raised, then is our preaching ^gvain, ^hyour faith also is ⁱvain. 15 Yea, and we are found false witnesses of God; because we witnessed of God that he ^jraised up ^kChrist: whom he raised not up, if so be that the dead are not raised. 16 For if the dead are not raised, neither hath Christ been raised: 17 and if Christ hath not been raised, your faith is vain; ^lye are yet in your sins. 18 Then they also that ^mare fallen asleep in Christ have perished. 19 ⁿIf we have only hoped in Christ in this life, we are ^oof all men most pitiable.

20 But now ^phath Christ been raised from the dead, the ^qfirstfruits of them that ^rare asleep. 21 For since ^sby man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead. 22 For ^tas in Adam all die, so also in ^uChrist shall all be made alive. 23 But each in his own order: Christ ^vthe firstfruits; then ^wthey that are Christ's, at ^xhis coming. 24 Then cometh the end, when he shall deliver up ^ythe kingdom to ^zGod, even the Father; when he shall have abolished ^{aa}all rule and all authority and power. 25 For he must reign, ^{ab}until he hath put all his enemies under his feet. 26 The last enemy that shall be ^{ac}abolished is death. 27 For, He put all things in subjection under his feet. ^{ad}But when he saith, ^{ae}All things are put in subjection, it is evident that he is excepted who did subject all things unto him. 28 And when ⁿall things have been subjected unto him, then shall the Son also himself be subjected to him that did subject all things unto him, that ^oGod may be all in all.

29 Else what shall they do that are baptized for the dead? If the dead are not raised at all, why then are they baptized for them? 30 why do we also stand ^pin jeopardy every hour? 31 I protest by ^qthat glorying in you, brethren, which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, ^rI die daily. 32 If after the manner of men I ^sfought with beasts at ^tEphesus, ^uwhat doth it profit me? If the dead are not raised, ^vlet us eat and drink, for to-morrow we die. 33 ^wBe not deceived: Evil companionships corrupt good morals. 34 ^xAwake to soberness righteously, and sin not; for some have ^yno knowledge of God: ^zI speak this to move you to shame.

35 But ^{aa}some one will say, How are ^{ab}the dead raised? and with what manner of body do they come? 36 ^{ac}Thou foolish one, that which thou thyself ^{ad}sowest is not quickened except it die: 37 and that which thou sowest, thou sowest not the body that shall be, but a bare grain, it may chance of wheat, or of some other kind; 38 but God giveth it a body even as it pleased him, and ^{ae}to each seed a body of its own. 39 All flesh is not the same flesh: but there is one ^{af}flesh of men, and another flesh of beasts, and another flesh of birds, and another of fishes. 40 There are also celestial bodies, and bodies terrestrial: but the glory of the celestial is one, and the glory of the terrestrial is another. 41 There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars; for one star differeth from another star in glory. 42 ^{ag}So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in ^{ah}corruption; it is raised in ^{ai}incorruption: 43 it is sown in dishonor; it is raised in ^{aj}glory: it is sown in weakness; it is raised in power:

44 it is sown a ^{1a} natural body; it is raised a ^b spiritual body. If there is a ¹ natural body, there is also a spiritual body. 45 So also it is written, ² The first man Adam became a living soul. The ^c last Adam became a ^d life-giving spirit. 46 Howbeit that is not first which is spiritual, but that which is ¹ natural; then that which is spiritual. 47 The first man is ^e of the earth, ^f earthy: the second man is of heaven. 48 As is the earthy, such are they also that are earthy: and as is the heavenly, ^g such are they also that are heavenly. 49 And as we have ^h borne the image of the earthy, ⁱ we ^j shall also bear the image of the heavenly.

50 Now this I say, brethren, that ^k flesh and blood cannot ^l inherit the kingdom of God; neither doth corruption inherit ^m incorruption. 51 Behold, I tell you a ⁿ mystery: ^o We all shall not sleep, but we shall all ^p be changed, 52 in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for ^q the trumpet shall sound, and ^r the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and ^s we shall be changed. 53 For this corruptible must put on ^t incorruption, and this ^u mortal must put on immortality. 54 But when ^v this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall come to pass the saying that is written, ^w Death is swallowed up ^x in victory. 55 ^y O death, where is thy victory? O death, where is thy sting? 56 The sting of ^z death is sin; and ^{aa} the power of sin is the law: 57 but ^{ab} thanks be to God, who giveth us the ^{ac} victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. 58 ^{ad} Wherefore, my beloved brethren, be ye stedfast, unmovable, always abounding in ^{ae} the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labor is not ^{af} vain in the Lord.

by means of ^ymany, thanks may be given by many persons on our behalf.

12 For our glorying is this, the testimony of ^zour conscience, that in holiness and ^{aa}sincerity of God, ^{ab}not in fleshly wisdom but in the grace of God, we behaved ourselves in the world, and more abundantly to you-ward. 13 For we write no other things unto you, than what ye read or even acknowledge, and I hope ye will acknowledge ^{ac}'unto the end: 14 as also ye did acknowledge us in part, that we are your glorying, even as ye also are ours, in ^{ad}'the day of our Lord Jesus.

15 And in this confidence I was minded to ^{ae}'come first unto you, that ye might have a second ^{af}'benefit; 16 and by you to ^{ag}'pass into ^{ah}'Macedonia, and again from Macedonia to come unto you, and of you to be ^{ai}'set forward on my journey ^{aj}'unto Judea. 17 When I therefore was thus minded, did I show fickleness? or the things that I purpose, do I purpose ^{ak}'according to the flesh, that with me there should be the yea yea and the nay nay? 18 But as ^{al}'God is faithful, ^{am}'our word toward you is not yea and nay. 19 For ^{an}'the Son of God, Jesus Christ, who was preached among you ^{ao}'by us, ^{ap}even ^{aq}'by me and ^{ar}'Silvanus and ^{as}'Timothy, was not yea and nay, but ^{at}'in him is yea.
20 For ^{au}'how many soever be the promises of God, ^{av}'in him is the yea: wherefore also through him is ^{aw}'the Amen, unto the glory of God through us. 21 Now he that ^{ax}'establisheth us with you

¹in Christ, and ^aanointed us, is God; ²² ^awho also ^bsealed us, and ^cgave us the earnest of the Spirit in our hearts.

²³ But ^aI call God for a witness upon my soul, that ^cto spare you I forbore to come unto ^dCorinth. ²⁴ Not that we have ^elordship over your faith, but are helpers of your joy: for in ^ffaith ye ^hstand 2 fast. ¹ ^aBut I determined this for myself, that I ^bwould not come again to you with sorrow. ² For if I ^kmake you sorry, who then is he that maketh me glad but he that is made sorry by me? ³ And I ^{wrote} this very thing, lest, ^{when} I came, I should have sorrow from them of whom I ought to rejoice; having ^mconfidence in you all, that my joy is the joy of you all. ⁴ For out of much affliction and anguish of heart I ^{wrote} unto you with many tears; not that ye should be made sorry, but that ye might know the love which I have more abundantly unto you.

⁵ But ⁿif any hath caused sorrow, he hath caused sorrow, not to me, but in part (that I press not too heavily) to you all. ⁶ Sufficient to such a one is ^{this} punishment which was inflicted by ⁿthe many; ⁷ so that contrariwise ye should ^{rather} ^pforgive him and comfort him, lest by any means such a one should be swallowed up with his overmuch sorrow. ⁸ Wherefore I beseech you to confirm your love toward him. ⁹ For to this end also ^{did} I write, that I might know ^rthe proof of you, ^{whether} ye are ^{obedient} in all things. ¹⁰ But to whom ye forgive anything, I forgive also: for what I also have forgiven, if I have forgiven anything, for your sakes have I forgiven it ^cin the ^spresence of Christ; ¹¹ that no advantage may be gained over us by ^{Satan}: for ^{we} are not ignorant of his devices.

¹² Now when I came to ^{Troas} for the ^{gospel} of Christ, and when a ^{door} was opened unto me in the Lord, ¹³ I ^{had} no relief for my spirit, because I found

¹⁴ ^eBut thanks be unto God, who always ^fleadeth us in triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest through us the ^gsavor of his ^hknowledge in every place. ¹⁵ For we are a ⁱsweet savor of Christ unto God, in ^jthem that ^kare saved, and in them that ^lperish; ¹⁶ ^kto the one a savor from death unto death; to the other a savor from life unto life. And who is ^msufficient for these things? ¹⁷ For we are not as the many, ⁿcorrupting the word of God: but ^{as} of sincerity, but as of God, ^oin the sight of God, speak we in Christ.

3 Are we beginning again to ^pcommend ourselves? or need we, as do some, ^qepistles of commendation to you or from you? ² ^rYe are our epistle, written in our hearts, known and read of all men; ³ being made manifest that ye are an epistle of Christ, ^sministered by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of ^tthe living God; not in ^utables of stone, but in ^vtables that are ^whearts of flesh. ⁴ And such ^xconfidence have we through Christ to God-ward: ⁵ not that we are sufficient of ourselves, to account anything as from ourselves; but ^your sufficiency is from God; ⁶ who also made us sufficient as ^zministers of a ^{aa}new covenant; not of ^{ab}the letter, but of the spirit: for the letter killeth, but ^{ac}the spirit giveth life. ⁷ But if the ^{ad}ministration of death, ^{ae}written, and engraven on stones, came ^{af}with glory, ^{ag}so that the children of Israel could not look stedfastly upon the face of Moses for the glory of his face; which ^{ah}glory ^{ai}was passing away: ⁸ how shall not rather the ministration of the spirit be with glory?

"Where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is Liberty." "Seeing we have this Ministry, we faint not"

9 ¹For if ^athe ministration of condemnation hath glory, much rather doth the ^bministration of righteousness exceed in glory. 10 For verily that which hath been made glorious hath not been made glorious in this respect, by reason of the glory that surpasseth. 11 For if that which ²passeth away was ³with glory, much more that which remaineth is in glory.

12 ^cHaving therefore such a hope, ^dwe use great boldness of speech, 13 and are not as Moses, ^ewho put a veil upon his face, that the children of Israel should not look stedfastly ^fon the end of that which ^gwas passing away: 14 but their ^hminds were ⁱhardened: for until this very day at the ^jreading of ^kthe old covenant the same veil ^lremaineth, it not being revealed to them that it is done away in Christ. 15 But unto this day, whensoever Moses is read, a veil lieth upon their heart. 16 ^mBut whensoever ⁿit shall turn to the Lord, the veil is taken away. 17 Now the Lord is the Spirit: and where ^othe Spirit of the Lord is, ^pthere is liberty. 18 But we all, with unveiled face ^qbeholding as in a mirror the ^rglory of the Lord, are ^stransformed into the same image from glory to glory, even as from ^tthe Lord the Spirit.

4 Therefore seeing we have this ^uministry, even as we ^vobtained mercy, we ^wfaint not: 2 but we have renounced the hidden ^xthings of shame, not walking in craftiness, nor ^yhandling the word of God deceitfully; but by the manifestation of the truth ^zcommending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God. 3 And even if our ^{aa}gospel is ^{ab}veiled, it is veiled in ^{ac}them that ^{ad}perish: 4 in whom ^{ae}the god of ^{af}this ^{ag}world hath ^{ah}blinded the ^{ai}minds of the unbelieving, ^{aj}that the ^{ak}light of the ^{al}gospel of the ^{am}glory of Christ, who is the ^{an}image of God, should not dawn upon them. 5 For we preach ^{ao}not ourselves, but Christ

Jesus as Lord, and ourselves as your ¹⁵servants ¹⁶for Jesus' sake. 6 Seeing it is God, that said, ¹⁷Light shall shine out of darkness, who ^hshined in our hearts, to give the ¹⁴light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

7 But we have this treasure in ⁱearthen vessels, that the exceeding greatness of ^kthe power may be of God, and not from ourselves; 8 we are ^ppressed on every side, yet not ^mstraitened; ⁿperplexed, yet not unto despair; 9 ^opursued, yet not ¹⁸forsaken; ^qsmitten down, yet not destroyed; 10 ^ralways bearing about in the body the ¹⁹dying of Jesus, that ^sthe life also of Jesus may be manifested in our body. 11 For we who live are always delivered unto death for Jesus' sake, that the life also of Jesus may be manifested in our mortal flesh. 12 So then death worketh in us, but life in you. 13 But having the same ^tspirit of faith, ²⁰I believed, and therefore did I speak; we also believe, and therefore also we speak; 14 knowing that he that ^uraised up ²¹the Lord Jesus ^vshall raise up us also with Jesus, and shall ^wpresent us with you. 15 For all things are ^yfor your sakes, that the grace, being ^zmultiplied through ²²the many, may cause the thanksgiving to abound unto the glory of God.

16 Wherefore we ^afaint not; but though our outward man is decaying, yet our ^binward man is ^crenewed day by day. 17 For our ^dlight affliction, which is for the moment, worketh for us more and more exceedingly an eternal weight of glory; 18 while we ^elook not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen:

"Absent from the Body, at Home with the Lord." "In Everything commending ourselves as Ministers of God"

5 For we know that if the ¹earthly house of our ^{1b}tabernacle be dissolved, we have a building from God, a house ^cnot made with hands, eternal, in the heavens. 2 For verily in this we ^agroan, longing to be ^cclothed upon with our habitation which is from heaven: 3 if so be that being clothed we shall not be found naked. 4 For indeed we that are in this ¹tabernacle do ^agroan, ²being burdened; not for that we would be unclothed, but that we would be ^cclothed upon, that what is ¹mortal may be swallowed up of life. 5 Now he that wrought us for this very thing is God, who ^agave unto us the earnest of the Spirit. 6 Being therefore always of good courage, and knowing that, ^awhilst we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord 7 (for ^a'we walk by faith, not by ³sight); 8 we are of good courage, I say, and are ^awilling rather to be absent from the body, and ¹to be at home with the Lord. 9 Wherefore also we ^a'make it our aim, whether at home or absent, to be ^mwell-pleasing unto him. 10 For we must all be made manifest before ^mthe judgment-seat of Christ; that each one may receive the things ^{done} in the body, according to what he hath done, whether it be good or bad.

11 Knowing therefore the ^afear of the Lord, we persuade men, but we are made manifest unto God; and I hope that we are ^amade manifest also in your consciences. 12 We are not ^aagain commending ourselves unto you, but ^aspeaking as giving you ^a'occasion of glorying on our behalf, that ye may have wherewith to answer them that glory in appearance, and not in heart. 13 For whether we ^aare ^a'beside ourselves, it is unto God; or whether we are of sober mind, it is unto you. 14 For the love of Christ ^a'constraineth us; because we thus judge, that ^a'one died for all, therefore all died; 15 and he died for all, that they that live should no longer ^a'live unto them-

5 For even when we were come into ^{aq}Macedonia our flesh had no relief, but ^{ar}we were ^{as}afflicted on every side; ^{at}without ^{au}were fightings, within ^{av}were fears. 6 Nevertheless ^{aw}he that comforteth the lowly, ^{ax}even God, ^{ay}comforted us by the ^{az}coming of ^{ba}Titus; 7 and not by his ^{bb}coming only, but also by the comfort wherewith he was comforted in you, while he told us your longing, your mourning, your zeal for me; so that I rejoiced yet more.

8 For though I ^{bc}made you sorry with my epistle, I do not regret it: though I did regret ^{bd}it (^{be}for I see that that epistle made you sorry, though but for a season), 9 I now rejoice, not that ye were made sorry, but that ye were made sorry unto repentance; for ye were made sorry after a godly sort, that ye might suffer loss by us in nothing. 10 For godly sorrow worketh ^{bf}repentance ^{bg}unto salvation, a ^{bh}repentance which bringeth no regret: but the sorrow of the world worketh death. 11 For behold, this selfsame thing, that ye were made sorry after a godly sort, what earnest care it wrought in you, yea what clearing of yourselves, yea what indignation, yea what fear, yea what ^{bi}longing, yea what zeal, yea what ^{bj}avenging! In everything ye ^{bk}approved yourselves to be pure in the matter. 12 So although ^{bl}I wrote unto you, ^{bm}I wrote not for his cause that ^{bn}did the wrong, nor for his cause that suffered the wrong, but that your earnest care for us might be made manifest unto you in the sight of God. 13 Therefore we have been ^{bo}comforted: and in our comfort we joyed the more exceedingly for the joy of ^{bp}Titus, because his ^{bq}spirit hath been refreshed by you all. 14 For if in anything I have ^{br}gloried to him on your behalf, I was not put to shame; but as we spake all things to you in truth, so our glorying also which I made before ^{bs}Titus was found to be truth. 15 And his affection is more abundantly toward you, while he remembereth the ^aobedience of you all, how with ^bfear and trembling ye received him. 16 I rejoice that in everything ^cI am of good courage concerning you.

8 Moreover, brethren, we make known to you the grace of God which hath been ^agiven in the churches of ^aMacedonia; 2 how that in much proof of affliction the abundance of their joy and their deep poverty abounded unto ^jthe riches of their ⁱliberality. 3 For ^aaccording to their power, I bear witness, yea and beyond their power, they gave of their own accord, 4 beseeching us with much entreaty in regard of ^athis grace and the fellowship in the ^aministering to the saints: 5 and this, not as we had hoped, but first they ^kgave their own selves to the Lord, and to us through ^jthe will of God. 6 Inasmuch that we ^mexhorted ⁿTitus, that as he had ⁿmade a beginning before, so he would also complete in you ^athis grace also. 7 But as ye ^aabound ^ain everything, in faith, and utterance, and knowledge, and in all earnestness, and in ^ayour love to us, see that ye ^aabound in this grace also. 8 I speak ^anot by way of commandment, but as proving through the earnestness of others the sincerity also of your love. 9 For ye know ^athe grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, ^athough he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might become rich. 10 And herein I ^agive my judgment: for this is expedient for you, who were the first to make a beginning ^aa year ago, not only to do, but also to will. 11 But now complete the doing also; that as there was the ^areadiness to will, so there may be the completion also out of your ability. 12 For if the readiness is there, it is acceptable ^aaccording as a man hath, not according as he hath not. 13 For I say not this that others may be eased and ye distressed; 14 but by equality: your abundance being a supply at this present time for ^atheir want, that their abundance also may become a supply for ^ayour want; that there may be equality: 15 as it

16 But ^athanks be to God, who ^bputteth the same earnest care for you into the heart of ^aTitus. 17 For he accepted indeed our ^mexhortation; but being himself very earnest, he went forth unto you of his own accord. 18 And we have sent together with him ^athe brother whose praise in the ^agospel is spread through ^aall the churches; 19 ^aand not only so, but who was also ^aappointed by the churches to travel with us in the matter of ^athis grace, which is ministered by us to the glory of the Lord, and to show our ^areadiness: 20 avoiding this, that any man should blame us in the matter of this bounty which is ministered by us: 21 for we ^atake thought for things honorable, not only in ^athe sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of men. 22 And we have sent with them our brother, whom we have many times proved earnest in many things, but now much more earnest, by reason of the great confidence which he hath in you. 23 Whether any inquire about ^aTitus, he is my ^mpartner and my fellow-worker to you-ward; or our ⁿbrethren, they are the ^omessengers of the churches, they are ^athe glory of Christ. 24 ^aShow ye therefore unto them in the face of the churches the proof of your love, and of our ^aglorying on your behalf.

9 For as touching the ^aministering to the saints, ^ait is superfluous for me to write to you: 2 for I know your readiness, of which I ^aglory on your behalf to them of ^aMacedonia, that ^aAchaia hath been prepared for ^aa year past; and ^ayour zeal hath stirred up ^avery many of them. 3 But I have sent the brethren, that our ^aglorying on your behalf may not be made void in this respect; that, ^aeven as I said, ye may be prepared: 4 lest by any means, if there come with me any of ^aMacedonia and find you unprepared, we (that we say not, ye) should be put to shame in this confidence. 5 I thought it necessary therefore to 16 I say ^a again, Let no man think me foolish; but if ye do, yet as foolish receive me, that I also may glory a little. 17 That which I speak, I speak ^a not after the Lord, but as ^a in foolishness, in this confidence of glorying. 18 Seeing that ^a many glory ^a after the flesh, I will glory also. 19 For ye bear with the foolish gladly, ^a being wise yourselves. 20 For ye bear with a man, if he ^a bringeth you into bondage, if he ^a devoureth you, if he ^a taketh you captive, if he ^a exalteth himself, if he ^a smiteth you on the face. 21 I speak by way of ^a disparagement, as though we had been ^a weak. exalted overmuch. 8 Concerning this thing I besought the Lord ^h thrice, that it might depart from me. 9 And he hath said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my ⁱ power is made perfect in weakness. 11 I am become ^r foolish: ye compelled me; for I ought to have been commended of you: for ^s in nothing was I behind ^t the very chiefest apostles, though ^u I am nothing. 12 Truly the ^v signs of an apostle were wrought among you in all ^w patience, by signs and wonders and ^x mighty works. 13 For what is there wherein ye were made inferior to the rest of the churches, except ^y it be that ^z I myself was not a burden to you? ^{aa} forgive me ^{ab} this wrong.

14 Behold, ^{ac} this is the third time I am ready to come to you; and I ^{ad} will not be a burden to you: for I ^{ae} seek not yours, but ^{af} you: for the ^{ag} children ought not to lay up for the parents, but the ^{ah} parents for the children. 15 And I will ^{ai} most gladly spend and be ^{aj} spent for your souls. THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO THE GALATIANS

Salutation. The Galatians' Apostasy surprising. The Gospel I preach came from God; was not learned at Jerusalem;

1 Paul, ^aan apostle (^bnot from men, neither through ¹man, but ^cthrough Jesus Christ, and God the Father, who ^draised him from the dead), ²and all ^ethe brethren that are with me, unto ^fthe churches of Galatia: ³Grace to you and peace ^gfrom God the Father, and our Lord Jesus Christ, ⁴who ^hgave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us out of ⁱthis present evil ^jworld, according to the will of ^kour God and Father: ⁵to whom ^lbe the glory ^mfor ever and ever. 6 I marvel that ye are ⁿso quickly removing from ^ohim that called you in the grace of Christ unto a ^pdifferent ^qgospel; 7 which is not another ^rgospel: only there are some that ^strouble you, and would pervert the ^tgospel of Christ. 8 But though we, or ^uan angel from heaven, should ^vpreach ^wunto you any gospel ^xother than that which we ^ypreached unto you, let him be ^zanathema. 9 As we ^{aa}have said before, so say I now again, ^{ab}If any man ^{ac}preacheth unto you any gospel ^{ad}other than that which ye received, let him be ^{ae}anathema. 10 For am I now ^{af}seeking the favor of men, or of God? or am I striving to please men? if I were still pleasing men, I should not be a ^{ag}servant of Christ.

11 For ^{ah}I make known to you, brethren, as touching the ^{ai}gospel which was ^{aj}preached by me, that it is ^{ak}not after man. 12 For ^{al}neither did I receive it from ^{am}man, nor was I taught it, but ^{an}it came to me through ^{ao}a revelation of Jesus Christ. 13 For ye have yet was endorsed by "the Three," and maintained against Peter. The Folly of relapsing to the Law;

2 Then after the space of fourteen years I^a went up again to Jerusalem with ^bBarnabas, taking ^cTitus also with me. 2 And I went up ^dby revelation; and I laid before them the ^egospel which I preach among the Gentiles but privately before them who ^fwere of repute, lest by any means I should be ^grunning, or had run, in vain. 3 But not even ^hTitus who was with me, being a Greek, was ⁱcompelled to be circumcised: 4 ^jand that because of the ^kfalse brethren privily brought in, who ^lcame in privily to spy out our ^mliberty which we have in Christ Jesus, that they might ⁿbring us into bondage: 5 to whom we gave place in the way of subjection, no, not for an hour; that ^othe truth of the ^pgospel might continue with you. 6 But from those who ^qwere ^rreputed to be somewhat (^swhatsoever they were, it maketh no matter to me: ^tGod accepteth not man's person)—they, I say, who were of repute imparted nothing to me: 7 but contrariwise, when they saw that I had been ^uintrusted with the ^vgospel of the uncircumcision, even as ^wPeter with the ^xgospel of the circumcision 8 (for he that wrought for Peter unto the ^yapostleship of the circumcision wrought for me also unto the Gentiles); 9 and when they perceived ^zthe grace that was given unto me, ^{aa}James and ^{ab}Cephas and John, they who ^{ac}were ^{ad}reputed to be ^{ae}pillars, gave to me and ^{af}Barnabas the ^{ag}right hands of fellowship, that we should ^{ah}go unto the Gentiles, and they unto the circumcision; 10 only ^{ai}they would that we should remember the poor; ^{aj}which very thing I was also zealous to do.

11 But when ^{ak}Cephas came to ^{al}Antioch, I resisted him to the face, because he stood condemned. 12 For before that certain came from ^{am}James, he ^{an}ate with the Gentiles; but when they came, he drew back and separated himself, ^{ao}fearing them that were of the circumcision. 13 And the rest of the Jews dissembled likewise with him; insomuch that even ^{ap}Barnabas was carried away with their dissimulation. 14 But when I saw that they ^{aq}walked not uprightly according to ^{ar}the truth of the ^{as}gospel, I said unto ^{at}Cephas before ^{au}them all, If thou, being a Jew, ^{av}livest as do the Gentiles, and not as do the Jews, how compellest thou the Gentiles to live as do the Jews? 15 We being ^{aw}Jews by nature, and not ^{ax}sinner of the Gentiles, 16 yet knowing that ^{ay}a man is not ^{az}justified by the works of the law but through faith in Jesus Christ, even we believed on Christ Jesus, that we might be justified by ^{ba}faith in Christ, and not by the works of the law: because ^{bb}by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified. 17 But if, while we sought to be justified in Christ, we ourselves also were found ^{bc}sinner, is Christ a minister of sin? ^{bd}God forbid. 18 For if I build up again those things which I destroyed, I ^{be}prove myself a transgressor. 19 For I through the law ^{bf}died unto the law, that I might live unto God. 20 I have been ^{bg}crucified with Christ; and it is no longer I that live, but ^{bh}Christ liveth in me: and that ^{bi}life which I now live in the flesh I live in faith, ^{bj}the faith which is in ^{bk}the Son of God, who ^{bl}loved me, and ^{bm}gave himself up for me. 21 I do not make void the grace of God: for ^{bn}if righteousness is through the law, then Christ died for nought.

3 O foolish ^{bo}Galatians, who did bewitch you, before whose eyes Jesus Christ ^{bp}was openly set forth crucified? 2 This only would I learn from you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the ^{bq}hearing of faith? 3 Are ye so foolish? having begun in the Spirit, ^{br}are ye now perfected in the flesh? 4 Did ye suffer so many things in vain? ^{bs}if it be indeed in vain. 5 He therefore that ^{bt}supplieth to you the Spirit,

⁷ Or, message

which the Covenant of Faith antedates. The Law preparatory to the Gospel. Under the Law we were Wards and ^aworketh ¹miracles ²among you, doeth he it by the works of the law, or by the ^{3b}hearing of faith? ⁶Even as ^aAbraham ⁴believed God, and it was reckoned unto him for righteousness. ⁷^aKnow therefore that ^athey that are of faith, the same are ^asons of Abraham. ⁸And the scripture, foreseeing that God ⁶would justify the ⁷Gentiles by faith, preached the gospel beforehand unto Abraham, saying, ⁸In thee shall all the nations be blessed. ⁹So then ⁷they that are of faith are blessed with the faithful Abraham. ¹⁰For as many as are of the works of the law are under a curse: for it is written, ⁹Cursed is every one who continueth not in all things that are written in the book of the law, to do them. ¹¹Now that ^ano man is justified ¹⁰by the law before God, is evident: for, ^{11a}The righteous shall live by faith; ¹²and the law is not of faith; but, ¹²ⁱHe that doeth them shall live in them. ¹³Christ ^kredeemed us from the curse of the law, having become a curse for us; for it is written, ¹³Cursed is every one that hangeth on ^aa tree: ¹⁴that ^mupon the Gentiles might come the blessing of Abraham in Christ Jesus; that we ⁿmight receive ^othe promise of the Spirit through faith.

¹⁵^aBrethren, ⁱI speak after the manner of men: ⁷Though it be but a man's covenant, yet when it hath been confirmed, no one maketh it void, or addeth thereto. ¹⁶Now ^ato Abraham were the promises spoken, and to his seed. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, ^{14c}And to thy seed, which is Christ. ¹⁷Now this I say: A covenant confirmed beforehand by God, the law, which came ⁿfour hundred and thirty years after, doth not disannul, so as to make the promise of none effect. ¹⁸For ⁿif the inheritance is of the law, it is no more of promise: but ⁿGod hath granted it to Abraham by promise. ¹⁹ⁿWhat then is the law? It was added because of transgressions, till ⁿthe seed should come to whom the promise hath been made; and it was ^aordained through angels ^bby the hand of a mediator. ²⁰Now ^aa mediator is not ^aa mediator of one; but God is one. ²¹Is the law then against the promises of God? ^aGod forbid: for ^eif there had been a law given which could make alive, verily righteousness would have been of the law. ²²But the scripture ⁷shut up all ⁹things under sin, that the promise by faith in Jesus Christ might be given to them that believe.

²³But before faith came, we were kept in ward under the law, ⁷shut up unto the faith which should afterwards be revealed. ²⁴So that the law is become our ^ktutor to bring us unto Christ, that ⁱwe might be justified by faith. ²⁵But now that faith is come, we are no longer under a ^ktutor. ²⁶For ye are all ^ksons of God, through faith, in ^kChrist Jesus. ²⁷For as many of you as were ^mbaptized into Christ did ⁿput on Christ. ²⁸^oThere can be neither Jew nor Greek, there can be neither bond nor free, there can be no male and female; for ⁿye all are one ^{man}in ^kChrist Jesus. ²⁹And if ⁿye are Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, heirs according to ⁿpromise.

4 But I say that so long as the heir is a child, he differeth nothing from a bondservant though he is lord of all; ²but is under guardians and stewards until the day appointed of the father. ³So we also, when we were children, were held ⁱin bondage under the ^{15c}rudiments of the world: ⁴but when ⁿthe fulness of the time came, God sent forth his Son, ⁿborn of a woman, born ⁿunder the law, ⁵that he might redeem them that were under the law, that we might receive the adoption of ^ksons. ⁶And because ye are sons, ⁿGod sent forth the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, crying, ⁿAbba, Father. ⁷So that

8 Howbeit at that time, ^bnot knowing God, ye were ^cin bondage to ^dthem that by nature are no gods: 9 but now that ye have come to know God, or rather to be ^eknown by God, ^fhow turn ye back again to the weak and beggarly ^grudiments, whereunto ye desire to be ^hin bondage over again? 10 Ye ⁱobserve days, and months, and seasons, and years. 11 I am afraid of you, lest by any means I have bestowed labor upon you in vain.

12 I beseech you, ^jbrethren, ^kbecome as I am, for I also am become as ye are. Ye did me no wrong: 13 but ye know that because of an infirmity of the flesh I ^lpreached the gospel unto you the ^mfirst time: 14 and that which was a temptation to you in my flesh ye despised not, nor ⁿrejected; but ^oye received me as an angel of God, even as ^pChrist Jesus. 15 Where then is that gratulation ^qof yourselves? for I bear you witness, that, if possible, ye would have plucked out your eyes and given them to me. 16 So then am I become your enemy, ^rby telling you the truth? 17 They zealously seek you in no good way; nay, they desire to shut you out, that ye may seek them. 18 But it is good to be zealously sought in a good matter at all times, and ^snot only when I am present with you. 19 ^tMy little children, of whom ^uI am again in travail until ^vChrist be formed in you—20 but I could wish to be present with you now, and to change my tone; for ^wI am perplexed about you.

21 Tell me, ye that desire to be under the law, do ye not ^xhear the law? 22 For it is written, ^ythat Abraham had two sons, one by the handmaid, and one by the freewoman. 23 ^zHowbeit ^{aa}the son by the handmaid is born after the flesh; but ^{ab}the son by the freewoman is born through promise. 24 Which things ^{ac}contain an allegory: for these women are two covenants; one from ^{ad}mount Sinai, bearing children unto ^{ae}bondage, that ye ^awill be none otherwise minded: but he that ^btroubleth you shall bear his judgment, who-soever he be. 11 But I, brethren, if I still preach circumcision, why am I still ^cpersecuted? then hath ^dthe stumbling-block of the cross been done away. 12 I would that ^ethey that unsettle you would even ^f'go beyond circumcision.

13 For ye, brethren, were called for ^gfreedom; ^honly use not your freedom for an occasion to the flesh, but through love ⁱ'be servants one to another. 14 For ^kthe whole law is fulfilled in one word, even in this: ^l'Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. 15 But if ye ^mbite and devour one another, take heed that ye be not consumed one of another.

16 But I say, ⁿ'Walk by the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfil ^o'the lust of the flesh. 17 For ^p'the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh; for these are contrary the one to the other; ^q'that ye may not do the things that ye would. 18 But if ye are ^r'led by the Spirit, ^s'ye are not under the law. 19 Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are ^t'these: ^u'fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness, 20 idolatry, ^v'sorcery, enmities, ^w'strife, jealousies, wraths, ^x'factions, divisions, ^y'parties, 21 envyings, ^z'drunkenness, revellings, and such like; of which I ^{aa}'forewarn you, even as I did ^{ab}'forewarn you, that they who practise such things shall not ^{ac}'inherit the kingdom of God. 22 But ^{ad}'the fruit of the Spirit is ^{ae}'love, joy, peace, longsuffering, kindness, goodness, ^{af}'faithfulness, 23 meekness, ^{ag}'self-control; against such ^{ah}'there is no law. 24 And they that are of ^{ai}'Christ Jesus have ^{aj}'crucified the flesh with the passions and ^{ak}'the lusts thereof.

17 ^bThis I say therefore, and ^ctestify in the Lord, ^dthat ye no longer walk as the Gentiles also walk, in the ^evanity of their mind, 18 being ^fdarkened in their understanding, alienated from ^gthe life of God, because of the ^hignorance that is in them, because of the ⁱhardening of their heart; 19 who ^jbeing past feeling ^kgave themselves up to ^llasciviousness, ^mto work all uncleanness with ⁿgreediness. 20 But ye did not so ^olearn Christ; 21 if so be that ye ^pheard him, and were ^qtaught in him, even as truth is in Jesus: 22 that ye ^rput away, as concerning your former manner of life, the ^sold man, that waxeth corrupt after the ^tlusts of deceit; 23 and that ye be ^urenewed in the spirit of your mind, 24 and ^v"put on the" new man, ^wthat ^x"after God hath been created in righteousness and holiness of truth.

25 Wherefore, ^yputting away falsehood, ^zye speak ye truth each one with his neighbor: for we are ^{aa}members one of another. 26 ^{ab}Be ye angry, and sin not: let not ^{ac}the sun go down upon your ^{ad}wrath: 27 neither ^{ae}give place to the devil. 28 Let him that stole steal no more: but rather ^{af}let him labor, ^{ag}working with his hands the thing that is good, ^{ah}that he may have whereof to give to him that hath need. 29 Let no ^{ai}corrupt speech proceed out of your mouth, but such as is good for ^{aj}edifying as the need may be, that it may give grace to them that hear. 30 And ^{ak}grieve not the Holy Spirit of God, in whom ye were ^{al}sealed unto the day of redemption. 31 ^{am}Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamor, and railing, be ^{an}put away from you, with all ^{ao}malice: 32 and ^{ap}be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving each other, ^{aq}even as God also in Christ forgave ^{ar}you.

Domestic Duties : — Wives and Husbands, Children and Parents, Servants and Masters. "Put on the Armor of God"

Lord is, 18 And ^abe not drunken with wine, wherein is ^briot, but be ^cfilled ¹with the Spirit; 19 ^aspeaking ²one to another in ^cpsalms and ^dhymns and spiritual ^esongs, ^fsinging and making melody with your heart to the Lord; 20 ^ggiving thanks always for all things in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ to ^hGod, even the Father; 21 ⁱsubmitting yourselves one to another in the ^jfear of Christ.

22 ^kWives, ^lbe in subjection unto your own husbands, ^mas unto the Lord. 23 For ⁿthe husband is the head of the wife, as Christ also is the ^ohead of the church, ^pbeing himself ^qthe saviour of the body. 24 But as the church is subject to Christ, ^rso let the wives also be to their husbands in everything. 25 ^sHusbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church, and ^tgave himself up for it; 26 ^uthat he might sanctify it, having ^vcleansed it by the ^wwashing of water with ^xthe word, 27 that he might ^ypresent the church to himself a glorious church, not having spot or wrinkle or any such thing; but that it should be ^zholy and without blemish. 28 Even so ought husbands also to ^{aa}love their own wives as their own bodies. He that loveth his own wife loveth himself: 29 for no man ever hated his own flesh; but nourisheth and cherisheth it, even as Christ also the church; 30 because we are ^{ab}members of his ^{ac}body. 31 ^{ad}For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife; and the two shall become one flesh. 32 This mystery is great; but I speak in regard of Christ and of the church. 33 Nevertheless do ye also severally ^{ae}love each one his own wife even as himself; and let the wife see that she ^{af}fear her husband.

6 ^{ag}Children, obey your parents in the Lord: for this is right. 2 ^{ah}Honor thy father and mother (which is the first commandment with promise), 3 that it may be well with thee, and thou ^{ai}mayest live long on the ^{aj}earth. 4 And, ye ^{ak}fathers, provoke not your children to wrath: but ^{al}nurture them

Salutation. Thanksgiving and Supplication on the Readers' Behalf. "To live is Christ, to die is Gain"

1 ^aPaul and ^bTimothy, ^cservants of ^dChrist Jesus, to ^eall the ^fsaints in Christ Jesus that are at ^gPhilippi, with the ^hbishops and ⁱdeacons: ^jGrace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 I thank my God upon all my remembrance of you, 4 always ^min every supplication of mine on behalf of you all making my supplication with joy, 5 for your ⁿfellowship in furtherance of the ^ogospel ^pfrom the first day until now; 6 being confident of this very thing, that he who began a good work in you will perfect it until ^qthe day of Jesus Christ: 7 even as ^rit is right for me to be thus minded on behalf of you all, because ^sI ^thave you in my heart, inasmuch as, both in ^umy bonds and in the ^vdefence and confirmation of the ^wgospel, ye all are partakers with me of grace. 8 For ^xGod is my witness, how I long after you all in the tender mercies of ^yChrist Jesus. 9 And this I pray, that ^zyour love may abound yet more and more in ^{aa}knowledge and all discernment; 10 so that ye may ^{ab}approve the things that are excellent; that ye may be sincere and void of offence unto ^{ac}the day of Christ; 11 being filled with the ^{ad}fruits of righteousness, which are through Jesus Christ, unto the glory and praise of God.

12 Now I would have you know, brethren, that the things ^{ae}which happened unto me ^{af}have fallen out rather unto the progress of the ^{ag}gospel; 13 so that ^{ah}my bonds became manifest in Christ ^{ai}throughout the whole prætorian guard, and to ^{aj}all the rest; 14 and that most of the brethren in the Lord, ^{ak}being

Jesus in me through my presence with you again. 27 Only ¹let your manner of life be ^aworthy of the ^{2b}gospel of Christ: that, whether I come and see you or be absent, I may hear of your state, that ye ^cstand fast in ^aone spirit, with one soul ^cstriving ³for the faith of the ²gospel; 28 and in nothing affrighted by the adversaries: which is for them ^can evident token of perdition, but of your salvation, and that from God; 29 because to you ^cit hath been granted in the behalf of Christ, not only to believe on him, but also to ^asuffer in his behalf: 30 having the same ^cconflict which ^aye saw in me, and now hear to be in me.

2 If there is therefore any exhortation in Christ, if any ^cconsolation of love, if any ^cfellowship of the Spirit, if any ^ctender mercies and compassions, 2ⁿ make full my joy, that ye ^cbe of the same mind, having the same love, being of one accord, ^bof one mind; 3 ^cdoing nothing through ^cfaction or through ^cvainglory, but in lowliness of mind ^ceach counting other better than himself; 4 ^cnot looking each of you to his own things, but each of you also to the things of others. 5 ^cHave this mind in you, which was also in ^cChrist Jesus: 6 who, ^cexisting in the ^cform of God, ^ccounted not the being on an equality with God a thing to be grasped, 7 but ^cemptied himself, taking the form of a ^{6a}servant, ^{7b}being made in the likeness of men; 8 and being found in fashion as a man, ^che humbled himself, becoming ^cobedient ^ceven unto death, yea, the ^cdeath of the cross. 9 ^cWherefore also God ^chighly exalted him, and gave unto him ^cthe name which is above every name; 10 that in the name of Jesus ^cevery knee should bow, of ^cthings in heaven and ^cthings on earth and ^cthings under the earth, 11 and that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is ^cLord, to the glory of God the Father.

dom of God, men that have been a comfort unto me. 12 ^e Epaphras, ^f who is one of you, ^g a servant of Christ Jesus, saluteth you, always ^h striving for you in his prayers, that ye may stand ⁱ perfect and ^j fully assured in all the will of God. 13 For I bear him witness, that he hath much labor for you, and for them in ^k Laodicea, and for them in Hierapolis. 14 ^k Luke, the beloved physician, and ^l Demas salute you. 15 Salute the brethren that are in ^m Laodicea, and ⁿ Nymphas, and ^o the church that is in ^p their house. 16 And ^q when ^r this epistle hath been read among you, cause that it be read also in the church of the Laodiceans; and that ye also ^s read the epistle from ^t Laodicea. 17 And say to ^u Archippus, Take heed to the ^v ministry which thou hast received in the Lord, that thou fulfil it.

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL TO THE THESSALONIANS

1 ^aPaul, and ^bSilvanus, and ^cTimothy, unto the ^dchurch of the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ: ^eGrace to you and peace.

2 ^fWe give thanks to God always for you all, ^gmaking mention of you in our prayers; ^hremembering without ceasing your ⁱwork of faith and labor of ^jlove and ^kpatience of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ, before ^lour God and Father; ^mknowing, ⁿbrethren beloved of God, ^oyour election, ^phow that our ^qgospel came not unto you in word only, but also ^rin power, and in the Holy Spirit, and ^sin much ^tassurance; even as ye know ^uwhat manner of men we showed ourselves toward you for your sake. ^vAnd ye became ^wimitators of us, and of the Lord, ^xhaving received ^ythe word in much affliction, with ^zjoy of the Holy Spirit; ^{aa}so that ye became an ensample to all that believe in ^{ab}Macedonia and in ^{ac}Achaia. ^{ad}For from you hath ^{ae}sounded forth ^{af}the word of the Lord, not only in ^{ag}Macedonia and ^{ah}Achaia, but ^{ai}in every place your faith to God-ward is gone forth; so that we need not to speak anything. ^{aj}For they themselves report concerning us what manner of ^{ak}entering in we had unto you; and how ye ^{al}turned unto God ^{am}from idols, to serve a ^{an}living and true God, ^{ao}and to ^{ap}wait for his Son from heaven, whom he ^{aq}raised from the dead, ^{ar}even Jesus, who ^{as}delivereth us from ^{at}the wrath to come.

2 For yourselves, brethren, ^uknow our ^ventering in unto you, that ^win hath not been found vain: ^x2 but having suffered before and been ^yshamefully treated, as ye know, at ^zPhilippi, we waxed bold in our God ^{aa}to speak unto you

13 And for this cause we also ^athank God without ceasing, that, when ye received from us ^{2c}the word of the message, even the word of God, ye accepted it ^dnot as the word of men, but, as it is in truth, the word of God, ^ewhich also worketh in you that believe. 14 For ye, brethren, became ^aimitators of ^fthe churches of God which are ^gin Judæa in Christ Jesus: for ^hye also suffered the same things of your own countrymen, ⁱeven as they did of the Jews; 15 ^jwho both killed the Lord Jesus and ^kthe prophets, and drove out us, and please not God, and are contrary to all men; 16 ^lforbidding us to speak to the Gentiles ^mthat they may be saved; to ⁿfill up their sins always: but the ^owrath is come upon them to the uttermost.

17 But we, brethren, being bereaved of you for ^{3a}a short season, ⁱn presence not in heart, endeavored the more exceedingly ^uto see your face with great desire: 18 because ^vwe would fain have come unto you, I Paul ^wonce and again; and ^xSatan ^yhindered us. 19 For what is our hope, or ^zjoy, or crown of glorying? Are not even ye, before our Lord Jesus at his ^{4b}coming? 20 For ye are ^cour glory and our joy.

3 Wherefore ^dwhen we could no longer forbear, we thought it good to be left behind at ^eAthens alone; 2 and sent ^fTimothy, our brother and ^gGod's minister in the ^hgospel of Christ, to establish you, and to comfort ⁱyou concerning your faith; 3 that no man be moved by these afflictions; for yourselves know that ^jhereunto we are appointed. 4 For verily, when we were with you, we told you ^kbeforehand that we are to suffer affliction; ^leven as it came to pass, and ye know. 5 For this cause I also, ^mwhen I could no longer forbear, ⁿsent that I might know your faith, lest by any means ^othe tempter had tempted you, and ^pour labor should be in vain. 6 But when ^qTimothy came even now unto us from you, and brought us glad tidings of ^ayour faith and love, and that ye have ^bgood remembrance of us always, longing to see us, even as we also to ^csee you; 7 for this cause, brethren, we were comforted over you in all our distress and affliction through your faith: 8 for now we live, if ye ^dstand fast in the Lord. 9 For ^ewhat thanksgiving can we render again unto God for you, for all the joy wherewith we joy for your sakes before our God; 10 ^fnight and day praying exceedingly that we may ^gsee your face, and may ^hperfect that which is lacking in your faith!

also we forewarned you and testified. 7 For God called us not for uncleanness, but in sanctification. 8 Therefore he that rejecteth, rejecteth not man, but God, who giveth his Holy Spirit unto you.

9 But concerning love of the brethren ye have no need that one write unto you: for ye yourselves are taught of God to love one another; 10 for indeed ye do it toward all the brethren that are in all Macedonia. But we exhort you, brethren, that ye abound more and more; 11 and that ye study to be quiet, and to do your own business, and to work with your hands, even as we charged you; 12 that ye may walk becomingly toward them that are without, and may have need of nothing.

13 But we would not have you ignorant, brethren, concerning them that fall asleep; that ye sorrow not, even as the rest, who have no hope. 14 For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also that are fallen asleep in Jesus will God bring with him. 15 For this we say unto you by the word of the Lord, that we that are alive, that are left unto the coming of the Lord, shall in no wise precede them that are fallen asleep. 16 For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven, with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first; 17 then we that are alive, that are left, shall together with them be caught up in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air; and so shall we ever be with the Lord. 18 Wherefore comfort one another with these words.

5 But concerning the times and the seasons, brethren, ye have no need that ought be written unto you. 2 For yourselves know perfectly that the day of the Lord so cometh as a thief in the night. 3 When they are saying, Peace and safety, then sudden destruction cometh upon them, as travail upon a woman with child; and they shall in no wise escape. 4 But ye, brethren, are not in darkness, that that day should overtake you as a thief: 5 for ye are all sons of light, and sons of the day: we are not of the night, nor of darkness; 6 so then let us not sleep, as do the rest, but let us watch and be sober. 7 For they that sleep sleep in the night; and they that are drunken are drunken in the night. 8 But let us, since we are of the day, be sober, putting on the breastplate of faith and love; and for a helmet, the hope of salvation. 9 For God appointed us not unto wrath, but unto the obtaining of salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ, 10 who died for us, that, whether we wake or sleep, we should live together with him. 11. Wherefore exhort one another, and build each other up, even as also ye do.

12 But we beseech you, brethren, to know them that labor among you, and are over you in the Lord, and admonish you; 13 and to esteem them exceeding highly in love for their work's sake. THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL TO THE THESSALONIANS

Salutation. Thanksgiving for their Faith and Fidelity. The Lord's Coming to be preceded by the Lawless One

1 ^aPaul, and ^bSilvanus, and ^cTimothy, unto the ^dchurch of the Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ; 2 ^eGrace to you and peace from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 We are bound ^fto give thanks to God always for you, ^gbrethren, even as it is meet, for that your faith groweth exceedingly, and the ^hlove of each one of you all toward one another aboundeth; 4 so that we ourselves ⁱglory in you in ^jthe churches of God for your ^kpatience and faith ^lin all your persecutions and in the afflictions which ye endure; 5 ^mwhich is a ⁿmanifest token of the righteous judgment of God; to the end that ye may be ^ocounted worthy of the kingdom of God, for which ye also suffer: 6 if so be that ^pit is a righteous thing with God to recompense affliction to them that afflict you, 7 and to you that are afflicted rest with us, ^qat the revelation of the Lord Jesus ^rfrom heaven ^swith the angels of his power ^tin flaming fire, 8 rendering vengeance to them that ^uknow not God, and to them that ^vobey not the ^wgospel of our Lord Jesus: 9 who shall suffer punishment, ^xeven ^yeternal destruction ^zfrom the face of the Lord and from the glory of his might, 10 when he shall come to be ^{aa}glorified in his saints, and to be marvelled at in all them that believed (because our ^{ab}testimony unto you was believed) in that ^{ac}day. 11 To which end we also ^{ad}pray always for you, that our God may ^{ae}count you worthy of your ^{af}calling, and fulfil every ^{ag}desire of ^{ah}goodness and ^{ai}every ^{aj}work of faith, with power; 12 that the ^{ak}name of our Lord Jesus may be glorified in you, and ye in him.

ren, ¹in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye ²withdraw yourselves from every brother that walketh ³disorderly, and not after ⁴the tradition which ⁵they received of us. 7 For yourselves know how ye ought to ⁶imitate us: for we behaved not ourselves disorderly among you; 8 neither did we ⁷eat bread for nought at any man's hand, but in ⁸labor and travail, ⁹working night and day, that we might not burden any of you: 9 not because we have not ¹⁰the right, but to make ourselves ¹¹an ensample unto you, that ye should imitate us. 10 For even ¹²when we were with you, this we commanded you, ¹³If any will not work, neither let him eat. 11 For we hear of some that ¹⁴walk among you disorderly, that work not at all, but are ¹⁵busybodies. 12 Now them that are as such we command and ¹⁶exhort in the Lord Jesus Christ, that with ¹⁷quietness they work, and eat their own bread. 13 But ye, ¹⁸brethren, ¹⁹be not weary in well-doing. 14 And if any man obeyeth not our word by ²⁰this epistle, note that man, that ye ²¹have no company with him, to the end that he may be ²²ashamed. 15 And ²³yet ²⁴count him not as an enemy, but ²⁵admonish him as a ²⁶brother.

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL TO TIMOTHY

Salutation. Charge respecting Misuse of the Law. Personal Thanksgiving. The Charge reinforced

1 Paul, ^aan apostle of ^bChrist Jesus ^caccording to the commandment of ^dGod our Saviour, and ^eChrist Jesus our ^fhope; 2 unto ^gTimothy, ^hmy true child in faith: ⁱGrace, mercy, peace, from God the Father and ^jChrist Jesus our Lord.

3 As I exhorted thee to tarry at ^kEphesus, when I was going into ^lMacedonia, that thou mightest charge certain men not to ^mteach a different doctrine, ⁿ4 neither to give heed to ^ofables and endless ^pgenealogies, which minister ^qquestionings, rather than ^ra ^sdispensation of God which is in faith; so do I now. 5 But the end of the ^tcharge is love ^uout of a pure heart and a ^vgood conscience and ^wfaith unfeigned: 6 from which things some having ^xswerved have turned aside unto ^yvain talking; 7 ^zdesiring to be ^{aa}teachers of the law, though they understand neither what they say, nor whereof they confidently affirm. 8 But we know that ^{ab}the law is good, if a man use it lawfully, 9 as knowing this, that ^{ac}law is not made for a righteous man, but for the lawless and ^{ad}unruly, for the ^{ae}ungodly and sinners, for the unholy and ^{af}profane, for ^{ag}murderers of fathers and ^{ah}murderers of mothers, for manslayers, 10 ^{ai}for fornicators, for ^{aj}abusers of themselves with men, for ^{ak}men-stealers, for ^{al}liars, for ^{am}false swearers, and if there be any other thing contrary to ^{an}the ^{ao}sound ^{ap}doctrine; 11 according to ^{aq}the ^{ar}gospel of the glory of ^{as}the blessed God, which was ^{at}committed to my trust.

12 I thank him that ^{au}enabled me, even ^{av}Christ Jesus our Lord, for that he counted me faithful, ^{aw}appointing me to his service; 13

prayers, intercessions, thanksgivings, be made for all men; 2 ^afor kings and all that are in high place; that we may lead a tranquil and quiet life in all godliness and gravity. 3 This is good and acceptable in the sight of ^bGod our Saviour; 4 ^cwho would have all men to be ^dsaved, and ^ecome to the knowledge of the truth. 5 For there is ^fone God, ^gone mediator between God and men, himself ^hman, Christ Jesus, 6 who ⁱgave himself a ransom for all; the ^jtestimony ^kto be borne ^lin its own times; 7 ^mwhereunto I was appointed a ⁿpreacher and ^oan apostle (^pI speak the truth, I lie not), a teacher of ^qthe Gentiles in faith and truth.

8 I ^rdesire therefore that the men pray ^sin every place, ^tlifting up ^uholy hands, without wrath and ^vdisputing. 9 In like manner, that ^wwomen adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamefastness and sobriety; not with braided hair, and gold or pearls or costly raiment; 10 but (which becometh women professing godliness) through good works. 11 ^xLet a woman learn in quietness with all subjection. 12 ^yBut I permit not a woman to teach, nor to have dominion over a man, but to be in quietness. 13 ^zFor Adam was first formed, then Eve; 14 and Adam was not beguiled, but ^{aa}the woman being beguiled hath fallen into transgression; 15 but she shall be saved through ^{ab}her child-bearing, if they continue in ^{ac}faith and love and sanctification with sobriety.

3 ^{ad}Faithful is the saying, If a man seeketh the ^{ae}office of a ^{af}bishop, he desireth a good work. 2 ^{ag}The ^{ah}bishop therefore must be without reproach, ^{ai}the husband of one wife, ^{aj}temperate, sober-minded, orderly, ^{ak}given to hospitality, ^{al}apt to teach; 3 ^{am}no brawler, ^{an}no striker; but gentle, not contentious, ^{ao}no lover of money; 4 one that ^{ap}ruleth well his own house, having ^{aq}his children in subjection with all gravity; 5 (but if a man knoweth not how to rule his own house, how shall he take care of ^{ar}the church of God?) 6 not a novice, lest being ^{ma}puffed up he fall into the ^{mb}condemnation of the devil. 7 Moreover he must ^{mc}have good testimony from ^{md}them that are without; lest he fall into reproach and ^{me}the snare of the devil. 8 ^{mf}Deacons in like manner must be grave, not double-tongued, ^{mg}not given to much wine, ^{mh}not greedy of filthy lucre; 9 ^{mi}holding the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience. 10 And ^{mj}let these also first be proved; then let them serve as deacons, if they be blameless. 11 Women in like manner must be grave, ^{mk}not slanderers, ^{ml}temperate, faithful in all things. 12 Let ^{mn}deacons be ^{mo}husbands of one wife, ^{mp}ruling their children and their own houses well. 13 For they that have served well as deacons ^{mq}gain to themselves a good standing, and great boldness in the faith which is in Christ Jesus.

14 These things write I unto thee, hoping to come unto thee shortly; 15 but if I tarry long, that thou mayest know ^{na}how men ought to behave themselves in ^{nb}the house of God, which is the ^{nc}church of ndthe living God, the ^{ne}pillar and ^{nf}ground of the truth. 16 And without controversy great is ^{ng}the mystery of godliness; giving heed to ^aseducing spirits and ^bdoctrines of demons, 2 through the hypocrisy of men that speak lies, ^{1c}branded in their own conscience as with a hot iron; 3 ^aforbidding to marry, and ^acommanding ^ato abstain from meats, which ^aGod created to be ^areceived with thanksgiving by them that believe and know the truth. 4 For ^aevery creature of God is good, and nothing is to be rejected, if it be ^areceived with thanksgiving: 5 for it is sanctified through ^athe word of God and prayer.

Pastoral Directions to Timothy: — respecting Himself; respecting Widows; respecting Elders;

6 If thou put ^athe brethren in mind of these things, thou shalt be a good ^aminister of Christ Jesus, nourished in the words of the faith, and of the ^agood doctrine which thou ^ahast followed ^auntil now: 7 but refuse ^aprofane and old wives' ^afables. And exercise thyself unto ^agodliness: 8 for ^abodily exercise is profitable ^afor a little; but ^agodliness is profitable for all things, ^ahaving promise of the life ^awhich now is, and of that which is to come. 9 ^aFaithful is the saying, and worthy of all acceptation. 10 For to this end we labor and strive, because we have ^aour hope set on ^athe living God, who is ^athe Saviour of all men, specially of them that believe. 11 ^aThese things command and teach. 12 ^aLet no man despise thy youth; but be thou ^aan ensample to them that believe, in word, in manner of life, ^ain love, in faith, in purity. 13 ^aTill I come, give heed to ^areading, to exhortation, to teaching. 14 Neglect not the gift that is in thee, which was given thee ^aby prophecy, with the ^alaying on of the hands of the ^apresbytery. 15 Be diligent in these things; give thyself wholly to them; that thy progress may be manifest unto all. 16 ^aTake heed to thyself, and to thy teaching. Continue in these things; for in doing this thou shalt ^asave both thyself and them that hear thee.

5 ^aRebuke not an ^aelder, but exhort him as a father; ^athe younger men as brethren: 2 the elder women as mothers; the younger as sisters, in all purity. 3 Honor widows that are ^awidows indeed. 4 But if any widow hath children or grandchildren, ^alet

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO THE GALATIANS

Salutation. The Galatians' Apostasy surprising. The Gospel I preach came from God; was not learned at Jerusalem;

1 Paul, ^aan apostle (^bnot from men, neither through ¹man, but ^cthrough Jesus Christ, and God the Father, who ^draised him from the dead), ²and all ^ethe brethren that are with me, unto ^fthe churches of Galatia: ³^gGrace to you and peace ²from God the Father, and our Lord Jesus Christ, ⁴who ^hgave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us out of ⁱthis present evil ³world, according to the will of ⁴our God and Father: ⁵^jto whom ^{be}the glory ⁵for ever and ever. Amen.

6 I marvel that ye are ^mso quickly removing from ⁿhim that called you in the grace of Christ unto a ^odifferent ⁶gospel; ⁷⁷which is not another ^pgospel: only there are some that ^qtrouble you, and would pervert the ⁶gospel of Christ. ⁸But though we, or ^qan angel from heaven, should ³preach ⁹unto you any gospel ¹⁰other than that which we ⁸preached unto you, let him be ^ranathema. ⁹As we ⁸have said before, so say I now again, ⁹If any man ⁸preacheth unto you any gospel ¹⁰other than that which ye received, let him be ^ranathema. ¹⁰For am I now ⁸seeking the favor of men, or of God? or am I striving to please men? if I were still pleasing men, I should not be a ¹¹servant of Christ.

11 For ^sI make known to you, brethren, as touching the ⁶gospel which was ³preached by me, that it is ⁹not after man. ¹²For ⁸neither did I receive it from ¹man, nor was I taught it, but ⁱit came to me through ^arevelation of Jesus Christ. ¹³For ye have

and ^aworketh ¹miracles ²among you, doeth he it by the works of the law, or by the ^{3b}hearing of faith? ⁶Even as ^cAbraham ^abelieved God, and it was reckoned unto him for righteousness. ⁷^bKnow therefore that ^athey that are of faith, the same are ^csons of Abraham. ⁸And the scripture, foreseeing that God ⁶would justify the ⁷Gentiles by faith, preached the gospel beforehand unto Abraham, saying, ⁸In thee shall all the nations be blessed. ⁹So then ⁷they that are of faith are blessed with the faithful Abraham. ¹⁰For as many as are of the works of the law are under a curse: for it is written, ⁹Cursed is every one who continueth not in all things that are written in the book of the law, to do them. ¹¹Now that ⁹no man is justified ¹⁰by the law before God, is evident: for, ^{11a}The righteous shall live by faith; ¹²and the law is not of faith; but, ¹²ⁱHe that doeth them shall live in them. ¹³Christ ^kredeemed us from the curse of the law, having become a curse for us; for it is written, ¹³Cursed is every one that hangeth on ^aa tree: ¹⁴that ^mupon the Gentiles might come the blessing of Abraham in Christ Jesus; that we ⁿmight receive ^othe promise of the Spirit through faith.

¹⁵^pBrethren, ^qI speak after the manner of men: ^rThough it be but a man's covenant, yet when it hath been confirmed, no one maketh it void, or addeth thereto. ¹⁶Now ^tto Abraham were the promises spoken, and to his seed. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, ^{14c}And to thy seed, which is Christ. ¹⁷Now this I say: A covenant confirmed beforehand by God, the law, which came ^ufour hundred and thirty years after, doth not disannul, so as to make the promise of none effect. ¹⁸For ^vif the inheritance is of the law, it is no more of promise: but ^wGod hath granted it to Abraham by promise. ¹⁹^xWhat then is the law? It was added because of transgressions, till ^ythe seed should come to whom the promise hath been made; and it was ^aordained through angels ^bby the hand of a mediator. ²⁰Now ^aa mediator is not a mediator of one; but God is one. ²¹Is the law then against the promises of God? ^aGod forbid: for ^aif there had been a law given which could make alive, verily righteousness would have been of the law. ²²But the scripture ⁷shut up all ⁹things under sin, that the promise by faith in Jesus Christ might be given to them that believe.

²³But before faith came, we were kept in ward under the law, ⁷shut up unto the faith which should afterwards be revealed. ²⁴So that the law is become our ^atutor to bring us unto Christ, that ⁱwe might be justified by faith. ²⁵But now that faith is come, we are no longer under a ^atutor. ²⁶For ye are all ^ksons of God, through faith, in ⁱChrist Jesus. ²⁷For as many of you as were ^mbaptized into Christ did ⁿput on Christ. ²⁸^oThere can be neither Jew nor Greek, there can be neither bond nor free, there can be no male and female; for ^pye all are one man in ⁱChrist Jesus. ²⁹And if ^qye are Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, heirs according to ^rpromise.

4 But I say that so long as the heir is a child, he differeth nothing from a bondservant though he is lord of all; ²but is under guardians and stewards until the day appointed of the father. ³So we also, when we were children, were held ^ain bondage under the ¹⁵rudiments of the world: ⁴but when ^uthe fulness of the time came, God sent forth his Son, ^vborn of a woman, born ^zunder the law, ⁵that he might redeem them that were under the law, that we might receive the adoption of ^ksons. ⁶And because ye are sons, ^vGod sent forth the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, crying, ^zAbba, Father. ⁷So that

8 Howbeit at that time, ^bnot knowing God, ye were ^cin bondage to ^athem that by nature are no gods: 9 but now that ye have come to know God, or rather to be ^dknown by God, ^ehow turn ye back again to the weak and beggarly ^frudiments, whereunto ye desire to be ^cin bondage over again? 10 Ye ^hobserve days, and months, and seasons, and years. 11 I am afraid of you, lest by any means I have bestowed labor upon you in vain.

12 I beseech you, ⁱbrethren, ^kbecome as I am, for I also am become as ye are. Ye did me no wrong: 13 but ye know that because of an infirmity of the flesh I ^lpreached the gospel unto you the ^mfirst time: 14 and that which was a temptation to you in my flesh ye despised not, nor ⁿrejected; but ^oye received me as an angel of God, even as ^pChrist Jesus. 15 Where then is that gratulation ^qof yourselves? for I bear you witness, that, if possible, ye would have plucked out your eyes and given them to me. 16 So then am I become your enemy, ^rby telling you the truth? 17 They zealously seek you in no good way; nay, they desire to shut you out, that ye may seek them. 18 But it is good to be zealously sought in a good matter at all times, and ^snot only when I am present with you. 19 ^tMy little children, of whom ^uI am again in travail until ^vChrist be formed in you—20 but I could wish to be present with you now, and to change my tone; for ^wI am perplexed about you.

21 Tell me, ye that desire to be under the law, do ye not ^xhear the law? 22 For it is written, ^ythat Abraham had two sons, one by the handmaid, and one by the free-woman. 23 ^zHowbeit ^{aa}the son by the handmaid is born after the flesh; but ^{ab}the son by the free-woman is ^{ac}born through promise. 24 Which things ^{ad}contain an allegory: for these ^{ae}women are two covenants; one from ^{af}mount Sinai, bearing children unto ^{ag}bondage, which is Hagar. 25 ^aNow this Hagar is mount Sinai in Arabia, and answereth to the Jerusalem that now is: for she is in bondage with her children. 26 But ^bthe Jerusalem that is above is free, which is our mother. 27 For it is written,

For more are the children of the desolate than of her that hath the husband.

28 Now ^dwe, brethren, ^eas Isaac was, are ^fchildren of promise. 29 But as then ^ghe that was born after the flesh ^hpersecuted him that was born after the Spirit, ⁱso also it is now. 30 Howbeit what saith the scripture? ^jCast out the handmaid and her son: for ^kthe son of the handmaid shall not inherit with the son of the freewoman. 31 Wherefore, brethren, we are not children of a handmaid, but of the freewoman.

5 ^aFor freedom did Christ set us free: ^bstand fast therefore, and be not entangled again in a ^cyoke of bondage.

2 Behold, ^dI Paul say unto you, that, if ye receive ^ecircumcision, Christ will profit you nothing. 3 Yea, I ^ftestify again to every man that receiveth ^gcircumcision, that he is a debtor to ^hdo the whole law.

5 For we through the Spirit by faith ^kwait for the hope of righteousness. 6 For in ^lChrist Jesus ^mneither circumcision availeth anything, nor uncircumcision; but ⁿfaith ^oworking through love.

7 Ye were ^prunning well; who hindered you that ye should not obey the truth? 8 This persuasion ^qcame not of ^rhim that calleth you. 9 ^sA little leaven leaveneth the whole lump. 10 ^tI have confidence to you-ward in the Lord,

The Spirit and the Flesh contrary the One to the Other. Exhortation to Forbearance and Helpfulness

that ye ^awill be none otherwise minded: but he that ^btroubleth you shall bear his judgment, whosoever he be. 11 But I, brethren, if I still preach circumcision, why am I still ^cpersecuted? then hath ^dthe stumbling-block of the cross been done away. 12 I would that ^ethey that unsettle you would even ^fgo beyond circumcision.

13 For ye, brethren, were called for ^gfreedom; ^honly use not your freedom for an occasion to the flesh, but through love ⁱbe servants one to another. 14 For ^kthe whole law is fulfilled in one word, even in this: ^lThou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. 15 But if ye ^mbite and devour one another, take heed that ye be not consumed one of another.

16 But I say, ⁿWalk by the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfil ^othe lust of the flesh. 17 For ^pthe flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh; for these are contrary the one to the other; ^qthat ye may not do the things that ye would. 18 But if ye are ^rled by the Spirit, ^sye are not under the law. 19 Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are ^tthese: ^ufornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness, 20 idolatry, ^vsorcery, enmities, ^wstrife, jealousies, wraths, ^xfactions, divisions, ^yparties, 21 envyings, ^zdrunkenness, revellings, and such like; of which I ^{aa}forewarn you, even as I did ^{ab}forewarn you, that they who practise such things shall not ^{ac}inherit the kingdom of God. 22 But ^{ad}the fruit of the Spirit is ^{ae}love, joy, peace, longsuffering, kindness, goodness, ^{af}faithfulness, 23 meekness, ^{ag}self-control; against such ^{ah}there is no law. 24 And they that are of ^{ai}Christ Jesus have ^{aj}crucified the flesh with the passions and ^{ak}the lusts thereof.

25 If we live by the Spirit, ^{al}by the Spirit let us also walk. 26 Let us not become ^{am}vainglorious, ^{an}provoking one another, envying one another.

6 ^{ao}Brethren, even if a man be overtaken ^{ap}in any trespass, ye who are ^{aq}spiritual, ^{ar}restore such a one ^{as}in a spirit of gentleness; looking to thyself, lest thou also be tempted. 2 ^{at}Bear ye one an-

6 But ^{bc}let him that is taught in ^{bd}the word communicate unto him that teacheth in all good things. 7 ^{be}Be not deceived; ^{bf}God is not mocked: for ^{bg}whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap. 8 ^{bh}For he that soweth unto his own flesh shall of the flesh reap ^{bi}corruption; but ^{bj}he that soweth unto the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap eternal life. 9 And ^{bk}let us not ^{bl}be weary in well-doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we ^{bm}faint not. 10 So then, ^{bn}as we have opportunity, let us work that which is good toward all men, and especially toward them that are of the ^{bo}household of ^{bp}the faith.

Domestic Duties : — Wives and Husbands, Children and Parents, Servants and Masters. "Put on the Armor of God"

Lord is. 18 And ^abe not drunken with wine, wherein is ^briot, but be ^cfilled ¹with the Spirit; 19 ^dspeaking ²one to another in ^epsalms and ^fhymns and spiritual ^gsongs, ^hsinging and making melody with your heart to the Lord; 20 ⁱgiving thanks always for all things in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ to ^kGod, even the Father; 21 ^lsubmitting yourselves one to another in the ^mfear of Christ.

22 ⁿWives, ^obe in subjection unto your own husbands, ^pas unto the Lord. 23 For ^qthe husband is the head of the wife, as Christ also is the ^rhead of the church, being himself ^sthe saviour of the body. 24 But as the church is subject to Christ, ^tso let the wives also be to their husbands in everything. 25 ^uHusbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church, and ^vgave himself up for it; 26 ^wthat he might sanctify it, having ^xcleansed it by the ^ywashing of water with ^zthe word, 27 that he might ^apresent the church to himself a glorious church, not having spot or wrinkle or any such thing; but that it should be ^bholy and without blemish. 28 Even so ought husbands also to ^clove their own wives as their own bodies. He that loveth his own wife loveth himself: 29 for no man ever hated his own flesh; but nourisheth and cherisheth it, even as Christ also the church; 30 because we are ^dmembers of his ^ebody. 31 ^fFor this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife; and the two shall become one flesh. 32 This mystery is great; but I speak in regard of Christ and of the church. 33 Nevertheless do ye also severally ^glove each one his own wife even as himself; and let the wife see that she ^hfeels her husband.

6 ⁱChildren, obey your parents in the Lord: for this is right. 2 ^jHonor thy father and mother (which is the first commandment with promise), 3 that it may be well with thee, and thou ^kmayest live long on the ^learth. 4 And, ye ^mfathers, provoke not your children to wrath: but ⁿnurture them

1 ^aPaul and ^bTimothy, ^{1c}servants of ^aChrist Jesus, to ^aall the ^ssaints in Christ Jesus that are at ^aPhilippi, with the ^{2b}bishops and ^ddeacons: ²^aGrace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 ⁴I thank my God upon all my remembrance of you, ⁴always ^min every supplication of mine on behalf of you all making my supplication with joy, ⁵for your ⁿfellowship in furtherance of the ^{3o}gospel ^pfrom the first day until now; ⁶being confident of this very thing, that he who began a good work in you will perfect it unto ^{the} day of Jesus Christ: ⁷even as ^rit is right for me to be thus minded on behalf of you all, because ¹I ^shave you in my heart, inasmuch as, both in ^emy bonds and in the ^edefence and confirmation of the ^{3o}gospel, ye all are partakers with me of grace. ⁸For ^eGod is my witness, how I long after you all in the tender mercies of ^aChrist Jesus. ⁹And this I pray, that ^ryour love may abound yet more and more in ⁿknowledge and all discernment; ¹⁰so that ye may ⁵²approve the things that are excellent; that ye may be sincere and void of offence unto ^athe day of Christ; ¹¹being filled with the ^{6a}fruits of righteousness, which are through Jesus Christ, unto the glory and praise of God.

Sundry Exhortations: to Lowliness of Mind — the Mind of Christ; to Zeal and Blamelessness. Commendation of Jesus in me through my presence with you again. 27 Only ¹ let your manner of life be ^a worthy of the ^{2b} gospel of Christ: that, whether I come and see you or be absent, I may hear of your state, that ye ^c stand fast in ^d one spirit, with one soul ^e striving ³ for the faith of the ² gospel; 28 and in nothing affrighted by the adversaries: which is for them ^f an evident token of perdition, but of your salvation, and that from God; 29 because to you ^g it hath been granted in the behalf of Christ, not only to believe on him, but also to ^h suffer in his behalf: 30 having the same ⁱ conflict which ^k ye saw in me, and now hear to be in me.

2 If there is therefore any exhortation in Christ, if any ^a consolation of love, if any ^b fellowship of the Spirit, if any ^c tender mercies and compassions, 2 ^d make full my joy, that ye ^e be of the same mind, having the same love, being of one accord, ^f of one mind; 3 ^g doing nothing through ^h faction or through ⁱ vainglory, but in lowliness of mind ^j each counting other better than himself; 4 ^k not looking each of you to his own things, but each of you also to the things of others. 5 ^l Have this mind in you, which was also in ^m Christ Jesus: 6 who, ⁿ existing in the ^o form of God, ^p counted not the being on an equality with God a thing to be grasped, 7 but ^q emptied himself, taking the form of a ^r servant, ^s being made in the likeness of men; 8 and being found in fashion as a man, ^t he humbled himself, becoming ^u obedient even unto death, yea, the ^v death of the cross. 9 ^w Wherefore also God ^x highly exalted him, and gave unto him ^y the name which is above every name; 10 that in the name of Jesus ^z every knee should bow, of ^a things in heaven and ^b things on earth, 11 and that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is ^c Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

12 So then, my beloved, ^d even as ye have always obeyed, not ^e as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own ^a salvation with ^b fear and trembling; 13 for it is ^c God who worketh in you both to will and to work, ^d for his good pleasure. 14 Do all things without ^e murmurings and questionings; 15 that ye may become ^f blameless and harmless, ^g children of God without blemish in the midst of a ^h crooked and perverse generation, among whom ye ⁱ are seen as ^j lights in the world, 16 holding forth the word of life; that I may have whereof to glory in ^k the day of Christ, that I did not ^l run in vain neither ^m labor in vain. 17 Yea, and if I am ⁿ offered upon ^o the sacrifice and service of your faith, I joy, and rejoice with you all: 18 and in the same manner do ye also joy, and rejoice with me.

19 But I hope in the Lord Jesus to ^a send ^b Timothy shortly unto you, that I also may be of good comfort, when I know your state. 20 For I have no man ^c likeminded, who will care ^d truly for your state. 21 For they all ^e seek their own, not the things of Jesus Christ. 22 But ye know ^f the proof of him that, ^g as a child ^h serveth a father, so ⁱ he served with me in furtherance of the ^j gospel. 23 ^k Him therefore I hope to send forthwith, so soon as I shall see how it will go with me: 24 but ^l I trust in the Lord that I myself also shall come shortly. 25 But I counted it necessary to send to you ^m Epaphroditus, my brother and ⁿ fellow-worker and ^o fellow-soldier, and your ^p messenger and ^q minister to my need; 26 since he longed ^r after you all, and was sore troubled, because ye had heard that he was sick: 27 for indeed he was sick nigh unto death: but God had mercy on him; and not on him only, but on me also, that I might not have sorrow upon sorrow. 28 I have sent him therefore the more diligently, that, when ye see him again, ye may rejoice, and that I may be the less sorrowful. 29 ^aReceive him therefore in the Lord with all joy; and ^bhold such in honor: 30 because ^cfor the work of ¹Christ he came nigh unto death, hazarding his life to ^dsupply that which was lacking in your service toward me.

3 Finally, my brethren, ^erejoice in the Lord. 17 Brethren, be ye ^rimitators together of me, and mark them that so walk even as ye have us for an ^sensample. 18 For ^tmany walk, of whom I told you often, and now tell you even ^uweeping, that they are the enemies of ^vthe cross of Christ: 19 whose end is perdition, whose god is ^zthe belly, and ^{aa}whose ^{ab}glory is in their shame, who ^{ac}mind earthly things. 20 For ^{ad}our ^{ae}citizenship is in heaven; whence also we ^{af}wait for a Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ: 21 who shall ^{ag}fashion anew the body of our humiliation, that it may be ^{ah}conformed to the ^{ai}body of his glory, ^{aj}according to the working whereby he is able even to ^{ak}subject all things unto himself.

Salutation. Thanksgiving for their Attainments and Prayer for their Progress. The Preëminence of the Son which ye heard, which was preached ^ain all creation under heaven; ^bwhereof I Paul was made a ^cminister.

24 ^aNow I rejoice in my sufferings for your sake, and ^efill up on my part that which is lacking of the afflictions of Christ in my flesh for ^fhis body's sake, which is the church; 25 ^gwhereof I was made a minister, according to the ^hdispensation of God which was given me to you-ward, to fulfil the word of God, 26 ⁱeven ^jthe mystery which hath been hid ^kfor ages and generations: but now hath it been manifested to his saints, 27 to whom ^lGod was pleased to make known what is ^mthe riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles, which is ⁿChrist in you, the ^ohope of glory: 28 whom we proclaim, ^padmonishing every man and teaching every man in all ^qwisdom, that we may ^rpresent every man ^sperfect in Christ; 29 whereunto I ^tlabor also, ^ustriving ^vaccording to his working, which worketh in me ^wmightily.

2 For I would have you know how greatly I ^xstrive for you, and for them at ^yLaodicea, and for as many as have not seen my face in the flesh; 2 that their ^zhearts may be comforted, they being ^{aa}knit together in love, and unto all ^{ab}riches of the ^{ac}full assurance of understanding, that they ^{ad}may know ^{ae}the mystery of God, ^{af}even Christ, 3 in whom are all ^{ag}the treasures of wisdom and knowledge hidden. 4 ^{ah}This I say, that no one may delude you with ^{ai}persuasiveness of speech. 5 For though I am ^{aj}absent in the flesh, yet am I with you in the spirit, joying and beholding your ^{ak}order, and the ^{al}steadfastness of your faith in Christ.

6 As therefore ye received ^{am}Christ Jesus the Lord, so ^{an}walk in him, 7 ^{ao}rooted and ^{ap}built up in him, and ^{aq}established ^{ar}in your faith, even as ye ^{as}were taught, abounding ^{at}in thanksgiving.

1 ^aPaul, and ^bSilvanus, and ^cTimothy, unto the ^dchurch of the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ: ^eGrace to you and peace.

2 ^fWe give thanks to God always for you all, ^gmaking mention of you in our prayers; 3 remembering without ceasing your ^hwork of faith and labor of ⁱlove and ^jpatience of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ, before ^kour God and Father; 4 knowing, ^lbrethren beloved of God, ^myour election, 5 ⁿhow that our ^ogospel came not unto you in word only, but also ^pin power, and in the Holy Spirit, and in much ^qassurance; even as ye know ^rwhat manner of men we showed ourselves toward you for your sake. 6 And ye became ^simitators of us, and of the Lord, ^thaving received ^uthe word in much affliction, with ^vjoy of the Holy Spirit; 7 so that ye became an ensample to all that believe in ^wMacedonia and in ^xAchaia. 8 For from you hath ^ysounded forth ^zthe word of the Lord, not only in ^{aa}Macedonia and ^{ab}Achaia, but ^{ac}in every place your faith to God-ward is gone forth; so that we need not to speak anything. 9 For they themselves report concerning us what manner of ^{ad}entering in we had unto you; and how ye ^{ae}turned unto God ^{af}from idols, to serve a ^{ag}living and true God, 10 and to ^{ah}wait for his Son from heaven, whom he ^{ai}raised from the dead, even Jesus, who ^{aj}delivereth us from ^{ak}the wrath to come.

13 And for this cause we also ^athank God without ceasing, that, when ye received from us ^{2c}the word of the message, even the word of God, ye accepted it ^dnot as the word of men, but, as it is in truth, the word of God, ^ewhich also worketh in you that believe. 14 For ye, brethren, became ^fimitators of ^gthe churches of God which are ^hin Judæa in Christ Jesus: for ⁱye also suffered the same things of your own countrymen, ^jeven as they did of the Jews; 15 ^kwho both killed the Lord Jesus and ^lthe prophets, and drove out us, and please not God, and are contrary to all men; 16 ^mforbidding us to speak to the Gentiles ⁿthat they may be saved; to ^ofill up their sins always: but the ^pwrath is come upon them to the uttermost.

17 But we, brethren, being bereaved of you for ^qa short season, ^rin presence not in heart, endeavored the more exceedingly ^sto see your face with great desire: 18 because ^twe would fain have come unto you, I Paul ^uonce and again; and ^vSatan ^whindered us. 19 For what is our hope, or ^xjoy, or crown of glorying? Are not even ye, before our Lord Jesus at his ^ycoming? 20 For ye are ^zour glory and our joy.

3 Wherefore ^awhen we could no longer forbear, we thought it good to be left behind at ^bAthens alone; 2 and sent ^cTimothy, our brother and ^dGod's minister in the ^egospel of Christ, to establish you, and to comfort ^fyou concerning your faith; 3 that no man be moved by these afflictions; for yourselves know that ^ghereunto we are appointed. 4 For verily, when we were with you, we told you ^hbeforehand that we are to suffer affliction; ⁱeven as it came to pass, and ye know. 5 For this cause I also, ^jwhen I could no longer forbear, ^ksent that I might know your faith, lest by any means ^lthe tempter had tempted you, and ^mour labor should be in vain. 6 But when ⁿTimothy came even now unto us from you, and brought us glad tidings of ^ayour faith and love, and that ye have ^bgood remembrance of us always, longing to see us, even as we also to ^csee you; 7 for this cause, brethren, we were comforted over you in all our distress and affliction through your faith: 8 for now we live, if ye ^dstand fast in the Lord. 9 For ^ewhat thanksgiving can we render again unto God for you, for all the joy wherewith we joy for your sakes before our God; 10 ^fnight and day praying exceedingly that we may ^gsee your face, and may ^hperfect that which is lacking in your faith?

all ¹power and ^asigns and lying wonders, 10 and with all deceit of unrighteousness for ^bthem that ^cperish; because they received not the love of ^cthe truth, that they might be saved. 11 And for this cause ^aGod sendeth them a working of ^cerror, that they should believe a lie: 12 that they all might be judged who ^cbelieved not the truth, but ^bhad pleasure in unrighteousness.

13 ^aBut we are bound to give thanks to God always for you, ^bbrethren beloved of the Lord, for that ^aGod chose you ³from the beginning ¹unto salvation ^min sanctification of the Spirit and ^abelief of the truth: 14 whereunto he ^ccalled you through ^bour ^bgospel, to the obtaining of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. 15 So then, brethren, ²stand fast, and ^ahold the traditions which ye were taught, whether ^bby word, or ^bby epistle of ours.

16 ^aNow our Lord Jesus Christ ^chimself, and God our Father who ^aloved us and gave us eternal comfort and ^agood hope through grace, 17 ^acomfort your hearts and ^aestablish them in every good work and word.

3 ^aFinally, ^abrethren, ^bpray for us, that ^cthe word of the Lord may run and be glorified, even as also it is with you; 2 and that we may be ^adelivered from unreasonable and evil men; for all have not faith. 3 But ^cthe Lord is faithful, who shall establish you, and guard you from ⁶the evil one. 4 And we have ^aconfidence in the Lord touching you, that ye both ^bdo and will do the things which we command. 5 And the Lord ^adirect your hearts into the love of God, and into the ⁷patience of Christ.

ren. ^ain the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye ^bwithdraw yourselves from every brother that walketh ^mdisorderly, and not after ^athe tradition which ^athey received of us. 7 For yourselves know how ye ought to ^aimitate us: for we behaved not ourselves disorderly among you; 8 neither did we ^aeat bread for nought at any man's hand, but in ²labor and travail, ^aworking night and day, that we might not burden any of you: 9 not because we have not ^athe right, but to make ourselves ^aan ensample unto you, that ye should imitate us. 10 For even ^awhen we were with you, this we commanded you, ^aIf any will not work, neither let him eat. 11 For we hear of some that ^awalk among you disorderly, that work not at all, but are ^abusybodies. 12 Now them that are such we command and ^aexhort in the Lord Jesus Christ, that with ^aquietness they work, and eat their own bread. 13 But ye, ^abrethren, ^bbe not weary in well-doing. 14 And if any man obeyeth not our word by ^cthis epistle, note that man, that ye ^ahave no company with him, to the end that he may be ^aashamed. 15 And yet ^acount him not an enemy, but ^aadmonish him as ^aa brother.

Salutation. Charge respecting Misuse of the Law. Personal Thanksgiving. The Charge reënforced

1 Paul, ^aan apostle of ^bChrist Jesus ^caccording to the commandment of ^dGod our Saviour, and ^eChrist Jesus our ^fhope; 2 unto ^gTimothy, ^hmy true child in faith: ⁱGrace, mercy, peace, from God the Father and ^jChrist Jesus our Lord.

3 As I exhorted thee to tarry at ^kEphesus, when I was going into ^lMacedonia, that thou mightest charge certain men not to ^mteach a different doctrine, ⁿ4 neither to give heed to ^ofables and endless ^pgenealogies, which minister ^qquestionings, rather than ^ra ^sdispensation of God which is in faith; so do I now. 5 But the end of the ^tcharge is love ^uout of a pure heart and a ^vgood conscience and ^wfaith unfeigned: ^x6 from which things some having ^yswerved have turned aside unto ^zvain talking; 7 ^{aa}desiring to be ^{ab}teachers of the law, though they understand neither what they say, nor whereof they confidently affirm. 8 But we know that ^{ac}the law is good, if a man use it lawfully, 9 as knowing this, that ^{ad}law is not made for a righteous man, but for the lawless and ^{ae}unruly, for the ^{af}ungodly and sinners, for the unholy and ^{ag}profane, for ^{ah}murderers of fathers and ^{ai}murderers of mothers, for manslayers, ^{aj}10 ^{ak}for fornicators, for ^{al}abusers of themselves with men, for ^{am}men-stealers, for ^{an}liars, for ^{ao}false swearers, and if there be any other thing contrary to ^{ap}the ^{aq}sound doctrine; 11 according to ^{ar}the ^{as}gospel of the glory of ^{at}the blessed God, which was ^{au}committed to my trust.

12 I thank him that ^{av}enabled me, even ^{aw}Christ Jesus our Lord, for that he counted me faithful, ^{ax}appointing me to ^{ay}his service; 13

prayers, intercessions, thanksgivings, be made for all men; 2^a for kings and all that are in high place; that we may lead a tranquil and quiet life in all godliness and gravity. 3 This is good and acceptable in the sight of ^bGod our Saviour; 4^c who would have all men to be ^asaved, and ^ccome to the knowledge of the truth. 5 For there is ^cone God, ^cone mediator also between God and men, ^bhimself ^aman, Christ Jesus, 6 who ^agave himself a ransom for all; the ^atestimony to be borne ^cin its own times; 7^m whereunto I was appointed a ^apreacher and ^aan apostle (^cI speak the truth, I lie not), a teacher of ^athe Gentiles in faith and truth.

8 I ^adesire therefore that the men pray ^cin every place, ^alifting up ^choly hands, without wrath and ^adisputing. 9 In like manner, that ^awomen adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamefastness and sobriety; not with braided hair, and gold or pearls or costly raiment; 10 but (which becometh women professing godliness) through good works. 11 ^aLet a woman learn in quietness with all subjection. 12 ^aBut I permit not a woman to teach, nor to have dominion over a man, but to be in quietness. 13 ^aFor Adam was first formed, then Eve; 14 and Adam was not beguiled, but ^athe woman being beguiled hath fallen into transgression: 15 but she shall be saved through ^aher child-bearing, if they continue in ^afaith and love and sanctification with sobriety.

3^a Faithful is the saying, If a man seeketh the ^boffice of a ^bbishop, he desireth a good work. 2^a The ^bbishop therefore must be without reproach, ^athe husband of one wife, ^atemperate, sober-minded, orderly, ^agiven to hospitality, ^aapt to teach; 3^a ^ano brawler, no striker; but gentle, not contentious, ^ano lover of money; 4 one that ^aruleth well his own house, having ^ahis children in subjection with all gravity; 5 (but if a man knoweth not how to rule his own house, how shall he take care of ^athe church of God?) 6 not a novice, giving heed to ^aseducing spirits and ^bdoctrines of demons, 2 through the hypocrisy of men that speak lies, ^{1c}branded in their own conscience as with a hot iron; 3 ^aforbidding to marry, and ^acommanding ^ato abstain from meats, which ^aGod created to be ^areceived with thanksgiving by them that believe and know the truth. 4 For ^aevery creature of God is good, and nothing is to be rejected, if it be ^areceived with thanksgiving: 5 for it is sanctified through ^athe word of God and prayer.

6 If thou put ^athe brethren in mind of these things, thou shalt be a good ^aminister of Christ Jesus, nourished in the words of the faith, and of the ^agood doctrine which thou ^ahast followed ^auntil now: 7 but refuse ^aprofane and old wives' ^afables. And exercise thyself unto ^agodliness: 8 for ^abodily exercise is profitable ^afor a little; but ^agodliness is profitable for all things, ^ahaving promise of the life ^awhich now is, and of that which is to come. 9 ^aFaithful is the saying, and worthy of all acceptance. 10 For to this end we labor and strive, because we have ^aour hope set on ^athe living God, who is ^athe Saviour of all men, specially of them that believe. 11 ^aThese things command and teach. 12 ^aLet no man despise thy youth; but be thou ^aan ensample to them that believe, in word, in manner of life, ^ain love, in faith, in purity. 13 ^aTill I come, give heed to ^areading, to exhortation, to teaching. 14 Neglect not the gift that is in thee, which was given thee ^aby prophecy, with the ^alaying on of the hands of the ^apresbytery. 15 Be diligent in these things; give thyself wholly to them; that thy progress may be manifest unto all. 16 ^aTake heed to thyself, and to thy teaching. Continue in these things; for in doing this thou shalt ^asave both thyself and them that hear thee.

5 ^aRebuke not an ^aelder, but exhort him as a father; ^athe younger men as brethren: 2 the elder women as mothers; the younger as sisters, in all purity. 3 Honor widows that are ^awidows indeed. 4 But if any widow hath children or grandchildren, ^alet shalt not muzzle the ox when he treadeth out the corn. And, ^aThe laborer is worthy of his hire. 19 Against an ^belder receive not an accusation, except at the mouth of ^ctwo or three witnesses. 20 Them that sin ^dreprove in the sight of all, ^ethat the rest also may be in fear. 21 ^fI charge thee in the sight of God, and Christ Jesus, and the elect angels, that thou observe these things without ^gprejudice, doing nothing by partiality. 22 ^hLay hands hastily on no man, neither be ⁱpartaker of other men's sins: keep thyself pure. 23 Be no longer a drinker of water, but ^juse a little wine for thy stomach's sake and thine often infirmities. 24 Some men's sins are evident, going before unto judgment; and some men also they ^kfollow after. 25 In like manner also ^lthere are good works that are evident; and ^msuch as are otherwise cannot be hid.

6 ⁿLet as many as are ^oservants under the yoke count their own masters worthy of all honor, ^pthat the name of God and the doctrine be not blasphemed. 2 And they that have believing masters, let them not despise them, because they are ^qbrethren; but let them serve them the rather, because they that ^rpartake of the benefit are believing and beloved. ^sThese things teach and exhort.

3 If any man ^tteacheth a different doctrine, and consenteth not to ^usound words, even the words of our Lord Jesus Christ, and to the doctrine which is ^vaccording to godliness; 4 he is ^wpuffed up, knowing nothing, but ^xdoting about ^yquestionings and ^zdisputes of words, whereof cometh envy, strife, railings, ^{aa}evil surmising, ^{ab}wranglings of ^{ac}men corrupted in mind and bereft of the truth, ^{ad}supposing that godliness is a way of gain. 6 ^{ae}But godliness with ^{af}contentment ^{ag}is great gain: 7 for ^{ah}we brought nothing into the world, for neither can we carry anything out; 8 but ^{ai}having food and covering ^{aj}we shall be therewith content. 9 ^{ak}But they that are minded to be rich fall into a temptation and ^{al}a snare and many

11 But thou, O ^{aq}man of God, ^{ar}flee these things; and follow after ^{as}righteousness, godliness, ^{at}faith, ^{au}love, ^{av}patience, meekness. 12 ^{aw}Fight the good fight of ^{ax}the faith, ^{ay}lay hold on the life eternal, ^{az}whereunto thou wast called, and didst confess the good ^{ba}confession in the sight of ^{bb}many witnesses. 13 ^{bc}I charge thee in the sight of God, who ^{bd}giveth life to all things, and of ^{be}Christ Jesus, who ^{bf}before Pontius Pilate witnessed ^{bg}the good confession; 14 that thou keep the commandment, without spot, without reproach, until the ^{bh}appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ: 15 which in ^{bi}its own times he shall show, who is ^{bj}the blessed and ^{bk}only Potentate, ^{bl}the ^{bm}King of ^{bn}kings, and ^{bo}Lord of ^{bp}lords; 16 ^{bq}who only hath immortality, ^{br}dwelling in light unapproachable; ^{bs}whom no man hath seen, nor can see: ^{bt}to whom ^{bu}be honor and power eternal. THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL TO TIMOTHY

1 Paul, ^aan apostle of ^bChrist Jesus ^cthrough the will of God, according to the promise of ^athe life which is in Christ Jesus, 2 to ^cTimothy, my beloved ^dchild: ^eGrace, mercy, peace, from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

3 ^aI thank God, whom I ^cserve from my forefathers in a ^bpure conscience, ^dhow unceasing is my remembrance of thee in my supplications, night and day 4 ^mlonging to see thee, ⁿremembering thy tears, that I may be filled with ^ljoy; 5 having been reminded of ^othe unfeigned faith that is in thee; which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lois, and ^pthy mother Eunice; and, I am persuaded, in thee also. 6 For which cause I put thee in remembrance that thou ²stir up ^qthe gift of God, which is in thee through the ^rlaying on of my hands. 7 For God gave us not ^aa spirit of fearfulness; but of power and love and ^sdiscipline. 8 ^aBe not ashamed therefore of ^tthe testimony of our Lord, nor of me ^uhis prisoner: but ^vsuffer hardship with the ^xgospel according to the power of God; 9 who ^vsaved us, and ^wcalled us with a holy ^xcalling, ^ynot according to our works, but according to his own ^zpurpose and grace, which was given us in ^aChrist Jesus ^bbefore ^ctimes eternal, 10 but ^dhath now been manifested by the ^eappearing of our Saviour ^fChrist Jesus, who ^gabolished death, and brought life and ^himmortality to light through the ⁱgospel, 11 ^jwhereunto I was appointed a ^kpreacher, and an apostle, and a teacher. 12 For which cause I suffer also these things: yet ^kI am not ashamed; for I know him

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO TITUS

Salutation. Qualifications of an Elder. Disorderly Teachers to be reprov'd. Duties of the Aged, the Young, etc.

1 Paul, ^a a 'servant of God, and ^b an apostle of Jesus Christ, according to the faith of ^c God's elect, and ^d the knowledge of the truth which is ^e according to godliness, ^f 2 in ^g hope of eternal life, which God, ^h who cannot lie, ⁱ promised ^j before ^k times eternal; ^l 3 but in ^m his own seasons manifested his word in ⁿ the ^o message, ^p wherewith I was intrusted ^q according to the commandment of ^r God our Saviour; ^s 4 to ^t Titus, ^u my true child after ^v a common faith: ^w Grace and peace from God the Father and ^x Christ Jesus our Saviour.

^y 5 For this cause left I thee in ^z Crete, that thou shouldest set in order the things that were wanting, and ^{aa} appoint ^{ab} elders in every city, as I gave thee charge; ^{ac} 6 if any man is blameless, the ^{ad} husband of one wife, having children that believe, who are not accused of ^{ae} riot or ^{af} unruly. ^{ag} 7 For ^{ah} the ^{ai} bishop must be blameless, as ^{aj} God's steward; not ^{ak} self-willed, not soon angry, ^{al} no brawler, no striker, ^{am} not greedy of filthy lucre; ^{an} 8 but ^{ao} given to hospitality, ^{ap} a lover of good, sober-minded, just, holy, self-controlled; ^{aq} 9 ^{ar} holding to the faithful word which is according to the teaching, that he may be able both to exhort in ^{as} the ^{at} sound ^{au} doctrine, and to convict the gainsayers.

^{av} 10 ^{aw} For there are many ^{ax} unruly men, ^{ay} vain talkers and deceivers, specially ^{az} they of the circumcision, ^{ba} 11 whose mouths must be stopped; men who overthrow whole ^{bb} houses, teaching ^{bc} things which they ought not, ^{bd} for filthy lucre's sake. ^{be} 12 ^{bf} One of themselves, a prophet of their own, said,

9 Exhort ¹servants to be in subjection to their own masters, and to be well-pleasing to them in all things; not gainsaying; 10 not purloining, but showing all good fidelity; that they may adorn the doctrine of ²God our Saviour in all things. 11 For the grace of God ³hath appeared, ⁴bringing salvation to all men, 12 instructing us, to the intent that, denying ungodliness and ⁵worldly lusts, ⁶we should live soberly and righteously and godly in ⁷this present ⁸world; 13 looking for the blessed hope and ⁹appearing of the glory of ¹⁰the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ; 14 who ¹¹gave himself for us, ¹²that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and ¹³purify unto himself a ¹⁴people for his own possession, ¹⁵zealous of good works.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO PHILEMON

Salutation. Thanksgiving for Philemon's Love and Fellowship. Onesimus no longer a Servant. Benediction

1 ^aPaul, ^ba prisoner of ^cChrist Jesus, and ^dTimothy ¹our brother, to Philemon our beloved and ^e fellow-worker, 2 and to Apphia ²our sister, and to ³Archippus our ⁴ fellow-soldier, and to ⁵the church in thy house: 3 ^kGrace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

4 ¹I thank my God always, ^mmaking mention of thee in my prayers, 5 ⁿhearing of ³thy love, and of the faith which thou hast toward the Lord Jesus, and toward all the saints; 6 that the fellowship of thy faith may become effectual, in the ^oknowledge of every good thing which is in ⁴you, unto Christ. 7 For I had much ^pjoy and comfort in thy love, because the hearts of the saints have been ^rrefreshed through thee, brother.

8 Wherefore, ^rthough I have all boldness in Christ to enjoin thee that which is ^sbefitting, 9 yet for love's sake I rather ^tbeseech, being such a one as Paul ⁵the ^uaged, and now ^aa prisoner also of ^cChrist Jesus: 10 I ^tbeseech thee for my ^zchild, whom I have begotten in my bonds, ⁶Onesimus, 11 who once was unprofitable to thee, but now is profitable to thee and to me: 12 whom I have sent back to thee in his own person, that is, my very heart: 13 whom I would fain have kept with me, that in thy behalf he might minister unto me in the ^zbonds of the ⁷gospel: 14 but without thy mind I would do nothing;

THE EPISTLE TO THE HEBREWS

God's Final Word spoken through his Son, who is superior to the Angels and more to be heeded

1 God, having of old time ^aspoken unto the fathers in ^bthe prophets by divers portions and ^cin divers manners, 2 hath ^dat the end of these days ^espoken unto us in ^fhis Son, whom he appointed ^gheir of all things, ^hthrough whom also he made the ⁱworlds; 3 who being the ^jeffulgence of his glory, and ^kthe very ^limage of his substance, and ^mupholding all things by the word of his power, when he had made ⁿpurification of sins, ^osat down on the right hand of the ^pMajesty on high; 4 having become by so much better than the angels, as he hath inherited a more excellent ^qname than they. 5 For unto which of the angels said he at any time,

^rThou art my Son,
This day have I begotten thee?
and again,

^sI will be to him a Father,
And he shall be to me a Son?

6 And when he again ^tbringeth in the firstborn into ^uthe world he saith, ^vAnd let all the angels of God worship him. 7 And of the angels he saith,

And his ministers a flame of fire:

8 but of the Son ^xhe saith,

^yThy ^zthrone, O God, is for ever and ever;

And the sceptre of uprightness is the sceptre of ^{aa}thy kingdom.

9 Thou hast loved righteousness, and hated iniquity;

^{ab}Therefore God, thy God, hath ^{ac}anointed thee

With the oil of gladness above thy fellows.

As a garment, and they shall be changed:

But thou art ^{cc}the same, And thy years shall not fail.

13 But of which of the angels hath he said at any time,

14 Are they not all ^{cf}ministering spirits, sent forth to do service for the sake of them that shall ^{cg}inherit

2 Therefore we ought to give the more earnest heed to the things that were heard, lest haply

5 For not unto angels did he subject ^{1a}the world to come, whereof we speak. 6 But one hath ^osomewhere ^ctestified, saying,

²What is man, that thou art mindful of him?

Or the son of man, that thou visitest him?

For in that he subjected all things unto him, he left nothing that is not subject to him. But now ^cwe

^hcrowned with glory and honor, that ⁱby the grace of God he whom are all things, and ⁿthrough whom are all things, ^oin bringing many sons unto glory, to make the ^{6o}author of their salvation ^pperfect that ^rare sanctified are all ^sof one: for which cause he is not ashamed to call them ^tbrethren, 12 saying,

⁷I will declare thy name unto my brethren,

In the midst of the ⁸congregation will I sing thy praise.

13 And again, I will put my trust in him. And again, ⁸Behold, I and the children whom God hath given me. 14 Since then the children are sharers in ^{10a}flesh and blood,

Jesus a High Priest after Melchizedek's Order. Superseding the Levitical Order and Ritual, he liveth to intercede who have fled for refuge to lay hold of ^athe hope set before us: 19 which we have as an anchor of the soul, ^ahope both sure and stedfast and ^bentering into that which is within the veil; 20 ^cwhither as a fore-runner Jesus entered for us, having become ^aa high priest for ever after the order of Melchizedek.

7 For this ^cMelchizedek, king of Salem, priest of ^dGod Most High, who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings and blessed him, ^e2 to whom also Abraham divided a tenth part of all (being first, by interpretation, King of righteousness, and then also King of Salem, which is, King of peace; ^f3 without father, without mother, ^gwithout genealogy, having neither beginning of days nor end of life, but made like unto ^hthe Son of God), abideth a priest continually.

4 Now consider how great this man was, unto whom Abraham, the patriarch, gave a tenth out of the chief spoils. 5 And they indeed of ⁱthe sons of Levi that receive the priest's office have commandment to take tithes of the people according to the law, that is, of their brethren, though these have come out of the loins of Abraham: 6 but he ^jwhose genealogy is not counted from them ^khath taken tithes of Abraham, and ^lhath blessed him that ^mhath the promises. 7 But without any dispute the less is blessed of the better. 8 And here men that die receive tithes; but there one, ⁿof whom it is witnessed that he liveth. 9 And, so to say, through Abraham even Levi, who receiveth tithes, hath paid tithes; 10 for he was yet in the loins of his father, when Melchizedek met him.

11 ^pNow if there was perfection through the Levitical priesthood (for under it ^qhath the people received the law), what further need ^rwas there that another priest should arise ^safter the order of Melchizedek, and not be reckoned after the order of Aaron? 12 For the priesthood being changed, there is made of necessity a change also of the law. 13 For ^the of whom ^uthese things are said ^vbelongeth to another tribe, from which no man hath given attendance at the altar. 14 For it is evident that our Lord hath ^wsprung out of Judah; as to which tribe Moses spake nothing concerning priests. 15 And ^{ba}what we say is yet more abundantly evident, if after the likeness of Melchizedek there ariseth another priest, 16 who hath been made, not after the law of a ^{bb}carnal commandment, but after the power of ^{bc}an endless life: 17 for it is witnessed of him, ^{bd}Thou art a priest for ever After the order of Melchizedek. 18 For there is a disannulling of a foregoing commandment ^{be}because of its weakness and unprofitableness 19 (for ^{bf}the law made nothing perfect), and a bringing in thereupon of a better ^{bg}hope, through which we ^{bh}draw nigh unto God 20 And inasmuch as ^{bi}it is not without the taking of an oath 21 (for they indeed have been made priests without an oath; but he with an oath ^{bj}by him that saith ^{bk}of him, ^{bl}The Lord sware and ^{bm}will not repent himself, is this: We have such a ^ahigh priest, who sat down on ^bthe right hand of the throne of the ^cMajesty in the heavens, 2 a ^dminister of ^ethe sanctuary, and of the ^ftrue tabernacle, which the Lord ^gpitched, not man. 3 For every ^hhigh priest is appointed ⁱto offer both gifts and sacrifices: wherefore it is necessary that this high priest also have somewhat to offer. 4 Now if he were on earth, he would not be a priest at all, seeing there are those who ^joffer the gifts according to the law; 5 who serve that which is ^ka copy and ^lshadow of the heavenly things, even as Moses is ^mwarned of God when he is about to ⁿmake the tabernacle: for, ^oSee, saith he, that thou make all things according to the pattern that was showed thee in the mount. 6 But now hath he obtained a ministry the more excellent, by so much as he is also the ^pmediator of ^qa better covenant, which hath been enacted upon better promises. 7 For ^rif that first covenant had been faultless, then would no place have been sought for a second. 8 For ^sfinding fault with them, he saith, 11 But Christ having come a ^bhigh priest of ¹the ^cgood things to come, through ^dthe greater and more perfect tabernacle, ^enot made with hands, that is to say, ^fnot of this creation, 12 nor yet through ^gthe blood of goats and calves, but ^hthrough his own blood, ⁱentered in ^jonce for all into the holy place, having obtained ^keternal redemption. 13 For if ^lthe blood of goats and bulls, and ^mthe ashes of a heifer sprinkling them that have been defiled, sanctify unto the cleanness of the flesh: 14 how much more shall ⁿthe blood of Christ, who through ^othe eternal Spirit ^poffered himself without blemish unto God, ^qcleanse ^ryour conscience from ^sdead works to serve ^tthe living God? 15 And for this cause ^uhe is the ^vmediator of a ^wnew ^xcovenant, that a death having taken place for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first ^ycovenant, they that have been ^zcalled may ^{aa}receive the promise of ^{ab}the eternal inheritance. 16 For where a ^{ac}testament is, there must of necessity ^{ad}be the death of him that made it. 17 For a ^{ae}testament is of force ^{af}where there hath been death: ^{ag}for it doth never avail while he that made it liveth. 18 Wherefore even the first ^{ah}covenant hath not been dedicated without blood. 19 For when every commandment had been ^{ai}spoken by Moses unto all the people according to the law, ^{aj}he took the ^{ak}blood of the calves and the goats, with ^{al}water and scarlet wool and hyssop, and sprinkled both ^{am}the book itself and all the people, 20 saying, ^{an}This is the blood of the ^{ao}covenant which God commanded to youward. 21 Moreover ^{ap}the tabernacle and all the vessels of the ministry he sprinkled in like manner with the blood. 22 And according to the law, I may ^{aq}almost say, all things are cleansed with blood, and ^{ar}apart from shedding of blood there is no remission.

Let us draw near with a True Heart. For Wilful Sin there is no More Sacrifice. Recall Former Constancy

7 Then said I, Lo, I am come (In ^athe roll of the book it is written of me)

To do thy will, O God.

8 Saying above, ^bSacrifices and offerings and ^cwhole burnt offerings and ^dsacrifices ^efor sin thou wouldest not, neither hadst pleasure therein (the which are offered according to the law), 9 then hath he said, ^fLo, I am come to do thy will. He taketh away the first, that he may establish the second.
10 ^gBy which will we have been ^hsanctified through ⁱthe offering of ^jthe body of Jesus Christ ^konce for all. 11 And every ^lpriest indeed standeth day by day ministering and ^moffering oftentimes the same sacrifices, the which ⁿcan never take away sins: 12 but he, when he had offered one sacrifice ^ofor ^psins ^qfor ever, ^rsat down on the right hand of God; 13 henceforth expecting till ^shis enemies be made the footstool of his feet. 14 For by one offering he hath ^tperfected ^ufor ever them that are sanctified.
15 And ^vthe Holy Spirit also beareth witness to us; for after he hath said,

16 ^wThis is the covenant that ^xI will make with them

After those days, saith the Lord:
I will put my laws on their heart,

And upon their mind also will I write them;

then saith he,

17 ^yAnd their sins and their iniquities will I remember no more.

18 Now where remission of these is, there is no more offering for sin.

Faith defined and its Triumphs set forth

will of God, ye may ^areceive the promise.

37 ¹For ^byet a very little while,
^cHe that cometh shall come, and shall not tarry.

38 But ^{2a}my righteous one shall live by faith:

And if he shrink back, my soul hath no pleasure in him.

39 But we are not ³of them that shrink back unto perdition; but of them that have faith unto the ⁴saving of the soul.

11 Now faith is ^{5a}assurance of things ^bhoped for, a ^cconviction of things not seen. 2 For therein ^dthe elders ^ehad witness borne to them. 3 By faith we understand that the ^{7k}worlds have been framed ^fby the ^gword of God, so that what is seen hath ^hnot been made out of things which appear. 4 By faith ⁱAbel offered unto God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain, through which he ^jhad witness borne to him that he was righteous, ⁸God bearing witness ^kin respect of his ^lgifts: and through it he ^mbeing dead yet speaketh. 5 By faith ⁿEnoch was translated that he should not ^osee death; and he was not found, because God translated him: ¹⁰for he hath had witness borne to him that before his translation he had been well-pleasing unto God: 6 and without faith it is impossible to be well-pleasing unto him; for he that ^pcometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that seek after him. 7 By faith ^qNoah, being ^rwarned of God concerning things not seen as yet, ^smoved with godly fear, ^tprepared an ark to the saving of his house; through which he condemned the world, and became heir of ^uthe righteousness which is according to faith. 8 By faith ^vAbraham, when he was called, obeyed to go out unto a place which he was to ^wreceive for an inheritance; and he went out, not knowing whither he went. 9 By faith he became a sojourner in ^xthe land of promise, as in a ^yland not his own, ^{11a}dwelling in tents, with Isaac and Jacob, ^athe heirs with him of the same promise: 10 for he looked for ^bthe city which hath ^cthe foundations, ^dwhose ^ebuilder and maker is God. 11 By faith even ^fSarah herself received power to conceive seed when she was past age, since she counted him ^gfaithful who had promised: 12 wherefore also there sprang of one, and ^hhim as good as dead, ⁱso many as the stars of heaven in multitude, and as the sand, which is by the sea-shore, innumerable.

13 ^jThese all died ^kin faith, ^lnot having received the promises, but ^mhaving seen them and greeted them from afar, and having ⁿconfessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth. 14 For they that say such things make it manifest that they are seeking after a country of their own. 15 And if indeed they had been mindful of that ^ocountry from which they went out, ^pthey would have had opportunity to return. 16 But now they desire a better country, that is, a ^qheavenly: wherefore ^rGod is not ashamed of them, to be ^scalled their God; for ^the hath prepared for them a city.

17 By faith ^uAbraham, being tried, ^voffered up Isaac: yea, he that had gladly ^wreceived the promises was offering up his only begotten son; 18 even he ^xto whom it was said, ^yIn Isaac shall thy seed be called: 19 accounting that ^zGod ^{aa}is able to raise up, even from the dead; from whence he did also in a ^{ab}figure receive him back. 20 By faith ^{ac}Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau, even concerning things to come. 21 By faith ^{ad}Jacob, when he was dying, blessed each of the sons of Joseph; and ^{ae}worshipped, ^{af}leaning upon the top of his staff. 22 By faith ^{ag}Joseph, when his end was nigh, made mention of the departure of the children of Israel; and gave commandment concerning his bones. 23 By faith ^{ah}Moses, when he was born, was hid three months by his parents, because they saw he was a goodly child; and they were not afraid of the ^aking's commandment. 24 By faith Moses, ^bwhen he was grown up, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter; 25 choosing rather to ^cshare ill treatment with the people of God, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season; 26 ^daccounting the reproach of ^eChrist greater riches than the treasures of Egypt: for he looked unto the ^frecompense of reward. 27 By faith he ^gforsook Egypt, not ^hfearing the wrath of the king: for he endured, as ⁱseeing him who is invisible. 28 By faith he ^jkept the passover, and the sprinkling of the blood, that ^kthe destroyer of the firstborn should not touch them. 29 By faith they ^lpassed through the Red sea as by dry land: which the Egyptians assaying to do were swallowed up. 30 By faith ^mthe walls of Jericho fell down, ⁿafter they had been compassed about for seven days. 31 By faith ^oRahab the harlot perished not with them that were disobedient, having received the spies with peace.

32 And what shall I more say? for the time will fail me if I tell of ^pGideon, ^qBarak, ^rSamson, ^sJephthah; of ^tDavid and ^uSamuel and the prophets: 33 who through faith ^vsubdued kingdoms, ^wwrought righteousness, ^xobtained promises, ^ystopped the mouths of lions, 34 ^zquenched the power of fire, ^{aa}escaped the edge of the sword, from weakness were made strong, ^{ab}waxed mighty in war, ^{ac}turned to flight armies of aliens. 35 ^{ad}Women received their dead by a resurrection: and others were ^{ae}tortured, not accepting ^{af}their deliverance; ^{ag}that they might obtain a better resurrection: 36 and others had trial of ^{ah}mockings and scourgings, yea, moreover of ^{ai}bonds and imprisonment: 37 they were ^{aj}stoned, they were ^{ak}sawn asunder, they were tempted, they were ^{al}slain with the sword: they went about ^{am}in sheepskins, in goatskins; being destitute, afflicted, ^{an}ill-treated 38 (^{ao}of whom the world was not worthy), ^{ap}wandering in deserts and mountains and caves, and the holes of reverence: shall we not much rather be in subjection unto ^athe Father of ^bspirits, and ^clive? 10 For they indeed for a few days chastened us as seemed good to them; but he for our profit, that we may be partakers of his holiness. 11 All chastening seemeth ^afor the present to be not joyous but grievous; yet afterward it yieldeth ^apeaceable fruit unto them that have been exercised thereby, even the fruit of righteousness. 12 Wherefore ^alift up the hands that hang down, and the palsied knees; 13 and ^amake straight paths for your feet, that that which is lame be not ^aturned out of the way, but rather ^abe healed.

Address and Greeting. Pray in Faith. Rejoice in Lowliness. Temptation not from God. Be Doers of the Word

1 ^{1a} James, a ^{2b} servant of God and ^c of the Lord Jesus Christ, to ^d the twelve tribes which are of ^e the Dispersion, ^{3f} greeting.

2 ^g Count it all joy, my brethren, when ye fall into ^h manifold ⁱ temptations; 3 knowing that ^j the proving of your ^k faith worketh ^l patience. 4 And let ^m patience have ⁿ its perfect work, that ye may be ^o perfect and entire, lacking in nothing.

5 But if any of you ^p lacketh wisdom, let him ask of God, who giveth to all liberally and ^q upbraideth not; and ^r it shall be given him. 6 But let him ^s ask in faith, ^t nothing doubting: for he that doubteth is like the surge of the sea ^u driven by the wind and tossed. 7 For let not that man think ^v that he shall receive anything of the Lord; 8 a ^w double-minded man, ^x unstable in all his ways.

9 But let the brother of low degree glory in his high estate: 10 and the rich, in that he is made low: because ^y as the flower of the grass he shall pass away. 11 For the sun ariseth with ^z the scorching wind, and ^{aa} withereth the grass; and the flower thereof falleth, and the grace of the fashion of it perisheth: so also shall the rich man fade away in his goings.

12 ^{ab} Blessed is the man that endureth temptation; for when he hath been approved, he shall receive ^{ac} the crown of life, which ^{ad} the Lord ^{ae} promised to them that ^{af} love him. 13 Let no man say when he is tempted, ^{ag} I am tempted ^{ah} of God; for God ^{ai} cannot be tempted with ^{aj} evil, and he himself tempteth no man: 14 but each man is ^{ak} tempted, be ^a blessed in his doing. 26 If any man ¹ thinketh himself to be religious, while he ^b bridleth not his tongue but deceiveth his heart, this man's religion is vain. 27 Pure religion and undefiled ^c before our God and Father is this, to ^a visit ^c the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep oneself unspotted from ^d the world.

2 ^a My brethren, ² hold not ^b the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ. ^c the Lord of glory, with ^d respect of persons. 2 For if there come into your ^e synagogue a man with a gold ring, in ^f fine clothing, and there come in also a poor man in ^g vile clothing; 3 and ye have regard to him that weareth the ^h fine clothing, and say, Sit thou here in a good place; and ye say to the poor man, Stand thou there, or sit under my footstool; 4 ⁱ do ye not make distinctions ^j among yourselves, and become judges ^k with evil thoughts? 5 Hearken, ^l my beloved brethren; did not ^m God choose them that are poor ⁿ as to the world to be ^o rich in faith, and ^p heirs of the kingdom which he ^q promised to them that love him? 6 But ye have dishonored the poor man. Do not the rich oppress you, and themselves ^r drag you before the judgment-seats? 7 ^s Do not they blaspheme the honorable name ^t by which ye are called? 8 Howbeit if ye ^u fulfil the royal law, according to the scripture, ^v Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself, ye do well: 9 but if ye have ^w respect of persons, ye commit sin, being ^x convicted by the law as transgressors. 10 For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet ^y stumble in one point, he is become ^z guilty of all. 11 For he that said, ¹ Do not commit adultery, said also, Do not kill. Now if thou dost not commit adultery, but killest, thou art become a transgressor of the law. 12 So speak ye, and so do, as men that are to be judged by ² a law of liberty. 13 For ³ judgment is without mercy to him that hath showed no mercy: mercy glorieth against judgment. 14 ^b What doth it profit, ^c my brethren, if a man say he hath faith, but have not works? can that faith save him? 15 ^a If a brother or sister be naked and in lack of daily food, 16 and one of you say unto them, ^b Go in peace, be ye warmed and filled; and yet ye give them not the things needful to the body; what doth it profit? 17 Even so ^c faith, if it have not works, is dead in itself. 18 ^d Yea, a man will say, Thou hast faith, and I have works: show me thy ^e faith apart from thy works, and I ^f by my works will show thee my faith. 19 Thou believest that ^g God is one; ^h thou doest well: ⁱ the demons also believe, and shudder. 20 But wilt thou know, ^j O vain man, that ^k faith apart from works is barren? 21 ^l Was not Abraham our father justified by works, in that he offered up Isaac his son upon the altar? 22 ^m Thou seest that ⁿ faith wrought with his works, and by ^o works was faith made perfect; 23 and the scripture was fulfilled which saith, ^p And Abraham believed God, and it was reckoned unto him for righteousness; ^q and he was called ^r the friend of God. 24 Ye see that by works a man is justified, and not only by faith. 25 And in like manner was not also ^s Rahab the harlot justified by works, ^t in that she received the messengers, and sent them out another way? 26 For as the body apart from the spirit is dead, even so ^u faith apart from works is dead.

whole body also. 4 Behold, the ships also, though they are so great and are driven by rough winds, are yet turned about by a very small rudder, whither the impulse of the steersman willeth. 5 So the tongue also is a little member, and ^aboasteth great things. ^bBehold, ¹how much wood is kindled by how small a fire! 6 And ^cthe tongue is ²a fire: ³the world of iniquity among our members is the tongue, which ^ddefleth the whole body, and setteth on fire the wheel of ^enature, and is set on fire by ^fhell. 7 For every ^gkind of beasts and birds, of creeping things and things in the sea, is tamed, and hath been tamed ^hby ⁱmankind: 8 but the tongue can no man tame; it is a restless evil, it is full of deadly poison. 9 Therewith bless we ^jthe Lord and Father; and therewith curse we men, ^kwho are made after the likeness of God: 10 ^lout of the same mouth cometh forth blessing and cursing. My brethren, these things ought not so to be. 11 Doth the fountain send forth from the same opening sweet water and bitter? 12 ^mcan a fig tree, my brethren, yield olives, or a vine figs? neither can salt water yield sweet.

13 Who is wise and understanding among you? ⁿlet him show by his ^ogood life his works in meekness of wisdom. 14 But if ye have bitter ^pjealousy and faction in your heart, glory not and lie not against ^qthe truth. 15 This wisdom is not ^ra wisdom that cometh down ^sfrom above, but is ^tearthly, ^usensual, ^vdevilish. 16 For where ^wjealousy and faction are, there is confusion and every vile deed. 17 But the wisdom that is ^xfrom above is first ^ypure, then ^zpeaceable, ^{aa}gentle, easy to be entreated, ^{ab}full of mercy and good fruits, without ^{ac}variance, without ^{ad}hypocrisy. 18 And the ^{ae}fruit of righteousness is sown in peace ^{af}for them that make peace.

day or to-morrow we will go into this city, and spend a year there, and trade, and get gain: 14 whereas ye know not what shall be on the morrow. What is your life? For ye are a vapor that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away. 15 ¹For that ye ought to say, ²If the Lord will, we shall both live, and do this or that. 16 But now ye glory in your vauntings: ³all such glorying is evil. 17 ⁴To him therefore that knoweth to do good, and doeth it not, to him it is sin.

5 ⁵Come now, ye rich, weep and howl for your miseries that are coming upon you. 2 ⁶Your riches are corrupted, and your garments are moth-eaten. 3 Your gold and your silver are rusted; and their rust shall be for a testimony ⁷against you, and shall eat your flesh as fire. Ye have laid up your treasure ⁸in the last days. 4 Behold, ⁹the hire of the laborers who mowed your fields, which is of you kept back by fraud, crieth out: and ¹⁰the cries of them that reaped have entered into the ears of ¹¹the Lord of Sabaoth. 5 Ye have ¹²lived delicately on the earth, and taken your pleasure; ye have nourished your hearts in ¹³a day of slaughter. 6 Ye have condemned, ye have ¹⁴killed ¹⁵the righteous one; ye doth not resist you.

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PETER

1 ^aPeter, an apostle of Jesus Christ, to ^bthe elect who are ^csojourners of ^dthe Dispersion in ^ePontus, ^fGalatia, ^gCappadocia, ^hAsia, and ⁱBithynia, 2 according to the ^kforeknowledge of God the Father, ^lin sanctification of the Spirit, unto ^mobedience and ⁿsprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ: ^oGrace to you and peace be multiplied.

3 ^pBlessed be ¹the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who ^qaccording to his great mercy ^rbegat us again unto ^sa living hope by the ^tresurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, 4 unto an ^uinheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that ^vfadeth not away, ^wreserved in heaven for you, 5 who by the power of God are ^xguarded ^ythrough faith unto ^za salvation ready ^{aa}to be revealed in the last time. 6 ^{ab}Wherein ye greatly rejoice, though now ^{ac}for a little while, ^{ad}if need be, ye have been put to grief in ^{ae}manifest ^{af}trials, 7 that ^{ag}the proof of your faith, ^{ah}being more precious than gold that perisheth ^{ai}though it is proved by fire, ^{aj}may be found unto praise and glory and honor at ^{ak}the revelation of Jesus Christ: 8 whom not having seen ye ^{al}love; on whom, ^{am}though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye rejoice greatly with joy unspeakable and ^{an}full of glory: 9 receiving the ^{ao}end of your faith, ^{ap}even the salvation of your souls. 10 ^{aq}Concerning which salvation the prophets sought and searched diligently, who ^{ar}propheesied of the ^{as}grace that should come unto you: 11 searching what ^{at}time or what manner of time ^{au}the Spirit of Christ which was in them did point unto, when it ^{av}testified beforehand the sufferings ^{aw}of Christ, and the glories that should follow them. 12 To whom it was revealed, that not unto themselves, but unto you, did they minister these things, which now have been announced unto you through them that ^{ax}preached the gospel unto you ^{ay}by ^{az}the Holy Spirit sent forth from heaven; which things ^{ba}angels desire to look into.

13 Wherefore ^{bb}girding up the loins of your mind, ^{bc}be sober and set your ^{bd}hope perfectly on the ^{be}grace that ^{bf}is to be brought unto you at ^{bg}the revelation of Jesus Christ; 14 as children of ^{bh}obedience, not ^{bi}fashioning yourselves according to your former lusts in ^{bj}the time of your ^{bk}ignorance: 15 but ^{bl}like as ^{bm}he who called you is holy, ^{bn}be ye yourselves also holy ^{bo}in all manner of living; 16 because it is written, ^{bp}Ye shall be holy; for I am holy. 17 And if ye ^{bq}call on him as Father, who ^{br}without respect of persons ^{bs}judgeth according to each man's work, pass the time of your ^{bt}sojourning in ^{bu}fear: 18 knowing that ye were ^{bv}redeemed, not with corruptible things, with silver or gold, from your ^{bw}vain manner of life handed down from your fathers; 19 but with precious ^{bx}blood, as of a ^{by}lamb without blemish and without spot, ^{bz}even the blood of Christ: 20 who was ^{ca}foreknown indeed before ^{cb}the foundation of the world, but

^a when ye do well, and suffer for it, ye shall take it patiently, this is ¹ acceptable with God. ²¹ For ^b hereunto were ye called : ^c because Christ also suffered for you, leaving you ^a an example, that ye should follow his steps : ²² who ^d did no sin, neither was guile found in his mouth : ²³ who, when he was ^e reviled, reviled not again ; when he suffered, threatened not ; but committed ^f himself to him that judgeth righteously : ²⁴ who his own self ^g bare our sins in his body upon ^h the tree, that we, ⁱ having died unto sins, might live unto righteousness ; ^k by whose ^l stripes ye were ^m healed. ²⁵ For ye were ⁿ going astray like sheep ; but are now returned unto the ^o Shepherd and ^p Bishop of your souls.

3 ^q In like manner, ye wives, ^r be in subjection to your own husbands ; that, even if any obey not the word, they may without the word ^s be gained by the ^t behavior of their wives ; ² beholding your chaste ^u behavior coupled with fear. ³ ^v Whose ^w adorning let it not be the outward adorning of braiding the hair, and of wearing jewels of gold, or of putting on apparel ; ⁴ but let it be ^x the hidden man of the heart, in the incorruptible ^y apparel of a meek and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God of great price. ⁵ For after this manner aforetime the holy women also, ^z who hoped in God, adorned themselves, being in subjection to their own ^{aa} husbands : ⁶ as Sarah obeyed Abraham, ^{ab} calling him lord : whose children ye now are, if ye do well, and are not ^{ac} put in fear by any terror.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PETER

Address and Salutation. "Be not idle nor unfruitful." "We were Eyewitnesses of his Majesty"

1 ¹Simon Peter, a ^{2a}servant and ^bapostle of Jesus Christ, to them that have obtained ^{3a}a ^clike precious faith with us in ^athe righteousness of ^{4c}our God and the Saviour Jesus Christ: 2 ^fGrace to you and peace be multiplied in ^gthe knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord; 3 seeing that his ^hdivine power hath granted unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the ^gknowledge of him that ⁱcalled us ⁵by his own glory and virtue; 4 whereby he hath granted unto us his precious and exceeding great ^kpromises; that through these ye may become ⁱpartakers of ⁶the divine nature, having ^mescaped from the ⁿcorruption that is in ^othe world by lust. 5 Yea, and for this very cause adding on your part all diligence, in your faith ^psupply ^qvirtue; and in ^{your}virtue ^rknowledge; 6 and in ^{your}knowledge ^sself-control; and in ^{your}self-control ^tpatience; and in ^{your}patience ^ugodliness; 7 and in ^{your}godliness ^vbrotherly kindness; and in ^{your}brotherly kindness love. 8 For if these things are yours and abound, they make you to be not idle nor ^zunfruitful unto ^{the}knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. 9 For he that lacketh these things is ^{aa}blind, ^{ab}seeing only what is near, having forgotten the ^{ac}cleansing from his old sins. 10 Wherefore, brethren, give the more diligence to make your ^{ad}calling and ^{ae}election sure: for if ye do these things, ye shall never ^{af}stumble: 11 for thus shall be ^{ag}richly ^{supplied}unto you the entrance into ^{ah}the eternal kingdom of our ^{Lord}and Saviour Jesus Christ.

Mockers and their Destiny. "The Day of the Lord will come as a Thief." Exhortation to Steadfastness. Doxology

3 This is now, ^abeloved, the second epistle that I write unto you; and in both of them I ^bstir up your sincere mind by putting you in remembrance; 2 that ye should ^cremember the words which were spoken before by ^dthe holy prophets, and ^ethe commandment of the Lord and Saviour through your apostles: 3 ^fknowing this first, that ^gin the last days ^hmockers shall come with mockery, ⁱwalking after their own lusts, 4 and saying, ^jWhere is the promise of his ^kcoming? for, from the day that the fathers ^lfell asleep, all things continue as they were ^mfrom the beginning of the creation. 5 For this they wilfully forget, that there were heavens from of old, and an earth ⁿcompacted out of water and ^oamidst water, ^pby the word of God; 6 by which means ^qthe world that then was, being overflowed with water, ^rperished: 7 but ^sthe heavens that now are, and the earth, by the same word have been ^tstored up for ^ufire, being reserved against ^vthe day of judgment and destruction of ungodly men.

8 But forget not this one thing, ^wbeloved, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and ^xa thousand years as one day. 9 ^yThe Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some count slackness; but ^zis longsuffering to you-ward, ^{aa}not wishing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance. 10 But ^{ab}the day of the Lord ^{ac}will come as a thief; in the which ^{ad}the heavens ^{ae}shall pass away with a great noise, and the ^{af}elements shall be dissolved with fervent heat, and ^{ag}the earth and the works that are therein shall be ^{ah}burned up. 11 Seeing

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF JOHN

Introduction. "Walk in the Light . . . even as He walked." The Contrasted Darkness

1 That which was ^afrom the beginning, that which we have ^bheard, that which we have ^cseen with our eyes, that which we ^dbeheld, and our hands ^ehandled, concerning the ^fWord of life ^g2 (and ^hthe life was manifested, and we have ⁱseen, and ^jbear witness, and declare unto you the life, ^kthe eternal life, which was ^lwith the Father, and was ^mmanifested unto us); ⁿ3 that which we have ^oseen and ^pheard declare we unto you also, that ye also may have fellowship with us: yea, and our ^qfellowship is with the Father, and with his Son Jesus Christ: ^r4 and ^sthese things we write, that ^tour ^ujoy may be made full.

5 And ^vthis is the message which we have heard from him and announce unto you, that ^wGod is light, and in him is no darkness at all. ^x6 If we say that we have fellowship with him and walk in the darkness, we ^ylie, and ^zdo not the truth: ^{aa}7 but if we ^{ab}walk in the light, as ^{ac}he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and ^{ad}the blood of Jesus his Son cleanseth us from all sin. ^{ae}8 If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the ^{af}truth is not in us. ^{ag}9 If we confess our sins, he is faithful and righteous to forgive us our sins, and ^{ah}to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. ^{ai}10 If we say that we have not sinned, we ^{aj}make him a liar, and ^{ak}his word is not in us.

2 ^{al}My little children, ^{am}these things write I unto you that ye may not sin. And if any man sin, ^{an}we have an ^{ao}Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous: ^{ap}2 and he is ^{aq}the propitiation cause ye know him ^awho is from the beginning. ¹⁸Little children, ^oit is the last hour: and as ye heard that ^pantichrist cometh, ^qeven now have there arisen many antichrists; whereby we know that it is the last hour. ¹⁹They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would have continued with us: but they went out, ^rthat they might be made manifest ^sthat they all are not of us. ²⁰And ye have an ^tanointing from ^uthe Holy One, ^vand ^wye know all things. ²¹I have not written unto you because ye know not the truth, but ^xbecause ye know it, and ^ybecause no lie is ^zof the truth. ²²Who is the liar but ^{aa}he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? This is ^{ab}the antichrist, even he that denieth the Father and the Son. ²³Whosoever denieth the Son, the same hath not the Father: he that confesseth the Son hath the Father also. ²⁴As for you, let that abide in you which ye heard ^{ac}from the beginning. If that which ye heard from the beginning abide in you, ye also ^{ad}shall abide in the Son, and in the Father. ²⁵And ^{ae}this is the promise which he promised ^{af}us, even the life eternal. ²⁶These things have I written unto you concerning them that would ^{ag}lead you astray. ²⁷And as for you, abideth in him: and he cannot sin, because he is begotten of God. 10 In this the ^cchildren of God are manifest, and the ^bchildren of the devil: whosoever doeth not righteousness is not of God, neither he that ^cloveth not his ^abrother. 11 ^aFor this is the message ^fwhich ye heard from the beginning, ^gthat we should love one another: 12 not as ^hCain was of ⁱthe evil one, and slew his brother. And wherefore slew he him? Because ^khis works were evil, and his brother's righteous.

13 Marvel not, brethren, if ⁱthe world hatheth you. 14 We know that we have ^mpassed out of death into life, ⁿbecause we love the brethren. He that loveth not abideth in death. 15 Whosoever ^ohatheth his brother is a murderer: and ye know that ^pno murderer hath eternal life abiding in him. 16 Hereby know we love, because ^qhe laid down his life for us: and ^rwe ought to lay down our lives for the ^sbrethren. 17 But ^twhoso hath the world's goods, and beholdeth his brother in need, and ^ushut-teth up his compassion from him, ^vhow doth the love of God abide in him? 18 ^wMy ^xlittle children, let us not love in word, neither with the tongue; but in deed and ^ytruth. 19 Hereby shall we know that we are ^zof the truth, and shall ¹assure our heart ²before him: 20 because if our heart condemn us, God is greater than our heart, and knoweth all things. 21 ^aBe-loved, if our heart condemn us not, we have ^bboldness toward God; 22 and ^cwhatsoever we ask we receive of him, because we ^dkeep his commandments and do ^ethe things that are pleasing in his sight. 23 And this is his commandment, that we should ^fbe-lieve in ^gthe name of his Son Jesus Christ, and love one another, even as ^hhe gave us commandment. 24 And he that ⁱkeepeth his commandments ^jabideth in him, and he in him. THE EPISTLE OF JUDE

General Salutation. "Contend earnestly for the Faith." The Warnings of History to the Ungodly

1¹ Jude, a ²servant of Jesus Christ, and brother of ³James, ⁴to them that are called, beloved in God the Father, and ⁵kept for Jesus Christ: 2⁶ Mercy unto you and peace and love ⁷be multiplied.

3⁸ Beloved, while I was giving all diligence to write unto you of our ⁹common salvation, I was constrained to write unto you exhorting you to ¹⁰contend earnestly for ¹¹the faith which was once for all ¹²delivered unto ¹³the saints. 4 For there are certain men ¹⁴crept in privily, even they who were of old ¹⁵written of beforehand unto this condemnation, ungodly men, turning ¹⁶the grace of our God into ¹⁷lasciviousness, and ¹⁸denying ¹⁹our only Master and Lord, Jesus Christ.

5 Now I desire to ²⁰put you in remembrance, though ²¹ye know all things once for all, that ²²the Lord, ²³having saved a people out of the land of Egypt, ²⁴afterward destroyed them that believed not. 6 And ²⁵angels that kept not their own principality, but left their proper habitation, he hath ²⁶kept in everlasting bonds under darkness unto the judgment of the great day. 7 Even as ²⁷Sodom and Gomorrah, and the ²⁸cities about them, having in like manner with these given themselves over to fornication and ²⁹gone after strange flesh, are set forth ³⁰as an ³¹example, suffering the ³²punishment of eternal fire. 8 Yet in like manner these also in their dreamings ³³defile the flesh, and ³⁴set at nought dominion, and ³⁵rail at ³⁶dignities. 9 But ³⁷Michael ³⁸the archangel, when contending with the devil he disputed about ³⁹the body of thou wert cold or hot. 16 So because thou art lukewarm, and neither hot nor cold, I will spew thee out of my mouth. 17 Because thou sayest, ^a I am rich, and have gotten riches, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art the wretched one and miserable and poor and blind and naked: 18 I counsel thee to ^b buy of me ^c gold refined by fire, that thou mayest become rich; and ^d white garments, that thou mayest clothe thyself, and ^e that ^f the shame of thy nakedness be not made manifest; and eyesalve to anoint thine eyes, that thou mayest see. 19 ^g As many as I love, I reprove and chasten: be zealous therefore, and ^h repent. 20 Behold, I stand ⁱ at the door and ^j knock: if any man hear my voice and open the door, ^k I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me. 21 ^l He that overcometh, I will give to him ^m to sit down with me in my throne, as ⁿ I also overcame, and sat down with my Father in his throne. 22 ^o He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the churches.

4 After ^p these things I saw, and behold, ^q a door opened in heaven, and the first voice that I heard, ^r a voice ^s as of a trumpet speaking with me, one saying, ^t Come up hither, and I will ^u show thee the things which must ^v come to pass hereafter. 2 Straightway I was ^w in the Spirit: and behold, there was ^x a throne set in heaven, and ^y one sitting upon the throne; 3 and he that sat ^z was to look upon like a ^{aa} jasper stone and a ^{ab} sardius; and ^{ac} there was a ^{ad} rainbow round about the throne, like an ^{ae} emerald to look upon. 4 And ^{af} round about the throne were ^{ag} four and twenty thrones: and upon the thrones I ^{ah} saw ^{ai} four and twenty elders ^{aj} sitting, arrayed in ^{ak} white garments; and on their heads ^{al} crowns of gold. 5 And out of the throne proceed ^{am} lightnings and voices and thunders. said unto them, that they should ^arest yet for a little time, ^buntil their fellow-servants also and their brethren, who should be killed even as they were, should ¹have ^cful-filled their course.

12 And I saw when he opened the sixth seal, and there was a great ^aearthquake; and ^ethe sun became black as ¹sackcloth of hair, and the whole moon became as blood; 13 and ^gthe stars of the heaven fell unto the earth, ^has a fig tree casteth her unripe figs when she is shaken of a great wind. 14 And ⁱthe heaven was removed as a scroll when it is rolled up; and ^kevery mountain and island were moved out of their places. 15 And ^lthe kings of the earth, and the princes, and the ^mchief captains, and the rich, and the strong, and every bondman and freeman, hid themselves in the caves and in the rocks of the mountains; 16 and they ⁿsay to the mountains and to the rocks, Fall on us, and hide us from the face of him ^othat sitteth on the throne, and from the ^pwrath of the Lamb: 17 for ^qthe great day of their wrath is come; and ^rwho is able to stand?

7 After this I saw ^sfour angels standing at the ^tfour corners of the earth, holding ^uthe four winds of the earth, ^vthat no wind should blow on the earth, or on the sea, or upon any tree. 2 And I saw another angel ascend ^wfrom the sunrising, having the ^xseal of ^ythe living God: and he cried with a great voice to the ^zfour angels to whom it was given to hurt the earth and the sea, 3 saying, ¹Hurt not the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, till we shall have ^asealed the ^bservants of our God on their ^cforeheads. 4 And I heard the ^dnumber of them that were sealed, ^ea hundred and forty and four thousand, sealed out of every tribe of the children of Israel:

5 Of the tribe of Judah ^{were} sealed twelve thousand;

Of the tribe of Gad twelve thousand;

there were killed in the earthquake ²seven thousand persons: and the rest were affrighted, and ¹gave glory to the ¹God of heaven.

¹⁴The second ¹Woe is past: behold, the third Woe cometh quickly.

¹⁵And the ¹seventh angel sounded; and there followed ²great voices in heaven, and they said,

"The kingdom of the world is become the kingdom of our Lord, and of ²his Christ: and ²he shall reign ²for ever and ever.

¹⁶And the four and twenty elders, who ²sit before God on their thrones, ²fell upon their faces and worshipped God, ¹⁷saying,

We give thee thanks, ¹O Lord God, the Almighty, who art and who wast; because thou hast taken thy great power, and didst ²reign. ¹⁸And ²the nations were wroth, and thy wrath came, and ²the time of the dead to be judged, and the time to give their reward to thy ²servants the prophets, and to the saints, and to them that fear thy name, ²the small and the great; and to destroy them that destroy the earth.

¹⁹And ²there was opened the ¹temple of God that is in heaven; and there was seen in his ¹temple ²the ark of his covenant; and there followed ²lightnings, and voices, and thunders, and an earthquake, and ²great hail.

12 And a great ²sign was ¹seen ²in heaven: ²a woman ²arrayed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and upon her head a crown of twelve stars; ²and she was with child; and she ¹crieth out, travailing in birth, and in pain to be delivered. ³And there was seen ²another sign in heaven: and behold, a great red dragon, having ^bseven heads and ^aten horns, and upon his heads ^aseven diadems. 4 And his tail draweth the ^athird part of the stars of heaven, and did ^ccast them to the earth: and the ^adragon standeth before the woman that is about to be delivered, that when she is delivered ^ahe may devour her child. 5 And she was delivered of a son, a man child, who is to ^brule all the ¹nations with a rod of iron: and her child was ^acaught up unto God, and unto his throne. 6 And the woman fled into the wilderness, where she hath a place prepared of God, that there they may nourish her ^aa thousand two hundred and threescore days.

7 And there was war in heaven: ¹Michael and his angels going forth to war with the ^adragon; and the dragon warred and ^mhis angels; 8 and they prevailed not, neither was their place found any more in heaven. 9 And the great ^adragon was cast down, the old ^aserpent, he that is called the Devil and ^aSatan, the ²deceiver of the whole ²world; he was ^acast down to the earth, and his angels were cast down with him. 10 And I heard ^aa great voice in heaven, saying,

11 And ¹I saw another beast coming up out of the earth; and he had ²two horns like unto a lamb, and he spake as a ³dragon. 12 And he ⁴exerciseth all the authority of the first beast ⁵in his sight. And he maketh ⁶the earth and them that dwell therein to ⁷worship the first beast, whose ⁸death-stroke was healed. 13 And he ⁹doeth great signs, that he should even make ¹⁰fire to come down out of heaven upon the earth in the sight of men. 14 And he ¹¹deceiveth ¹²them that dwell on the earth by reason of ¹³the signs which it was given him to do ¹⁴in the sight of the beast; saying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make an image to the beast who hath the ¹⁵stroke of the sword and lived. 15 And it was given ¹⁶unto him to give breath to it, even to the image of the beast, ¹⁷that the image of the beast should both speak, and cause that ¹⁸as many as should not ¹⁹worship the image of the beast should be killed. 16 And he causeth all, ²⁰the small and the great, and the rich and the poor, and the free and the bond, that there be given them a ²¹mark on their right hand, or upon their forehead; 17 and that no man should be able to buy or to sell, save he that hath the ²²mark, even ²³the name of the beast or ²⁴the number of his name. 18 ²⁵Here is wisdom. He that hath understanding, let him count the number of the beast; for it is the number ²⁶of

a man: and his number is ²⁷Six hundred and sixty and six.

14 ¹And I saw, and behold, ²the Lamb standing on the ³mount Zion, and with him a ⁴hundred and forty and four thousand, having ⁵his name, and the ⁶name of his Father, written ⁷on their foreheads. 2 And I heard a voice from heaven, as ⁸the voice of many waters, and as the ⁹voice of a great thunder: and the voice which I heard was as the voice of ¹⁰harpers harping with their harps: 3 and they sing as it were ¹¹a new song before the throne, and before the ¹²four living creatures and the ¹³elders: and ¹⁴no man could learn the song save the ¹⁵hundred and forty and four thousand, even they that had been ¹⁶purchased out of the earth. 4 ¹⁷These are they that were not defiled with women; for they are virgins. These are they that ¹⁸follow the Lamb whithersoever he goeth. These were ¹⁹purchased from among men, to be ²⁰the firstfruits unto God and unto the Lamb. 5 And ²¹in their mouth was found no lie: they are ²²without blemish.

6 And I saw another angel flying in ¹mid heaven, having ²eternal good tidings to proclaim unto ³them that ⁴dwell on the earth, and unto ⁵every nation and tribe and tongue and people; 7 and he saith with a great voice, ⁸Fear God, and ⁹give him glory; for the hour of his judgment is come: and ¹⁰worship him that ¹¹made the heaven and the earth and sea and ¹²fountains of waters.

3 And the second poured out his bowl ^ainto the sea; and ¹it became blood as of a dead man; and every ²living soul died, even the things that were in the sea.

4 And the third poured out his bowl into the ^crivers and the fountains of the waters; ⁴and ¹it became blood. 5 And I heard the angel of the waters saying, ²Righteous art thou, ^hwho art and who wast, thou ¹Holy One, because thou didst thus ^{5k}judge: 6 for they poured out ¹the blood of saints and prophets, and ^mblood hast thou given them to drink: they are worthy. 7 And I heard ⁿthe altar saying, Yea, O ^oLord God, the Almighty, ²true and righteous are thy judgments.

8 And the fourth poured out his bowl upon ^athe sun; ⁷and it was given unto ⁶it to scorch men with fire. 9 And men were scorched with great heat: and they ⁸blasphemed the name of God who hath the power over these plagues; and they ⁹repented not to ⁹give him glory.

10 And the fifth poured out his bowl upon the ¹⁰throne of the beast; and his kingdom was ¹⁰darkened; and they gnawed their tongues for pain, ¹¹and they ¹¹blasphemed the ¹¹God of heaven because of their pains and their ¹²sores; and they ¹²repented not of their works.

12 And the sixth poured out his bowl upon the ¹²great river, the river Euphrates; and ¹³the water thereof was dried up, that ¹³the way might be made ready for the kings that come ¹⁴from the sunrising. 13 And I saw coming out of the mouth of the ¹⁴dragon, and out of the mouth of the ¹⁵beast, and out of the mouth of the ¹⁵false prophet, three ¹⁶unclean spirits, as it were ¹⁶frogs: 14 for they are ¹⁷spirits of demons, ¹⁷working signs; which go forth ¹⁸unto the kings of the ¹⁸whole ¹⁸world, to

17 And the seventh poured out his bowl upon ¹⁸the air; and there came forth a ¹⁸great voice out of the ¹⁸temple, from the throne, saying, ¹⁹It is done: 18 and there were ¹⁹lightnings, and voices, and thunders; and there was ²⁰a great earthquake, ²⁰such as was not since ²¹there were men upon the earth, so great an earthquake, so mighty. 19 And ²¹the great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the ²²nations fell: and ²²Babylon the great was ²³remembered in the sight of God, to give unto her ²³the cup of the wine of the fierceness of his wrath. 20 And ²⁴every island fled away, and the mountains were not found. 21 And ²⁵great hail, every stone about the weight of a talent, cometh down out of heaven upon men: and men ²⁶blasphemed God because of the ²⁶plague of the hail; for the plague thereof is exceeding great.

17 ²⁷And there came one of the ²⁷seven angels that had the ²⁸seven bowls, and spake with me, saying, Come hither, I will show thee ²⁸the judgment of the ²⁹great harlot that ²⁹sitteth upon many waters; 2 with whom ³⁰the kings of the earth committed fornication, and ³⁰they that dwell in the earth were ³¹made drunken with the wine of her fornication. 3 And ³²he carried me away ³²in the Spirit ³³into a wilderness: and I saw a woman sitting upon a

The ^cseven heads are seven mountains, on which the woman sitteth: ¹⁰and ¹⁰they are seven ^kkings; the five are fallen, the one is, the other is not yet come; and when he cometh, he must continue a little while. ¹¹And the beast that ^kwas, and is not, is himself also an eighth, and is of the seven; and he ^ugoeth into perdition. ¹²And the ¹⁰ten horns that thou sawest are ten kings, who have received no kingdom as yet; but they receive authority as kings, with the beast, ²for one hour. ¹³These have ⁹one mind, and they give their power and authority unto the beast. ¹⁴These shall ²war against the Lamb, and the Lamb shall ^aovercome them, for he is ^bLord of lords, and ^bKing of kings; and ^cthey also shall overcast ^adust on their heads, and cried, weeping and mourning, saying, ^bWoe, woe, the great city, wherein all that had their ships in the sea were ^cmade rich by reason of her costliness! for in ^done hour is she made ^edesolate. 20 ^fRejoice over her, thou heaven, and ye saints, and ^gye apostles, and ye prophets; for ^hGod hath judged your judgment on her.

21 And ^aa ^bstrong angel ^ctook up a stone as it were a great millstone and cast it into the sea, saying, Thus with a mighty fall shall Babylon, ^dthe great city, be cast down, and shall be found no more at all. 22 And ^ethe voice of harpers and minstrels and flute-players and trumpeters shall be heard no more at all in thee; and no craftsman, ^fof whatsoever craft, shall be found any more at all in thee; and the ^gvoice of a mill shall be heard no more at all in thee; 23 and the light of a lamp shall shine no more at all in thee; and the ^hvoice of the bridegroom and of the bride shall be heard no more at all in thee: for thy ⁱmerchants were the princes of the earth; for ^jwith thy sorcery were all the nations deceived. 24 And in her was found the ^kblood of prophets and of saints, and of ^lall that have been slain upon the earth.

19 After these things I heard as it were a ^agreat voice of a great multitude in heaven, saying, ^bHallelujah; ^cSalvation, and ^dglory, and power, belong to our God: 2 for ^etrue and righteous are his ^fjudgments; for he hath judged the ^ggreat harlot, her that corrupted the earth with her fornication, and he hath ^havenged the blood of his ⁱservants at her hand.

3 And a second time they ^asay, ^bHallelujah. And her ^csmoke goeth up ^dfor ever and ever. 4 And the ^efour and twenty elders and the ^ffour living creatures ^gfell down and worshipped God that sitteth on the throne, saying, written, ^mKING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS.

19 And I saw ⁿthe beast, and ^othe kings of the earth, and their armies, gathered together to make war against him that ^psat upon the horse, and against his army. 20 And the beast was taken, and with him the ^qfalse prophet that ^rwrought the signs ^sin his sight, wherewith he ^tdeceived them that had received the ^umark of the beast and them that ^vworshipped his image: they two were cast alive into the ^wlake of ^xfire that burneth with brimstone: 21 and the rest were killed with the sword of him that ^ysat upon the horse, even the sword which ^zcame forth out of his mouth: and ^{aa}all the birds were filled with their flesh.

20 And I saw ^aan angel coming down out of heaven, having the ^bkey of the abyss and a great chain ^cin his hand. 2 And he laid hold on the ^ddragon, the old serpent, which is the Devil and Satan, and ^ebound him for a thousand years, 3 and cast him into the ^fabyss, and shut ^git, and ^hsealed ⁱit over him, that he should ^jdeceive the nations no more, until the thousand years should be finished: after this he must be loosed for a little time.

4 And I saw ^kthrones, and ^lthey sat upon them, and ^mjudgment was given unto them: and ⁿI saw ^othe souls of them that had been ^pbeheaded for the ^qtestimony of Jesus, and for the word of God, and such as ¹worshipped not the beast, neither his image, and received not the ²mark upon their forehead and upon their hand; and they ³lived, and ⁴reigned with Christ a thousand years. 5 The rest of the dead lived not until the thousand years should be finished. ⁶This is the first resurrection. 6 ⁷Blessed and holy is he that hath part in the first resurrection: over these the ⁸second death hath no ⁹power; but they shall be ¹⁰priests of God and of Christ, and shall ¹¹reign with him ¹²a thousand years.

The Millennial Reign. Satan loosed. Final Judgment. THE CONSUMMATION: a New Heaven and a New Earth

7 And when the thousand years are finished, Satan shall be ¹loosed out of his prison, 8 and shall come forth to ²deceive the nations which are in the ³four corners of the earth, ⁴Gog and Magog, to ⁵gather them together to the war: the number of whom is as the ⁶sand of the sea. 9 And they ⁷went up over the breadth of the earth, and compassed the ⁸camp of the saints about, and the ⁹beloved city: and ¹⁰fire came down ¹¹out of heaven, and devoured them. 10 And ¹²the devil that ¹³deceived them was cast into the ¹⁴lake of fire and brimstone, where are also the ¹⁵beast and the ¹⁶false prophet; and they shall be ¹⁷tormented day and night ¹⁸for ever and ever.

11 And I saw a great white ¹throne, and him that sat upon it, from whose face ²the earth and the heaven fled away; and ³there was found no place for them. 12 And I saw the dead, the ⁴great and the small, standing before the throne; and ⁵books were opened: and another book was opened, which is ⁶the book of life: and the dead ⁷were judged out of the things which were written in the books, ⁸according to their works. 13 And the sea gave up the dead that were in it; and ⁹death and Hades ¹⁰gave up the dead that were in them: and they were judged every man ¹¹according to their works. 14 And ¹²death and Hades were cast into ¹³the lake of fire. This is the ¹⁴second death, ¹⁵even the lake of fire. 15 And if any was not found written in ¹⁶the book of life, he was cast into the lake of fire.

WITH FIGURES AND LETTERS INDICATING THEIR SITUATION ON THE MAPS.

NOTE.—Figures in bold type indicate the numbers of the Maps; the other figures and letters denote the squares of the Maps where the places are to be found:—thus, Antioch (in Syria)—4 - 2 A; 12 - 2 G—appears on Map 4 in the square 2 A, and on Map 12 in the square 2 G.

The Publishers have to acknowledge the help given by Professor Sayce in preparing the Map of the Ancient World and the Map of Egypt and Sinai; Colonel Conder, R.E., who has edited the Maps of Palestine, Jerusalem, and Assyria; Sir Charles Wilson, who has prepared the Map illustrating the Travels of St. Paul; and George Armstrong, Esq., Secretary to the Palestine Exploration Fund, who has given the use of photographs of his raised Map of Palestine.

The Maps in NELSON'S BIBLE ATLAS have been specially prepared and engraved from the latest surveys.
